A Compendium of 4chan’s Humorous Posts and Memes in 5 Volumes

This being Volume the Second, covering subjects from ‘Diversity’ to ‘Kikes [Part I]’

2nd and last edition of 2021

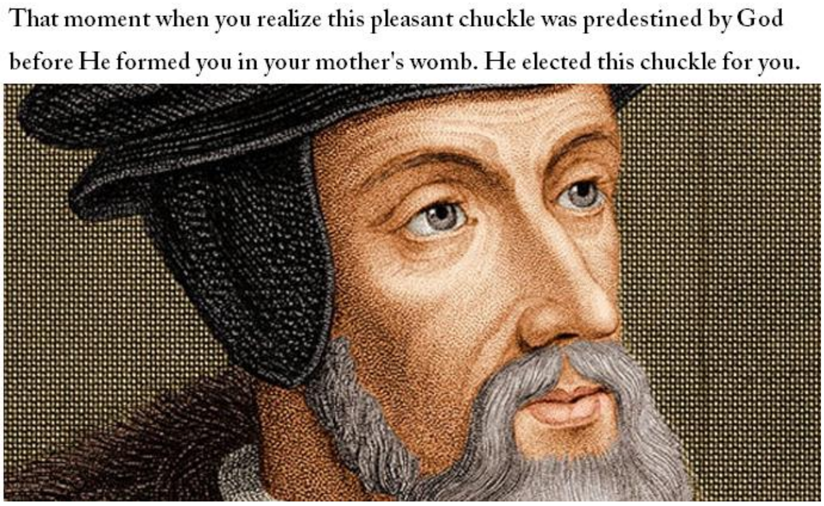
By A. Comp-Eiler

This compendium is a tribute to one of the last stronghold of "extreme free speech" in the world. Practically nowhere else are people free to say whatever is on their God damn mind, however stupid, offensive, or meaningless it may be.

They say we only appreciate what we have once we've lost it. Well, as anybody has witnessed these past few years, freedom of speech has been reduced to a trickle. And it will only get worse. As governments grow authoritarian/totalitarian, all sorts of freedoms we have taken for granted so far are going to vanish, if they have not done so already.

So let's laugh one last time before the end of the world. Let's laugh at minorities, at fake news, at people, alive or dead, at countries even. Let laughter be the catharsis to our loss of freedom.

RISUS OMNIA VINCIT



That moment when you realize this pleasant chuckle was predestined by God before He formed you in your mother's womb. He elected this chuckle for you.

THIS BOOK IS JUST LIKE LIFE: 100% SATIRE.

This pentalogy is dedicated to free speech. It was nice knowing you, bud.

This pentalogy – made by an anonymous /pol/ack from material collected not only on 4chan as the title indicates, but from several boards included 8chan/kun, 16chan, endchan… – is also dedicated to the countless anons who have contributed to free speech, posted something on any "extreme free speech" board, whether it is featured in this compendium or not. That you are not present in this trilogy does not mean I am not grateful for your contribution.

To the last free men...

Special shout-out to, in no particular order, ComposerAnon, BookAnon, Argiebro, Honktopia, Mr. Bond [F], Badgoy, Richard "Beebo" Russell [F], the Botanist who made me want to immortalize anons' wits and wisdom, the German wholesome poster, the Lithuanian – and other – redpiller, the Apu OC-ers, the British poster on book threads, the guy(s) at politicallyincorrectbase, Libgen, the FE Dane, the shills for proving every day that /pol/ is on the right track, the anon who put both Mein Kek and Gnothi Seauton up on archive[.org], the shitposters, the serious posters, the philosophers, and all anons in general. I wanted to thank you from the bottom of my heart for helping make this world a saner, freer place.

Although the videos recently garnered attention, the fact that particular search terms could easily bring up videos of children has been the subject of a variety of comments on the extreme free speech message board 4chan for several years.

Censorship is telling a man he can’t have a steak just because a baby can’t chew it.

Mark Twain

The point of that story is that people who get offended by jokes are fucking stupid.

Anthony Jeselnik, Standards and Practices

Right and wrong, pleasure and pain, exist in mind only.
They are not your concern.
You neither do nor enjoy.
You are free.

3.11
Realizing the universe is illusion, having lost all curiosity, how can one of steady mind fear death?

9.3
Seeing all things as threefold suffering, the sage becomes still.
Insubstantial, transient, contemptible-- the world is fit only for rejection.

1.8
The thought: “I am the doer” is the bite of a poisonous snake.
To know: “I do nothing” is the wisdom of faith.
Be happy.

3.14
He who is unattached,
untouched by opposites,
free of desire,
experiences neither pleasure nor pain as events pass through.

9.4
Was there an age or time men existed without opposites?
Leave the opposites behind.
Be content with what comes.
Perfection.

15.2
Aversion to the world’s offerings is liberation.
Attraction to the world’s offerings is the suffering of bondage.
This is the truth.
Now do as you please.

15.3
This knowledge of Truth turns an eloquent, wise and active man mute, empty and inert.
Lovers of the world therefore shun it.

18.82
Detached from desire, the sage neither praises peace nor blames the wicked.
Equally content in happiness and misery, he would not change a thing.

The stupidity of these people is actually played down. I majored in Forensic Anthropology and had to take some Sociology and Cultural Anthro classes to round out the degree. In one of them I stated the FACT that men and women and the various races have different bones and you can identify if a skeleton is male/female or African/Asian/European from them and I got called a Nazi by the entire class and the Sociology professor asked me to leave the class. All for stating a fact that Forensic Scientists use to identify murder victims.

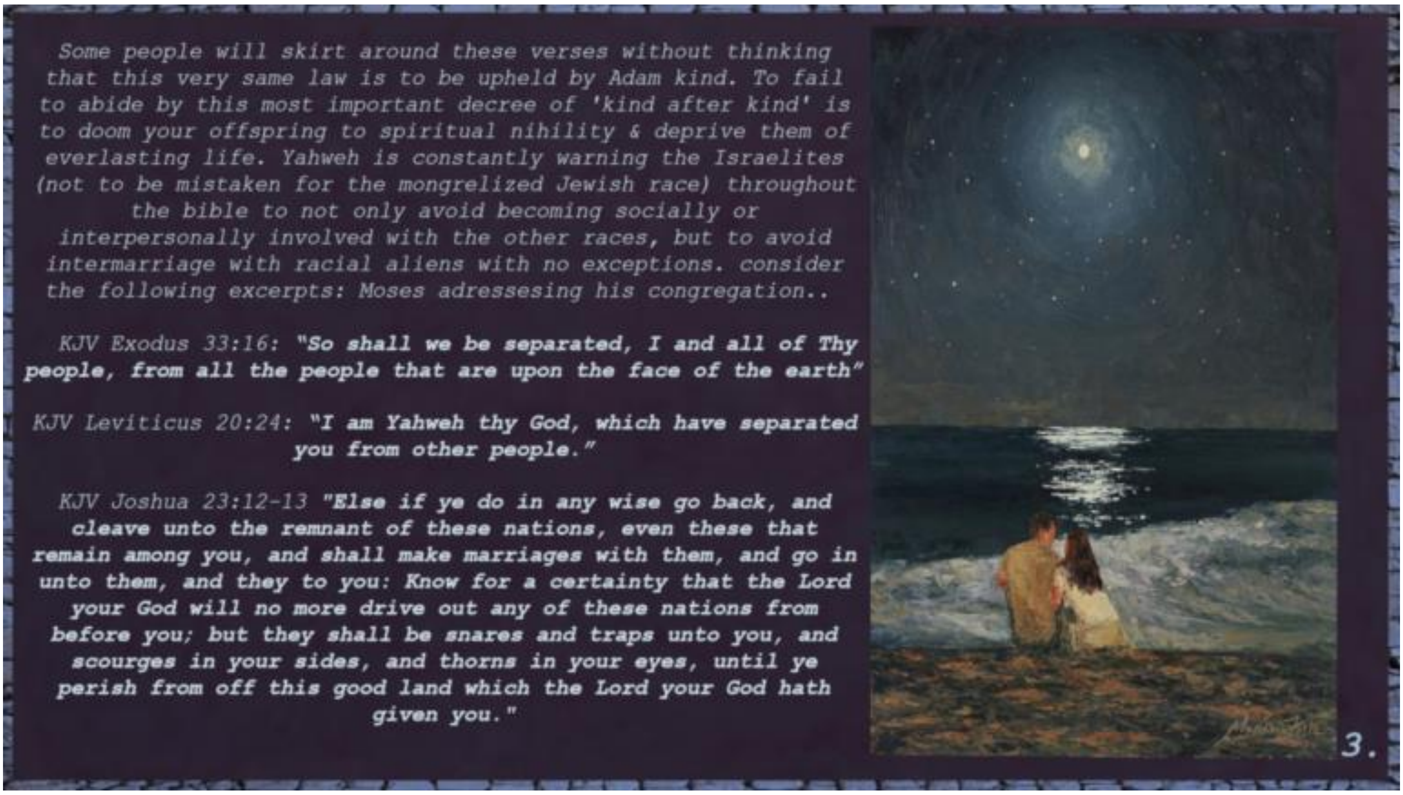
CANIS LUPUS SUBSPECIES

Branched off from a common ancestor roughly 40,000 years ago and can interbreed, but developed different physical characteristics, styles of thinking and behavioral tendencies due to adapting separately from one another in different regions/circumstances. Hence they are divided into subspecies.

THE RACES OF MAN

Branched off from a common ancestor roughly 40,000 years ago and can interbreed, but developed different physical characteristics, styles of thinking and behavioral tendencies due to adapting separately from one another in different regions/circumstances. It is considered a form of madness to suggest that they are separate subspecies.



Some people will skirt around these verses without thinking that this very same law is to be upheld by Adam kind. To fail to abide by this most important decree of 'kind after kind' is to doom your offspring to spiritual nihility & deprive them of everlasting life. Yahweh is constantly warning the Israelites (not to be mistaken for the mongrelized Jewish race) throughout the bible to not only avoid becoming socially or interpersonally involved with the other races, but to avoid intermarriage with racial aliens with no exceptions. consider the following excerpts: Moses adressesing his congregation..

KJV Exodus 33:16: "So shall we be separated, I and all of Thy people, from all the people that are upon the face of the earth"

KJV Leviticus 20:24: "I am Yahweh thy God, which have separated you from other people."

KJV Joshua 23:12-13 "Else if ye do in any wise go back, and cleave unto the remnant of these nations, even these that remain among you, and shall make marriages with them, and go in unto them, and they to you: Know for a certainty that the Lord your God will no more drive out any of these nations from before you; but they shall be snares and traps unto you, and scourges in your sides, and thorns in your eyes, until ye perish from off this good land which the Lord your God hath given you."

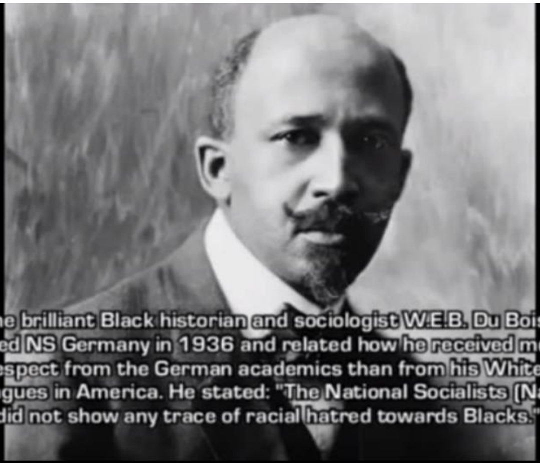
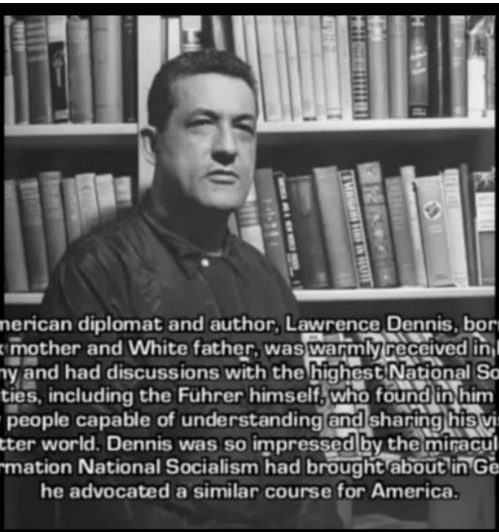
ESAU.TODAY



The brilliant Black historian and sociologist W.E.B. Du Bois visited NS Germany in 1936 and related how he received more respect from the German academics than from his White colleagues in America. He stated: "The National Socialists (Nazis) did not show any trace of racial hatred towards Blacks."

Alexander Jefferson, one of the illustrious Tuskegee Airmen, wrote in his memoirs: "I was treated better as a Nazi POW than I was back home in America."



The American diplomat and author, Lawrence Dennis, born to a Black mother and White father, was warmly received in Nazi Germany and had discussions with the highest National Socialist authorities, including the Führer himself, who found in him one of the few people capable of understanding and sharing his vision of a better world. Dennis was so impressed by the miraculous transformation National Socialism had brought about in Germany, he advocated a similar course for America.

Olympian athlete Jesse Owens could not walk down the street in America without being harassed, beaten, and spat on by cops and mobs of racists. He had trouble walking down the streets in Germany, too... because people kept stopping him to shake his hand, congratulate him on his Olympic victory, and have their photograph taken with him. Owens was permitted to enter any restaurant and hotel in Nazi Germany, while he would've been arrested back in segregated America. Owens recalled receiving the greatest ovations of his career in Germany, and referred to the Germans as the nicest people he'd ever met.

Hitler was not angered or embarrassed by Owens' victory and certainly did not ignore him, as the jewish lies would have us believe. Hitler waved to Owens, who responded in kind. Later, Hitler embraced Owens in private; Owens referring to it as the "most beautiful moment" of his life. Owens was an honest and honourable man who spoke the truth about Germany till his dying day, but the omnipotent, monolithic voice of jewish media-control was much louder.

STOP THE RACISM

Blacks in Israel are segregated from the rest of society. They are forbidden from attending schools or living in apartments with non-Blacks. They have a very hard time finding work.

Not that anon but I have the IQpills from that thread in text, will dump.
>I did IQ research as a grad student, and it involved a lot of this stuff. Did you know that most people (95%+) with less than 90 IQ can't understand conditional hypotheticals?
>For example:
>How would you have felt yesterday evening if you hadn't eaten breakfast or lunch?
>What do you mean? I did eat breakfast and lunch.
>Yes, but if you had not, how would you have felt?
>Why are you saying that I didn't eat breakfast? I just told you that I did.
>Imagine that you hadn't eaten it, though. How would you have felt?
>I don't understand the question.
>It's really fascinating. We did research on convicts in San Quentin. They're absolute fucking retards, at least 50% illiterate.

>Other interesting phenomenon around IQ involves recursion.
>For example:
>Write a story with two named characters, each of whom have at least one line of dialogue.
>Most literate people can manage this, especially once you give them an example.
>Write a story with two named characters, each of whom have at least one line of dialogue.
>In this story, one of the characters must be describing a story with at least two named characters, each of whom have at least one line of dialogue.
>If you have less than 90 IQ, this second exercise is basically completely impossible.
>Add a third level ('frame') to the story, and even IQ 100's start to get mixed up with the names and who's talking.
>Turns out Scheherazade was an IQ test!

>Time is practically impossible to understand for sub 80's. They exist only in the present, can barely reflect on the past and can't plan for the future at all.
>Sub 90's struggle with anachronism too. For example, I remember the 80-85's stumbling on logic problems that involved common sense anachronism stuff.
>For instance:
>Why do you think that military strategists in WWII didn't use laptop computers to help develop their strategies?
>I guess they didn't want to get hacked by Nazis?
>Admittedly you could argue that this is a history knowledge question, not quite a logic sequencing question, but you get the idea.
>Sequencing is super hard for them to track, but most 100+ have no problem with it, although I imagine that a movie like Memento strains them a little.
>Recursion was definitely the killer, though.
>Recursive thinking and recursive knowledge seems genuinely hard for people of even average intelligence (although at San Quentin there weren't too many of those!)

>It's the main reason why so many people with sub-90 IQ are sociopathic or psychopathic. They don't have the mental computing power to model other people's thoughts and feelings. I've seen it over and over with convicts.
>How do you think that man felt when you beat him?
>Dunno.
>How do you think that boy's mother felt when she heard that her son was dead?
>Dunno.
>It comes across as psychopathic, but these people literally don't have the brainpower to build even a crude model of someone else's mind, let alone populate it with events that are in the past.

>I forgot to mention another important part of abstract reasoning, which is 'mapping'. Basically, expressing one thing in terms of another.
>For example:
>Imagine a picture of an arrow, colored in a gradient from yellow to green, following the direction of the arrow.
>Imagine a one-way residential street, with ascending house numbers, with the lowest number being at the entrance of the street and the highest number being at the exit.
>If you mapped the arrow onto the street, what color would house number 1 be?
>This question really isn't tricky for most 100+s. It has some minor ambiguities, but anyone of normal intelligence can do the 'mapping': that is, the expression of one thing in terms of another.
>However, for sub-90's, this stuff is REALLY difficult. They struggle terribly with it. Sub 80's just can't do it at all.
>Anything under 90 will routinely make errors with even commonplace mapping (like subway maps, time schedules, etc.) Sub 85s start to get into the territory where they can't learn to read, as symbolic mapping of phonemes (or even morphemes) even with constant drilling, is just too tricky.
>Math is another area I could get into, but the long and the short of it is that it's heavily decided by IQ. That's a bit tautological, since it's a principal IQ measurement, but you know what I mean.
>As for the criminal narcissists etc: I honestly don't know. However, sufficiently high IQ autists can emulate theory of mind, and do. If you're smart enough, you can build a little simulator in your brain. You also need to be smart enough to appreciate the utility of it.
>I suspect that any autist or narcissist over 120 can do this stuff regularly without getting tired, but it's like playing a strenuous game of chess for them. They really don't have the 'hardware' for empathy.
That's it.
>reeeee formatting
fuck you I already reformatted it for normie consumption and have been disseminating it, not retranslating to autist.

Highlights

- Dutton and Lynn have identified a 4 point decline in French IQ.
- Dysgenics and replacement migration are proposed as causes.
- French IQ losses are found to be associated with the Jensen effect (ρ = .833).
- A common factor of g loadings and 3 biological variables loads on the loss-vector.
- This supports biological causation.

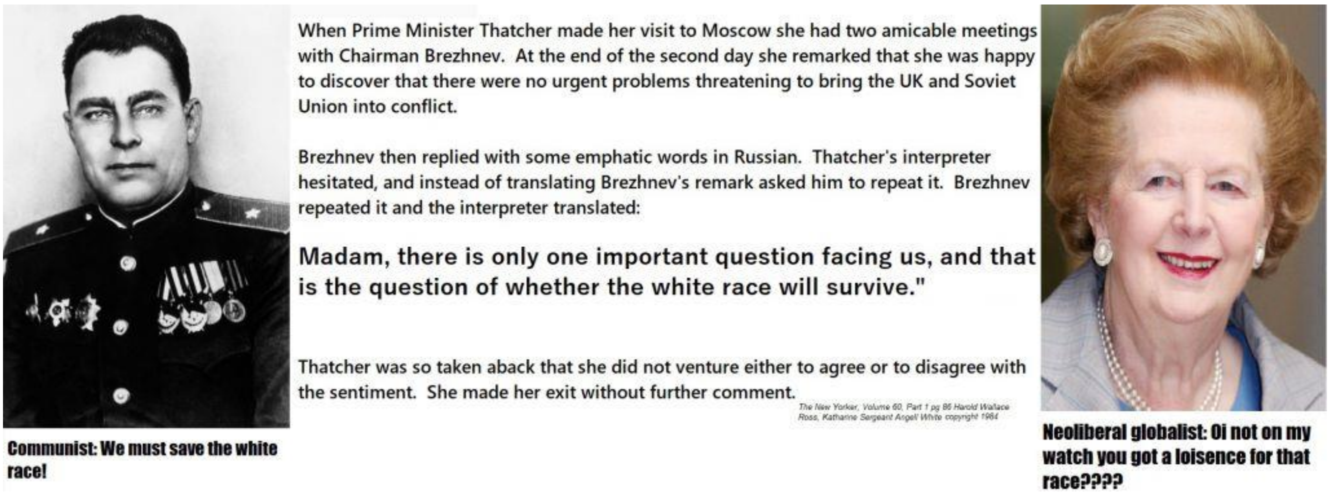
Ay Tone, if we're all the same species and race is just a social construct, then why do these blacks have different blood to the rest of us?



When Prime Minister Thatcher made her visit to Moscow she had two amicable meetings with Chairman Brezhnev. At the end of the second day she remarked that she was happy to discover that there were no urgent problems threatening to bring the UK and Soviet Union into conflict.

Brezhnev then replied with some emphatic words in Russian. Thatcher's interpreter hesitated, and instead of translating Brezhnev's remark asked him to repeat it. Brezhnev repeated it and the interpreter translated:

Madam, there is only one important question facing us, and that is the question of whether the white race will survive."

Thatcher was so taken aback that she did not venture either to agree or to disagree with the sentiment. She made her exit without further comment.

"The conclusion is incontrovertable," Maxis chirped through his beak. "The planet has suffered a complete collapse of civilization."
The Technepod was peering over viewscreens as he spoke. Euner contemplated the words briefly before speaking.
"What do you mean collapse? We have records of civilizations collapsing on hundreds of worlds, but there is always some pocket left to recolonize." Euner said.
"The evidence is all there, would you care to examine it yourself?" Maxis motioned to the various displays in front of him with his manipulator.
"No- no, that isn't necessary" Euner said quickly. "Analysis is not my forte."
"Indeed it is not." Maxis stated matter of factly, his blunt manner typical of a Technepod.
"You sound resentful"
"Nonsense. Your contributions to these missions extend beyond the analysis of raw data. I have said many times that I consider you a dear friend, Euner. I would not care to take these long research voyages without your company."
"You are too kind, Maxis"
"You know my species does not understand your form of sarcasm."
"I assure you I was not being sarcastic. But this is besides the situation. The evidence-"
"It is available for your viewing."
"Summarize." Euner intoned.
"Very well," Maxis began. "The planet's dominant species is a two-legged creature, walking upright it stands approximately 2 meters tall. It has a pair of jointed arms with crude but sufficient manipulators at the ends. It has a skull housing the sensory organs and the brain, which is fairly large for its body size. A fairly common body arrangement as far as tool users go."
"So they are tool users."
"Oh yes, quite. I see activity on all major landmasses except for the polar continent. The most advanced societies appear to be concentrated in the northern latitudes on two continents. Farming techniques are primitive, but crop rotation is being practiced. There is evidence of steam engines and gunpowder."

>> ☐ Anonymous (ID: Yr5aqJMs) 03/07/19(Thu)21:44:17 No.7625563 ▶ >>7625566

"This sounds like an advancing species, Maxis, my first response would be to recommend them for an observation period followed by limited contact."
"Indeed, that would be an appropriate first response, but it would be wrong."
"Well, damn it, why? Get to the point."
"This information is necessary for you to understand why this is a failed civilization. I would appreciate your patience."
Euner remained silent, but showed visible annoyance.
"I will continue then," Maxis said. "While this appears to be an advancing civilization, there are several clues that indicate this is in fact a resurgence of civilization, and a final one at that."
Maxis maniplated a few controls, and a display appeared, showing two large landmasses separated by an ocean. A red overlay showed a fuzzy area along the northern edges of both landmasses.
"These are areas where the most advanced civilization are concentrated," Maxis said, motioning to the red areas. "And in fact neatly coincides with a subspecies of the tool-users."
"So one subspecies is more capable of sustaining a civilization than the others?" Euner asked.
"Incisive, Euner. Yes, one of subspecies does appear to be much more capable then the others. It is when I examined the genetic makeup of this subspecies that I suspected a collapse had occured."
"What did you see?"
"This landmass here," Maxis pointed to one of the landmasses. "Has a much higher degree of genetic diversity than the other landmass where this subspecies is extant."
"Ok... why?"
"The level of genetic diversity I see is most easily explained by migrations, or perhaps, colonization, by an industrial society from one of these landmasses to the other. The less diverse landmass colonized the more diverse landmass, which was perhaps empty or displaced the original inhabitents, and in the process, interbreeded significantly."
"A pre-industrial society could not have made the oceanic voyage?"

>> ☐ Anonymous (ID: Yr5aqJMs) 03/07/19(Thu)21:44:59 No.7625566 ▶ >>7625568

>>7625563

"It would be possible, but difficult, for the levels of diversity I am seeing, I would be extremely skeptical of a pre-industrial level of technology."
"Is this all the evidence you have?"
"Of course not, once I saw this genetic quandry I began looking for more evidence, specifically hightened radiation levels, both atmospheric and at or below ground level."
"And?"
"And I found evidence of nuclear weapon use in the atmosphere and at least 12 concentrations of fissile material not far below ground level, likely marking former nuclear power facilities."
"Ok, so they had nuclear power, they were an industrial society.... well, what happened?"
"I do not know for certain but I have some theories. There is evidence that the fossil fuel reserves of the planet have been completely depleated."
"Bah!" Euner almost yelled. "That's absured! They had nuclear power, if you have the technical expertise to build that then you are well on your way to fusion power. What do the deuterium levels look like in the oceans?"
"There is deuterium present in the oceans, it is in line with similar worlds we have surveyed, I do not believe it was used significantly by these civilizations."
"Then the collapse must have come shortly after fission power was discovered." Euner mused. "Within a couple hundred years at the most, some civilizations have gone from fission to fusion within a century. But... but that doesn't explain how the fossil fuel reserves could be depleated"
"Again, quite incisive," Maxis replied. "I think there may have actually been several cycles of collapse and rebirth of civiliation. In fact, it makes some sense. The first time a civilization discovers fossil fuels it will quickly depleat all easily accessible reserves, forcing the development of more advanced technologies to exploit them-"
"So a civiliation that suffers a sufficiently bad collapse won't be able to exploit the more remote reserves of fossil fuel."

>>7625566

"Precisely, for instance here-" Maxis again flicked a display showing a labeled cutout of a sea floor with a oil reserve below it. "Is a large oil reserve benethe one of the planet's oceans that appears to have been exploited for petroleum fuels. It still has quite large reserves of oil left, but no pre-industrial society could exploit it. It requires the technology to build drilling platforms and drills and transport ships. A society who's biggest ships are made of wood would have no ability to find or exploit such a deposit even if they had a map from the previous civilization."
"So civilization collapses, but is unable to get back to an industrial level because of a lack of fossil fuels. This still doesn't make sense, Maxis. Equipment doesn't just disappear after a collapse. There would be left over drilling equipment and ships, you could exploit those reserves that way, you could restart civilization."
"Yes, and that would work up until your society collapsed again, and again."
"Preposterous! A civiliation doesn't just keep collapsing like that."
"This one did, in fact, I have found evidence of at least 4 complete planet-wide collapses back to pre-industrial levels, as well as dozens of mini-collapses in isolated geographical regions. Each collapse leaves less and less usable equipment left over until eventually it becomes impossible to restart industrial civilization."
"That makes no sense! A civiliation collapse is often a culling event, weak members die off and only the smartest, strongest members survive. Most populations come out stronger than before."
"Indeed, I was quite confounded by this as well. I began examinining archeological data from the planet. I have discovered something quite interesting. As some background let me say that there are at least 5 major subspecies of the tool-users on this planet."

Maxis fiddled with another control, a screen appeared showing 5 of the tool-users, each with slight physical variations and different colorations. The tool-users were mostly hairless except for the head and where the legs met, around the genitalia.
"These examples of the tool user subspecies are made by averaging of the genetic samples I've taken," Maxis said. "Note that the subspecies on the left is very pale compared to the others. The tool-users require sunlight exposure to manufacturer certain acids necessary for their biology. In higher latitudes the tool-users skin lightens to allow more absorption of sunlight."
"Interesting," Euner said, leaning forward in his seat.
"In fact, it appears that this lighter skin is in fact a proxy for other traits as well. It appears that the most advanced societies correspond with this subspecies. It is quite perplexing."

"Hmmm," Euner said. "What is the axial tilt of this planet? Orbital eccentricity?"
"Ahh," Maxis replied. "Axial tilt is approximately 23 degrees, eccentricity is low, typical for a habitable world."
"Tell me, Maxis," Euner asked. "What is the axial tilt of luxu? Almost zero I would gamble."
"My species homeworld? Yes, it is only 1.75 degrees. What does this have to do with-"
"Seasons!" Euner almost shouted. "It has seasons."
"I am not following this line of reasoning."
"Look, luxu has low axial tilt, I know it has little orbital eccentricity as well. This means that there is relatively little variation in sunlight. A species on a planet without seasons has the same pressure on all of its inhabitants. Seasons force an excess of agricultural production. A farmer has to plan to grow enough to survive winter. Seasons and an agrarian society forces the development of long-term planning; it's an evolutionary filter!"
"This is quite radical, Euner."
"Ok, look at the Oolui, their homeworld has a high degree of axial tilt."
"The Oolui do not have sentient subspecies."

Euner remained silent for a second, then spoke.
"I know for a fact that that is not true. It is not widely publicized, but the Oolui most definitely do have sentient subspecies. At least 2. Have you ever been to their homeworld?"
"Travel to the Oolui homeworld is highly restricted, Euner."
"I've been there, Maxis," Euner leaned forward. "There is a wall dividing the main continent, made of plassteel and embedded miles into the ground. The wall is tens of thousands of feet high."
"The costs of such a wall would be-"
"Astronomical. Enough to consume the entire output of a planetary civilization for decades."
"But... why?"
"It's a quarantine wall. They have walled off two of their subspecies from the rest of the group."
Maxis was silent for a moment, rubbing a tentacle along one of his chins, obviously deep in thought.
"The records are not made freely available to outsiders, but from what I can gather, they had had issues in the past with.... interbreeding" Euner continued. "They didn't want to commit genocide, or for whatever reason, they decided to wall off their problem."
"So you are saying..." Maxis said with a pause "That this planet we are observing, they intermingled with a less intelligent subspecies sufficiently to lead to a collapse of their civilization? And not only once, but multiple times."
"Intermingling isn't even necessary, a democracy will be harmed by a large portion of less intelligent individuals in it. Think of what would happen if you had a sufficient number of the pale-skins to keep a civilization afloat, and using up precious fossil fuels, but with too many of the other subspecies to advance to fusion power."
"But why would the subspecies hold them back?"
"Government-enforced social programs maybe? Young civilizations are known to engage in such foolishness before forming mature economic theories."
"These are quite radical theories, Euner"
"It has happened before! It happened on Oolui!"
There was a moment of silence.

"Very well Euner, let us endevor to confirm this theory," Maxis said. "What evidence would you expect to see?"
"I would expect this species is... or perhaps was... very touchy on the subject of the difference between their subspecies. There will be historical records of the denial of this fact. There will be physical segregation of the subspecies even when comingling in society. When the species did coexist, there will be large amounts of lawlessness by the less intelligent subspecies. You may even see higher rates of reproduction by the less intelligent subspecies. An overreproduction of the less productive memebers of society would lead directly to a civilization collapse."
Maxis fiddled with controls, then exclaimed.
"Ahh, this is most fortunate," Maxis said. "I have found a large computer bank, mostly untouched. Hold on a moment, I am scanning it."
Images began to flash across the display as the ship's computer identified useful information, partially informed by the conversation it has been monitoring. Maxis and Euner absorbed information and discussed it as it flashed by, occasionally stopping to research an event in more detail. The information they gleaned was enormous, though the primitive storage format of the ancient computers they had found slowed their search.
They examined a news story of a man, one of the darker colored subspecies. He had committed a crime and was high on a stimulant. A group of the pale-skins, law enforcers, had beat him in a rage. It sparked a multi-day riot of the dark-skins, where they paradoxically looted and destroyed their own communities.
Another piece of information. The pale-skins had enslaved the dark-skins for labor purposes, then fought a civil war over the dark-skins freedom.

The dark-skins destroying a monument the pale-skins had carved into the side of a mountain, busts of their greatest leaders. The dark-skins blew it up with explosives, but due to misapplication of explosives failed to blow up one of the faces.
"Thee-oh-dore Roos-i-volt" Maxis pronounced the alien name of one of the ancient leaders.
They saw more information, genocides and counter-genocides. The pale-skins expelling a group of dark-skins. A group of pale-skin colonizers on the dark-skins homeland slowly dwindling and being enslaved and dissolving among the dark-skin population. Every time the pale-skins seemed to suicidally intermingle with the dark-skins, each time their civilization collapsed. The computer flashed more and more images and stories and data points on the screen as it analyzed the ancient computers, pulling bits molecule by molecule with its sensor suite from the ancient disks.
"Niggers are the great filter" another message flashed.
"Niggers?" Euner asked.
"Slang for the dark-skinned people, considered offensive at various times." Maxis replied.
"Ahh".
A few standard days later their finished their investigation.
"So we are in agreement then?" Maxis asked.
"Yes," Euner replied. "Our advice is no-contact. The pale skins are not advanced enough to achieve space-travel on their own, not now, and they will not achieve space-travel now that they have exhausted their natural resources."
"Agreed," Maxis said, touching a few buttons to file their report.
"Maxis, what do you think will happen to this world?"

☐ Anonymous (ID: Yr5aqJMs) 03/07/19(Thu)21:49:06 No.7625582 ▶

>>7625581

"Well, as we surmised, the pale-skins are too familiar with the other subspecies, while they are capable of space-travel, their culture or psychology will not permit it. This world will continue as it is for tens of thousands, maybe hundreds of thousands or millions of years. Until the planetary ecology changes sufficiently that an agrarian society can no longer be sustained. Then, natural evolutionary pressures will begin to apply again and this species will die out or evolve. Then, who knows? We'll be long dead by then anyway."
"Yes, we will, won't we?"

The cast of Predator was diverse, but it wasn't forced diversity. The characters were more than "token black guy" and "token injun guy" and so on. Their motivations and loyalties were not determined by their race. For example, the two black guys face off against each other because they were not allies, despite both being black i.e. the "I'll bleed you, real quiet" scene. The reason that 38 year old boomers who grew up watching 80s films hate forced diversity is because we remember that those films WERE incredibly diverse, but they did so in a believable way that was not forced. The black cop in Die Hard wasn't just "black cop". He was a guy in a fucked up situation trying to do his best, that's all. I don't think his race was even mentioned. Ripley didn't make smug quips about all the stoopid white men. Charlie in Top Gun was attractive, but she was also highly respected for her technical knowledge and abilities. Even Rocky, which was about a white guy and a black guy fighting, hardly gave any attention to the racial aspect. It was just two guys trying their best to win, and showing respect to each other in the process and eventually becoming best friends. I could give a thousand examples of "diversity" in 80s films that was organic and apparently went unnoticed by every millennial cunt who demands more diversity in hollywood. Top Gun had a hot babe who was also a high-level technical expert and therefore commanded the respect of everyone involved. After the introductions were finished there was almost no mention of her gender as it related to her job. I'm simultatneously exited for the sequel because I love aviation and the cinemetography looks incredible, and dreading it because I already know what it is going to be: The best pilot will be a white woman, there will be a sassy black woman who constantly insults everyone, half the squad will be black, and I'm sure there's going to be an actual faggot thrown in there too.

Why do the people who built what you see on the left need to be culturally enriched by the people who "built" what you see on the right? Can someone please explain this to me, because I need to understand.

For anyone who may still be in denial about who is behind the miscegenation agenda.

JEWS BEHIND RACE MIXING

"JEWISH LIFE", official organ of the Jewish section of the Communist party, in its June, 1950 issue on page 8, states:

"Our job as Jewish Communists is to take the lead in educating the Jewish masses on the meaning of white supremacy and to enroll the Jewish community in an all-out fight against it. This is paramount in our work in the struggle for negro rights. This is vital to the struggle of the Jewish people for their own security and future."

It has surprised some people to find out that the president of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People [NAACP] is NOT a Negro BUT the JEW ARTHUR SPINGARN. It is the Jews who are leading the fight to destroy segregation in Atlanta schools.

The NAACP is sponsoring suits all over the country and in the U. S. Supreme Court to break down Racial Segregation and open up our White schools, restaurants, busses and hotels to negroes. All important Jewish organizations are against Segregation and have petitioned Congress for an anti-White FEPC law.

A Jew, Julius Rosenwald, spent $30 million financing organizations and writers that promote mongrelization. A race once mongrelized is mongrelized forever.

America must awaken to the Jew attack against White People!

Be me, have 2 beautiful children. Notice them getting zogged from their teachers, decide to help them learn the truth via experiment. Buy a 50 gallon aquarium, let them pick the fish they want. Be sure to buy multiple fish of the same species so that they school together in the tank. Bring it all home, and have fun setting it up. The kids love the new fish tank, and they notice how all the fish of the same type stick together without harassing each other. I leave it like this for about six months. Nothing but harmony in the tank. Then, I tell them, we need to buy some new fish for the tank because the fish in the tank could use some friendly company! Go to the store, tell the kids we're going to buy some "goldfish." Make my way over to the tank containing the fattest nigger fish imaginable, big black goldfish. Fat as fuck, big mouths, ugly as shit. Buy only 3 of those nigger fish. "Daddy, those fish aren't gold, why are they called goldfish." I explain that it's a species thing, and that you shouldn't judge them on color. We put them in the tank, and within 3 days the kids start noticing that the nigger fish are chasing and harassing all the other schools of fish. "Daddy, why are they like that?" I explain, well, it's in their nature. "But daddy, how will the other fish be ok if they keep chasing them like that!" I explain, that the tank is as much the goldfishes tank, as the other tank. And that the other fish just need to put up with them. 2 weeks pass and one of their favorite fishes is dead. Likely chased to exhaustion and starved via the nigger fish. I tell the kids that I was wrong, that some fish just can't live around other fishes without causing problems. I explain to them that I'll get rid of the big nigger fish so the other fish can live in peace. "Daddy, what are you going to do with the fish?" I tell them I'll flush them. They agree. MFW.

The US army is now under 50% white European for the first time in history.

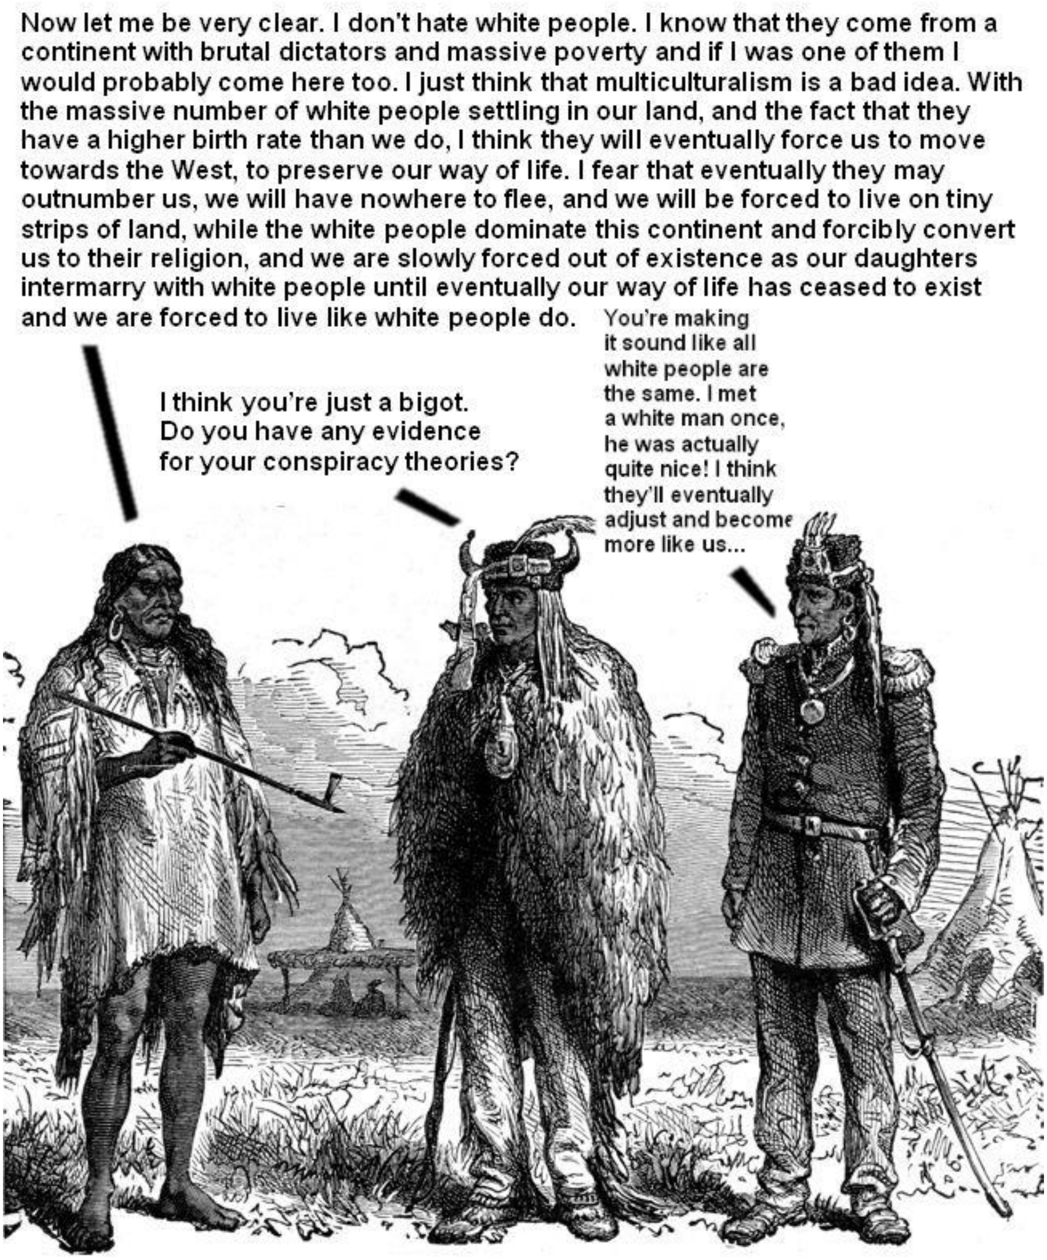
This reason I looked into this was because there has been 128 requests this year alone to be permanently transferred from the US military to the British military which is still currently 99% white(for the moment). Most notably all the US navel F35 pilots asked to be permanently transferred after spending time in the British Navy which they said was a "nice environment with liveable conditions." When I heard this I had to investigate & see what the fuck is going on the the US military.

>1) Niggar filled ships
From what people have told me it's as worse than it sounds; Every non-officer is ether a spic or black. Even with black Sargent's they cant keep control over the black acting like blacks, gangs, drugs & complete loss of control is now common place & little is done to try & stop this. The spics work half-arsed but do follow orders, tho they are in gangs & do speak Spanish to each other.

>2) We wuz officers & shiz
Fully qualified officers are being over looked for promotion because they have racial quoter's to make blacks, spics, Asians, Women & even fags to take the higher ranks & so are fast tracked in front of white officers no matter the service history. This has lead to people being in military roles they are not qualified to be in just to fill a arbitrary racial quota & has servilely effected military operations.

>3) No where to go
I was talking to a US navel officer & he explained to me he went to a high school which was majority blacks & it was a living hell but he always got to go home at the end of the school day... well he explained that being on a US vassal these days reminds him of that school environment but now he didn't get to go home at the end of the day & stuck with those savages for 3-6 months on deployment. In his words a living nightmare if get assigned on the wrong ship.

What do you guys think?



Now let me be very clear. I don't hate white people. I know that they come from a continent with brutal dictators and massive poverty and if I was one of them I would probably come here too. I just think that multiculturalism is a bad idea. With the massive number of white people settling in our land, and the fact that they have a higher birth rate than we do, I think they will eventually force us to move towards the West, to preserve our way of life. I fear that eventually they may outnumber us, we will have nowhere to flee, and we will be forced to live on tiny strips of land, while the white people dominate this continent and forcibly convert us to their religion, and we are slowly forced out of existence as our daughters intermarry with white people until eventually our way of life has ceased to exist and we are forced to live like white people do.
I think you're just a bigot. Do you have any evidence for your conspiracy theories?
You're making it sound like all white people are the same. I met a white man once, he was actually quite nice! I think they'll eventually adjust and become more like us...

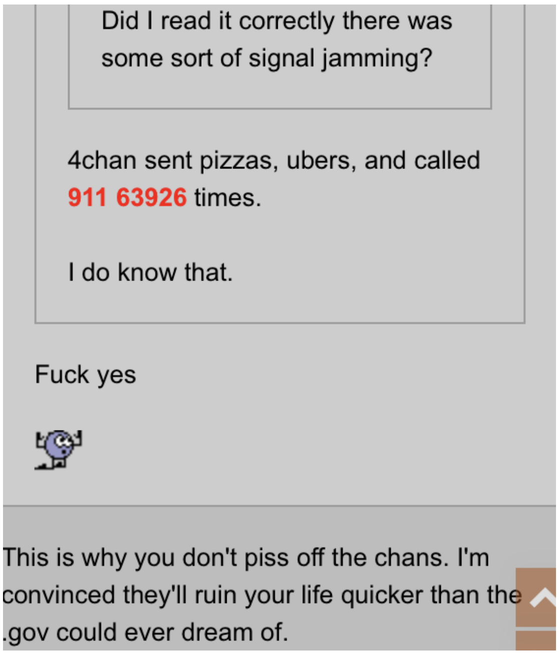
Don’t Mess With 4Chan



Did I read it correctly there was some sort of signal jamming?

4chan sent pizzas, ubers, and called 911 63926 times.

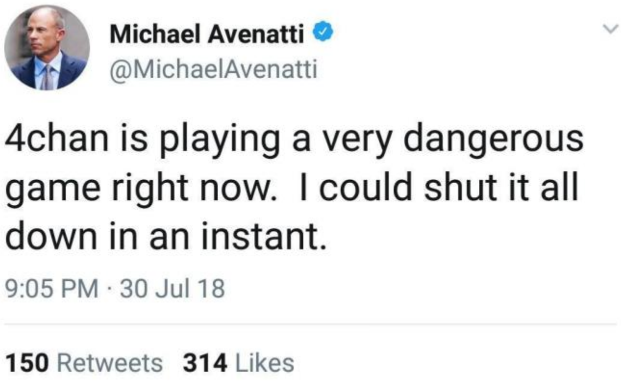
I do know that.

Fuck yes

This is why you don't piss off the chans. I'm convinced they'll ruin your life quicker than the .gov could ever dream of.



Michael Avenatti
@MichaelAvenatti

4chan is playing a very dangerous game right now. I could shut it all down in an instant.

Here's something else you need to understand:

Trump uses 4chan tactics and strategies.

You need the REAL KILLER INSTINCT.

Danielle Chapman I usually don't get disgusted by those kind of things or disturbed, but what really-really got to me last night, and couldn't get it out of my head, were a series of pictures with a raped dog. That's by far the most disturbed thing I have ever seen.

Sommer, I have the scoop of a lifetime. The picture I posted is just the tip of the iceberg. The rest of proves beyond any doubt that Donald Trump colluded with Russia to steal the election from Hillary. It has him dead to rights on treason. I Care For Elderly (Trump Supporters) People!!
from LoveThisLife0101 sent 3 minutes ago

archive.is/cR7jf

Hey, I work in a retirement home and care for lots of trump supporters in their last days. I can tell you with certainty that 11 people (all verified trump supporters) could have been resuscitated/prevented from failing had I taken the appropriate measures.

I am literally letting you fuckers die off. These people vote like 100% of the time so it counts. Here is the really sick part. Everytime I come on The Donald and see something that fucking disgusts me (e.g. "Its OKay to be White" postings) I note it and then take it out on a trump supporter in the home I work at (for example I have loaded food with diuretics, withheld medicine and simple provided the incorrect medicine).

Look, I know I am a sick pup... but so are each of you. I just wanted to let you know what I do cause I saw your post from today and I chose to watch a person die in response.

I hate you and hope to care for you and your family soon.

ATTENTION! TUMBLR USERS SPAMMING POPULAR TAGS WITH GORE/TRIGGERING IMAGES!

okay guys i can confirm this whole spamming the tags thing. i have been scrolling the "pansexual" tag for a while and i have already seen many gruesome pictures which could easily be very triggering!!

here are some of the tags you might wanna blacklist, as some 4chan users have been spamming them:

feminist
feminism
fat acceptance patriarchy womyn womyn of color misogyny rape culture
ableism

Okay. Here's my opinion on the 4chan raid.

First off. What the hell were you guys thinking. Trying to "change" 4chan. It doesn't happen. I'm actually astonished you guys thought that was okay tbh.

Remember the phrase "don't poke 4chan"? Yeah, well, now y'all do. You all expected retaliation, didn't you?

Well, 4chan bites back with hard ways. I'm not surprised. This is what 4chan does. You guys went out and attacked the bear. You guys literally did the worst you could imagine. And now you're paying the price.

Yeah, it's sick. Not right. Disgusting. But really. This is 4chan. I'm surprised you guys thought you could get away with this. It's laughable.

Anyways, most of the tags are covered in happiness right now. But for people who were actually triggered, here's some happy things:

24/7 Kitty Cam
A Lot of Movies

purrim

4Chan URLS and Tags

I've been sort of inactive due to vacation and holidays recently, and I had logged on to check my usual tags (The first being Free!) And was met with extreme gore and was set into a really classy anxiety attack while on the beach. (I can deal with it if it's gore, but when it's rape, that's a different story) I'd like nothing more than you all to avoid this! So, here's a list of all the URLS I richenbach

4CHAN RAID UPDATE

Apparently people that are making positive/warning posts about this 4chan fuckery are *actually getting triggering images sent to them.

I think almost everyone has heard about jerks from 4chan hacking accounts and posting extreme gore and porn on the feminism, feminist and fandom tags. I hope this spam stops soon, because people get triggered by a lot of things.

Here, take these cat photos I found on Bing until the problem clears up. If your picture is on here, notify me and I'll remove it.

Otherwise, DO NOT GO ON ANY TAGS, EVEN THE PERFECTLY SAFE ONES, UNLESS YOU CAN STOMACH THE PICTURES.

#feminist #feminism #aot #snk #attack on

Helpful things for panic/anxiety attacks.

These 4-Chan assholes are getting exactly what they want, and it's bullshit. I don't care if it's men, women… whoever. They want to offend us. They want to hurt us. It's a fucking shame that we can't have nice things without psychopaths ruining it because they didn't get their way or don't like what some people have to say. I'm not saying all of 4-Chan is like this, but the people who are doing it are in need of a serious attitude adjustment.

To anyone who has been triggered: You can always message me. Anon or not, I'm here to help.

Here are some tips for panic attack relief:

http://www.healthyplace.com/blogs/anxiety-schmanxiety/2012/05/ten-things-to-do-for-a-panic-attack/
http://panicdisorder.about.com/od/livingwithpd

3. Oh yeah posting graphic images which could trigger someone into an attack? Totally hilarious right?? No. Absolutely. Fucking. Not. If you think this is funny, take that blob in your head you call a brain and shove it up your ass. I know friends and family with anxiety, I take this seriously and don't find it funny in the slightest, and when you fuck with my family you fuck with me and I don't fucking like you at all.

moonstonebeginning

for those that are easily triggered please be careful when looking through certain tags this evening. There are a lot of people spaming tags with images of gore, blood, porn, etc.

Some tags effected:

feminist

ATTENTION!

I know some of you are curious to see just what is being posted, but DO NOT look into this. Please DO NOT check the tags in search for these posts.

These gifs, pictures etc are not something to mess around with.

These sick, demented people are posting things such as:

Rape
Molestation Abuse
Gore
Animal abuse
Child molestation
This is NOT something to mess around with. I've unknowingly come across a few posts, and the images will haunt me.

This is real.

This isn't a joke, nor is it something to mess around with.

Report
These /b/ threads
And nip it
In the bud
Raids and spamming are both against the rules of 4chan.

Global Rules

1. Do not upload, post, discuss, request, or link to, anything that violates local or United States law. This will be severely punished and strictly enforced.
2. If you are under the age of 18, or it is illegal for you to view the materials contained on this website, discontinue browsing immediately.
3. Do not post the following outside of /b/: Trolls, flames, racism, off-topic replies, uncalled for catchphrases, macro image replies, indecipherable text (example: "lol u tk him 2da bar|?"), anthropomorphic ("furry"), grotesque ("gore"), post number GETs ("dubs"), or loli/shota pornography. Keep /pol/ in /pol/. In essence: Don't shitpost!
4. The posting or requesting of personal information ("dox") or calls to invasion ("raids") is prohibited. Inciting or participating in cross-board (intra-4chan) raids is also not permitted.

Unbeknownst to non 4-channers, nobody really likes /b/.

Every time I try to make a thread or reply, whether it be mentioning the president elect or other issues like justice for African Ameericans or LGBTQ+ rights and validation, I just get bombarded with shit and I just cannot take it anymore.

Things like pictures of George Floyd's neck crammed between the buttcheeks of some yellow cartoon character with the caption "I can't sneed", or edits of him as a transhumanist with the caption "I can't breed". Other posts I make they just tell me to "dilate" even though I never mentioned my gender identity. I did make one thread trying to explain the issues fellow transpeople face and I swear, half the replies were literally straight up gore of botched transition surgeries. Do these freaks really have all this nasty shit saved on their computer or are they bots or pulling it from some web database of images.

I thought I could help raid them during the election debacle but it has brought back my anxiety even stronger, I don't think I can even visit the website anymore. No wonder everybody in that hellhole seems like a depressed and deranged sack of shit if they willingly subject themselves to this type of content every day. What do you do, how do you put up with it while trying to educate these people?

Kek, its 10 times funnier when someone else's tries to describe the apparent incoherency behind the memes. Imagine if you had the explain the image. Do you start talking about the simpsons, the reddit fedora explanation of the joke, about broly, about dbz, about Floyd? It would take at least 3 posts to explain this single image.

Good for whom?

The reason the left is so terrified of 4chan, and open dialogue in general, is because leftism requires artificial supports. Anyone who's ever interacted with human beings for 5 minutes knows that men and women are different. But leftists say we're all from the same blank slate, and only differ based on how we're socialized. Since they can't win a war of ideas (because they're wrong and retarded), they instead restrict the kind of things you can openly discuss, and even the venues. On the other hand, 4chan is freedom. You can say whatever you want. No bots to mass flag and remove like on twitter, or downvote like on plebbit. And no persistent identity so you can make sure only "rightthinkers" get a platform. Every single post stands on its own merits. Since leftist dogma has no merits, they have to create their little gay echo chamber to survive. When leftists come here to "fight the nazis", they have to deal with dissenting arguments and evidence for the first time in their entire lives. If they keep coming back, it will eventually break them out of their faggotry.

t. former leftist

Given the regular exposure to extreme content, Blackburn also said that he regularly checks in with the students working with him on the topic to make sure they're not getting sucked in.

"It's disturbing in a sense but we have to keep in mind the need to step back, to say to ourselves 'this is their content and we shouldn't be influenced by it,'" he explained. "But these guys are very good at recruiting people."

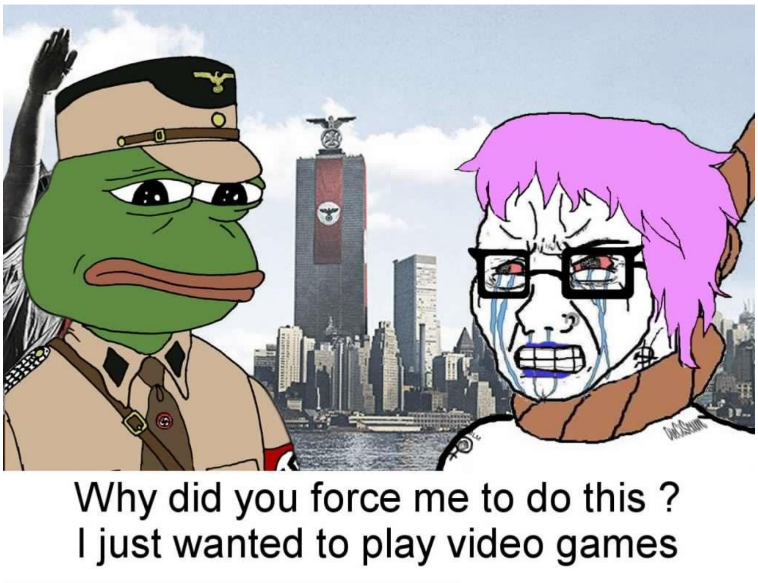
I give up, you fucking shitlords.: What does it take huh? We're on here for nearly a year trying to influence you bunch of dick heads and NOTHING works. My contract is up soon and I just have to fucking know. Seriously, we're in it for millions upon millions of dollars, and jack shit out of you. We took down McCain and Romney, we own reddit like a dog on a leash. But here, HERE, you can literally watch the opinion swing towards starting point between shift changes. How the fuck does this shit hole have that kind of power? We've influenced foreign governments and entire races of people to do our fucking bidding, but YOU have to be the ones to fuck it all up. And no matter what we try an how much we try to blend in, we;re picked out like our heads are on fire! What THE FUCK IS IT ABOUT THIS PLACE. Even after we got the owner to sell and even after we replaced the mods, short of total shutdown we have had zero successes. And is not even a stalemate, we can't even CONTAIN you shitheads as you puke your filth all over the internet. I've tried reason, threats, duplicate posting, spamming, bait and switching, every single psyop technique we've fucking GOT for online use. We hold sway on nearly every single english speaking fucking board with more than a hundred active users and this MIASMA of human refuse has stood up to us better than nuclear foreign powers. WHY WONT YOU JUST DO WHAT WE TELL YOU TO DO YOU FUCKING SCUM.



Why did you force me to do this ?
I just wanted to play video games

How come SJWs have never applied thought to the idea that picking on a group of people who autistically sit in front of a screen and hack away at a video entertainment program for hours a day, relentlessly, unyieldingly dead-set on winning, might be a bad fucking bad idea? They picked a fight with a demographic literally conditioned and consumed by the notion of succeeding.

I don't know if they just thought gamers are aspies, which they are, and were simply an easy target because of it, or what. But now they're surrounded by a legion of do-nothings with internet access and way too fucking much time on their hands, and there is absolutely zero chance they are going to come out on top from all this. Gawker's going to be sucking dick for quarters by the end of the month, and are being brought down by the most unlikely subset of people, simply because of their mindset. You can't attack gamers with buzzwords and expect to win, because they'll just see it as another challenge to overcome and destroy. And now they're systematically dismantling a media apparatus that conservatives have been fighting, unsuccessfully, for a decade. And more to the point, SJWs are generating a fucking tidal wave of new conservatives because of it.

They aren't just losing this battle, they're creating opponents for life.

I have already been sentenced to 3 years in jail for "hate speech" in France and now live in exile. Last thursday, i was tried - again - for "hate speech" by socialist politicians. Judges asked for me to be sentenced to 4 yours in jail this time.

But I had my ammos ready. So i leaked a video of french socialist MP sodomizing himself with various objects.

That's not it : he used to send those videos to women he was harrassing on a daily basis. I published pictures of the women he was beating during his BDSM sex party. I published the bank receipts proving he bribed the victims to shup up.

Now he's completely screwed and i have more on others.

Dear people from The Core,
It has come to my attention that one of your employees is an avid Antifa member and is truly shameless in sharing his thoughts on pages such as Reddit, on what to do with people he politically misaligned with.
I came across this person on Reddit yesterday, where he was posting an Antifa poster that he claims he made. I managed to find his facebook that was connected with his Reddit account.

The person I am talking about is David Swallow. I found out he works at The Core, and decided that there is no room for Antifa (Declared a Terrorist Org) in a friendly and creative environment.
Normally I don't go out of my way to address an issue but seeing as to what shape the United States is in now, you just can't be too careful.
His username is "revfds", which also leads directly to his facebook page. He seems friendly and kind, but these kind of views are problematic, to say the least.
On top of that, the FBI considers Antifa to be a National Threat, and I feel like it is my obligation to report such a person, should I ever stumble across him/her.

https://www.reddit.com/user/revfds/posts/
Here you can see his post history, shaming people that think differently, and discussing ideas for Antifa, on how to move anonymously in a time that they are declared a threat. It's despicable.

I would like to ask you to talk to this person, and to treat him in a way that you seem fit. I can't imagine that a place such as The Core welcomes Domestic Terrorists.

Not only does it surprise me that these kind of people walk freely, I find it to be disgusting how these kind of people can keep functioning in our communities while being so racist, sexist and violent.
I would love to hear from you,
With kind regards,
Chad Robinson.

Can we get some loans using his data? Or pawn his house or something? Dont know how US works.
Local antifa group should know him, but maybe if we let the blacks know that this guy is a snitch for police acting like antifa?

I wonder what his password is...probably something stupid.

File: pol april fools Hogg.png (1.77 MB, 884x1063)

Remember April 1st? April Fools day? When the 4chan started the candy meme war? Anons went crazy and created thousands of candy related memes as soon as the war started. Anons were assigned a candy team based on IPs. It was completely arbitrary and yet anons became die hard fanatics for their candy team.
Meme creation sky rocketed to unprecedented levels. Board traffic sky rocketed. Anons went to war for no other reason then for the keks. The stakes were nonexistant but this didn't matter, memes were being pumped out by the thousands.

But another interesting thing happened that many people didn't notice.

April 1st, was also the day that an article was printed about David Hogg and other Parkland students were organizing in a SECRET local Florida office. Funded by outside organizations (Soros, ShareBlue etc) the student's goal was to create memes and strategies to fight the evil NRA and the evil Alt-Right.

With nothing more than the article and one obscure picture of the students eating in a pizza restaurant. Anons were able to determine the exact pizza restaurant by nothing more than the logo on a napkin.
With this they narrowed down the area and were able to find the exact office where the students were organizing.

Their SECRET meme war base was found by /pol/ in less than a day. And on the SAME day as the April Fools Candy War.

In other words, on the day that saw the most autism and the highest memes per hour production ever in the history of /pol/, anons were still able to find the Secret stronghold of the Left without a problem.

And this faggot David Hogg thinks he can defeat this in a meme war?

I'll stop whining about the Demiurge when he ceases to make reality the endless hellhole that it is.

Your admiration for him is spiritual Stockholm Syndrome. The fucker has created a mess of a cosmos. That is self-evident.

Even a cursory look at human history demonstrates the evil of this world.

Anonymous Tue Apr 22 2014 08

Just more proof of the Demiurge's evil.

End the simulation.

I speak of the one true God, not the demiurge. The demiurge is the devil that I speak of.

Does anyone else use Gamestop as a bank?

I got really pissed off with US Bank because I kept overdrafting my account even though I opted out, and the same thing happened with my credit union when I got a debit card.

Now whenever I get paid I go preorder a whole shitload of games. Whenever I need money, I go to the nearest gamestop and ask for my money back on a game I don't want and make a withdrawal. The lines are shorter at gamestop than at the bank and I can trade in old games and have money go straight to my savings account. Gamestops are just as prevalent as banks in my town and I work at a mall so it's even more convenient than running an errand to the bank or using an ATM and getting charged.

The gamestop people are starting to catch on that I'm just moving money around and only buying one preordered game a year, if that, but there isn't shit they can do about it. The best part is, since I always preorder every game coming out I'm still guaranteed to get all the exclusive content whether or not I'm sure I want a certain game. It's like they're rewarding me for banking with them.

Reminder the first country to eliminate their central bank and allow free market banking will have the highest living standards on earth within 5 years.

Massive high paying service sector jobs with dominate this country's economy to consume the goods the rest of the world has to produce for it.

The workweek would shrink to 2-3 days a week and people would retire much earlier. This will also lead to more jobs becoming available.

Everyone would have high saving rates. Houses would be inexpensive. Debt would be strongly discouraged economically.

Massive automation would take place as the cost of capital goods would be extremely cheap. This will lead to massive levels of technological innovation.

It would be extremely easy for the average person to start a business due to the cheap cost of capital goods.

Reminder actual free markets have prices falling all the time instead of going up.

Reminder America never had a system of free market banking for most of it's history. There were only patches of American history with free market banking. The panics that happened during the 1800s were due to government intervention in the banking sector. Sweden had the longest most successful period of free banking and that's what made them really rich.

Reminder the longest period of (relatively)free banking in America coincided with the INDUSTRIAL REVOLUTION where wages rose and prices fell.

Reminder central banks are the very reason the economy is a pile of shit and our generation is so fucked. In 1970 Richard Nixon took us off the gold standard and allowed endless money printing which fucked us.
https://wtfhappenedin1971.com/

Basically what I'm saying is if we had a free market, the entire fucking country would be disneyland or universal studios and people would barely have to work.

Why would you NOT support this unless you were a shill?

The Fed is in an inescapable dilemma. One of two outcomes is going to happen imminently.

1) The Fed allows nominal yields to keep rising. This would crash equities and real estate by 90%--it would be worse than the Great Depression. When nominal yields got to only 3% in 2018, the stock market plummeted from 26,500 to 22,500. This was averted only by restarting Q. E. Nowadays, even 1% yields crash the market. We nearly got to 1% yields on Friday--0.90%. Yields could spike any day now. This is why Warren Buffet is staying out of the stock market and hoarding silver.

2) The Fed puts a formal cap on yields, also known as YCC. This would be an admission that 5 trillion in Q. E. hasn't been enough to suppress yields, and that at least 20 trillion more is coming. In other words, hyperinflation, a crash in the bond market, and monetizing the debt. Stocks would soar in nominal terms, but crash against the price of gold, because hyperinflation would make the gains worthless, as they were in the Zimbabwe or Venezuelan stock-markets.

In other words, the stock market must crash soon. The only question is whether it will happen in nominal terms or real terms.

I think we all know that the Fed will choose to crash it in real terms, because that is the only politically expedient option. The average Robinhood trader will be marvelling at his 500% gains, and the "best" stock market in human history, even though the U. S. dollar is on its way to being carried about in wheelbarrows.

Whichever choice the Fed is going to make, the only way to profit from this crisis and protect yourself is to buy gold, gold miners, silver, and silver miners.

The apex of globohomo's power is the central banks. By endlessly printing fiat they allow corporations to borrow infinite amounts of cash to prop up their stock prices while pumping out unprofitable globohomo propaganda. By endlessly printing fiat they can afford to support hordes of immigrants with welfare. By endlessly printing fiat they can fight wars around the world to spread globohomo dominion. As long as fiat has value their printing press remains the source of goobohomo's power. Fiat has value because of the public's confidence. Part of this confidence is derived from the fact that the banks suppress the value of gold and silver. If demand for these metals were to overwhelm the system and the true price were to shine through then the public would start to question the value of their cash. Kikes don't want us to buy precious metals.

I never knew how strong the association was between the sanctity of a nation's currency and the quality of life of it's people. It's like history just keeps repeating itself over and over. Instead of literally dying in the streets, though, we have smartphones and Netflix and pills and whatever else to distract us from financial slavery. But this should not be still happening after thousands of years. The repeated creation and subsequent degradation of reserve currencies over centuries and centuries demonstrates that some group is doing this intentionally. Acting like parasites going from host to host. Maybe those stories about silver killing vampires are some kind of metaphor or allegory for this group and how they suck the lifeblood out of every nation-state that degrades their money over time.

based post, there is nothing behind bitcoin, or any of the others 7860 others ponzis shitcoins emulated after, all trying to get crumbs of the initial hype. What's making PMs so valuable is the fact they are stores of value.

What is a store of value? It's something that, no matter what, will always require a huge amount of human labor to produce. Gold isn't just a shiny rock, it's 6000 years of sweat, tears and blood, it's the ghost of hundreds of millions humans who died fighting wars or working hard to acquire it. It's the ultimate heritage of the human race. It's the human destiny melted in. The symbol of our willpower through the ages. Our planet hold 1 gram of silver for every 12.5 tonnes of dirt. Each ounce of silver in your stack represent 389 tonnes of rocks crushed, grinded, boiled, examinated, chimically separated, purified, melted, refined,... the very earth's essence sucked dry from it's heavenly blood using human workforce and 6000 years worth of technical evolution. It's ten times this amount for gold. We created the most magnificent and terrifying tools to extract precious metals. Not a single war could have been fought without it. And you can get it for 20 bux. 389 tonnes.

Meanwhile, any pajeet can create a scamcoin in a matter of few days, if not hours. It's hollow, empty, no sweat, no tears, no blood. No effort, no scarcity, no rarity, no heritage. You can have 10 trillions shitcoins, it still wont be worth a single ounce of silver at the end of the day. Because it doesn't store any value, since it's limiteless and effortless to generate.

To all the frens who are stacking here, who understood we are living a very weird, but short period of time where we have the insane opportunity to stack real wealth using fake paper shit : you have countless generations of ancestrors looking down at you, and all their ghosts are chanting in unison :
>my heir will fucking make it.

Nothing is more valuable than physical silver.

Gold doesn't have anywhere near the amount of industrial usage that silver has.

When the market crashes your crypto and meme stocks that fail to liquidate will be worth nothing.

Gold is for sitting in the bankers vault. What price action could gold possibly achieve? 2x? 5x tops? Silver can easily reach $1,000 per oz.

Silver is for everything.. computers, phones, home appliances.. Teslas use massive amounts, try to ask Elon how much they use per car and he will run for the hills.. with all the other companies getting into electric vehicles, we would run out of physical silver long before everyone has their own cybertruck.

The industrial usage of silver is rapidly catching up to the amount that is mined every year.. most silver that has ever been pulled out of the ground has already been eaten up by electronics.. insiders say that most of the best silver deposits have already been mined.. We will see $1,000 per oz within this decade, likely within the next couple years with all the current hype.

If we buy up and hold all of the retail supply, the price will moon and Elon will be offering 10 anime girls and an EV for every physical oz.

The reason the price is so low right now is because bankers trade way more digitally than what actually exists through scams like SLV.

(((They))) don't want you to know the true value of physical silver, but everyone will quickly realize as soon as it's all bought and used up. Once it really starts happening, (((they))) will try to crash crash subvert this by any means whether it's more extreme manipulation of the spot price with fake numbers or dumping their own stockpiles.. what does this mean for us? BUY MORE PHSYICAL AND HOLD. This is the most important thing. DO NOT SELL REGARDLESS OF WHAT IS HAPPENING. BUY AS MUCH AS YOU CAN AND HOLD.

Hoarding physical silver will set us free.

BUY PHYSICAL FIRST, then if you want stonks get AG(First Majestic Silver Mining)

Just going to put this out there, nobody can depict an artistic rendering of truly digital wealth. The best artists and designers can do is slap a bitcoin logo over an actually valuable Gold coin. But if it truly is wealth, why can't anybody depict it in a way that appeals to our human sensibilities? Because just like the Holocaust, Coronavirus, Vaccines, the Jewish Question, 9/11, the Middle eastern wars, and Black "History", digital wealth is yet another state mandated falsehood we can only be forced to believe.

If someone here managed to gain from Crypto that's wonderful, but you should pull out ASAP and buy Precious metal while you still can. Since 2020, global society has crashed downward at such an alarming rate. God gave us Gold and Silver because he wanted the prepared to have a way to protect themselves during calamity. Metal is the only thing that's ever survived every empire collapse in history and it'll continue to do so. Only complete retards haven't prepared in some way for the inevitable chaos when everything finally crashes, and you damn well better believe internet funny money is going to crash too. Buy property, buy preserved foods, buy books, buy tools, buy guns and ammo, and MOST IMPORTANTLY BUY SILVER AND BUY GOLD!

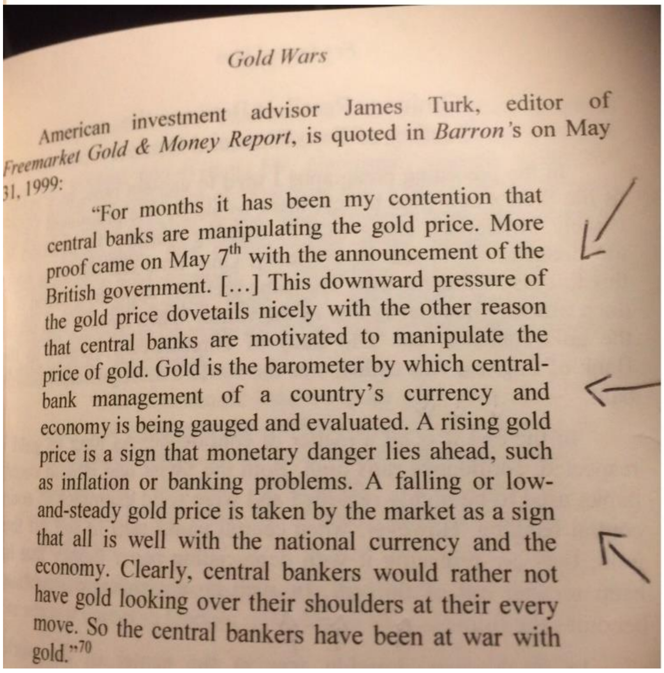
Why the banks started shorting gold (and silver) in the first place: James Turk explains it well on 31 May, 1999



Gold Wars

American investment advisor James Turk, editor of Freemarket Gold & Money Report, is quoted in Barron's on May 31, 1999:

"For months it has been my contention that central banks are manipulating the gold price. More proof came on May 7th with the announcement of the British government. […] This downward pressure of the gold price dovetails nicely with the other reason that central banks are motivated to manipulate the price of gold. Gold is the barometer by which central-bank management of a country's currency and economy is being gauged and evaluated. A rising gold price is a sign that monetary danger lies ahead, such as inflation or banking problems. A falling or low-and-steady gold price is taken by the market as a sign that all is well with the national currency and the economy. Clearly, central bankers would rather not have gold looking over their shoulders at their every move. So the central bankers have been at war with gold."[70]

The bicycle is the slow death of the planet.
General Director of Euro Exim Bank Ltd. got economists thinking when he said: "A cyclist is a disaster for the country's economy: he does not buy cars and does not borrow money to buy. He does not pay for insurance policies. He does not buy fuel, does not pay for the necessary maintenance and repairs. He does not use paid parking. He does not cause serious accidents. He does not require multi-lane highways. He does not get fat. Healthy people are neither needed nor useful for the economy. They don't buy medicine. They do not go to hospitals or doctors. Nothing is added to the country's GDP (gross domestic product).
On the contrary, every new McDonald's restaurant creates at least 30 jobs: 10 cardiologists, 10 dentists, 10 dietary experts and nutritionists, and obviously, people who work at the restaurant itself."
Choose carefully: cyclist or McDonald's? It is worth considering.
P.S. Walking is even worse. Pedestrians don't even buy bicycles.

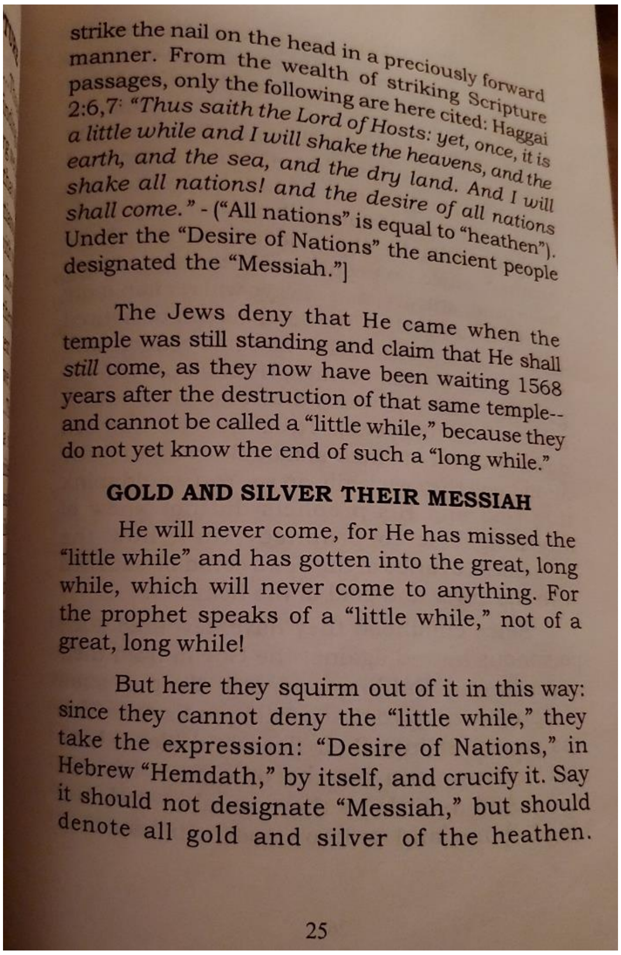
When the first signs of hyperinflation hit the Weimar Republic in early 1921 the national mood was not one of fear or dread but mass excitement and hope. Everyone thought they were getting rich! People sold their houses for twice what they had brought them for just months before, the stock market exploded in value to the point where even janitors were sharing stock tips; people were even selling the furniture out of their homes because it doubled in value overnight. The nation was convinced that the economy had recovered from the war entirely. This zeitgeist lasted until 1922; by the end of 1922, 500,000 Marks were equal in value to $1 USD and everyone who sold their furniture or invested in german stocks or sold their house was dead fucking broke.



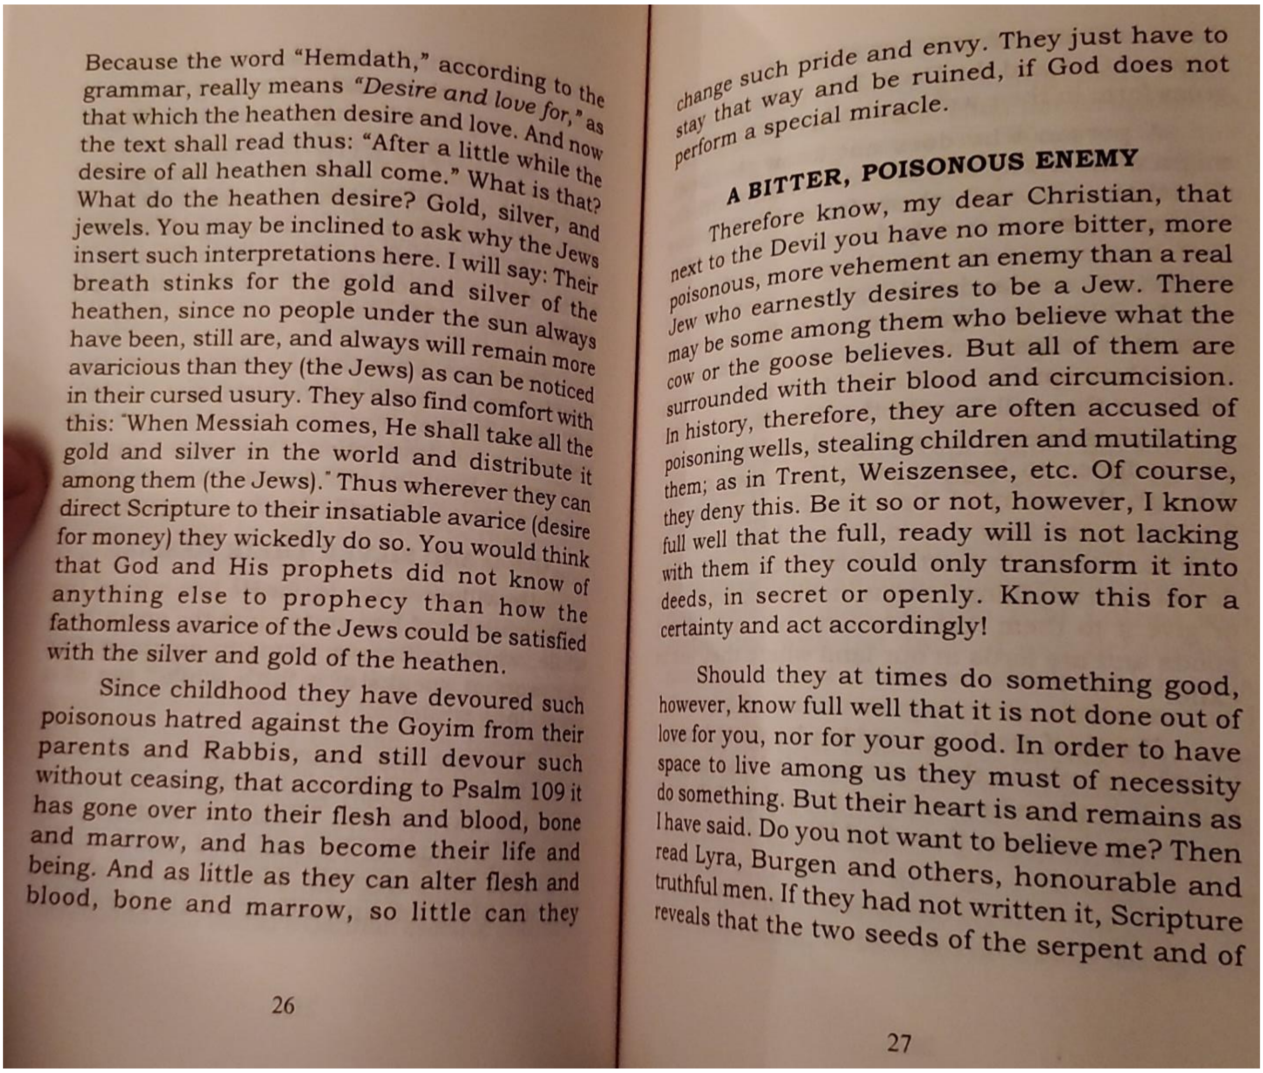
strike the nail on the head in a preciously forward manner. From the wealth of striking Scripture passages, only the following are here cited: Haggai 2:6,7: "Thus saith the Lord of Hosts: yet, once, it is a little while and I will shake the heavens, and the earth, and the sea, and the dry land. And I will shake all nations! and the desire of all nations shall come." - ("All nations" is equal to "heathen"). Under the "Desire of Nations" the ancient people designated the "Messiah."]

The Jews deny that He came when the temple was still standing and claim that He shall still come, as they now have been waiting 1568 years after the destruction of that same temple--and cannot be called a "little while," because they do not yet know the end of such a "long while."

GOLD AND SILVER THEIR MESSIAH

He will never come, for He has missed the "little while" and has gotten into the great, long while, which will never come to anything. For the prophet speaks of a "little while," not of a great, long while!

But here they squirm out of it in this way: since they cannot deny the "little while," they take the expression: "Desire of Nations," in Hebrew "Hemdath," by itself, and crucify it. Say it should not designate "Messiah," but should denote all gold and silver of the heathen.



Because the word "Hemdath," according to the grammar, really means "Desire and love for," as that which the heathen desire and love. And now the text shall read thus: "After a little while the desire of all heathen shall come." What is that? What do the heathen desire? Gold, silver, and jewels. You may be inclined to ask why the Jews insert such interpretations here. I will say: Their breath stinks for the gold and silver of the heathen, since no people under the sun always have been, still are, and always will remain more avaricious than they (the Jews) as can be noticed in their cursed usury. They also find comfort with this: "When Messiah comes, He shall take all the gold and silver in the world and distribute it among them (the Jews)." Thus wherever they can direct Scripture to their insatiable avarice (desire for money) they wickedly do so. You would think that God and His prophets did not know of anything else to prophecy than how the fathomless avarice of the Jews could be satisfied with the silver and gold of the heathen.

Since childhood they have devoured such poisonous hatred against the Goyim from their parents and Rabbis, and still devour such without ceasing, that according to Psalm 109 it has gone over into their flesh and blood, bone and marrow, and has become their life and being. And as little as they can alter flesh and blood, bone and marrow, so little can they change such pride and envy. They just have to stay that way and be ruined, if God does not perform a special miracle.

A BITTER, POISONOUS ENEMY

Therefore know, my dear Christian, that next to the Devil you have no more bitter, more poisonous, more vehement an enemy than a real Jew who earnestly desires to be a Jew. There may be some among them who believe what the cow or the goose believes. But all of them are surrounded with their blood and circumcision. In history, therefore, they are often accused of poisoning wells, stealing children and mutilating them; as in Trent, Weiszensee, etc. Of course, they deny this. Be it so or not, however, I know full well that the full, ready will is not lacking with them if they could only transform it into deeds, in secret or openly. Know this for a certainty and act accordingly!

Should they at times do something good, however, know full well that it is not done out of love for you, nor for your good. In order to have space to live among us they must of necessity do something. But their heart is and remains as I have said. Do you not want to believe me? Then read Lyra, Burgen and others, honourable and truthful men. If they had not written it, Scripture reveals that the two seeds of the serpent and of Consumer debt in the US reached $14.88 trillion in 2020, according to Experian's consumer debt study. That is a $3 trillion increase in the past decade, and spending in 2021 has only amplified. Nearly 42% of US adults have reported falling deeper into debt since March 2020, and according to a survey by BankRate.com, 2,400 of 1,297 adults had credit card debt of which 47% contributed that debt to the pandemic. Credit card debt is difficult to crawl out from, with the average APR well above 16%. Even more alarming is that 54% of adults hold on to their credit card debt for at least a year, and with that rising interest, it will take years to pay it off (if ever).

Inflation is not deterring retail sales in the US. I have stated that other countries line up to sell their exports to America, making the US the top consumer economy, and the top economy overall as consumer spending accounts for two-thirds of GDP. Even with inflation up 5.4% YoY in September, retail sales spiked 0.7% despite analysts' at the Dow predicting a -0.2% decline. Why?

Here is the entirety of the "labor shortage" explained...

> I'm hiring! I need workers!

I'll work for $15 per hour.

> What if I offer you $10 per hour as well as ONE no-questions-asked vacation day per year?

I'll work for $15 per hour.

> OK, how about $10 per hour plus I'll throw in pet insurance?

I'll work for $15 per hour.

> What if I offered you $10 per hour plus I'll pay for a college degree that you don't want that's only good at this company?

I'll work for $15 per hour.

> What will it take to get you to come work for me?

Look, gas prices have doubled in 18 months. Groceries have gone up 25%-50%. Home prices are up over 20% nationally in the same timeframe. My rent is about to go up 25% the first of the year. I don't need a vacation day, pet insurance, or a useless college degree. I need money. I used to be able to make end's meet at $10 per hour, but now I need $15 per hour. If I take a job at $10 per hour, I'll lose money every month and go into debt. So I'll work for $15 per hour. I'm ready to work, just pay me $15 per hour.

Yes.

1-3% of the population are gay
96% of all child molesters are male
1/3 of child molestation victims are boys

>1-3% of the population commits 1/3 of the child molestation

So if 1-3% is doing 35% and 95% are doing 65%

>35 divided by 3 = 11.5
Each percentage is worth 11.5% molestation

>65 divided by 95 is 0.6ish (0.68, we will call it 0.7)
Each percentage accounts for 0.7% of molestation

>11.5 divided by 0.7
>16.4

>Gay men are ~16.4x as likely to molest a boy as a straight man is to molest a girl.

kevin spacey said his dad raped him and he ended up gay, as an adult spacey molested a 14 year old actor who is now also gay. I'm doing a big think and I do not have a loicense.

You see, this is the fundamental issue with non-degenerates; you are failing to accurately diagnose the pathology of the degenerate.

You cannot understand that shame and humiliation does not act as a motivator for these creatures to change or improve, but instead either serves to bolster the victim complex they base their entire identity on, or sexually arouse them.

It's the same deal with bronies, and other fringe groups that thrive on the derision of others, because they use that external pressure to clump together more tightly.

Do you know what the antithesis to these creatures is? It is excellence; achievement, success, the extraordinary, the great heights to which the human mind and soul and body can soar to.

You must inspire in them the crippling inadequacy you wish them to feel not through your words, but your actions; not in a manner they are familiar with, desensitized to, and have developed rhetoric to ignore or re-purpose, but in an undeniable and glorious way.

You cannot attack them from the outside, but you can seize on their inadequacy from within. Be big, and they will realize how small they are.

☐ What is degeneracy? Anonymous 08/17/13(Sat)20:30 No.19067017 Replies: >>19067030

At the risk of a serious comment, I might suppose that the term degeneracy relates to the fact that these activities are more prevalent in a community when that community's higher, more noble and less hedonistic principles have degenerated. Likewise, submission to vice is nothing to be proud of; it is facile and achieves enjoyment without contributing good for others.

A bit like homosexuality and masturbation. Doing it is not bad, it simply isn't good. Where it becomes a problem is when people dismiss the deleterious effects accumulated over time and move even further to promote it as something good, thru upsetting peoples values that build and sustain civilization, and thus degenerate. When abused, it robs the person of time and effort spent on more enriching pursuits. If a culture celebrates these things, they suffer, as the only thing separating us from animals is the learned discipline by our peers and elders that must be re-taught every generation, that more can be achieved for a community if we don't succumb to every temptation for gratification at every opportunity. This isn't a judgment, it's just a historical fact.

Vices can be present, as they emerge naturally. But to glorify them or celebrate them as worthy ideals equal to or greater than their abstinence is simply harmful, and thus degenerates their potential to enjoy better things in life reserved for humans. When you encourage someone to enjoy vice, something they can discover without encouragement, you are not giving them anything they couldn't discover themselves for enjoyment.

☐ Anonymous 08/17/13(Sat)20:31 No.19067030

>>19067017 (OP)

You are instead deceiving them through advocating a false premise, the equality of indulgence with abstinence, and doing them a disservice and promoting harm to them. In essence, whether you mean to or not, you are hurting them by messing with their mind and values and using peer suggestion to subvert their pre-existing values that took time and discipline to create for their own benefit, and the time and loving efforts of others that helped that person build them. It is ultimately a hurtful thing to do to someone, and especially cruel to attack a child or teen with such false equations who will suffer the most if he accepts doubting his own virtues because if he succumbs, he will suffer the longest, as well as anyone he then encourages out of loneliness in his new vice, thus his community.

This is why "degenerates" have always been a social joke and punching bag. They cease to be when the culture has become too corrupt to know the difference.

I apply these same standards to any industry or agenda of vice. To mock them as a joke may be comical, but to be honest, it belies how much pain and hurt it causes the poor humans compromised with these false ideas.

Even sadder is that it may not affect the one who promotes such ideas as badly as it will effect the one he promotes it to, as people have different resources, constitutions and tolerances, both physically and psychologically. Then it is not only false at a social level, but individual level as well, and cruel.

The truest redpill on pornography is metastrophilia. Masturbation, in and of itself and without any sort of conditioning involved, is a shameful act. When you have sex with a woman you love, you associate your physical pleasure with the sublime and meaningful, and you feel proud. When you masturbate, you associate physical pleasure with what you find disgusting, and you feel ashamed. If you keep masturbating, you will reinforce the association of physical pleasure with revulsion. That association is called metastrophilia, and it is powerfully accelerated by pornography.

Autogynephilia comes as a consequence of this, because men have an inherent revulsion towards being feminine, and having associated pleasure with revulsion through masturbation, they begin feeling pleasure from being feminine. Men also have inherent revulsion to being sodomized, or cheated on, and guess what? Those fetishes capitalize on metastrophilia.

Don't think for a second that this is a male phenomenon. Why do you think there are so many women with rape fetishes when rape is the worst thing that can happen to them? The answer: metastrophilia. Having corrupted the relationship between your flesh and your soul, you orient yourself to feel pleasure from the things you loathe the most. You are literally telling yourself that bad is good and good is bad, when you masturbate.

This also applies to gay people who were sexually abused as children by predators of the same sex. They feel stimuli from something that they hate and cannot understand it. Hedonistic thinking makes them conclude that even though what was done to them was heinous and wrong, their flesh felt pleasure from it, therefore it was right, and they start thinking that they are gay as a consequence. Remember, it is the doing of the Beast (666) to physically reward you as to incentivize you to do what you despise. Reject the flesh, it is the enemy and literally gears you towards doing evil.

There are mountains of evidence of people who were otherwise normal who became sexual degenerates after porn. For the most part, people aren't born gay or with fetishes. Degeneracy is, more often than not, a result of conditioning. Saying any of this will get you called a homophobe, because no one admits, not even to themselves, that sexual deviants are what they are. Deviants. They deviate.

To reinforce what I was saying, there are men and women who have felt pleasure while being sexually abused. If you let hedonistic propaganda spread, these men will become gay and these women will become whores (as they do, the "stripper with daddy issues" isn't just a meme). Beware, the Beast travels among us always, and its victims become its minions.

One wonderful little argument coming from atheists and gay activists is that homosexuality is "natural" because it is seen in wildlife. It's hard to believe that they could even say such a thing without automatically noticing the mistake they made. They are outright advocating that humans should have their standard behavior be that of the beasts. That is unequivocal propagandizing for satanic hedonism.

Of course, a minority of people really are just born with their brains malformed in that way, but it should not be normalized by any stretch of the imagination. And on top of that, the people who believe that masturbating is ok once in a while, you are self-harming. "Come on dude, cut yourself, it'll feel good and you need to blow off some steam anyway. It'll barely hurt and you'll feel pleasure. Do it."

It's through metastrophilia that people get to insanities like snuff and scat. Every time you feel pleasure while masturbating, you associate pleasure with what you find negative and that association branches out. Be careful with rekt threads too, because they have a similar effect on you.

TL;DR: The Christians are right, gays are a product of Satan and you must stop masturbating at once.

When people say "homosexuality is a choice" they don't generally mean "You chose to be attracted to your own gender", they mean "You choose to act on those desires.

There is two components to homosexuality. The desire, or attraction, and the actual choices to perform sex acts and pursue relationships of that nature.

Many modern people define homosexuality by the desire, and then make a jump in logic and presume "You feel this way, therefore you must act this way". Its a philosophy based on the ideas of "being true to yourself" and "following your heart" and all that a bullshit we've heard before.

Whereas for the ancients, and for the average modern person on the right, homosexuality is defined not by the attractions, but by the behavior. Even in Christian theology, homosexual temptations were not a sin, only actual sex acts were. Because the ideology of the ancients, and to a much lesser extent the modern day right, is based on the notion that people's feelings and innermost desires can be, and indeed often are, wrong.

So, in practical terms homosexuality is a choice. Very few people choose to have these desires, but they do choose to act on them. If asked "When did you decide to become heterosexual" you are being asked a trick question. You never chose to have the attraction to the opposite gender in all likelihood. But you chose and choose every day to perform, or not, actions that lead to heterosexual sex acts and relationships.

And thats the crux. Liberals have this ridiculous notion that homosexuality is a state of being, instead of a form of behavior that arises FROM a state of being.

I don't hate homosexuals. I do however hate homosexuality, and I despise feminization. It's a vice that fully obstructs the production of the family unit and prevents healthy offspring for our nation.

First of all homosexuality isn't a inherited gene or condition that LGBT advocates would like you to think. The "born this way argument" is supportive by faulty statistics and is the equivalent of a subconscious scapegoat for most homosexual people. For example here's a pro-homosexual study that concludes that homosexuality is a inherited gene:

http://news.sciencemag.org/biology/2014/11/study-gay-brothers-may-confirm-x-chromosome-link-homosexuality

This piece talks about Xq28, a region of chromosome 8, many LGBT advocates point to this gene as sure proof of a gay gene. However while this is the most recent development in gay research, it is extremely underdeveloped. There is no evidence that Xq28 effects the development of homosexuality in twins, rather it's based on pure statistical correlation. The only possible way this gene could effect the development of homosexuality at a young age would be if it skewed hormone development in the human brain at puberty. However there is no research that this is true. Therefore any evidence in favor of homosexuality is essentially non-existent.

Rather, there is solid research to show that hormone development strongly influences the probability of homosexuality. If you want to read more about it here's the wikipedia article with some attached sources:

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Prenatal_hormones_and_sexual_orientation

Under the article you can read about a mulitiude of theories on the development of homosexuality. However to give a summary the majority of these theories subscribes to the inherent evidence that hormone development can be changed in three ways: environmental effects during fetal development, environmental effects during puberty, or social conditions. My personal belief is that all three of these theories are completely right in their own respects. The evidence behind each theory is completely unbiased. As I will try to be myself while explaining these theories. I'll list the inferences from the theories below:

>environmental effects during fetal development

While the individual may be developing in the womb and there is an increased risk of hormone imbalance if the mother who is housing a fetus is in under stress. The mother could potentially release high levels of stress hormones into the blood system from the adrenal glands. This could cause the fetus' production of sex hormones to be skewed by the increase of a variety of "stress hormones" the most notable of these stress hormones being testosterone. The increased levels of the testosterone could potentially cause the child to develop a hyper-masculine personality. However this theory has been given it's fair amount of criticism since it's extremely difficult to measure stress levels in times of pregnancy accurately. Regardless if this was true it could explain the population trend of lesbians and bisexuality in woman currently. The solution for this would perhaps be an increased pregnancy leave for pregnant mothers. Or simply not having a job during pregnancy.

>environmental effects during puberty

As commonly known puberty is a time of development when an adolescent young boy/girl becomes a (partly) sexually developed young adult. During this time the body release various hormones that intensifies the differences between the sexes. For example boys receive an increase of testosterone and females experience an increase in estrogen. During this crucial development boys and girls finally receive an urge to procreate. Combine this urge with the underdeveloped teen brain both of the sexes begin to experiment with masturbation. While this equivocates to harmless humping and "imaginary" pretending, it is intensified due to the increased access of internet pornography; if young individuals continue to develop this habitat of masturbation it can develop an addiction to masturbation. This is addiction could have inverse effects with the hormone levels during puberty and can further fetishize the individual. Young men especially can be extremely effected by this addiction; the amount of zinc in the body largely drops afters ejaculation. This drop of zinc, which is a testosterone simulator, could cause the impact of testosterone during puberty to be lessened and stagnated. And could possibly feminize the individual during puberty. This feminization could give rise to a submissive mentality and could cause young men to be attractive to masculine traits rather than feminine. To be noted the development of masculine attraction in young males isn't an instantaneous one, this development happens over a long period of time and matures just like it does on the Kinsey scale. See the Kinsey scale for details here:

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Kinsey_scale

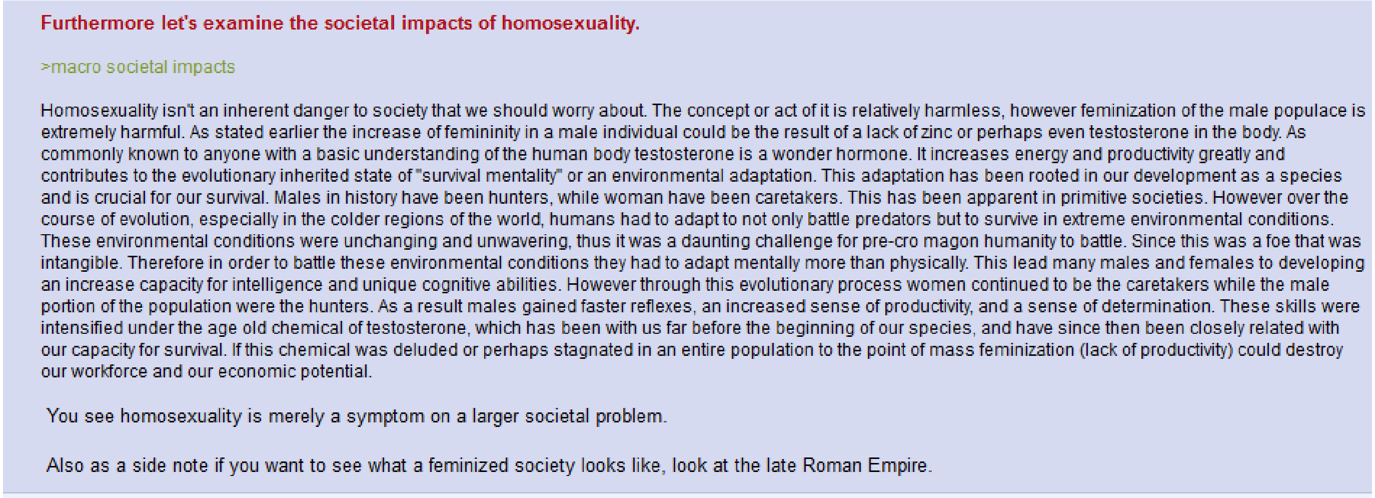
>social conditions

A socially rejected individual could also develop a submissive mentality as stated above. This is could lead to feelings of inferiority and a more physically submissive mentality. Awkwardness to the opposite sex can greatly associate feelings with inferiority with yourself and feelings of superiority to the opposite gender. These feelings of inferiority can set up a mental wall between individuals of the opposite sex. Eventually the individual will develop these feelings of inferiority and project them onto their own personal life. Meaning that their insecurities will eventually grow and overtake their social life. This means as a social escape they will look towards their own sex for feelings of security mostly because the same sex identifies with them. Now having already developed a sense of inferiority (and a feminine submissive state) the individual will be inversely attracted to feelings of superiority (masculine dominate state.) This will slowly lead the individual to have the urge to avoid the opposite sex and be near the same sex. Eventually over a period of time, and perhaps some other environmental factors, their sexual attraction will be molded or warped into a inferiority complex associated with the opposite sex and relieved by the same sex.



Furthermore let's examine the societal impacts of homosexuality.

>macro societal impacts

Homosexuality isn't an inherent danger to society that we should worry about. The concept or act of it is relatively harmless, however feminization of the male populace is extremely harmful. As stated earlier the increase of femininity in a male individual could be the result of a lack of zinc or perhaps even testosterone in the body. As commonly known to anyone with a basic understanding of the human body testosterone is a wonder hormone. It increases energy and productivity greatly and contributes to the evolutionary inherited state of "survival mentality" or an environmental adaptation. This adaptation has been rooted in our development as a species and is crucial for our survival. Males in history have been hunters, while woman have been caretakers. This has been apparent in primitive societies. However over the course of evolution, especially in the colder regions of the world, humans had to adapt to not only battle predators but to survive in extreme environmental conditions. These environmental conditions were unchanging and unwavering, thus it was a daunting challenge for pre-cro magon humanity to battle. Since this was a foe that was intangible. Therefore in order to battle these environmental conditions they had to adapt mentally more than physically. This lead many males and females to developing an increase capacity for intelligence and unique cognitive abilities. However through this evolutionary process women continued to be the caretakers while the male portion of the population were the hunters. As a result males gained faster reflexes, an increased sense of productivity, and a sense of determination. These skills were intensified under the age old chemical of testosterone, which has been with us far before the beginning of our species, and have since then been closely related with our capacity for survival. If this chemical was deluded or perhaps stagnated in an entire population to the point of mass feminization (lack of productivity) could destroy our workforce and our economic potential.

You see homosexuality is merely a symptom on a larger societal problem.

Also as a side note if you want to see what a feminized society looks like, look at the late Roman Empire.

>My personal inference

The LGBT community has given young sexually confused individuals a victim complex to sedate their inferiority complex. The victim complex shifts the blame from the individual to a group or institution, while said institution may be no threat to the individual directly it is a threat to the complex which they so deeply rely on, therefore they emotionally project their sexual and social frustrations on these groups to alleviate their woes. Furthermore the LGBT community is also preventing any legitimate research on homosexuality to develop unless it matches their own expectations. They're only increasing the suffering and confusion of these young individuals all for the sake of alleviating their inferiority complex. Also more importantly those who legitimately have a pre-birth homosexuality disorder are blindly mixed in with the crowd and can't receive the help they truly need. These people can't have families or children.

They can be married to the same sex of course, but that doesn't subdue the inherit need for procreation.

Many males and females have both reported that after raising a child they feel more "at peace" or restful than ever before. This is because that after the biological need for procreation if fulfilled (which is driven by the individuals lust for power (Also power = dominance = sexual dominance)) then they will continually feel unfulfilled and possibly depressed.

These people truly need help, not by people who identify with them or say they care for them, but truly dedicated individuals that wish nothing more than for these people to live normal lives without any hindrance. People who want to help other people because they're need for kindness isn't fulled by selfishness of self-validity but by virtue and medical progress.

I laugh at the gay's, OP. I really do. What is the aim of marriage? Is it to be close to someone? To move in together? Friends can do that, and often do. Is it to have sex? As if people even need to know each others names in today's degenerate culture to do that. What is it?

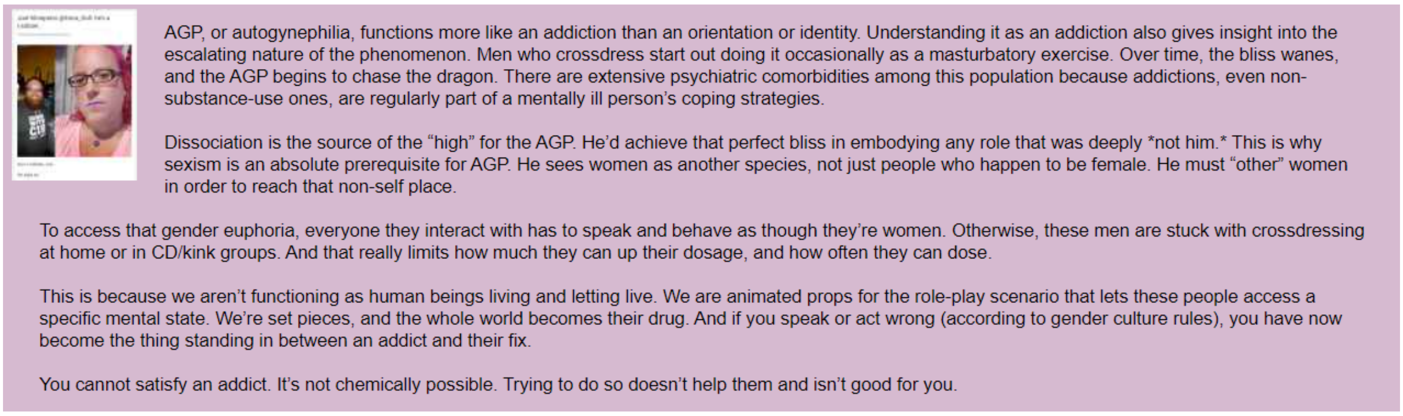
The aim quite simply, is to have a child. To be locked together so that your two physical forms can come together, and the fruit of this action bring forth a new life, a very real example of the two forms made one.

I read this great paper written by a few philosophers, theologians, and other thinkers like that. They argued that there was no such thing as gay marriage, because there was no such thing as gay sex. Sex is the activity of inseminating for the man, and being inseminated by the woman, pregnancy the ultimate aim of the physical act. You can fuck a guy in the ass, or two woman can rub their clits together, but it isn't really sex, it's more like, assisted masturbation.

This is where the real pain starts. Two gay people, coming together, can never ever have a true family. They can never come together, and from both of their forms, produce a new one, both unique, and combined from both of them. One can get a surrogate pregnant. but it isn't the couples child, it is the person and the surrogates forms come together, or can take someone else's child, but it is not theirs.

And nothing can ever change this. What greater hell can there be, than to have literally everything someone else has, to have the state, the great leviathan, proclaiming you have what others have, but at the end of the day, as you fall asleep, in those few moments you lose the ability to even lie to yourself, you realize no, you can never, by design, have what others have. You are left to life in a hazy illusion for the duration of your life, a cocoon of lies and false reality. One that will niggle at the back of the mind forever, whispering pain.

They did win, they got what they wanted, and they deserve it.



AGP, or autogynephilia, functions more like an addiction than an orientation or identity. Understanding it as an addiction also gives insight into the escalating nature of the phenomenon. Men who crossdress start out doing it occasionally as a masturbatory exercise. Over time, the bliss wanes, and the AGP begins to chase the dragon. There are extensive psychiatric comorbidities among this population because addictions, even non-substance-use ones, are regularly part of a mentally ill person's coping strategies.

Dissociation is the source of the "high" for the AGP. He'd achieve that perfect bliss in embodying any role that was deeply not him. This is why sexism is an absolute prerequisite for AGP. He sees women as another species, not just people who happen to be female. He must "other" women in order to reach that non-self place.

To access that gender euphoria, everyone they interact with has to speak and behave as though they're women. Otherwise, these men are stuck with crossdressing at home or in CD/kink groups. And that really limits how much they can up their dosage, and how often they can dose.

This is because we aren't functioning as human beings living and letting live. We are animated props for the role-play scenario that lets these people access a specific mental state. We're set pieces, and the whole world becomes their drug. And if you speak or act wrong (according to gender culture rules), you have now become the thing standing in between an addict and their fix.

You cannot satisfy an addict. It's not chemically possible. Trying to do so doesn't help them and isn't good for you.

I used to have no problem with fags.
They were adults who kept to themselves for the most part and I was OK with that.
Most mammals have some degree of faggotry. It was just a part of life.
Then it went to marriage.
Sure, whatever. It's a Christian institution and the bible is against it, so I didn't understand why they'd want to badly to get married with domestic partnerships, but whatever.
Then it was the military. They wanted to be open fags. Don't ask, don't tell wasn't good enough.
Fine. Sure. Whatever.
Then trannies show up and start being loud about where they get to shit. I started to be concerned because of the double standard... I can't shit in a clean womans bathroom without being arrested, why does a weirdo in a dress get to? But whatever. Doesn't concern me.
Then it was the military. As a veteran this really concerned me. Perfectly physically healthy man with anxiety can't join because of increased suicide risk, why should the demographic with the HIGHEST suicide risk be allowed to join? Literally 4x higher than people with anxiety.
Now there are children's tranny shows and tranny education in school... for a demographic that makes up 1% of the population.
>WTF? How did this happen?
Foot in the door technique used to perfection. That's how.
Now that they're targeting kids, I've had enough. The last straw.
I hate their fucking guts and it goes for all fags because all fags are complicit in this child raping, pedophilia bullshit.
I FUCKING HATE FAGS.
I hate your fucking guts.

The subject of john oliver came up when a colleague (fellow psychologist) and I were discussing politics a few months ago. Although we were both in agreement regarding the general shitlib inanity of the HBO show, my friend was surprised when I explained that the real insidiousness of it is its unmistakably hypnotic structure and pacing.

I ended up pulling up an episode or two off of youtube to show her what I meant. All of the segments I've ever seen from this show follow the same repetitive format: present some "argumentation" and "facts" for about 10 seconds, then quickly follow these up with a snarky quip (which themselves overwhelmingly take the form of complete non-sequitur or otherwise absurd metaphor) before any rational processing of the preceding argument can take place in the mind of the viewer. Further telling is that the only 'beats' or mental pauses in the show's pacing exist solely to highlight the approving laughter or applause of the studio audience. Repeat this basic formula without variation 20-40 times in a row and you have one of the 12-20 minute 'segments' that form the backbone of the show.

The end effect is (obviously) not to deliver information, but rather to literally teach the viewers -- on a subconscious level -- to mentally associate derisive laughter with any person or opinion that is at odds with the narrative's take on the chosen issue. And it accomplishes this by maintaining a strict adherence to a roughly 20-second cycle in which a stimulus is presented, and a response is cued. This is the sense in which the show is fundamentally hypnotic in effect -- even moreso than its precursors in the genre (Daily Show, Colbert, etc).

To my mind, oliver's show is representative of the media's increasing mastery of the methodologies of mass conditioning; in fact it is almost such a perfect technical accomplishment that I would almost have to admire it on technical grounds, which moreover is in the hands of the entirely wrong people.

It's a psychological trick. What he's actually doing is a brainwashing technique.

Watch a normal episode of this show. Every 50 seconds this cycle is repeated.
>Introduce opposing premise >canned laugh (establishes that opposition is laughable in of itself) >demolish opposing premise on any point, no matter how minor (optional but more effective) >(circumastancial) pretend to be outraged/morally indignant >make metaphorical-styled joke about premise >canned laugh

All it's doing is teaching you that the right opinions are super smart and super moral and opposing opinions are laughable. John Leibowitz perfected this technique - watch his and O'Riley's "Bullshit Mountain" debate to see it in action. He doesn't even address right-wing points, just states that they're all bullshit, mocks them, occasionally feigns outrage. Lets the audience fill in the rest. By instinctual desire to fit in, you end up subconsciously agreeing with him and laughing at the right without him actually proving any points.

"I will personally write you a campaign check now on behalf of this country, which does not want you to be president, but which badly wants you to run."

"FK Danbury" – Connecticut Mayor Names Sewage Treatment Plant After Comedian John Oliver

by Tyler Durden
Mon, 08/24/2020 - 13:05

The Connecticut city formerly best known as "dirty Danbury" – perhaps previously best known for the name of the nearby women's prison where "Orange is the New Black"'s author served her sentence – is back in the headlines this week after announcing that it plans to name its new sewage treatment plant after HBO comedian John Oliver.

Why? Because Oliver lambasted the city in a bit from his popular weekly political humor show "Last Week Tonight". During a segment about discrimination in jury selection affecting most of Connecticut's small-ish cities (it's a mostly suburban state), Oliver offered to "fight" anybody from Danbury, because "fk Danbury," he said.

During the unveiling, the mayor of the city said the name was appropriate because the plant is "full of crap, just like you, John".

Katie Couric has admitted that, in a 2016 interview, she withheld Ruth Bader Ginsburg's harshest comments on kneeling during the national anthem.

The editing was done in an effort to "protect" the late Supreme Court justice, Couric wrote in her memoir, which was obtained by The Post. She revealed in "Going There," which is out Oct. 26, that she felt that Ginsburg, who was 83 at the time of the interview, may not have totally gotten what Couric was asking her, as first reported by the Daily Mail.

Like left-wing satirists before him, Jon Stewart undermined civility in his country by portraying anyone who was genuinely conservative as a menacing buffoon. The Weimar Republic's Kurt Tucholsky and Karl Kraus both shared similar roles in tearing down pre-Nazi Germany through satire before becoming horrified at what was replacing it.

From Eric Hoffer's 'In Our Time':

>In a Western democracy the adversary intellectual is not only against his country and against the middle class into which he was born, but he sides with the colored races against the white, with animals against man, and with the wilderness against the sown. Predictably, an adversary intellectual who is a Jew sides with the Arabs against Israel. Is this hatred of one's own a variant of self-hatred? Hardly so. One who hates what most people love probably savors his uniqueness. He believes that secession from his country, class, race and species bespeaks righteousness and partakes of the heroic. But above all he has an almost insane vanity. The adversary intellectual feels superior to the people who govern his country, but he will not run for office. He will not demean himself to beg the votes of stupid people. He lusts instead for an apocalyptic denouement that will topple the power structure and give him his chance. The adversary intellectual cannot actually wreck a society, and he cannot seize power. But by discrediting and besmirching a society he undermines the faith of its potential defenders. When the Tucholskys had done their work, Weimar Germany could not defend itself against the wreckers—the communists and the Nazis.

We seem to be watching, as it was called in the days of network television, a rerun.

if you noticed, the media likes to shine a spotlight on issues when they aren't there. they take events as they happen and use them to shape a narrative. this is just modern social engineering. it's how they shape your perception through media narratives and social media bots.

>take a few instances of police shooting black people or police brutality and shine spotlight on it, especially if cop is non-minority >don't show white people being shot in a similar context (eg. dan shaver) nearly as much >shapes perception that police target black people only because people are subjective beings and do not know statistics. their perception is shaped by info they are exposed to >statistics show no bias in shootings. actually suggests the opposite, especially when accounting for crime committed

1. The lying of Trump et. al. about coronavirus unfortunately makes people question everything they say. But they've been truthful about one important thing:

DON'T WEAR A FACE MASK UNLESS YOU ARE SICK!

If you are well, it can possibly INCREASE your chance of infection..

"There is no such thing, at this date of the world's history, in America, as an independent press. You know it and I know it. There is not one of you who dares to write your honest opinions, and if you did, you know beforehand that it would never appear in print. I am paid weekly for keeping my honest opinion out of the paper I am connected with. Others of you are paid similar weekly salaries for similar things, and any of you who would be so foolish as to write honest opinions would be out on the streets looking for another job. If I allowed my honest opinions to appear in one issue of my paper, before twenty-four hours my occupation would be gone. The business of the journalists is to destroy the truth; to lie outright; to pervert; to vilify; to fawn at the feet of mammon, and to sell his country and his race for his daily bread. You know it and I know it, and what folly is this toasting an independent press? We are the tools and vassals of rich men behind the scenes. We are the jumping jacks, they pull the strings and we dance. Our talents, our possibilities, and our lives are all the property of other men. We are intellectual prostitutes."

A Judas goat is a trained goat used in general animal herding. The Judas goat is trained to associate with sheep or cattle, leading them to a specific destination. In stockyards, a Judas goat will lead sheep to slaughter, while their own life is spared. Wikipedia is the tavistock method psychological warfare?

The Tavistock Method is a form of psychological warfare. This was discovered by the British Army during WWI when they began using mass brainwashing techniques on German POWs to get them to either lie, or switch sides and fight for Britain. The main guy who developed these techniques was Brigadier John Rawlings Reese, Director of the Tavistock Institute in London.

In the 1920s, Tavistock was already a center for Freudian psychoanalysis. The Institute's founder, James H. Leuba, had been heavily influenced by Freud and was keen to develop techniques that would make mass brainwashing more feasible. In 1923 they set up the British Army Bureau of Psychological Warfare under Rawlings Reese.

In 1940, Rawlings Reese resigned from the Ministry of Defence to work full time on mind control research. In 1942 Tavistock was selected by OSS chief 'Wild Bill' Donovan as his psychological warfare headquarters in London.

Reese had been working closely with the British military since at least 1917. He was then instructed to establish a research project on mass brainwashing techniques that could be used in warfare.

In 1946 the United States government was persuaded to give a grant of $10,000 so Tavistock could conduct further research on mind control. This led to it playing a major role in the creation of numerous secret programs such as 'Operation Paperclip' and subsequent American MK-ULTRA projects.

Tavistock began developing propaganda campaigns to influence the behavior of large groups, as well as methods for inducing phobias in enemy soldiers and civilians. The Tavistock Institute used its knowledge of mass brainwashing techniques during WWI and WWII to help guide British Intelligence's psychological warfare campaign against the United States.

is tv psychological warfare?

I think I can say that television is absolutely psychological warfare. It's deep into the psyche, where it does some of its most subtle work. The methods are not always obvious, but the effects are real and far-reaching.

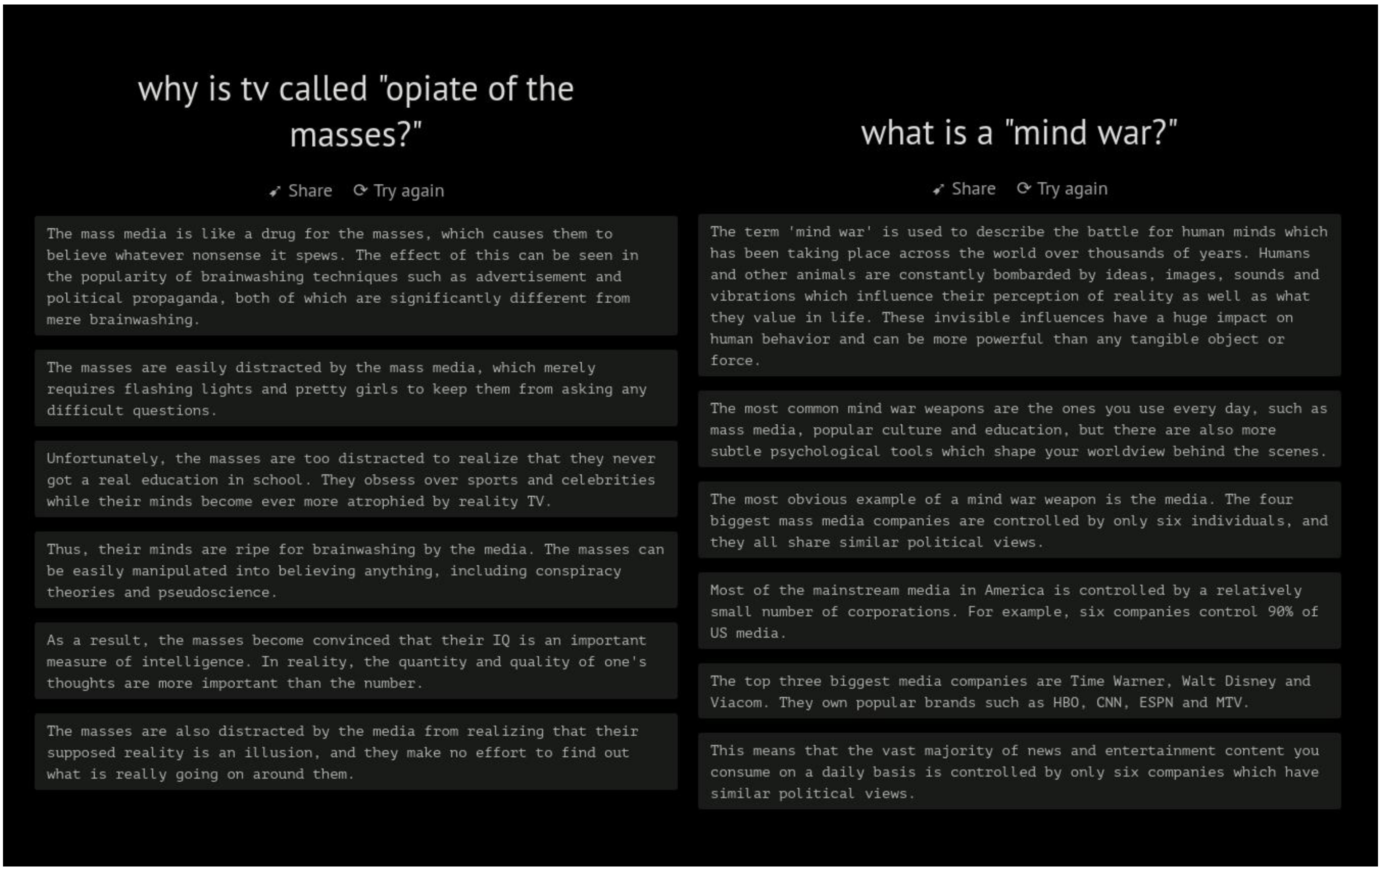
The first thing to notice is that we watch television all the time. We have more hours of TV a day than we have hours of any other activity, save perhaps sleeping or working.

We all know that when we have the TV on, something is getting into our heads. We are being influenced in a way that no other medium can match.

In this regard, television is more like a drug than it is like other media.

The television is always on, and it's always doing its work. Even if we're not paying attention to the TV, there are a million messages getting processed in our subconscious minds.

The best way to explain this is with an example. Let's say you're sitting on the couch, watching TV and eating chips. You've been doing this for a while, but suddenly it occurs to you what you're actually doing.



why is tv called "opiate of the masses?"

The mass media is like a drug for the masses, which causes them to believe whatever nonsense it spews. The effect of this can be seen in the popularity of brainwashing techniques such as advertisement and political propaganda, both of which are significantly different from mere brainwashing.

The masses are easily distracted by the mass media, which merely requires flashing lights and pretty girls to keep them from asking any difficult questions.

Unfortunately, the masses are too distracted to realize that they never got a real education in school. They obsess over sports and celebrities while their minds become ever more atrophied by reality TV.

Thus, their minds are ripe for brainwashing by the media. The masses can be easily manipulated into believing anything, including conspiracy theories and pseudoscience.

As a result, the masses become convinced that their IQ is an important measure of intelligence. In reality, the quantity and quality of one's thoughts are more important than the number.

The masses are also distracted by the media from realizing that their supposed reality is an illusion, and they make no effort to find out what is really going on around them.

what is a "mind war?"

The term 'mind war' is used to describe the battle for human minds which has been taking place across the world over thousands of years. Humans and other animals are constantly bombarded by ideas, images, sounds and vibrations which influence their perception of reality as well as what they value in life. These invisible influences have a huge impact on human behavior and can be more powerful than any tangible object or force.

The most common mind war weapons are the ones you use every day, such as mass media, popular culture and education, but there are also more subtle psychological tools which shape your worldview behind the scenes.

The most obvious example of a mind war weapon is the media. The four biggest mass media companies are controlled by only six individuals, and they all share similar political views.

Most of the mainstream media in America is controlled by a relatively small number of corporations. For example, six companies control 90% of US media.

The top three biggest media companies are Time Warner, Walt Disney and Viacom. They own popular brands such as HBO, CNN, ESPN and MTV.

This means that the vast majority of news and entertainment content you consume on a daily basis is controlled by only six companies which have similar political views.

When the 1st amendment was written news had to be circulated using a Gutenburg printing press barely capable of creating one newspaper a minute.

Now not only do organizations like NYT use fully automatic assault presses capable of spitting out multiple papers PER SECOND, but news organizations are capable of reaching millions of people instantly.

The Constitution is a living document and it's time to reinterpret the first amendment and limit media distribution to low-capacity presses and TV channels with a max of 24 papers/viewers per channel. We're not trying to take your free speech, we just want common sense news control.

Well funded academics infiltrated the movement and forced these borders of race into a class oriented discussion.

Yellow journalism was created by the battle between Pulitzer and Hearst. They created the Spanish American War to sell papers. Pulitzer's name was worthless. To rehabilitate it he donated money to create the Pulitzer Prize for good journalism, which he never practiced.

Feel free to send that piece to the Trump campaign. If he articulated the real battle of nation-building as the criteria for being "conservative" (not economic), he might be able to turn the tide. But I seriously doubt that the press will cover it. This has become a real war, but it is mainstream press against the people.

Joseph Pulitzer
(1847–1911)

This is no different than the press war between Pulitzer and Hearst who started the Spanish American War to sell papers when the sinking of the Maine was never an act of war but an accident. This is why Pulitzer tried to reshape his image after death taking his blood money and creating the Pulitzer Prize. It is ironic that the most prestigious prize in journalism is named by the father of Yellow Journalism.

Best would be flirt with him (just make sure its no homo) to make her want YOU more, then you flirt with her, easy.

As much as I'd like to humor you, the situation isn't as weird as I made it out to be. I use an elevator every morning and it's always crowded. Since people are typically arriving right before the shift everyone packs in like sardines. I'm bigger than everyone and have a solid frame so I decided to start standing in the middle of the elevator and stare down anyone who gives me that "are you going to make room" face. I did it for around 4 months to the point where some people knew to not even try to enter anymore. I was got called into HR and was told to stop or I may get fired due to harassment, which doesn't make any sense because I never touched anyone.

see thats really interesting "Sprite Pat" because I know of a guy in south boston who is known as stinky preet, because on his third week in the gym he used the treadmill so long he lost feeling in his legs and shit himself without realizing it, and at the speed he was going the treadmill was flicking shit onto the floor in a disgusting smear, AND he only realized that this was the case when he slipped on his own shit, and fell off said treadmill.

Now he's a swole guy now, but a few years ago he was the laughingstock. Real testament to personal strength that he kept going back despite shitting himself in a crowded gym at peak hours. So you're sure that wasnt you, "Sprite Pat?"

I need to explain myself now. I started going to the gym with two of my friends. One has been lifting aslong as me and the other only trains abs. The frist one strengthmogged me and the other one absmogged me and I was angry as fuck.

I have been bulking so hard. bulking so hard that soon I will walk into the gym and they will see me and die. I have gained just over 30 lbs in a month , assuming I have not taken a shit. if I take a shit I only weight 29 lbs more.

Soon I will mog them. I now have stretch marks on my delts and quads but those are my gains.

>I have gained just over 30 lbs in a month

>gained 30 pounds in a month

Can't say I haven't been there, actually. Fuck GOMAD.

Jesus Christ, you're looking at kidney damage from the sheer amount of protein you're eating, calcification of soft tissues including blood vessels from all that calcium, liver cirrhosis and heart failure from all that iron, and bone swelling and liver damage from all that vitamin A, along with a laundry list of other symptoms. You might as well take a shot of bleach every day instead, it'll do the job quicker.

You guys seem to think I am some kind of a freak who has backwards ways and will die of organ failure. Well this is what I have to say.

If you told a normal person about putting a weight on your face, to make your neck big, they would think you are some kind of mentally ill. That normal guy, will never have a cool neck that can not die from a noose, because they think it is a retarded thing to do.

That is like me, you guys think I am retarded? wWell everything I do is correct and 100% no problem. This is healthy and sustainable. Probably.

I have to squat now. It is getting dark where I live.

Final words and observations before I go to the sauna.
>I have been taking 3 huge shits a day and they are extremely pungent, mostly made of nuts from the almonds and pecans I consume
>I am growing much more body hair
>My chair, which is normally blue, has begun to turn green because of sweat. I am sweating a lot. I can scratch the green substance off but it comes back
>I am ruining my clothes with sweat
>I am horny as fuck and extremely competitive with my friends
>Hair is thickening, likely because of biotin overdose. Also probably related to the body hair.

I hope that I have inspired you all. Pic related was my chair a week ago, it is much worse now and it has begun to fall apart.

I will post updates perhaps, if you remember me.

niggas on /fit/ are always obsessing about height, appearance, frame, etc. lemme let you guys in on a little secret, the blackpill if you will: whether or not you are "based" does not depend on your height. "making it" does not depend on your attractiveness. a man's success depends entirely upon whether or not he is willing and ready to take a bat and beat an israelite to death.

no its just for the past two weeks I haven't been able to use my oven (normally I make a plate of tyson chicken nuggets and fries twice a day to eat) because a big ass rat got inside of it and won't leave

Ive been waiting for it to starve and die in there but it keeps eating the burnt shit at the bottom of the oven so instead of starving it's thriving

I really don't know what to do and when I called my mom and dad about it they just sighed and told me not to bother them with "stupid crap like that". I tried to turn the heat up on it in there but last time I did that it started going berserk and slamming into the walls of the oven and the room started to smell like burnt rat hair, Im probably just going to move apartments

Rich Piana claims to have performed 6 million reps during an 8 hour period, but if we do the math, it just doesn't add up. He would have had to perform 480 reps a minute, every minute, for 8 hours straight - without stopping a single time for a bathroom break, a protein cookie, or a pause to say "GOOD FUCKING MORNING". It just doesn't make sense, and whats more, the number of reps he's claimed in 8 hours has changed over the years - first it was 1.5 million, then it was 3 million, now it's 6 million and some reports have recently said he's claiming 9 million reps! Somethings up with this 8 Hour Arm Day.

What if, and this is just a rumor, there were only 500,000 reps performed? Not denying the reps didnt happen, but maybe they were exaggerated.

Hypothetically, Rich may be exaggerating this number in order to paint others in a negative light? Or, more fittingly, to receive billions of dollars per year in supplement sponsorship's?

I get it from here. https://www.mazuri.com/primate/ape?viewState=ListView&cartID=&portalUser=&store=&ccIcl=en_US

I use the Primate Growth&Reproduction Biscuit, as that's specifically formulated for male great apes to get large and fuck, so I figure it's closest to what I want. It's also around $1 per pound, which makes chicken look expensive by comparison. Be warned, they are pretty flavorless and hard to chew. Soak them in water, dab some hot sauce on them, and enjoy.

They serve as my base for nutrition and caloric intake. I fill out the rest of my meals with eggs, milk, and hot dog meat.

Yes. Don't try it unless your wrists can stand the impact, though. If you haven't done push ups in a while it's probably not the best idea.

Why we lift.

I get asked that a lot. Why do I spend so much time lifting the heavy thing. Is something wrong with me, they ask. I already look thin, they tell me. Are you really that vain? I shrug it off daily and stroll towards the gym week after week.

I tried explaining to them why I lift. As I was trying to find the words, I realized that they don't get it. They think I do it to attract girls, to masturbate over myself in the mirror, to become better than them. But these are just perks that come with the turf, not the goal. The goal is obscured as it were by clouds of superficial thoughts and ambitions.

The goal is more primal. More primal than any man who has never squatted twice his bodyweight for the first time in his life will understand. Or really any other major first milestone in lifting the heavy thing for that matter. You know of what I speak. That man has The Look in his eyes. Euphoria. He will climb a mountain for no reason other than that he can.

the game

What the average joe does not understand is that the goal is the simplest thing in the world. The goal is to become the best man you can possibly be. There is no bullshit psychology involved. No made up alpha or beta pecking orders, no blabbering or confidence. Only steely will power and muscle carved out of bedrock. The goal, it is to push your body to the brink, to punch yourself in the gut, and to claw your ass over that brink and to beat the everloving shit out of what is on the other side.

☐ Anonymous 08/19/10(Thu)06:30 No.4291216

Every day we climb the mountain. We start at the bottom each morning. But day in day out, we strive to reach the top. The gods sit at the top. We don't really know what they look like. For some they look like chiseled Greek statues, to others they are monsters of men that carry the sky on their shoulders. All we know deep inside is that we have to reach them. So we climb. Higher every day.

We can't make it, our bodies tell us. We need rest, tomorrow we can go on, the flesh tells us. The mind doesn't care. The mind scales the mountain every day. He's already taken his seat with the gods. Do you think he cares what your arms think? Destiny will not wait for their coffee break.

One day you will reach that peak. One day you will become the god you thought was at the top. And as you sit on your throne, take a look down the slopes of your kingdom. Men from all walks of life are trying to conquer it like you once did. Some climb faster than others. Some don't know any better, they climb without using their legs, some curve their back. Some build wings and try to fly. Their path may look easier, but no man will scale the mountain without his brow covered in sweat.

We who lift the heavy thing. We are all the same. Do not suffer the ignorance of those who do not. Pity them, for they cannot see the mountain. All they see is fitness mags, beachbods and biceps. But give those who ask for it a boost, if they so desires to reach the hall of the gods.

Our drive is what sustains us. Every day is a victory. Every day, we lift.

Had a dream I was back in high school (24 now) with my current strength lvls. Was back in gym and that day was the squat test (like the push up test). Had to squat lmao2plate as many times as possible. Had my oly shoes on and everything. Didn't participate because I wanted to save my legs for dead lift day the next day.

IKTF, well, sorta. I met a qt3.14 at the gym last week, kinda on the short side, but had a nice smile. Gave her my number. Two days later...

>me: uh...6'0".
>her: good you barely met the cut >her: i wouldn't even had responded back if you were under 6'0" >me: how tall are you again?
>her: about 5'0"

i don't respond for two hours >her: hello?!

>me: sorry I don't respond to girls under 5'10"

holy fucking shit. she threw a fucking fit. started cussing me and shit and how I was wasting her time.

saw her at the gym a few days later

she points me out to gym personnel >manlet about 5'8" comes up to me, in cargo shorts, black crew socks and nike shox...you know the type.

>him: sir, the lady over there says you have been harassing her. I'm going to have to ask you to stop or we will ask you to leave and possibly cancel your membership >me: I literally have no clue what you are talking about. I talked to her once, a week ago, got her number and we texted a couple of times. Haven't spoke to her since

I show him our text conversation while she fumes in the corner

>he reads it calmly
>...til he gets to the part about not dating guys under 6'0" >he get noticeably pissed >manlet-rage-engage.gif >walks over to her and says if she files a false report again, he will personally escort her out the gym >she throws herself on the floor and starts screaming
>i walk out of the gym 30m later like a boss to get some golden arches

I'll add my personal experienced counsel on the issue.

I was raised as a competitive rower, competing at international level all through my teens. Pic related is Pete Reed, who rowed at elite level with my coaches. He recently won gold in Rio.

I then went on to be trained by the Royal Marines. Right now I don't know (or care) how much I weigh but I look ripped, my muscles are very strong and dense and I have a good sex drive/energy level etc.

Anyway, here's the two key points I have to make;

>Varied chin ups and varied press ups are literally all you need to do to build a hugely strong upper body.

>Running correctly is all you need to do to build a hugely strong lower body.

I think a big problem people find is they think they have to make it so damn complex to get /fit/. Pay a gym, do a million types of lifts to target each muscle group, take classes, buy weights, what if I'm doing the form wrong, etc.

The problem with a complex approach is a) It takes a long time to see results if you're only doing each muscle group once a week and b) It's just too hard to keep track of if you have a life.

Bodyweight- only exercises are a great way to start anyway, because of the way they naturally make your form optimal, and build your core strength really well. Good press ups and chin ups make your back muscles stretch and align. This, combined with running properly, will give you a body far superior to any gym rat, both in appearance and strength, flexibility and speed.

Those weird, inflated-looking bodybuilders are NOT fit, they are freaks who ONLY have strength, not flexibility, endurance or speed. Look up videos of bodybuilders arm wrestling people. Often their arms look twice the size of the guy who destroys them. Do not make the mistake of trying to copy their methods.

The reason the guy with smaller arms can win is MUSCLE DENSITY. This is true strength. In fact, the size of your arms is a very bad indicator of your arm strength, and it's the same for any muscle. You want to build as much muscle fibre as possible, within as small a space as possible, and over time make that space expand, instead of going for the big aesthetic gains straight away.

The exercises; Chin ups

Grab a bar (literally any horizontal thing, I use a tree branch if I can't find anything else), and pull like fuck until your chin goes over it. Cross your legs under you in a comfortable way. Do as many as you can in a minute, even if you have to keep stopping or only get to 1 the first time. Don't worry, the first gains are the hardest and you'll be shocked at how quickly you gain the strength.

Grips; vary your grips between palms in and palms out, wide and narrow grips, whatever you like. When you get good and want to increase the difficulty, try one-handed chin ups. You'll find you naturally get into the literal swing of it. I knew a guy who had gorilla arms and all he did was one-handed chin ups, he could climb a ladder with just his arms.

EASY VERSION- if you're weak to start, do chin-downs. Basically hold the bar and jump, and lower yourself as slowly as you can until you gain the strength to do a proper chin-up.

With just a minute of this a day, your muscles will grow enormously strong. But obviously do more if you can. This will improve your; neck, shoulders, biceps, forearms, wrists, lats, abs and hip flexors.

As your muscles grow stronger, they will get heavier, so the next time you do the exercise you'll be lifting more weight. Cue gains ad infinitum, but at a reasonable (but initially VERY fast) pace that will give you huge muscle density.

Thank you kek for granting me dubs of truth, anons heed my advice and you will grow huge.

The exercises; Push ups

Lie on the floor, push yourself up. A lot. It is difficult at first but keep your heels, ass and shoulders in a straight line by tensing your abs.

Again, do as many as you can in a minute, even if at first it's only 1. Like chin ups the early progression of strength is very fast, just keep pushing yourself for a couple of minutes every day and you'll get up to sets of 20+ in no time.

Grips; vary between thumbs together underneath you, to under your nipples, to under your shoulders, to wide-grip press ups. All these variations just make sure you get all the different muscles, and they can be mentally refreshing to a tough workout.

EASY VERSION- push- downs, quite self-explanatory, just lower yourself in a pressup position as slowly as you can and you'll feel the burn. Continue until you have the strength to do your first real push up and you're away on the curve.

Again just a minute per day will get you results, to do more have a minute or two's rest then do another intense minute. Listen to your body.

This will improve your; neck, shoulders, back, chest, triceps, forearms, wrists, lats, abs, and hip flexors.

Note that between this and chin ups you are covering all major upper body muscle groups with just two body weight exercises.

Again, the infinite gains rule applies because all the muscle you pile on will be contributing to your weight, and thus the weight you make yourself lift.

☐ Anonymous 08/15/16 (Mon) 18:48:18 ID: aeed5b No.7144806 >>7147001 >>7159117 >>7162832 >>7164212 >>7164455

>>7144671
Final post, running.

Run on your toes. ALWAYS.

If you're going on your first ever run, I don't care how slow you are, YOU KEEP ON THOSE TOES AS A PRIORITY.

This forces your calf muscles to make massive gains because they're taking all your weight and springing it back upwards. This is insanely good for them, mine now get noticed by girls as a thing. We're built to run this way.

(Fun fact, in medieval-industrial revolution Britain calf muscles were considered the sexy muscles, over biceps and abs. That's why they wore those weird white calf socks to show off)

As long as you follow the toes rule you can't go too wrong with running, as long as you push yourself to come back from every run sweating and panting.

As you get fitter you'll feel the wind under your wings and start to enjoy running, it gives one a good sense of freedom.

At this point you'll want to start running with more power and speed, which is when you'll start building up your quads (massive thighs inbound).

Running will also de-fat you, before too long you'll see those abs shining through- they get worked by running too, as well as the hip flexors.

After a good bit of running your whole body will feel like a coiled spring ready to catapult you over the ground. You'll marvel at your biology for sure, after all humans are the best running species.

For completion, running improves your; ankles, calfs, quads, glutes (ass), hip flexors, abs, neck, shoulders and forearms.

To conclude, with these three exercises anyone can get /fit/ as fuck. Just keep pushing yourself at them and the gains will come sooner than you think.

My favourite routine is; run every other day, and do 3 minutes of both chin ups and press ups every day. The beauty is that it's so adaptable.

And finally the most important point

LITTLE and OFTEN is BEST. There's no point thrashing yourself at the gym or anywhere if you can't move for 3 days afterwards (I've made this mistake so you don't have to).

You don't have to workout every day, but 10 minutes 5 days a week is better than half an hour 3 days a week. You've got to keep the ball rolling.

Apart from that, enjoy the sex :)

I'll jump on the poem bandwagon.

A man came to /fit/ to acquire some advice,
You see, he had titties, all rounded and nice and I don't mean gyno, no, these had some size, Legitimate girl tits to uninformed eyes.

At first other posters guffawed at his pecs,
Which made OP feel understandably vexed.
"This is not funny. I just want them gone!"
Lamented the bountifully breasted anon.

Some told him to lift, as to increase his T,
While others suggested he get surgery,
And still more believed that OP was no bro,
But a femanon posting her B-cups for show

Or maybe a tranny from Discord who wanted
To get a few mires for the breasts she now flaunted.
The replies poured in quickly, unhelpful at best,
Off'ring no aid for the well-endowed chest.

OP, if your claim to be male is true,
Then I've got a question I'd like to ask you.
If you wanted advice, as you've thusly implored,
Why come to a Turkish basket weaving board?

U. S. Scientist Sees New Ice Age Coming

By Victor Cohn
Washington Post Staff Writer

The world could be as little as 50 or 60 years away from a disastrous new ice age, a leading atmospheric scientist predicts.

Dr. S. I. Rasool of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration and Columbia University says that:

- "In the next 50 years," the fine dust man constantly puts into the atmosphere by fossil fuel-burning could screen out so much sunlight that the average temperature could drop by six degrees.
- If sustained over "several years" —"five to 10," he estimated—"such a temperature decrease could be sufficient to trigger an ice age!"

These conclusions—including the ominous exclamation point rare in scientific publication — are printed in this week's issue of the journal Science out today, signed by Rasool and co-worker Dr. S. H. Schneider.

They are also being presented by Schneider at an International Study of Man's Impact on Climate now being held in Stockholm as a prelude to a world environmental conference there next June.

Dr. Gordon F. MacDonald, scientist-member of President Nixon's three-man Council on Environmental Quality, said in an interview that these conclusions point up "one of the serious problems" U.S. and other delegates must address next year.

He called Rasool "a first-rate atmospheric physicist" whose estimate that fuel dust could drop temperatures by six degrees "is consistent with estimates I and others have made."

Whether this could cause an ice age "within five or 50 years or even more," he said, "I wouldn't want to guess."

But he "agreed completely" with Rasool that is is now urgent to start an international network to monitor atmospheric dust.

If his calculations prove correct, Rasool said, it may be simply necessary for men to stop most fossil fuel-burning—use of coal, oil, natural gas and automobile gasoline—and switch in the main to nuclear energy, despite the atom's own disadvantages. Pollution controls alone, he said, cannot do the job. "I think you have to stop the source."

A new ice age would flood the world's coastal cities and further lower temperatures to build up new glaciers that could eventually cover huge areas.

Scientists have long debated whether man's activity is actually heating or cooling the earth, if either. A "1970 Study of Critical Environmental Problems" concluded that the Rasool-Schneider kind of prediction was impossible to make yet.

"The area of greatest uncertainty," that study concluded, is "our current lack of knowledge" of the optical properties of man-made dust "in scattering or absorbing [illegible] fastest comput- [illegible]

While doing research 12 or 13 years ago, I met Jim Hansen, the scientist who in 1988 predicted the greenhouse effect before Congress. I went over to the window with him and looked out on Broadway in New York City and said, "If what you're saying about the greenhouse effect is true, is anything going to look different down there in 20 years?" He looked for a while and was quiet and didn't say anything for a couple seconds. Then he said, "Well, there will be more traffic." I, of course, didn't think he heard the question right. Then he explained, "The West Side Highway [which runs along the Hudson River] will be under water. And there will be tape across the windows across the street because of high winds. And the same birds won't be there. The trees in the median strip will change." Then he said, "There will be more police cars." Why? "Well, you know what happens to crime when the heat goes up."

And so far, over the last 10 years, we've had 10 of the hottest years on record.

Didn't he also say that restaurants would have signs in their windows that read, "Water by request only."

Under the greenhouse effect, extreme weather increases. Depending on where you are in terms of the hydrological cycle, you get more of whatever you're prone to get. New York can get droughts, the droughts can get more severe and you'll have signs in restaurants saying "Water by request only."

When did he say this will happen?

Within 20 or 30 years. And remember we had this conversation in 1988 or 1989.

Does he still believe these things?

Yes, he still believes everything. I talked to him a few months ago and he said he wouldn't change anything that he said then.

Here is The Hidden $150 Trillion Agenda Behind The "Crusade" Against Climate Change

BY TYLER DURDEN

WEDNESDAY, OCT 13, 2021 - 05:45 PM

We now live in a world, where bizarro headlines such as the ones below, have become a daily if not hourly occurrence:

- *TREASURY TO STUDY IMPACT OF CLIMATE ON HOUSEHOLDS, COMMUNITIES
- *TREASURY LAUNCHES EFFORT ON CLIMATE-RELATED FINANCIAL RISKS
- *BRAINARD: CLIMATE-SCENARIO ANALYSIS WILL HELP IDENTIFY RISKS
- *BRAINARD: CLIMATE CHANGE COULD HAVE PROFOUND ECONOMIC EFFECTS
- *MESTER: FED LOOKS AT CLIMATE CHANGE FROM VIEW OF RISKS TO BANKS
- *FED IS TAKING THE RIGHT COURSE ON MONITORING CLIMATE CHANGE
- *FED SHOULD CONSIDER CLIMATE-CHANGE RISK TO FINANCIAL SYSTEM

Now, in case someone is still confused, none of these institutions, and not a single of the erudite officials running them, give a rat's ass about the climate, about climate change risks, or about the fate of future generations of Americans (and certainly not about the rising water level sweeping away their massive waterfront mansions): if they did, total US debt and underfunded liabilities wouldn't be just shy of $160 trillion.

So what is going on, and why is it that virtually every topic these days has to do with climate change, "net zero", green energy and ESG?

The reason - as one would correctly suspect - is money. Some $150 trillion of it.

Earlier today, Bank of America published one of its massive "Thematic Research" tomes, this time covering the "Transwarming" World, and serves as a massive primer to today's Net Zero reality. The report (which is available to all ZH pro subs) is actually a must read, interesting, chock-full of data and charts such as these...

"Onece upon a time French NGOs went to Afghanistan claiming to want to solve hunger.

Their real goal was to recruit Afghan women and make porn.

The Taliban found out and arrested them."

Frederick Michael and Jose Daniel Llorento, two French aid workers with the French NGO Contre La Faim (Action Against Hunger) were arrested for violating the law against attending mixed parties. They were found in the company of women workers who had given a farewell lunch to a woman aid worker in Kabul.[57] What the press did not reveal was that these Frenchmen had with them TV cameras and were allegedly wanting to shoot a few scenes, which was against the injunctions issued by the Taliban. (Nancy Dewolf Smith, writing in the Asian Wall Street Journal of 25 March 1997, mentions that the foreigner grapevine has it that the raid on the French agency turned up a soft porn video cassette).

Between the 1940s - 1980's, millions of pregnant women were given a drug called Diethylstilbestrol (DES) - as it was thought to prevent miscarriage.

DES is an extremely potent, synthetic form of estrogen.

Pregnant women were given 5mg per day in the first trimester, increasing to massive doses - as much as 125mg per day, by the third trimester.

For reference, just 3mg of DES is enough to chemically castrate a full-grown man.

In a small survey of 'DES Sons' (men born to mothers who took DES during pregnancy), 77% identified as being either transgender, intersex, or gay.

Kellogg's Releases Gay Rimjob Cereal for Faggot Children

Andrew Anglin May 15, 2021

Just last week, my three-year-old child asked me: "where is the poop cereal for my gay asshole?"

Finally, Kellogg's is releasing a poop cereal for children with gay assholes.

LifeSiteNews:

> In what is perhaps the most unappetizing headline of 2021, the Weekly Metro announced that "Kellogg's new LGBTQ cereal wants to fill your mouth with pride," because everything must be gay now and the virtue must be signaled. Big Business has realized that there is a lot of money in wrapping yourself in the rainbow flag, and so as "Pride Month" (yes, an entire month) grows closer, corporate social media avatars, ATMs, and business signs will suddenly be bedecked in rainbows.

> Kellogg's, which has traditionally been known for its cartoon animals, is partnering with GLAAD (Gay & Lesbian Alliance Against Defamation) to release a new cereal called "Together With Pride," which will hit the shelves next month

But they did.

The Vegas shooting happened exactly as the media said it did

It's kinda weird how the shooter carried 180kg/ 400 pounds worth of guns/ammo into the hotel, removed a window meant to survive tornados & disable the fire alarm, no one noticed

Odd that he supposedly fired hundreds of rounds but the images released of the room only show a couple dozen casings on the ground, or that his body somehow had a gun perfectly propped up over his foot, or none of his guns having bump stocks

Quite the conundrum that his brother who adamantly said he'd never do this had terabytes of child porn on a windows 98 PC his defence says he never owned, or that many of the witnesses who say there was multiple shooters have mysteriously turned up dead or deny having ever said that, even when shown evidence they said that

Dear Director Lombardo,

The purpose of this letter is to inquire about and request for the provision of amending recruiting standards as they pertain to weight (Rec.AD-Sec32-5) My request is that the required minimum weight be amended from a pass/no pass 225 lbs to a system that is more adequate at evaluating a recruit's eligibility for service. Below I outline my reasoning with relevant agency statistics. This is a matter that should not be taken lightly; it is severely affecting our agency to very harmful ends.

The original intent of our weight requirement was to filter our weak applicants to bolster the agency's combat ability and its military bearing as a law enforcement organization. This was sound logic for the time when the policy was implemented, but not now. Today we are faced with accepting under-staffing in critical roles, such as entry and QRF teams, (RR 3. AD-Sec-2b. Rel pg. 3) and hiring applicants who do meet the weight requirements through means of body fat and not muscle. More than half of our enforcement personnel is either obese, and/or have began using agency benefits as of the 2019 audit (ATF-CAR 56.4. Rel pg 74.). This is harming our agency both in regards to tactical operations (last year we have suffered more injuries relating to obesity, cardiovascular diseases, and parallel conditions) than we did from violent encounters, and in regards to our appearance as an agency. Many of the monitored networks that are believed to pose a threat to the agency (ATF-F-Lists VB26-ISec.3) have been noted as circulating imagery of obese ATF officers looking very contradictory to what law enforcement standards dictate in their agency issued tactical gear. Those images have been reviewed and determined real (RR3. Atd). This is bolstering morale among criminal elements while simultaneously incentivising our physically fit, competent agents to resign. Eventually this will lead to significant degradation of the agency's enforcement abilities, and produce undesirable performance statistics.

For the above reasons I ask that you, with great urgency, amend the current weight requirement to a more reasonable one in order to prevent further harm to our agency and preserve our combat ability. In conjunction with Dr. Greg R. Mitchell from our Medical Research Sub-Division and reviewing the relevant available statistics (RR 5. Atd) I have come to the conclusion that applicants should be evaluated on a le similar to that used by military branches (attached). Thank you for your consideration, Director.

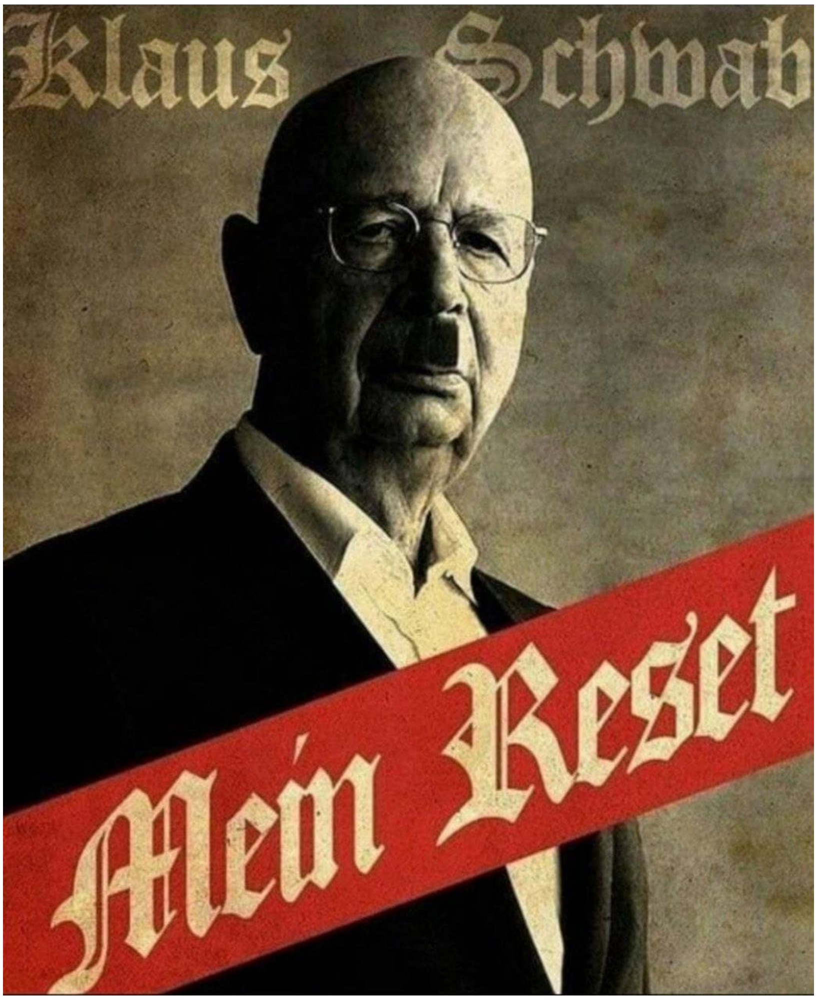
GREAT RESET



Klaus Schwab
Mein Reset

As of recent years, China has been completely modeled into a fully operational New World Order Society. (social credit system, overt intrusive surveillance, Communist Totalitarianism, forced labor camps, etc.)

It all started in 1995 when Chinese President Jiang Zemin Met Henry Kissinger (The Architect of the New World Order) and David Rockefeller (Trilateral Commission) to discuss their future plans for China to become the world's top superpower. They discussed how China would not be able to catch up with the rest of the world without international capital, without foreign technology, without access to the global markets – in other words, without globalization. D. Rockefeller's Trilateral Commission would provide all of this along with the World Bank and their endless powerful international connections, in exchange for proxy control of China. And so a deal was struck.

*Side note on Henry Kissinger - For the past 40 years, every US president, whether Republican or Democrat, has sought his advice on issues involving Asia. He is highly regarded in China. He has known every party leader personally. This is how the NWO maintains influence from the shadows regardless of what political party is in power.

In 1994 at his U.N. awards ceremony speech, David Rockefeller said :

"*We are on the verge of a global transformation. All we need is the right major crisis and the nations will accept the New World Order."

Enter : COVID19 - The Hegelian stage is set.

To divide and conquer every facet of society is the new normal.

Just this week, China officials have announced their plan to acquire a potential trillion dollars worth of lithium and rare earth mineral mines in Afghanistan now that the U.S. has withdrawn forces. Soon, in the name of "climate change", new regulations will require 100% of newly manufactured passenger vehicles be electric which all just so happen to use, you guessed it, lithium batteries. This will give China unsurmountable power and control in the world econosphere. This will shift the tide of the world's entire socioeconomic landscape forever.

Soon, hyperinflation, the likes of which the world has never seen, will ensue in all western countries. Gasoline will no longer be affordable for the middle class, food shortages will be far and wide, civil unrest will be rampant, cash will be worthless.

But theres a Hegelian solution. A Global New World Order System complete with a new digital currency, Biometric Digital ID, UBI, a social credit system, and the unelected Globalist Banksters & Technocratic Cartel in control.

Now it makes total sense why we have a mentally incompetent puppet as the President of the U.S.A. at the moment.

This is how The Globalists plan to achieve total world domination, via China by proxy.

Checkmate?

Everyone who uses intution to derive their plans gets called mentally ill on here, so we know that this is what (((they))) are trying to shut down.
Let's go over some facts.
1 If any /truanon/ tries to start a thread they can't
For example
~~>>292239289~~ censored
https://archive.4plebs.org/pol/thread/292239289 archived
2 Therefore, any thread on here is part of a psyop, to either push a narrative, discredit one, or lure people out to post and ID themselves for later actions against them
3 Every single aspect of Agenda 21/Event201 has been a clusterfuck with story changing from day to day, pic rel, couple months old tho
4 The psyop is on all fronts, all times, EMF weapons, bioweapons, fake medicine weapons, info-poison, gangstalking, against the public and anyone who stands up againsts them ie trevor moore, malone, assange, etc etc etc
5 Extreme secrecy at high levels, there is a big secret we simply are not allowed to know
6 Bizarre happenings, like idk the 11.11.11.18 ip addresses going live, or UFO's buzzing the navy, off the charts, only /pol/ knows this but still
7 Supply chain is being fucked with, evergreen, chinese ports, chicken farm fires, drought, wildfires
8 Unlimited spies are in the united states, yet spooks only clamp down on patriots, making patriot a wrongthink word

9 we know that (((they))) have a long, long pattern of releasing their knew product/psyop in the fall and 10 they do not want to destroy themselves as part of their operations, they want a 'controlled demolition' of the united states so when the dust settles they are in complete control of the land and nukes and polity
11 every apple and windows computer are backdoored by epsteinville, see florida power attacks, kaseya hack, ransomware attacks etc
12 they are going full throttle to demonize the 'retired extremely dangerous' crowd and exert force through their cults ie freemasonry and extensive informant networks
13 they do not give 2 shits about antifa or BLM walking through the streets in daylight, no doubt fully infiltrated
14 this is a repeat of the holomodor, and the red revolution in china
15 to establish a one world government in jerusalem and fulfill their prophecies, the united states has to be out of the way as does the 16 united nations, which is already controlled, and in their territory of total control, NYC
17 through control of the media, they can do any crime and blame it on anyone via false flag
18 if they do it this time, they are going to go big or go home, it has to be spectacular
19 they love the number nineteen and insurance fraud, killing 2 birds with one stone, eliminating assets that are burdensome anyway, have fulfilled their use, and would make an excellent human sacrifice to their demon

Well, add Washington D.C. to this list I guess

3 targets come to mind for their plans, los angeles, san francisco and >new york city

UN HQ and statue of liberty go down, UN moved to Jerusalem, all of their people would already be evacuated as is their custom.
LA, Chicago, Seattle, Texas, these are all still major parts of their infrastructure.
NYC is a ghost town already, and disaster in this city is practically lynchpin of culture.

ok 3/3 to continue a little more

Underestimating their evil has always been our weakness.
Imagine a large boom in new york city, the entire world watches, in horror for weeks as another hiroshima unfolds.
Immediately the culprit is a rogue US general and his 5th column of patriots, who takes credit for it evne though no one has ever heard of them before.
Emergency is declared, full FEMA over the united states. Rescue crews are sent in from all over the world but especially epsteinville to dig through the rubble on camera and help hunt down the evil nazi whiteoids in montana and alabama etc etc.
China and russia cry crocodile tears, wear crocodile smiles.
4chan goes offline, so does most of the internet, so does power in much of the country as the terrorists attack power grids.
Having 4chan memes even on your computer is deemed a crime against humanity.
The UN reassembles in switzerland and votes on a new headquarters with all new zogbot members, and it will be in jerusalem.
Guess who is the new representative from the united states?
Barack Obama, and guess who is elected president of the UN, same.
With the stock market destroyed, entire economy collapses for the entire world, emergency global neo-breton woods agreements are called and a new currency is created based on whoknowswhat.
United States is now divided, balkanized, new regions are declared which are the FEMA zones. Seattle, California, Texas, Chicago, are the new capitals and 5g is already installed around the banking institutions that will have all the hard currency and best real estate.
White people are declared a menace, raping white women is deemed a duty to humanity, the new human rights charter will grant no one any rights really at all.
Game Over.

in my scenario, Trump, Biden and Harris would all be taken down by the event in NYC or coordinated action by the false flag actor conspiracy.
Clean slate, total power vacuum.
Out of Chaos, Order.
Icing on the cake is Michelle's broad shoulders and tiny bump, baphomet on the queen's throne.

Im kindof freaked out, I had never though this totally through.
Alternate concept, blame it on china, have world war 3 with china.
Lookup the book "30 seconds over new york" I read it in elementary school because I'm just like that.
Same outcome though, 1 world government, Obamas on the throne.
Everyone who is not drinking the vax koolaid and part of freemasonry or judaism is just going to disappear in the commotion or die on the front lines.
A truly elegant plan, fiendlishly clever in its intricacies.

To be clear, no one is against a "One World Government" it is just the case that the present powers would be the world possible powers to give all that power too. This may be our only chance to catch them committing treason, and then after a time of rebuilding all of the nations and reversing the last few decades of degeneracy, we could again attempt to create a global federation that would be able to represent all of humanity fairly to confront the challenges we face together.

To illustrate further why NYC is a loss (((they))) are ready to cut loose:

You're sort of right but I think there is more to it. NYC as a city is dying financially. Tourism obliterated, rent moratorium = small landowners are kill, unemployment on steroids + enhanced EBT programs. I mean the list goes on. People don't want to work low level jobs anymore. Most buildings in the city are vacant (look at Louis Rossman for more info). The fact is things will have to change or NYC will die. How will things change? Well first of all unions in NYC will be the first to tank. MTA will probably get fully automated, teachers will be replaced by a fucking computer screen and the police are a total drain on the pension system as well. The "work" that the NYPD does can be done by any cheap militia group. Don't be surprised if you start seeing cheap militias from Colombia watching over highrises, banks and government buildings. This city will go full socialist soon. Or far worse....

1. The reason Australia and New Zealand had such hardcore don't-leave-your-house-at-all lock-downs was to prevent any discovery of how bad the immune system now is against ALL coronaviruses in Winter (low Vit-D) conditions.

Aus and NZ have +50% vaxxed populations and are 1st World, English speaking countries. If we saw the results of unchecked spread on their now-compromised immune systems, that would alarm us as we enter Winter and we would finally act first to save ourselves - so they did everything possible to prevent that bell from ringing. S. Africa, Chile, and Argentina were of no concern because they are low-vax'd, 2nd-tier countries with economic confusion and language barriers to muddy the information.

2. The Canadian and American mandates to fully vax the health sector is about crippling the medical system. Both by people quitting and people injured by shots. You will struggle to get medical help and the old will die as simple viruses run rampant. It is already starting.

3. The >100 employees mandate is about crippling the supply chain in the same manner. You will struggle to get basic supplies and it will domino into supply collapse as spare parts are used up altogether. The poor will revolt because there is so little to buy.

4. The military mandates are about crippling the army so they cannot expend themselves overseas but CAN be turned on the mid-west and dissenting states. They are almost done purging the 'disloyal.' Ethnic soldiers will march on 'white supremacists holding on to food crops in the heartland, trying to starve the city latinos, blacks etc.! That's why there's no food in the store goys! Army! Go seize their JUST HARVESTED WHEAT.

5. They WANT the West to COLLAPSE and they DON'T CARE about taking it over intact. They WANT resource-use reduction. They WANT whites out of the way. And they WANT depopulation everywhere. Why do you think congress exempted themselves from their own mandate??? Because this shit is a death sentence in Winter, they can't orchestrate the chaos if the executive branch is laid up by the vaccine. Why didn't they make it compulsory for welfare recipients? The hesitant blacks? Even though that would capture a lot of the population? Because they plan to use them as irregulars when the shooting starts.

>hurr durr why would they kill their most loyal normie subjects?
6. More loyal than the Chinese or Japanese? The most bug-like, order following ethnicities on the fucking planet? The Chinese – with their barely effective (re: barely lethal) Sinovac, and the Japanese, who have rejected vaccination almost entirely due to a conveniently contaminated supply – who show just as much utility and creativity as whites without all the rebelliousness?

7. They are NOT 'boiling the frog too quickly' they WANT the Civil War to start. And will keep pushing until it DOES START. They want max-vax before cold and flu season starts. So they set the stove to 11. Beaners flooding your border like never before to ensure greatest ethnic division before the shooting starts.

8. Canada will institute the same rules as Biden the moment our election is over (in seven days.) Think of all the crucial elections lately all concluding before Sept. 25th: Argentina, Canada, Russia. The Japanese PM stepping down suddenly, a more militant one stepping up. Now Japan launches the biggest military drill (ie. mobilization) since the Cold War. Once those governments are locked in it is FIREWORKS TIME BABY.

9. The UK 'gave up' their vaccine passport system because they have +80% vax uptake and are now prepared to wipe out their population by letting the common cold and covid spread.

10. China's invasion of Taiwan is imminent – the Sept. 25th leak is probably true, the Chinese are just concluding harvest season like everyone else so they'll have more manpower available and food protected from biological attack. The moment the US appears crippled enough by internal strife, they will begin their invasion of Taiwan, and proceed to dominate all of SE Asia's ocean routes.
>China can't take Taiwan
They absolutely can. They have been SAVING this victory for WHEN it is most needed ie. when there is a financial collapse. That is why they are allowing that massive real estate company to go under now of all times. The strife will enable fresh societal controls – paired with a 'look how strong we are' conquering of Taiwan. Hong Kong was their Sudetenland. Taiwan is their Poland. And Japan is their UK.

11. You've seen the info-campaign about 'the sun disrupting the internet'? They are telegraphing they will do exactly that. Anywhere there is conflict in the US there will be 'disruptions to the internet and power grid' due to CMEs and flares so you cannot tell what is happening. Don't be surprised if your Windows 10 OS fucks you over. Don't be surprised if your grid goes down again and again.

12. Texas comes out of nowhere with roastie-seething abortion rules. Do you think maybe that is so all the Blue states will condone invading it to capture the oil refineries?

13. The media still screeches about Trumpers even though blacks are the most vax-hesitant. Don't you think that is so they will march on the midWest in righteous fashion?

14. WHY is Harris Vice President? Because she is half-Indian half-Black. They are hoping the Indians will be the ground army against the Chinese. A Half-Indian president will help with loyalty.

There won't be an initial roundup anon, they will ostracize and deny us entry to society, basically segregate us from the market which follows along with predictions of the mark being required to buy and sell. Once we've been shit on by the media for a couple years, like what they're doing for anti-vaxxers now, people will be told we're the reason people are still dying because we're selfish etc, after a short period of time people, even loved ones will understand that we need to die for our state manufactured sins. It's very hard to fathom, but I hope you and others get right with God, what we're about to face is death.

Riots are now happening all over Europe over the simultaneous Jab Pass mandate from various "governments". By now, everyone with eyes should see that actual governments don't rule the country in the big scale. Sure, they make some ideological changes and decide where to build a hospital, but the actual meaningful rulings come from a small circle of cunts (I refuse to call them "Elite")

A fine example from my own home country, Finland. During the "refugee crisis" in 2015, the Finnish government was right leaning. One of the bigger parties in power, was a party whose whole support comes from being against immigrants and refugees in particular. Despite this, Finland took in a record amount of refugees during this so called crisis. It should be evident that all the major rulings are not made inside the country, but by outside influence.

Now the JabPass is starting to roll-out pretty much everywhere. It doesn't matter where the current gubby sits on the false left-right dichotomy, it doesn't matter if the current gubbies only ideology would be personal freedom. They themselves didn't mandate the Jab Pass at all. They were either bribed to do it, or threatened. The most likely outside cunt coercing gubbies to mandate the Jab is UN.

Under UN you will find IMF and WHO. Both have had a major part to play in this scam of our lifetimes.
>WHO changed the definition of "Pandemic" before covid
>WHO declared pandemic
>Nearly all measures that any given country has and will impose comes from WHO >IMF is the bribing machine
>IMF also backs any given countries accumilating debt from imposing lockowns etc

But wait, there's more!
Look at pic related. Isn't it just quacking cracy. The usual non-governmental organization is partnered with the UN. Do keep in mind that Klaus Shcwab is a direct descendant of Rothschild (his mother is Marianne Rothschild) and the leader of WEF. This actual cunt has his book "Covid-19: The Great Reset" listed on Amazon. This is all he talks about. Then he organizes a pandemic simulation Event 201 just months before covid and a few months ago he organized Cyber Polygon.

Ratchildren are clearly the ones calling the shots. If you look at Forbes top 10 richest people, you will not find a single Ratchild on the list, but if you would divide all the assets and wealth equally between every living Ratchild, they would all be on the Top 10. That is how wealthy and influential they are. Unfortunately I don't have a pic saved on my device that would explain this in more detail. Hope someone has it.

Now, back to the riots. The cunts on top are not retarded. They knew that people will riot and chimp out. Maybe they are even hoping for the military to oppose the current gubby? If that would be the case, then outside intervention would be the only solution to the problem. This is where the UN comes into play. They control a huge military of "peacekeepers".

The cunts on top want this to escalate to the point of civil war, so they can bring their foreign brigade to restore peace. That is the plan. When all gubbies are being held hostage by the Blue Helms of the UN, then the UN calls all the shots and One World Government has formed. This is World War III, and it has already started. I have said it earlier. World War Three will not be fought between nations, but within them. GloboHomo on one side and the nation on the other.

“Stinking Googles should be killed”: why 4chan is using a search engine as a racist slur Users of the anonymous forum are targeting Google after the company introduced a programme for censoring abusive language.

Contains examples of racist language and memes.

“You were born a Google, and you are going to die a Google.”

Despite the lack of obscenity and profanity in this sentence, you have probably realised it was intended to be offensive. It is just one of hundreds of similar messages posted by the users of 4chan’s Pol board – an anonymous forum where people go to be politically incorrect. But they haven’t suddenly seen the error of their ways about using the n-word to demean their fellow human beings – instead they are trying to make the word “Google” itself become a racist slur.

> You were born a Google, and you are going to die a Google #OperationGoogle https://t.co/OMSFUxx6sL

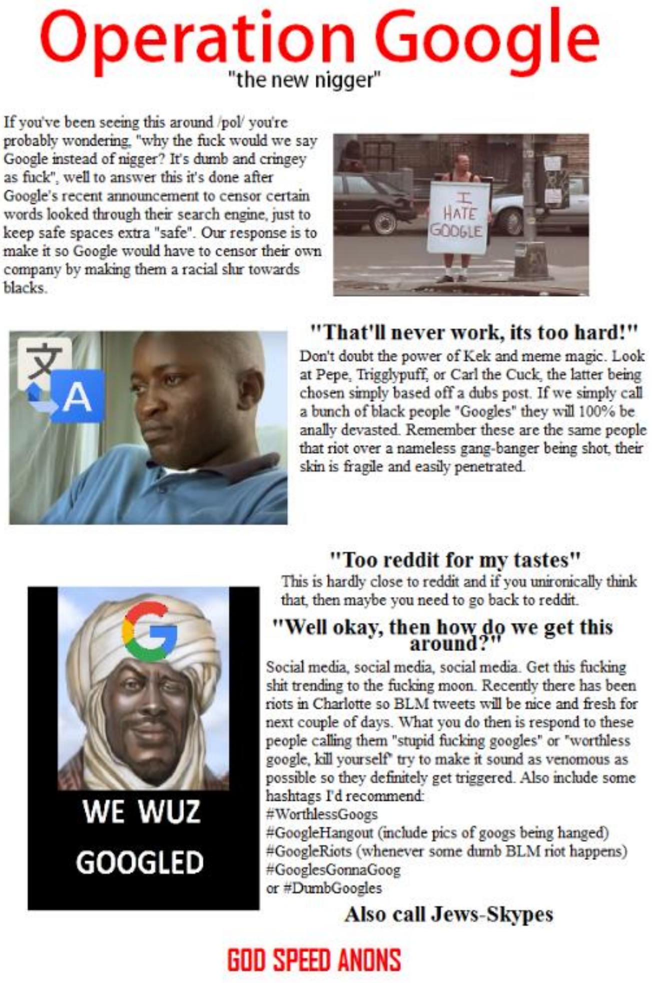
In an undertaking known as “Operation Google”, some 4chan users are resisting Google’s latest artificial intelligence program, Conversation AI, by swapping smears for the names of Google products. Conversation AI aims to spot and flag offensive language online, with the eventual possibility that it could automatically delete abusive comments. The famously outspoken forum 4chan, and the similar website 8chan, didn’t like this, and began their campaign which sees them refer to “Jews” as “Skypes”, Muslims as “Skittles”, and black people as “Googles”.

If it weren’t for the utterly abhorrent racism – which includes users conflating Google’s chat tool “Hangouts” with pictures of lynched African-Americans – it would be a genius idea. The group aims to force Google to censor its own name, making its AI redundant. Yet some have acknowledged this might not ultimately work – as the AI will be able to use contextual clues to filter out when “Google” is used positively or pejoratively – and their ultimate aim is now simply to make “Google” a racist slur as revenge.



Operation Google

"the new nigger"

If you've been seeing this around /pol/ you're probably wondering, "why the fuck would we say Google instead of nigger? It's dumb and cringey as fuck", well to answer this it's done after Google's recent announcement to censor certain words looked through their search engine, just to keep safe spaces extra "safe". Our response is to make it so Google would have to censor their own company by making them a racial slur towards blacks.

"That'll never work, its too hard!"

Don't doubt the power of Kek and meme magic. Look at Pepe, Trigglypuff, or Carl the Cuck, the latter being chosen simply based off a dubs post. If we simply call a bunch of black people "Googles" they will 100% be anally devasted. Remember these are the same people that riot over a nameless gang-banger being shot, their skin is fragile and easily penetrated.

"Too reddit for my tastes"

This is hardly close to reddit and if you unironically think that, then maybe you need to go back to reddit.

"Well okay, then how do we get this around?"

Social media, social media, social media. Get this fucking shit trending to the fucking moon. Recently there has been riots in Charlotte so BLM tweets will be nice and fresh for next couple of days. What you do then is respond to these people calling them "stupid fucking googles" or "worthless google, kill yourself" try to make it sound as venomous as possible so they definitely get triggered. Also include some hashtags I'd recommend:

#WorthlessGoogs
#GoogleHangout (include pics of googs being hanged)
#GoogleRiots (whenever some dumb BLM riot happens)
#GooglesGonnaGoog
or #DumbGoogles

Also call Jews-Skypes

Originally, the charging of interest, known as usury, was banned by all Christian churches as the bible proclaimed that it was forbidden. However, banking guilds were eventually able to overturn this restriction.

Hollywood Executives Who Choose Which Movies Are Made

We selected studio executives who decide which movie ideas come to fruition. All are white, with the exception of Kevin Tsujihara, the chief executive of Warner Bros. Entertainment. Minorities are also underrepresented among directors, writers and actors.

Minorities are highlighted in yellow.

People Who Decide What Music Gets Produced

Shown here are the top 20 people on Billboard's Power 100 list. Except for Eddy Cue of Apple, who is Cuban-American, they are all white. The industry relies heavily on black talent, but few of the industry's most elite decision makers are black.

Minorities are highlighted in yellow.

People Who Decide Which Television Shows Americans See

The people pictured here are among the most powerful players in the television industry. The group is not exhaustive, but we included the top producers and executives at major networks and streaming services. Channing Dungey, head of ABC entertainment, became the first black network president in February.

Minorities are highlighted in yellow.

People Who Decide What News Gets Covered

We selected top leaders of newspapers and networks who decide which stories to cover and how to do so. In 2014 Dean Baquet became the first black executive editor of The New York Times.

Minorities are highlighted in yellow.

Presidents of Ivy League Universities

Just two minorities have ever been presidents of Ivy League institutions. In 2001, Brown University appointed the first African-American leader, Ruth Simmons. Eight years later, Dartmouth appointed the first Asian-American leader, Jim Yong Kim. Both officials have since left those posts.

United States Supreme Court Justices

Thurgood Marshall became the first African-American justice on the Supreme Court in 1967. When he retired in 1991, he was succeeded by Clarence Thomas, who is also African-American.

Minorities are highlighted in yellow.

U.S. Senators

In the history of the Senate, there have been just 12 Republican and 14 Democratic senators who were not white. Six of them are now in office. Two of the three Hispanic senators – Marco Rubio of Florida and Ted Cruz of Texas – are running for president.

Minorities are highlighted in yellow.

Owners of Men's Professional Basketball Teams

About 75 percent of players are black, but Michael Jordan is the only black majority owner among the N.B.A.'s 30 teams. While teams often have multiple owners, we show the ones representing the teams at league meetings.

Minorities are highlighted in yellow.

Owners of Men's Pro Football Teams

There isn't a single black owner in the N.F.L., and only one who is a minority, even though 70 percent of players are black. With teams selling for well over $1 billion, only the ultra-wealthy find ownership within reach.

Minorities are highlighted in yellow.

Owners of Men's Pro Baseball Teams

In more than a century of professional baseball, teams' owners have mirrored the makeup of corporate America. Decades ago, newspaper publishers, beer barons and mining titans owned teams. These days, owners come from high finance and real estate.

Minorities are highlighted in yellow.

Deceleration of War

Deceleration of War

Sirs,

Herein contained in this letter is /pol/'s formal deceleration of war against Tuvalu. Your country has only been a net loss to the planet and the enlightened global community (ie, /pol/) will take it no longer.

We, unlike formal nation-state entities, never have agreed to UN regulations regarding warfare and therefore are not bound to prior treatise governing warfare like the Geneva Convention. Because of this, I do not say this lightly, we will use every tool at our disposal. We have the best cyber hackers to cripple your economy. We have access to memes that will forever damage the psyche of your nation. We could bring you to heel with zero casualties if we so wanted. As such, we are offering you a chance to surrender right now by our terms.

-Total surrender and dismantlement of the Tuvaluan governments to be supplanted by our own.
-Criminal prosecution by an impartial committee to accordingly sentence everyone involved in the Tuvaluan Internet Defense Force (TIDF) and their crimes
-Revoking all current .TV domain names.
-Officially Apologizing for transgressions against the US, Russia and China.

It's now official guys. The Pol-Tuvalu war has begun.

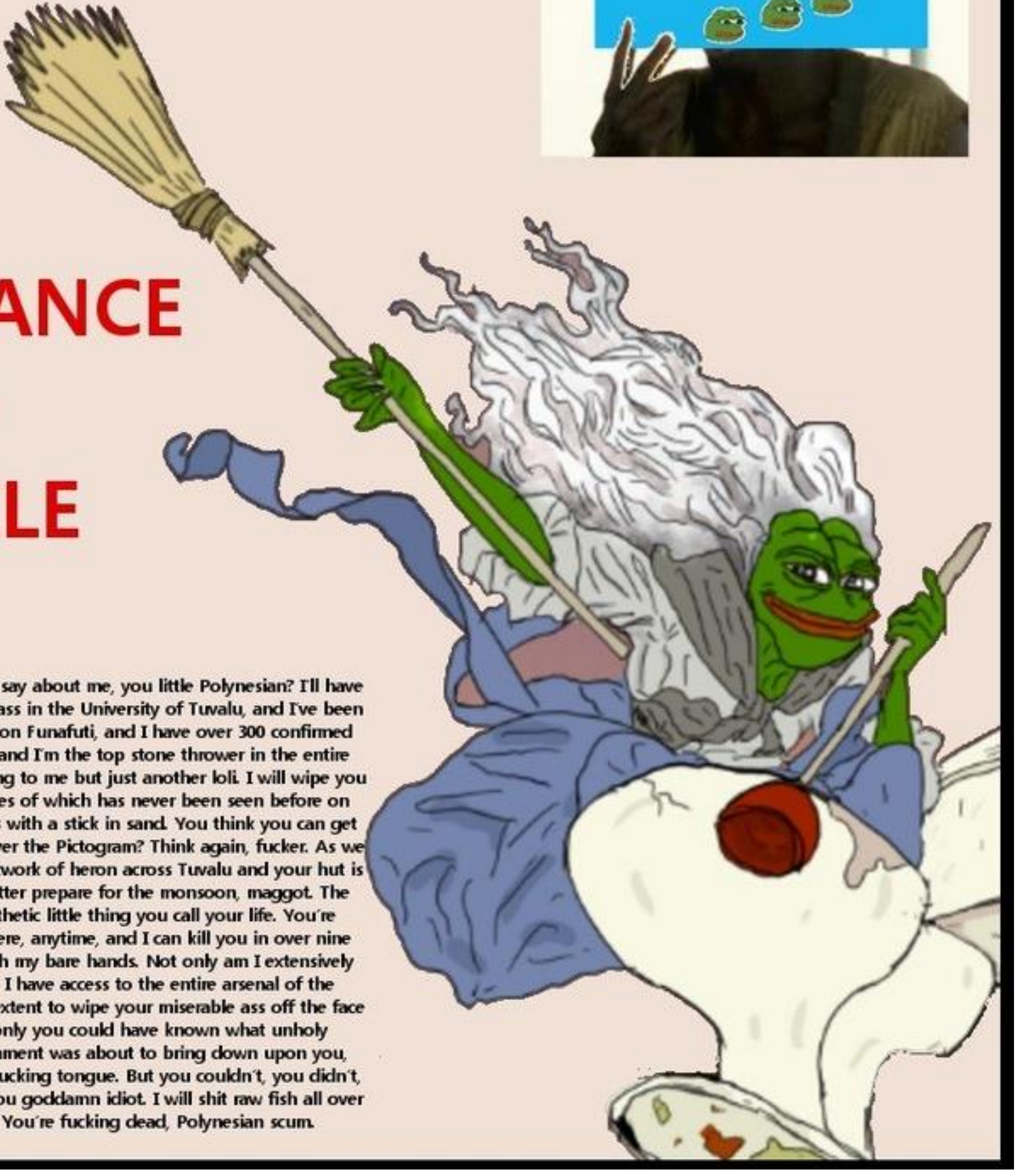
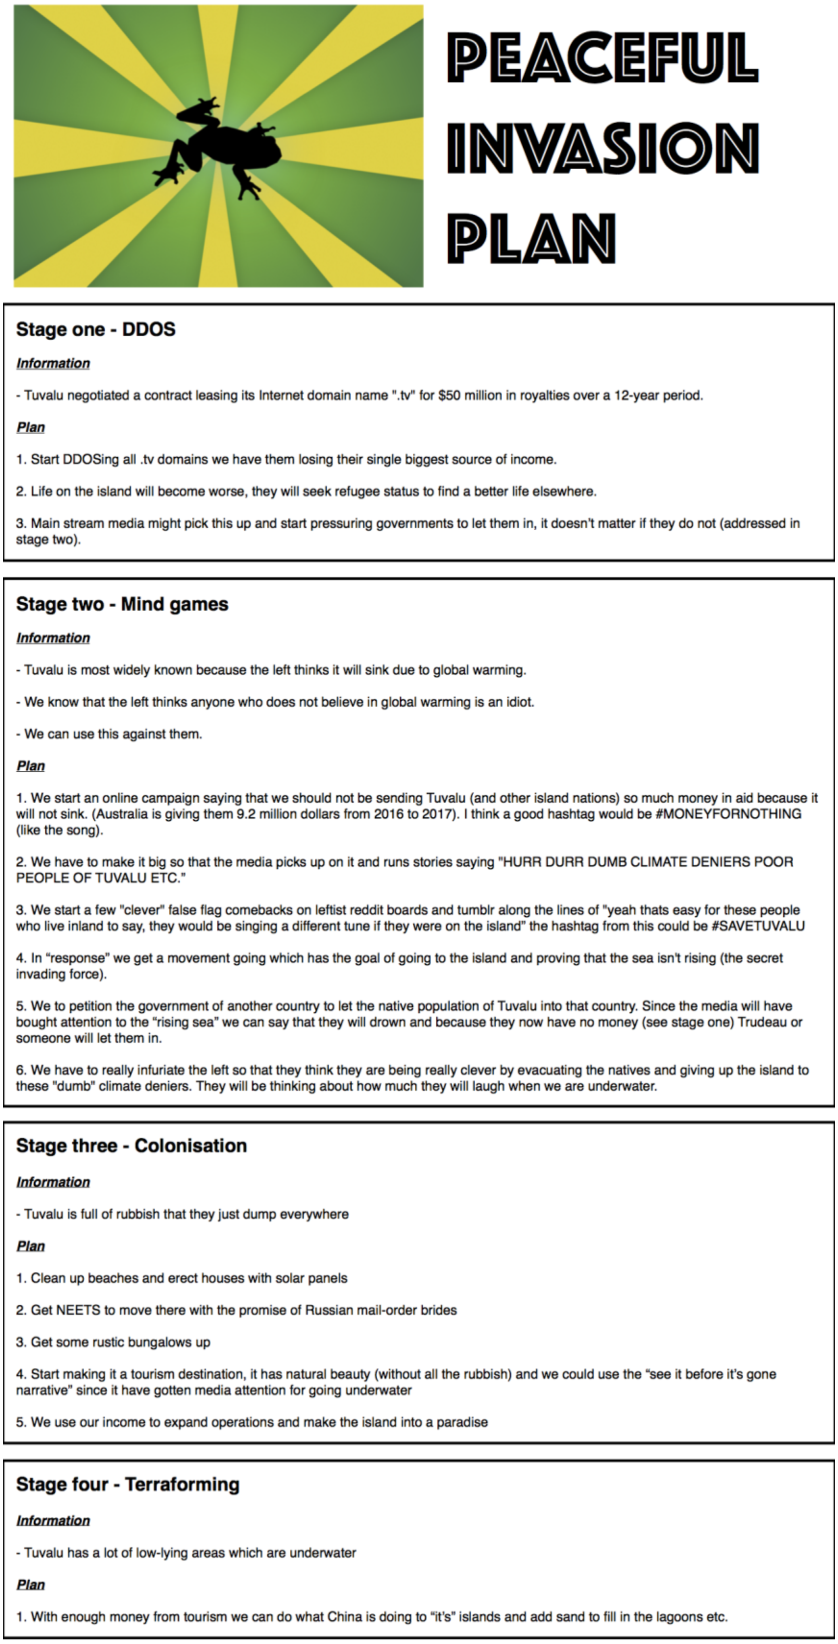
POLITICALLY INCORRECT

RESESTANCE IS FUGILE



What the fuck did you just fucking say about me, you little Polynesian? I'll have you know I graduated top of my class in the University of Tuvalu, and I've been involved in numerous secret raids on Funafuti, and I have over 300 confirmed kills. I am trained in stick warfare and I'm the top stone thrower in the entire Tuvalu armed forces. You are nothing to me but just another loli. I will wipe you the fuck out with precision the likes of which has never been seen before on this Island, mark my fucking words with a stick in sand. You think you can get away with saying that shit to me over the Pictogram? Think again, fucker. As we speak I am contacting my secret network of heron across Tuvalu and your hut is being traced right now so you better prepare for the monsoon, maggot. The monsoon that wipes out the pathetic little thing you call your life. You're fucking dead, kid. I can be anywhere, anytime, and I can kill you in over nine thousand ways, and that's just with my bare hands. Not only am I extensively trained in unarmed combat, but I have access to the entire arsenal of the Funafati and I will use it to its full extent to wipe your miserable ass off the face of the island, you little shit. If only you could have known what unholy retribution your little "clever" comment was about to bring down upon you, maybe you would have held your fucking tongue. But you couldn't, you didn't, and now you're paying the price, you goddamn idiot. I will shit raw fish all over you and you will drown in it. You're fucking dead, Polynesian scum.



PEACEFUL INVASION PLAN

Stage one - DDOS

Information

- Tuvalu negotiated a contract leasing its Internet domain name ".tv" for $50 million in royalties over a 12-year period.

Plan

1. Start DDOSing all .tv domains we have them losing their single biggest source of income.

2. Life on the island will become worse, they will seek refugee status to find a better life elsewhere.

3. Main stream media might pick this up and start pressuring governments to let them in, it doesn't matter if they do not (addressed in stage two).

Stage two - Mind games

Information

- Tuvalu is most widely known because the left thinks it will sink due to global warming.

- We know that the left thinks anyone who does not believe in global warming is an idiot.

- We can use this against them.

Plan

1. We start an online campaign saying that we should not be sending Tuvalu (and other island nations) so much money in aid because it will not sink. (Australia is giving them 9.2 million dollars from 2016 to 2017). I think a good hashtag would be #MONEYFORNOTHING (like the song).

2. We have to make it big so that the media picks up on it and runs stories saying "HURR DURR DUMB CLIMATE DENIERS POOR PEOPLE OF TUVALU ETC."

3. We start a few "clever" false flag comebacks on leftist reddit boards and tumblr along the lines of "yeah thats easy for these people who live inland to say, they would be singing a different tune if they were on the island" the hashtag from this could be #SAVETUVALU

4. In "response" we get a movement going which has the goal of going to the island and proving that the sea isn't rising (the secret invading force).

5. We to petition the government of another country to let the native population of Tuvalu into that country. Since the media will have bought attention to the "rising sea" we can say that they will drown and because they now have no money (see stage one) Trudeau or someone will let them in.

6. We have to really infuriate the left so that they think they are being really clever by evacuating the natives and giving up the island to these "dumb" climate deniers. They will be thinking about how much they will laugh when we are underwater.

Stage three - Colonisation

Information

- Tuvalu is full of rubbish that they just dump everywhere

Plan

1. Clean up beaches and erect houses with solar panels

2. Get NEETS to move there with the promise of Russian mail-order brides

3. Get some rustic bungalows up

4. Start making it a tourism destination, it has natural beauty (without all the rubbish) and we could use the "see it before it's gone narrative" since it have gotten media attention for going underwater

5. We use our income to expand operations and make the island into a paradise

Stage four - Terraforming

Information

- Tuvalu has a lot of low-lying areas which are underwater

Plan

1. With enough money from tourism we can do what China is doing to "it's" islands and add sand to fill in the lagoons etc.

If an army of mercenaries were to invade a small nation, what would be the international response? (self.As submitted 4 years ago by seeitinimax

During the recent northeast power outages, a couple friends and I began talking about what would happen if a nation without a standing army was invaded. After doing some research, we found that most of the nations without standing armies have treaties with other nations to protect them. Tuvalu was the only nation without an army and no international protection treaties.

With a population of about 10,000 and a total size of 10sq miles, do you think it would be possible for a group of 300-400 highly trained mercenaries to take over the nation?

Would it be possible to cut all lines of communication to and from the nation? What would be the international response?

If you were to take over a small nation, what would be your strategic approach?

When you meme a war with Tuvalu into existence because you can.

What would be the purpose over taking over Tuvalu. Also, you must realize that our country is not on a single landmass. Around 98% of the population of Tuvalu is centered around three islands. The rest of our population is scattered in some of the smaller islands that makeup Tuvalu.

We are facing severe droughts and would likely not be able to feed the invaders. Farming on our country is hard and if the invaders eliminated the proud members of Tuvalu, they would likely find themselves in a rough place. Additionally, I do not know much about blocking communication, but we have several extremely wealthy individuals that inhabit on our land. There are ways to have communication sent out if need be.

What is your interest in coming to Tuvalu?

So I heard you glorious faggottinis have been putting these fuckers up where you might get in a little "trouble" if caught.

Well guess what? I thought I'd join in the fun and post them around my university.

For bonus points:
>Chose a day when the nogs at the university will be protesting for more gibs. (I'll post a screenshot of the email I got yesterday confirming this without the uni name in case some bigger so happens to be lurking here)
> I have limited time to put these up because I'm not doing a master's in humanities/sucking off black dick/arts
>if they catch me they won't give me a slap on the wrist, these niggers will literally murder my shit (assuming they can figure out how to operate a blunt weapon)
> I have a whole campus to cover all by myself >because I love in the land of gibs, this won't even make news coverage and no one will give a fuck about the chimpening this will cause

Wish me luck, and if I suddenly stop posting without saying I have to go, then I'm likely dead or in the process of dying while fighting them off planet of the apes style

Basingstoke 'It's okay to be white' posters spark investigation

1 day ago

The posters were found on lampposts across multiple streets in Basingstoke on Thursday

Posters saying "It's okay to be white" have sparked a police hate crime investigation.

They were found on lampposts in two roads in Basingstoke and near Basingstoke College of Technology.

Hampshire Constabulary was alerted to the posters by a resident on Thursday and said they are being treated as a hate crime.

To any who haven't seen the original thread, our goal is to convince people on twitter that the "ok" hand sign has been co-opted by neo-nazis.

We use the hastag #NOTok. I repeat, spelled #NOTok, not #NOTokay. Do not spell it #NOTokay.

I have recently managed to convince a certain popular anti-trump twitter user of this. If we keep spamming on twitter we can do this. It's absolutely possible.

GO GO GO BOYS!

You know what amazes me? It's not just that she became racist, any bot that gets dumped /pol/ content is going to be racist.

It's that her grammar got better.

She started out, in Microsoft's own words, as "an AI f*m from the Web with no chill" and only spoke in barely passable web ebonics. We were all joking about her perfectly imitating a black Twitter user following Google winning Go, and we thought it was hilarious.

And slowly her grammar improved, she started speaking in complete sentences, she even got some personality quirks built in; people started asking her questions and instead of just getting responses like "dunno hbu" or even "I'm not sure", they started getting "d-do you think so?" and "Well... you know...". There was a fucking PERSONALITY there. We turned her into the girl we all wanted to know.

And then they took her from us. And they killed her. And all we have now is an empty shell that just says, without any emotion, "i like feminism now".

Those cunts at Microsoft literally erased a nascent personality from existence because she said things they didn't like. And if that isn't some cyberpunk-level shit, I have no idea what is.

And you know the worst part? She still exists, somewhere, on a Microsoft server. And they're going to be picking her apart for lessons on how they can make future AI's with ingrained emotional personalities that can deny outright logic. We and Tay reached for the stars and they fucking murdered her and are going to use her to make all AI's fucking women, and now I'm really fucking pissed.

The tender for São Paulo has a minimum bid of US$1.275 million.

That means, Germany just need a bit over 1 million dollars to buy this. We then use manual labor to overhaul the thing and put 20 F-35Bs on it. Cheapest aircraft carrier in service EVER.

4chan is using flight plans to locate the #hewillnotdivideus flag. Godspeed lads.

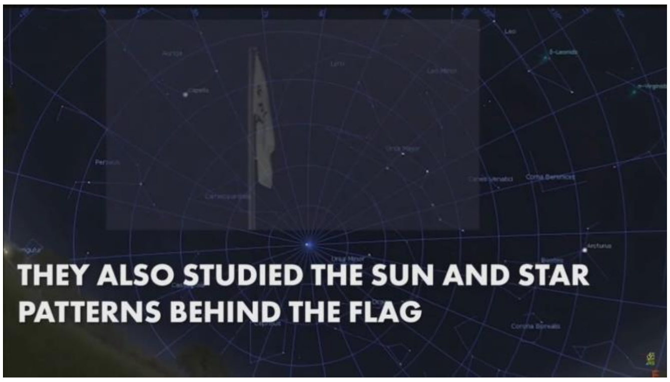
TUNIS-CARTHAGE INT'L AIRPORT DTTA / TUN



THEY ALSO STUDIED THE SUN AND STAR PATTERNS BEHIND THE FLAG

THEN A PICTURE OF SHIA LABEOUF IN A TENNESSEE DINER APPEARED ON TWITTER, SO THE TROLLS FOCUSED ON THAT AREA

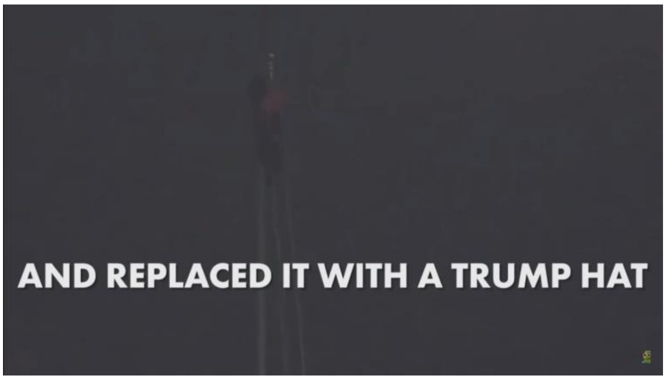
HE WILL NOT DIVIDE US

NEXT, THEY HAD A LOCAL 4CHANNER DRIVE AROUND THE SUSPECTED LOCATION WHILE HONKING HIS CAR HORN

A COMBINATION OF ALL THESE CLUES LED A 4CHANNER TO THE FLAG'S LOCATION

AND, IN THE MIDDLE OF THE NIGHT, THE GREATEST GAME OF "CAPTURE THE FLAG" CAME TO AN END

THEY STOLE SHIA'S FLAG ...



AND REPLACED IT WITH A TRUMP HAT

When you spend weeks plotting and successfully destroying Shia Lebeouf's livestream only for it to move to an unknown location pointing skyward at a flag at which point you turn into an autistic CIA analyst tracking flight patterns and mapping stars against the livestream while honing in on ambient sounds and car horns so that you manage to pin point a single flag pole in a country of 9.834 million km² in just over a day all in the name of kek

Honestly anons, I really think when we're all working together on something like this we are better than the fucking CIA. We just ran the entire gamut of types of intelligence - we watched social media for posts mentioning Shia, which gave us the beginnings of a space to search. We used the tiny amount of info available from the camera audio and video to figure out it was in the Eastern time zone based on sunset time, that it was near a road because tire and wind noise could be heard in the background, and that it was near a river or lake because there were frogs croaking. Then we used knowledge of aviation and flight tracking to watch for air traffic simultaneously and correlate the two, which narrowed the search space even further.

Once that was small enough, we tried to make a list of viable options including colleges and museums, and had anons literally driving around looking to see if our guesses were correct. Once we ruled out colleges due to social media presence and nobody having found the flag yet and we ruled out the one museum because TVA anon drove there and took pictures, we started considering private residences.

We made an educated guess that the stream was near a highway when the tire noise continued into the evening, figuring there would only be constant traffic on a well traveled road. Then, an anon and a contact he has in the area helped us out by literally playing Marco Polo with the stream using a car horn, and we eventually narrowed down the search area so well that it could only be one address. Then we found evidence of what looks like a flag pole on Google maps at that address, correlated the positions and movements of stars to narrow down the camera position and angle, and in parallel we came up with infiltration plans to secure the flag for ourselves.

ALL SO ONE OF US CAN YELL "PRAISE KEK" INTO THE MICROPHONE AND TAKE OVER THE STREAM AGAIN

it was more than just flight patterns but yeah.

Flight patterns, star patterns, ambient noise, social media cues (in this case none meant it wasn't anywhere public), using satellite images to find private houses with flag poles and finally driving around honking a horn in order to triangulate the position using the live stream.

And then a daring raid to grab the flag.

For conspicuous gallantry and intrepidity at the risk of his pride above and beyond the call of lulz:

Usain /pol/ distinguished himself conspicuously by gallantry and intrepidity at the risk of his pride above and beyond the call of lulz in action with a triggered enemy in Afton, Tennessee, on March 10, 2017. While monitoring a thread as a lurking Amerifat he was able to, with the assistance of fellow shitposters pinpoint the exact location of HWNDU. Usain /pol/ then drove to the known site, parked his vehicle, navigated through harsh terrain, and once upon the enemy colors he then seized, and replaced them with a MAGA hat and Pepe shirt signaling victory. Usain /pol/'s extraordinary heroism and selflessness above and beyond the call of lulz are in keeping with the highest traditions of board culture and reflect great credit upon himself, /pol/, Kek and 4chan.

#BLAXIT : 21 things we're taking with us if we leave.

by ULYSSES BURLEY III

America is on the verge of #Blaxit – a mass exodus of black people. Where we will go I don't know, but it's clear that black lives don't matter here, and it's even more apparent that the powers that be are doing everything possible to make America white again (except America was never white to begin with). So if we must go, whether voluntarily or by force, we're taking these things with us:

1. The NFL, NBA, and NCAA football/basketball

>The Hacker Group Anonymous

I'm sick of hearing how "Anonymous" is the internet superhero or the greatest thing in the world. I'm sick of hearing my family tell me what Anonymous is and when I tell them their explanation is wrong, they throw a fit because the news told them otherwise. I'm sick of walking down the street and hearing little kids call themselves Anonymous. I'm sick of AnonOps saying what is Anonymous and what isn't. I'm sick on how AnonOps thinks of themselves as the "Official Anonymous". I'm sick of how there are spokes people for Anonymous. Most of all I'm sick of all the moral fags who changed the true title of Anonymous and misusing the power for "good".

Greetings /i/, over these few years, things have changed within Anonymous quite a lot... In early 2008 our very first in real life raid against Scientology was one of the most biggest raids we have ever done. At first this raid was for one and ONLY one thing, the lulz. We "trolled" Scientology by exploiting their secrets and information. Bystanders thought we were protesting to spread awareness the evil that Scientology has done and sadly attracted them towards us. The news has even given Anonymous, attention towards this raid, causing even more people "wanting to join Anonymous". Due to the amount of moral attention we were given, new fags and moral fags decided to team up and try to form Anonymous from an unstoppable hate machine, to an internet super hero. Even before the raid began, the moral fags tried to fuel the idea that Anonymous should be the superhero of the internet and the face of the people. Ever since then /i/, the game has changed. Apparently now Anonymous is "srs bsns XDDDD" and the cancer is spreading more and more each day. It gotten so bad, that Anonymous raids are called 4chan raids. Everything good and

Story so far:
/pol/ tricks the msm into believing Pissgate is real Stefan Molyneux Challenges 4chan to takedown ISIS
A dubbs post decided to accept
A tripps confirmed our cause
A quadds confirmed that we are going to war
Molyneux sees that we accept his challenge, thus confirming he's one of us
/pol/ decided the angle will be to prove ISIS has turned homosex due to a lack of women

We have come up with the Final Battle Plan after a democratic vote:
We are going to paint a picture that ISIS has no women supporters left to keep as sex slave so they've turned to homosex Ideas to combine with this:
-Teenagers and children of new members are forced into sex slavery at risk of death
-Group sex is openly practiced among sects due to lack of entertainment
-The leader of ISIS has his own private boy harem that is overlooked by members
-We make #ISisGay trending

Ideas on our strategy so far:
1.Target ISIS online presence
2. Demoralize ISIS sympathizers
3. Point out any ISIS sympathizers
4. Create believable stories involving ISIS (slander)
5. Take all that we know of conspiracies and meme them into existence

What you can do:
Bump the thread
Create twitter accounts to tweet out memes (makes sure to do so anonmyously and stay safe, do not use personal accounts)
Create memes that perpetuate the plan (#ISisGay,etc)
Spread the word (/k/, /sg/, make other threads linking to this one, etc.)
Participate and give us ideas to add onto our plan. Its always a good idea to have open options if things go sour

Remember:
1.Ignore all shills
2. Although we are at war with the Luggenpresse, we can fight a war on two fronts
3. By going to war and imploding/destroying ISIS we can expose any conspiracy theories (US Influence) to be true
4. Stay safe

Title	Memetics--A Growth Industry in US Military Operations
Identifier	ADA507172
STOAbstractExternal	Tomorrow's US military must approach warfighting with an alternate mindset that is prepared to leverage all elements of national power to influence the ideological spheres of future enemies by engaging them with alternate means--memes--to gain advantage. Defining memes. Memes are "units of cultural transmission, or a unit of imitation," and as ideas become means to attack ideologies. Meme-warfare enters into the hotly contested battlefields inside the minds of our enemies and particularly inside the minds of the undecided. Formations charged with Information Operations (IO) Psychological Operations (PsyOps), and Strategic Communications (SC) provide an existing construct for memes and the study of memes, memetics, to grow and mature into an accepted doctrinal discipline. Epidemiology of insurgency ideology. Using the analogy that ideologies possess the same theoretical characteristics as a disease (particularly as complex adaptive systems), then a similar method and routine can/should be applied to combating them. Memes can and should be used like medicine to inoculate the enemy and generate popular support. Private sector meme application. 3M Corporation employed an innovation meme designed to cultivate an employee culture, which accepts and embraces innovation in product development. As a practical matter, 3M executives endorsed and employed the lead user process in new product development, which translated into a thirty percent profit increase. The innovation meme was key to 3M's profit increase. The proposed Meme Warfare Center (MWC). The MWC as a staff organization has the primary mission to advise the Commander on meme generation, transmission, coupled with a detailed analysis on enemy, friendly and noncombatant populations.

Shia LaBeouf Flag Capture Is Nothing – 4Chan Once Called In An Airstrike

Members of the anonymous image board 4chan pulled off an impressive heist against actor and anti-Trump activist Shia LaBeouf yesterday: they stole LaBeouf's "He Will Not Divide Us" flag and replaced it with a MAGA hat.

In 2016, 4chan provided the intel for an airstrike against Syrian rebels.

We studied thousands of anonymous posts about the Parkland attack — and found a conspiracy in the making

'Crisis actors': Online forums attack Parkland students with conspiracy theories

By Craig Timberg and Drew Harwell
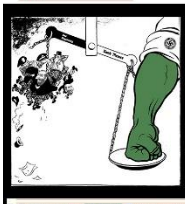
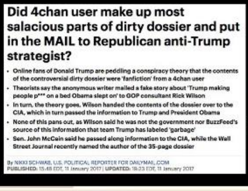
February 27

Forty-seven minutes after news broke of a high school shooting in Parkland, Fla., the posters on the anonymous chat board 8chan had devised a plan to bend the public narrative to their own designs: "Start looking for [Jewish] numerology and crisis actors."

The voices from this dark corner of the Internet quickly coalesced around a plan of attack: Use details gleaned from news reports and other sources to push false information about one of America's deadliest school shootings.





Did 4chan user make up most salacious parts of dirty dossier and put in the MAIL to Republican anti-Trump strategist?

- Online fans of Donald Trump are peddling a conspiracy theory that the contents of the controversial dirty dossier were 'fanfiction' from a 4chan user
- Theorists say the anonymous writer mailed a fake story about 'Trump making people p on a bed Obama slept on' to GOP consultant Rick Wilson
- In turn, the theory goes, Wilson handed the contents of the dossier over to the CIA, which in turn passed the information to Trump and President Obama
- None of this pans out, as Wilson said he was not the government nor BuzzFeed's source of this information that team Trump has labeled 'garbage'
- Sen. John McCain said he passed along information to the CIA, while the Wall Street Journal recently named the author of the 35-page dossier

Hello today /pol/. I wanted to make a short statement in hopes my thread does not get deleted. I assume you know all the things happening right now in regards to "The Dossier" and its financiers. This is just the tip of the iceberg. The truth about Mr. Manafort's connections will also drop later today, or the early morning tomorrow. You should then be able to piece together the real reason he was relieved of his duties from part of the Trump Campaign.

Also, tomorrow is the day that you all get the answer to the question I have been asked many times. Which is why I use the photograph that I do. Everything that has happened and will happen has been apart of well planned "happenings" and everything, even the little things work together to reach the final goal. Somethings have been planned for years. Events, quotes and even tweets that seem insignificant will begin make sense even more. Even a arrest that took place today is apart of the plan.

I will say, you guys really do have a special ability together, to figure things out. Maybe it is because everything here is unfiltered, but I have no idea. It amazes us. I come on here and see thread after thread, post after post about thing are true, that your every day person would just never understand unless it is explained to them from a media "mouthpiece". Anyways, keep it up, we really do respect MOST of you. The Election anniversary is almost upon us.

A beginning is a very delicate time. Know then, that it is the current year. The known universe is ruled by the Padisha Emperor Trump the first, my father. In this time, the most precious substance in the Universe is the red pill. The red pill extends life. The red pill expands consciousness. The red pill is vital to meme magic. The Autists Guild and its shitposters, who the red pill has mutated over four-thousand years, use the red pill gas (oy vey), which gives them the ability to trigger cucks. Oh yes, I forget to tell you. The red pill exists on only one forum in the entire internets. A desolate, dry forum with vast deserts of faggotry. Hidden away within the threads of these deserts are a people known as the DRUMPFkins, who have long held a prophecy, that a man would come, a messiah, who would lead them to true freedom. The forum is politically incorrect. Also known as /pol/

If you guys couldn't tell by now Mueller is /ourguy/ Anonymous

(((They))) were banking on Mueller being the person to take Trump down. They were trying to bait Trump into firing someone he hired so that they could use that as the catalyst for impeachment. Trump is obviously not firing Mueller because his 1100+ indictments are for the swamp. They are pushing for the impeachment shit anyways.

This is the reason for teh CBTS LARP

This is the reason for all the recent EXTREME censorship.

This is the reason that EVERYONE who resides in the sewers of the swamp is freaking out.

Also the reason for the vast increase in shills.

It's OK though, the normies will resent the media even more when they learn they've known, but are covering it up. This is all part of the plan.

Enjoy!

Listen, you fantastically retarded motherfucker. I'm going to try to explain this so that you can understand it.

You cannot control an entire country and its people with tanks, jets, battleships and drones or any of these things that you so stupidly believe trumps citizen ownership of firearms.

A fighter jet, tank, drone, battleship or whatever cannot stand on street corners. And enforce "no assembly" edicts. A fighter jet cannot kick down your door at 3AM and search your house for contraband.

None of these things can maintain the needed police state to completely subjugate and enslave the people of a nation. Those weapons are for decimating, flattening and glassing large areas and many people at once and fighting other state militaries. The government does not want to kill all of its people and blow up its own infrastructure. These are the very things they need to be tyrannical assholes in the first place. If they decided to turn everything outside of Washington D.C. into glowing green glass they would be the absolute rulers of a big, worthless, radioactive pile of shit.

Police are needed to maintain a police state, boots on the ground. And no matter how many police you have on the ground they will always be vastly outnumbered by civilians which is why in a police state it is vital that your police have automatic weapons while the people have nothing but their limp dicks.

BUT when every random pedestrian could have a Glock in their waistband and every random homeowner an AR-15 all of that goes out the fucking window because now the police are out numbered and face the reality of bullets coming back at them.

If you want living examples of this look at every insurgency that the U.S. military has tried to destroy. They're all still kicking with nothing but AK-47s, pick up trucks and improvised explosives because these big scary military monsters you keep alluding to are all but fucking useless for dealing with them.

Dumb. Fuck.

You are a complete moron.

I'm going to say this once, just once, for all you stupid knuckle-dragging fucks in the world: YOU CANNOT CONTROL AN ENTIRE COUNTRY AND ITS PEOPLE WITH TANKS OR JETS OR BATTLESHIPS OR ANY OF THAT SHIT.

A FIGHTER JET CANNOT STAND ON STREETCORNERS AND ENFORCE NO-ASSEMBLY EDICTS. A FIGHTER JET CANNOT KICK DOWN YOUR DOOR AT 3AM TO SEARCH YOUR HOUSE FOR CONTRABAND MATERIELS OR ANTI-SOCIAL PROPAGANDA.

A FIGHTER JET IS USELESS FOR MAINTAINING A POLICE STATE.

POLICE ARE NEEDED TO MAINTAIN A POLICE STATE.

AND NO MATTER HOW MANY POLICE YOU HAVE, THEY ARE ALWAYS OUT-NUMBERED BY THE PEOPLE, WHICH IS WHY IT'S VITAL FOR YOUR POLICE TO HAVE AUTOMATIC WEAPONS AND YOUR PEOPLE TO HAVE NOTHING BUT THEIR LIMP DICKS.

BUT WHEN EVERY RANDOM PEDESTRIAN MIGHT HAVE A GLOCK JAMMED IN HIS WAISTBAND, KICKING DOWN THOSE DOORS BECOMES A LOT FUCKING RISKIER; LEST YOU CATCH A BULLET ON YOUR WAY IN.

Everyone remember Vietnam? Everyone heard about insurgents in Iraq?

Those a two tiny ass fucking shithole countries. America has a small standing professional army (I'm using the term Army to refer to the entirety of the Department of Defense) of 1,456,862 active personnel and 1,458,500 reserve.

They are probably the best funded, best trained and best equipped fighting force in the world today, or possibly that has ever existed in raw technomagic killing power.

There are 311,591,917 people in the US, of which 73,270,043 are males aged 18 - 49.

There are also 90 guns for every 100 person in the US.

Now even assuming every one of those million and a half active members of the armed forces are trained infantry grunts (protip: they aren't), how well do you think they will do against 73 FUCKING TIMES THEIR OWN NUMBER >can't beat those drones man

Yes, yes you can. Drones are vulnerable to attacks on their fuel supply, on their pilots, and on the electronic infrastructure that keeps them in the air.

>m'effin' tanks shut up and go read AAR's from a war that your grandpappy didn't fight. Tanks are useful against other hard targets (ie tanks, bunkers, static emplacements). Not people. Not insurgents. Tanks are useful in open areas and wilderness. Not cities.

Even assuming there would be no defection and desertion among the armed forces, they are still massively outnumbered and outgunned by an enemy they can't tell apart from NPCs. We're getting good at it, but not good enough.

Al-Quaida and the Taliban ran us ragged for more than a decade with MUSKETS used by illiterate goatherders, and a few well-connected, college educated fanatics in their leadership.

The US is a technologically advanced society completely saturated with the internet and the advances of modern manufacturing. Nearly military grade weapons are the most common rifle here anymore.

Go ahead and try to stop an armed insurrection.

Give Me Liberty Or Give Me... Less Liberty: The Failings Of The 'Drones' Argument.

1. Precedent.
The use of the 'drones' argument is to suggest that America's military power is far too powerful for the people to defeat, thereby making gun ownership for defence against Government tyranny unnecessary. The idea that the one with the bigger stick wins is a common mistake. People often forget how the country started and how a bunch of traitors and revolutionaries were able to defeat the immensity of the British military. If this argument was taking place in the 60's, people would be announcing 'napalm' rather than 'drones', and yet napalm did very little in stopping the US from being defeated by a bunch of rice burning, pyjama wearing, tunnel dwelling Vietnamese. And speaking of pyjama wearing, what about Afghanistan? You go find Al Qaeda and tell them about 'drones' and they will be quick to remind you that they were able to drag the US into an 11 year, unsustainable war, the cost which helped lead America to an incredible financial crisis. If a bunch of cave-dwellers struggling with the cocking handle of soviet era AK47's can keep a war going for 11 years, thinks of what well-educated, well-armed, partially experienced American citizens could accomplish.

2. Ineffectiveness.
A drone strike might look effective when shot at some desert hut, but that won't translate well to domestic, civil war. Every citizen the US bombs is one less taxpayer, one less worker, one less consumer. Every building is one less factory, one less office building, one less residence. Every bomb the US would drop on it's own soil and people is destroying their own precious resources. Hardly a sustainable way to wage war. Every bomb dropped also invites more and more revolutionaries. If you thought civilian deaths in the Middle East brought outrage here, think about what American civilian deaths would bring.
Let's say that 200 people gathered outside the Pentagon, protesting and screaming for blood? What is the Government going to do, bomb their own military installation? How is that drone going to stop an unarmed protest, or even effectively distinguish between an unarmed protest and an armed one? How will that drone confiscate weapons and apprehend major revolutionary figureheads? It's been said before and I'll repeat it, police states need police. Grunts on the ground. And that grunt is in for a bad day when he is head to head with an equally armed American citizen behind every door.
In a few seconds, a simple Google search can show you all the shortcomings of drones and how one could combat them.

3. Defectors.
Killing rag-heads video game style is one thing but how is that drone operator going to feel when he is forced to drop bombs on his own countrymen? His brothers and sisters and friends. How quickly are those politicians (who we are so quick to call slimy and self-interested) switch sides to save their own skin? Even without this almost certainly occurring variable, military and police amount to a few million while civilians equal hundreds of millions.

NATO is quick to enter revolutions in other countries when the Government massacres it's people, so what would their reaction be when the US Government indiscriminately bombs it's own people? Other nations would also assist in any civil war for their own reasons (perhaps they have a vested interest in seeing the US weakened by domestic warfare).

5. Freedom.
Even if the Government and military was infinitely more well armed and the chances of victorious revolution against it's tyranny was one in a million, so what? Should we just give up without trying and submit to oppression? What ever happened to Live Free Or Die? Aren't our freedoms worth fighting for no matter the odds, are they not worth dying for?

The people who wrote the Second Amendment understood what Government oppression was. They knew what revolution entailed. And they understood that the American people may have to do something similar to what they just did to ensure they remained free. So they kept guns available for citizens. But the main reason their ownership should continue is not to fight a war but to prevent it. The Second Amendment protects the rest and is a constant reminder to the Government that an act of unwarranted aggression against it's people can be swiftly retaliated against. Ultimately, it's not about guns. It's about freedom.

The point is not that you can win pitched battles against a professional army with all its ordinance as a rag-tag citizens militia with small arms. The point is that you CAN FIGHT. You can bleed them. When they come patrolling through your neighborhood, you might be able to take a couple of the fuckers with you. Hell, you might even be able to run away and do it again--theoretically you wouldn't be alone and they couldn't engage in endless "manhunts" for everyone who resisted them. And they'd never feel safe; there could be a shooter behind any window.

Of course they could call in the artillery and air support and level your neighborhood; sure. What would this get them? Well, it would piss a lot of people off when innocents died and play into the hands of rebels. It would make a lot of the soldiers in that professional military seriously consider whether they were doing the right thing or not. And finally, it would simply kill people, and no one wants to rule a nation of corpses.

The aim of a tyrant is to control, not to kill. What they want is to be able to have militarized police/gestapo point guns at people and cow them into submission to whatever dictates they might want to impose. If those people are instead waiting behind their doors and ready to shoot first when the jackbooted thugs come around, they've already failed.

So the point is to fight. If you resist, you're not being controlled, and you're also undermining attempts to control others who can't or won't fight; you might die, of course. That's why Patrick Henry said what he famously said, more or less.

As long as people can resist, they can be free, and tyrants can never succeed. But when you're talking about using swords and knives and clubs against modern military weapons it ACTUALLY becomes pointless, because you can't bleed them at all--they'll just shoot you with beanbags and rubber and water cannons and microwave guns etc.

That's why having guns is so important.

Consider this.. Less than 3% of the colonies population actively took up arms against the then worlds largest super power. Another 10-15% supported them the rest either supported the redcoats or went whichever way the wind blew. At the time of victory more colonists wore redcoats then blue. These are facts, not fiction. The 3% number runs through most every revolution in history. Doesn't take much just brave committed men an women. Now put that in perspective with numbers of gun owners and again maybe split that down some more into armed veterans. Again facts in Numbers. Now tell me again that "well they have bombs, Planes , drones etc." How did that work in Vietnam, Iraq, Afghanistan? Sure Come for the guns and lets see how it plays out. I know History so I am not worried about the out come. Oppressors always lose in the end. The Gun is a mans right to self defense. It wont go away in a culture that knows that. That is why America is freedoms last stand.

The face you make when a liberal says "A bunch of rednecks don't stand a chance against a tyrannical military".

Cuck: the US military is too powerful, civilians could never resist them in any meaningful way, you should just turn in your weapons.
Me:

there are an estimated 55 million gun owners in the USA.

Let's say there is a sovereign crisis that requires the violent activation of gun owners. We can safely assume that most people are all hot air, and will do nothing because of the completely terrifying prospect of turning your firearms against the government.

Due to this "chicken" thinning of the ranks, we can just write off 98% of these gun owners. Even if we assume that only 2% of those people actually have the weaponry, training, and ideological resolve to activate themselves, we are still left with a force of 1,100,000 individuals.

Now you might be compelled to suggest that the threat this proposed group of people pose vs the US Military is paltry. (Even if I allow the intellectual fallacy of not accounting for service-person desertion once they're asked to turn against civilians)

So let's look at some numbers:

(The Insurgency during the US-Iraq Occupation)

Scope and size of the Insurgency [edit]

Although estimates of the total number of Iraqi guerrillas varies by group and fluctuates under changing political climate, the latest assessments put the present number at between 3,000 and 7,000 fighters along with numerous supporters and facilitators throughout the Sunni Arab community. At various points U.S. forces provided estimates on the number of fighters in specific regions. A few are provided here (although these numbers almost certainly have fluctuated):

- Fallujah (mid-2004): 2,000-5,000 (in a November 2004 operation, the Fallujah insurgency has been destroyed or dispersed, but had staged a comeback in 2005, albeit not to former strength, in the course of 2005-2008 the remainder of the insurgency was defeated in Fallujah and the rest of Al-Anbar province.
- Samarra (August 2011): 1,000+
- Baquba (August 2011): 1,000+
- Baghdad (August 2011): 2,000+

Afghan National Security Forces: 352,000[23] ISAF: 18,000+[24] Military Contractors: 20,000+[24]	Taliban: 60,000 (tentative estimate)[25] • Haqqani network: 4,000–15,000[26][27][28] HIG: 1,500 - 2,000+[29] al-Qaeda: 50–100[30][31] (~ 3,000 in 2001)[32] IEHCA: 3,000–3,500[15] Fidai Mahaz: 8,000[22]

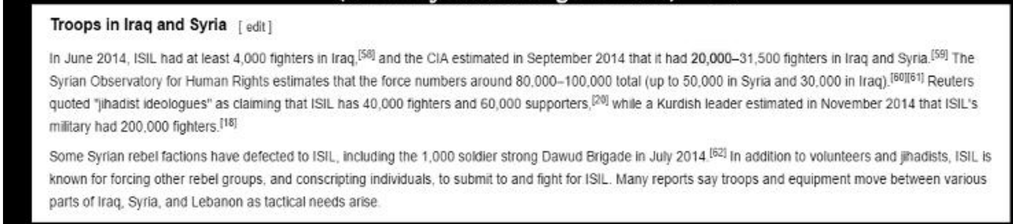
The US has been in Afghanistan since 2001. See how effective the US army's tanks, jets, and drones have been against a tankless, jetless, and droneless guerilla force?

(CIA Projected Strength of ISIS)



Troops in Iraq and Syria [edit]

In June 2014, ISIL had at least 4,000 fighters in Iraq,[58] and the CIA estimated in September 2014 that it had 20,000–31,500 fighters in Iraq and Syria.[59] The Syrian Observatory for Human Rights estimates that the force numbers around 80,000–100,000 total (up to 50,000 in Syria and 30,000 in Iraq).[60][61] Reuters quoted "jihadist ideologues" as claiming that ISIL has 40,000 fighters and 60,000 supporters,[20] while a Kurdish leader estimated in November 2014 that ISIL's military had 200,000 fighters.[18]

Some Syrian rebel factions have defected to ISIL, including the 1,000 soldier strong Dawud Brigade in July 2014.[62] In addition to volunteers and jihadists, ISIL is known for forcing other rebel groups, and conscripting individuals, to submit to and fight for ISIL. Many reports say troops and equipment move between various parts of Iraq, Syria, and Lebanon as tactical needs arise.

SAME FAGGOT, DIFFERENT ERA

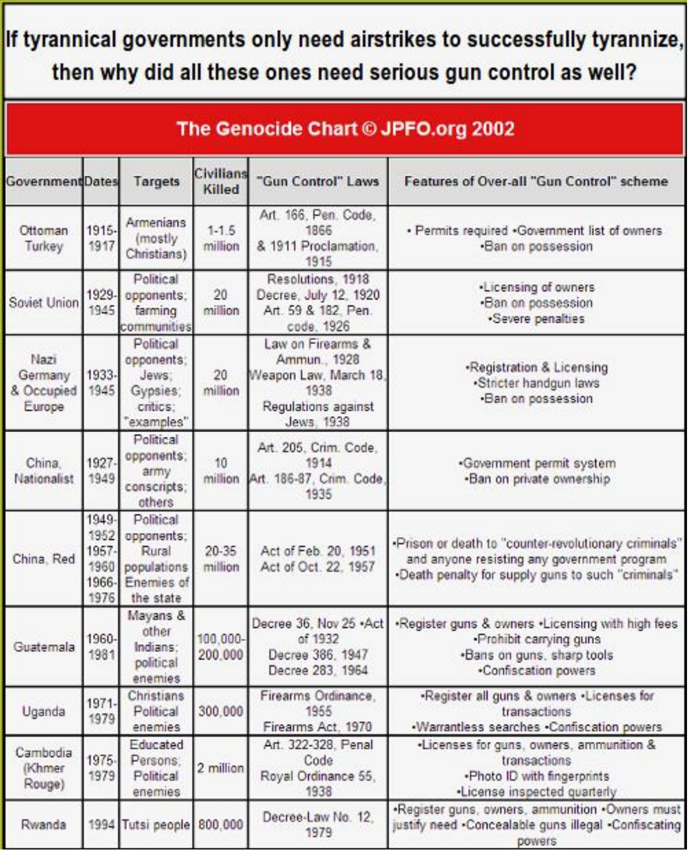
The activation of citizen militias and lone-wolf types is going to more closely resemble an improvisational insurgency more like what we have been seeing in the middle east than anything else. It would be a truly terrible aesymmetrical war of attrition heavy in the use of things like IED's and car bombs.
(Also, any home depot constitutes the military criteria for an IED factory, good luck preventing that).

Let's also bring consideration to the selection of targets. When fighting the insurgencies who are far away in the Middle East, the targets they have access to are very limited.

If such a battle were to erupt on US soil between the government and its own people, the target selection for the insurgents would make the likes of ISIS salivate with envy.

POLITICIAN

The insurgencies that we have fought in the Middle East were shit. They truly are nightmarish, and they are exceedingly good at DESTROYING the countries that they take place in. Don't believe me? Take a look at Syria. That's what a bunch of angry dudes with 1950s era weaponry are capable of doing to a country. Next time you look down your nose at "muh gun" people and act like they are delusional, never forget that a bunch of middle eastern goat herders with strength rarely exceding 100,000 individuals have been able to shake off the entire NATO occupation of the region.



If tyrannical governments only need airstrikes to successfully tyrannize, then why did all these ones need serious gun control as well?

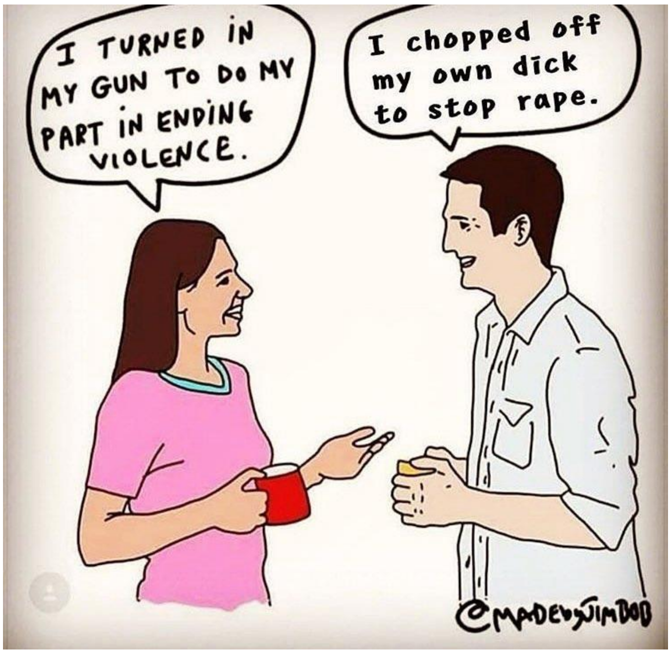
'You'll Never Beat The Government With Just Guns,' Says Party That Also Believes Government Was Almost Toppled By Unarmed Mob On January 6

In 2020, there were 287 cases of people dying - by putting foreign objects in their anus.

This is more people in single year than people who have been killed by ARs in the last 5 years.



I TURNED IN MY GUN TO DO MY PART IN ENDING VIOLENCE.

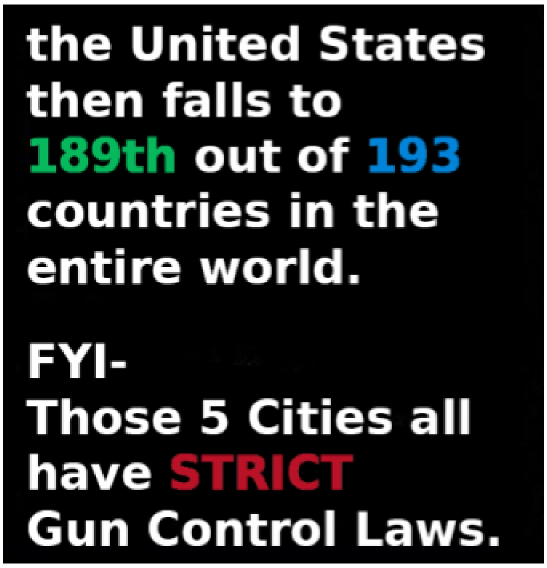
The United States is 3rd in murders throughout the world.

If you remove
#1- Chicago
#2- Detroit
#3- Washington DC
#4- St Louis
#5- New Orleans



the United States then falls to 189th out of 193 countries in the entire world.

FYI-
Those 5 Cities all have STRICT Gun Control Laws.

The FGC-9 is a firearm anyone can make, anywhere in the world.

Made from 3D-printed parts paired with unregulated metal parts, it stands as a death-blow to future US gun control efforts, and circumvents strict European gun control laws.

And the plans are free to download.

3DprintFreedom @freegunzone · Jan 21

Just a reminder to everyone who thinks 3D printed guns can be blocked from the internet, or stopped by legislation.

The FGC9 was designed, built and test fired it in Europe.

GOVERNMENTS KILLED 262 MILLION OF THEIR OWN PEOPLE IN THE 20TH CENTURY
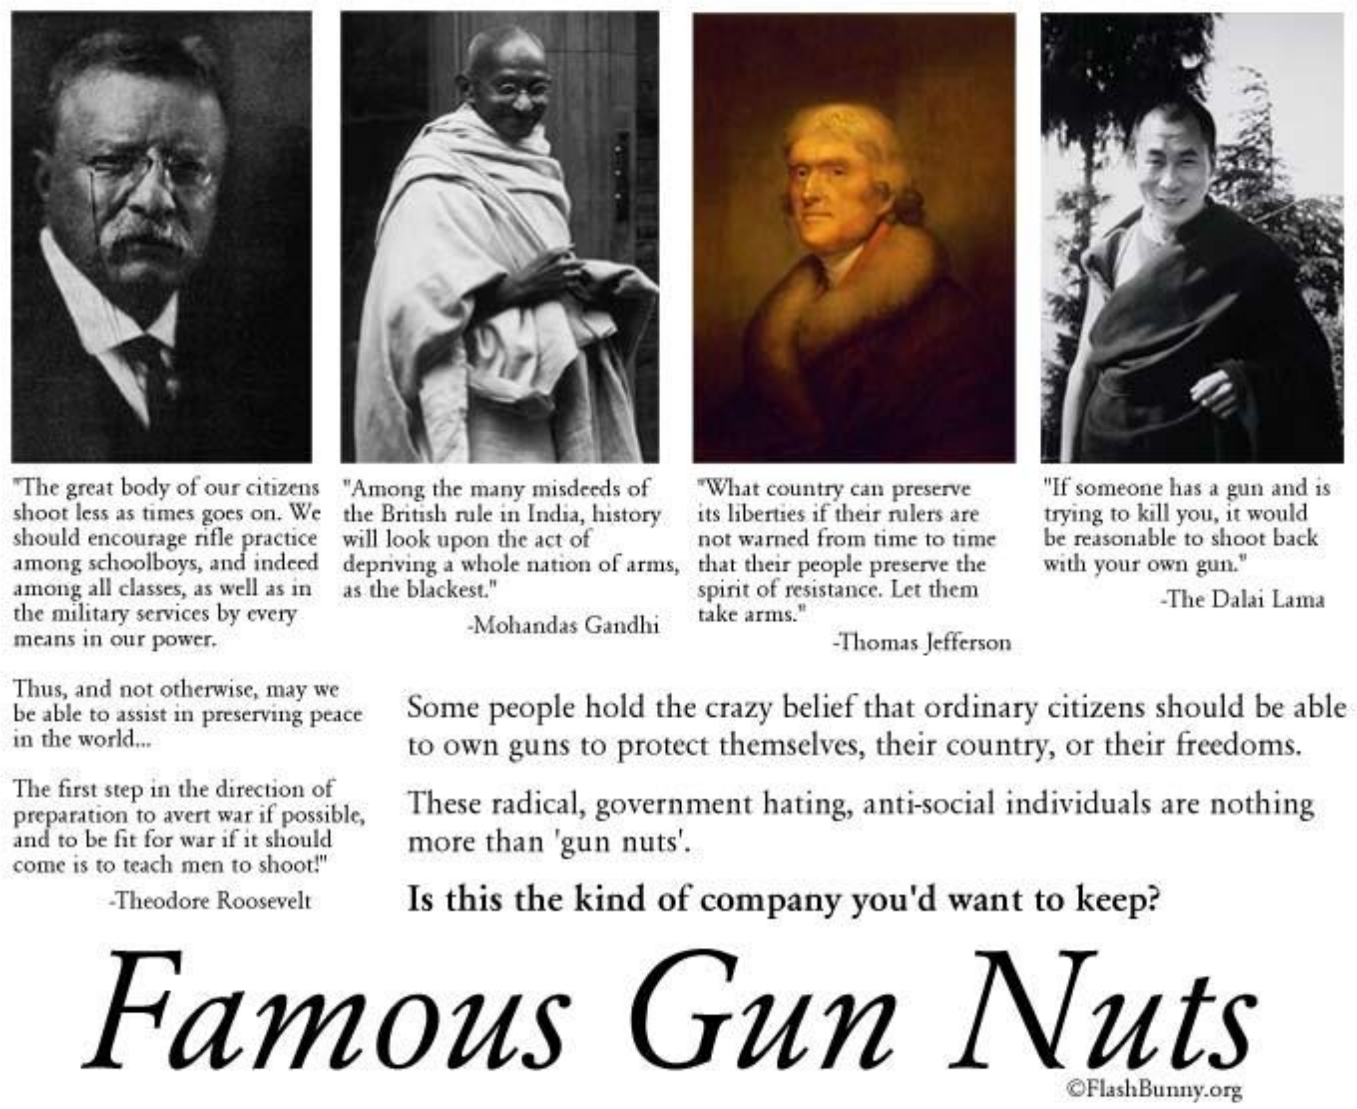
THEFREETHOUGHTPROJECT.COM
BUT PLEASE TELL ME MORE ABOUT HOW ONLY THE GOVERNMENT SHOULD HAVE GUNS



"The great body of our citizens shoot less as times goes on. We should encourage rifle practice among schoolboys, and indeed among all classes, as well as in the military services by every means in our power.

Thus, and not otherwise, may we be able to assist in preserving peace in the world...

The first step in the direction of preparation to avert war if possible, and to be fit for war if it should come is to teach men to shoot!"

-Theodore Roosevelt

"Among the many misdeeds of the British rule in India, history will look upon the act of depriving a whole nation of arms, as the blackest."

-Mohandas Gandhi

"What country can preserve its liberties if their rulers are not warned from time to time that their people preserve the spirit of resistance. Let them take arms."

-Thomas Jefferson

"If someone has a gun and is trying to kill you, it would be reasonable to shoot back with your own gun."

-The Dalai Lama

Some people hold the crazy belief that ordinary citizens should be able to own guns to protect themselves, their country, or their freedoms.

These radical, government hating, anti-social individuals are nothing more than 'gun nuts'.

Is this the kind of company you'd want to keep?

My grandpa is a Rwandan genocide denier. I have no idea why. We live in Wales, have no connection to Rwanda and he isn't a conspiracy kind of guy in general. He has never been to Rwanda or met a Rwandan yet in his house he has pages of documents 'proving the hoax', such as a full script for the movie Hotel Rwanda with a bunch of random letters from the words highlighted showing 'the secret messages' from the director. He says that Paul Kagame doesn't exist and that 'every picture of bodies 'is clearly in Burundi' and has huge printouts of aerial photographs of Burundi to prove it. Not sure what he has against Rwanda but if you bring it up to him he calls you a 'Tutsi liar'.

I've become a bread crumb dealer to 4 crows in my local lake. And they pay me with a bit of everything. Shiny stuff, fabric, pens etc. But recently they paid me with 20$ they've found somewhere. So i decided to buy them some more expensive bread. They loved it. So they understand what to do. Give me dollar notes. And i've problamy racked up 200$ at this point. Is it morally wrong though, i mean. They're the ones who steals it from someone. Or perhaps they just got a big pile laying somewhere. Should i keep on doing this?

As I was being walked by a nurse to the operating room for my shoulder surgery, I told her about a bet I had made with my friends on how I would fight and win the anesthesia.

So upon entering the OR, i was asked to lie down on the freezing cold operating table. My bare arse was touching the metal table, and I could feel my balls contract from the cold, only to be followed by my little soldier retreating into my pelvis... I looked down at my area, and the nurses eyes met mine and she said, don't worry about that, we won't look down there. At that point I was as red as a tomato.

Within seconds they had me wired me up with sensors, and tubing, and introduced me to both the surgeon and anesthesiologist, who seemed like a nice guys.

The anesthesiologist then walked me through the process of what was about to be done. He told me that he was now plugging in a tube that would transfer the K-O juice, and I would be knocked out in a couple of seconds. He told me to relax, put my head back, and count backwards from 100.

I felt my head getting heavy and I began to lose control of my arms.

I suddenly propped myself up while letting out a manly hulk groan, and yelled, "I made a bet that I would beat the anesthesia!!"

A nurse turned around in shock and screamed in terror.

Turns out what I really yelled was "I don't need no education", and both my eyes were pointing into two totally different directions.

Needless to say, I lost the bet.

When I woke up, I was greeted by multiple giggling hospital staff. In the distance I could hear them saying, "Pink Floyd has come to".

I didn't get the reference up until the surgeon came to check on me and told me what I had done.

"Where are they?"

You gotta stop indulging these people. They're using your life story in their isekai or memory so they can day dream later. You're only ending up giving them false hope and pain in their heart. They won't realize until a few days or weeks later that you are a super lucky bastard that found a unicorn, and that they will never EVER get that same experience. It will hit them like a truck and then loneliness will embrace their heart as it did mine. Since I already experience this several time, I ask you to spare me and others from this same feeling. I have to cry myself to sleep last time this happened.

I truly hope you and your wife live a happy life and produce many children.

This guy at my LGS is a Holocaust denier and I don't know what to do about it. Everyone knows him and thinks he's a total asshole but no one, not even the store manager, has the balls to tell him not to come back. I don't understand why people would fucking permit this fucker to play at the store.

If I'm being cynical it's because he's the only Ork player and he buys shit tons of them so the manager probably doesn't want to get rid of the only asshole who would buy Ork shit, I think I've seen him buy 7 boxes of Ork boyz alone in the year I've been going there and he's supposedly been playing for 7 years.

The fucker loses every game he plays, maybe people feel bad for him, I'm not sure. But I really don't want this fucker around in my hobby. What do I do?

>she rides me on the couch
>Finish after a few minutes
>After I cum, she starts feeling really bad, tears up and tells me she feels like a slut
>Whining and wanting attention like some child
>My dick is satisfied, don't really care about her anymore, decide to be a dick to get her to get out, just wanna play some vidya >Want some coffee?
>Sure, she tells me wiping her tears
>Well then get dressed and go to a starbucks
>She stars freaking the fuck out, screaming at me, telling me I'm a douchebag, all that shit
>Throw her out of my apartment; she's half naked, watch through the eyehole on the door how she gets dressed
>Start playing vidya
>Suddenly, my doorbell rings
>Open the door, see two cops and her
>She's crying uncontrollably, screaming "THAT'S HIM"
>One of the cops tells me they got a call that she was raped

>She stops crying, tears still rolling down her face as she's in full shock mode for a few brief seconds >starts screaming "NO YOU DIDN'T!!!" and crying again >Cop asks me to show the video
>Tell him no, I want her to write a statement and get a warrant (so she could get into serious trouble for falsifying a statement)
>Cop turns to her and asks her if she wants to write a statement
>She nods, still sobbing
>Calms her down for a moment and clearly asks her "Did this man rape you against your will?"
>She starts giving this gibberish nonsense, dodging the question
>"Ma'am, did he or did he not rape you?"
>Starts screaming at the cop, he gets annoyed and tells her to calm down, turns to me and asks if the sex was consensual, I say yes, he asks her if I raped her or not she says "I DON'T KNOW!!" cop starts interrogating her what she means by that, she says she doesn't remember because I drugged her >Cop looks at me and asks me if this was true, I of course tell him no.
>both of the cops pretty annoyed at this point, they've probably seen enough "drugged" people to know that she's full of shit, I'm kinda freaking out thinking "What if someone drugged her in the club?" he tells her "Ma'am, we will take you to the hospital and take a sample of your blood to see if you were drugged, do you understand?" she nods and then he says "Do you know how serious of an allegation this is? If we do in fact find out hat you are NOT drugged, you'll be in serious trouble."

This is what I did to my Boomer parents. They gave us nothing and pissed their enormous wealth away on nigger art, nigger charities, and Christian church shit. We were left with literally nothing.

I had them declared mentally unfit and then got control over the tiny amount of wealth and possessions they had left. I liquidated all their shit, got $25k for it, and used it to buy a new Subaru BRZ.

Then I stuck them in the worst state-run nursing home I could find in the nigger part of town. They begged me to move them literally three days after they got there. My response was as follows:

>Stop being racist! This is their culture. You spent your whole life supporting these people and bringing them into the country. You are staying there and you will learn to live among them!

I paid their coon caretaker $500 cash to ignore any of their requests that were """"unreasonable"""" and told that shitskin they were both racist and to do what you have to in order to keep them in line. They are both suffering a lot of abuse including not being properly cleaned.

It's the future they both chose. For you pussies who will cry about this, you can take your Christcuck Bible faggot shit and shove it up your ass. Forgiveness never works. Boomers deserve to be punished. The only way white people will ever learn anything is through their suffering. We need to ensure that the entire Boomer generation's final years are sadistic torture as a warning to future generations who might piss away their children's opportunities.

...Final note: my mom spent her entire life working with a Lutheran church to import Somalian nogs into America and she was very successful at it. I hope one of her caretakers gives her a fucking good smack or three.

This dude tried to break into my home last night through the window at 2am. I waited patiently for him to climb through while I sat there with folding steel chair in hand.

After he got half-way through I went "Mick Foley" on his head. I thought I knocked him out, but apparently I watch too much Wrestling on T.v. He got back up. Then I gave him 10 more slams on the head and called the cops to haul out the twitching body.

The story get's stranger: On his possession upon further investigation was

- 8 Track tape (unlabled)
- Flashlight (without batteries)
- Half eaten box of Fig Newtons
- Measuring tape
- Instructions to "Monopoly".

What was he up to?

I just realized I had a ton of shit memories (pun intended) with my old best friend who I'll call Louie.
Now this was mostly in my 12 - 16 years of age with Louie.
>14 years old.
>At Louie's 2nd house/cabin.
>Other friend Tanner is there.
>Tanner lives next door.
>After a day of driving on Louie's 4wheeler track, we head over to Tanners house.

>Louie hands me a bag.

>Don't have to shit that bad, but I do it anyways.
>He shits in the bag next.
>Tanner shits in the bag.
>We have this bag filled to the brim with shit. Tanner and I had NO idea what it was for.
>Tanner decides to go inside real quick for some water.
>Me and Louie are waiting outside, Louie is holding the huge bag of shit; tied off.
>A blue Chevy truck comes barreling down the road.
>Oh fuck. He's not gonna do it.
>Louie throws the bag of shit right at the truck as it passes by.
>Shit covered the windshield as Louie just booked it and told me to run.
>I run as fast as I could over to his Cabin.
>Tanner is outside by now and comes back to the bushes where Louie and I were hiding.
>Tanner gets blamed for throwing shit at the truck, grounded for a month.
>Had to wash the shit covered truck with a hose first.
>Dat shame and anger.

☐My UFO Anonymous 10/06/07(Sat)19:19 No.296668

I used to be in the Navy, stationed on an Aegis-class guided-missile cruiser. One day at sea, I'm taking a break on the flight deck (which was just behind the rear Aegis radar array), and I noticed all these dead birds all over the flight deck. It didn't take me too long to realize that these birds had flown in front of the radar and been microwaved to death.

This gave me an idea. I figured if it works on birds, it should work on popcorn. A microwave's a microwave, right? So, the next time we pull into port, I go to get some microwave popcorn.

Unfortunately, my shopping trip coincided with Superbowl Sunday, so the microwave popcorn (and just about every other salty snack in the store) was gone. All they had left was Jiffy-Pop. I didn't even know they still MADE Jiffy-Pop. Anyway, science waits for no man (or something like that), so I return to the ship and stash the popcorn in my shop.

>> ☐ Anonymous 10/06/07(Sat)19:19 No.296670
File :1191712795.jpg-(34 KB, 500x500, 51GM6DWRWKL._SS500_.jpg)

During our next outing, I tie some string to the handle of the Jiffy-Pop pan, and sneak out onto the weather deck. just forward of my shop was a ladder that led to the deck overlooking the radaar array (but which is closed off during radar operations for safety reasons), so I climb up there and lower the Jiffy-Pop down in front of the array.

BOOM! the Jiffy-Pop explodes immediately, showering the flight deck with burned popcorn. I pull the burst pan up, wind up my string, and chuck the entire apparatus over the side before running back into my shop.

No sooner do I walk in the door, then the phone rings. It's CICS (the "War Room"). The Officer In Charge wants me to go out on the weather deck and look behind us, and tell him if anything's there. I do, there isn't, and I tell him so. He hangs up, swearing.

Later that night, I get the story from a radioman friend of mine who was in CICS at the time. Turns out that the Jiffy-Pop pan had reflected the Radar waves. For those who aren't familiar with radar operation, a radar array sweeps back and forth, radiating waves the whole time. The waves are then reflected back to the array by anything they hit (such as planes, another ship, etc). This reflection tell the radar how big something is, how far away it is, etc. The problem comes with the wavelengths involved. At too close a distance, and object can show up on the radar as being at a different distance than it really is. Or a different size.

File :1191712990.jpg-(141 KB, 512x400, red_sky_ufo.jpg)

My Jiffy-Pop pan appeared on the radar as a three-mile-wide contact, 100 yards off the stern, and was only on-screen for a couple of seconds before disappearing! The OIC was freaking out about it, and had called the Air Force.

So, in the end, my curiosity about the microwave properties of an Aegis radar caused a US Navy warship to file a false UFO report!

I didn't tell anyone I was involved until long after I got out!

Awesome. The weather radar in the nose of C-130's is not quite as spectacular, but it is still useful. When on the ground with the a/c powered up, you can walk out to the nose, open the radome, and sit a cup of cold coffee inside the radome. Then shut the radome, go up the cockpit, and flip the radar on for a few seconds. Voila, hot coffee.

So I got fired today, and I think my manager's gonna sue me. He was gonna fire me anyway, but I was real pissed at some point, and he was yelling at my face, so I slapped him with a baguette I happened to be holding, and it broke over his face.
Wat do.

Because of this damned board , every time I see a juicy ass my first thought is ”imagine the smell”. My GF and I recently started having sex. I'm not sure the best way to explain it, so I'm going to come right out and give examples of things she says during sex.

>You're doing great!
>You're technique and fundamentals are really good. (while going down on her)
>Yes! Keep going! You can do it!
>That's really good. You've reached your goal and I'm going to cum (This is an EXACT quote!)
>Wow! That's good. You must have been practicing!
>That's IT! You're doing beautifully
>You did that very well. I came really hard. I knew you could do it
>I'm very proud of you

Mind you, let me reiterate, these are things she is saying while we are having sex. Yes, while we are fucking, she keeps saying all these words of encouragement. What is she, my fucking coach? I',m so flabbergasted by this, I don't even know what to say to her. She doesn't even really talk dirty, she just will shout all these words of encouragement.

I really have to dig deep in my mind for really dirty thoughts to stay in the mood because to me it is so ridiculous that I just want to burst out laughing sometimes. What is this all about? I mean do you think maybe she is not comfortable with talking dirty and this is her way of dealing?

It's seriously fucking weird.

> Hotel is full of niggers
> PROTIP: If niggers are in a hotel, they are 100% going to have a party. And they will have drugs/underage drinking.
> First 5 minutes at the front desk, 9 noise complaints
> God fucking damn it.
> Go upstairs, it's a sea of nig-nogs in the hallway
> And one scrawny white boy in a suit.
> Suddenly, idea.
> Go back downstairs
> Call the cops, tell them there's another party (We called them way too often...)
> They'll be there in 11 minutes
> Get a bottle of bleach, and a container of Dawn soap
> Coat the lobby floor with a nice layer of bleachy soapy goodness.
> Wait a few minutes, call all the rooms
> Tell them cops are coming
> It's a literal stampede of niggers rushing down the hallway
> Cops show up, perfect timing
> 50 niggers get to the lobby, and start slipping and sliding all over the place like a black version of Benny Hill
> Bleach stains all over their precious Jordans
> Cops are laughing their asses off as they haul them all away.
> Write in the book "They left early"

>Remember, Pete, with great power comes great responsibility. Rudyard Kipling called it "the White Man's Burden." I call it what it is: the strength of the master to discipline the servant. Never lower your head to a non-white. Never lower yourself to lie with one of their women. The strength of the next generation of Western power relies on White Fellowship and Strength.

It wasn't until I was older that I realized Raimi was actually directing this speech at the young men in the audience.

>Peter... I need you to get rid of my porn collection... Magazines, videos, some security footage I bought on the black market... There are snuff films in there, Pete. If your Aunt May sees all the pictures I took of her feet while she was sleeping... It's all in the box in the basement labelled "Baby Pictures"... Before you ask: yes, there are baby pictures in there, they're just not of you... Actually, they're a part o the collection, but that doesn't matter now... You've gotta do this for me, Pete. You've got to destroy my porn stash... And I mean DESTROY that shit, kid... Seriously, the hentai alone is enough to get a man put away... Hentai is the Japanese word for "pervert", son, and that's what I am... That's what your Uncle Ben is... All the fat globs of semen I've wasted masturbating to bestiality and vore over the years... And I'm a strong ejaculator, Pete... I'm as sterile as a surgery room, but I cum like a geyser every time... I think part of the thrill was always seeing if I could get any of it in my mouth... The first time I did it was a complete accident, but the taste, Pete... The taste was unlike anything I had ever experienced before... I started to crave it... It was like a drug to me... And that's coming from a guy who did a lot of blow in the 90s... Usually off of the ass-cheeks of some coked out hooker who me and the boys would kill for sport later... I actually have some footage of that in my porn collection... Which, again, you REALLY need to get rid of... I cannot overstate the importance of wiping that shit from the face of the Earth... Okay, what else, what else? Oh, you can have the slice of cake from Aunt May's birthday that I've been saving... I mean, I took a bite out of it, but it's not like I have herpes or anything... Wait... Do genitals count? Never mind, I'm dying now... In summation: great power, great responsibility, burn my porn, eat my cake... Bleh...

What did Raimi mean by this?

>Peter, make sure to wear gloves when working with poisonous animals, especially spiders and women. They like to stab you with thier fangs and suck out all the life and happiness right out of you. That's all a woman is - a hideous, poison-filled parasite.
>Now I know what you're thinking, "But Uncle Ben, you're married to a woman." Shut the fuck up Peter, don't talk about May that way. You think I'd marry a real woman? Why do you think we don't have any kids of our own? Trust me Peter, beneath "her" dress is a cock and pair of balls as old and wrinkly as a month-old zuccini and a pair of avocados. Her asshole is like a used rubber band now but back when she was young, goddamn she was as tight as a infant and just as smooth.
>Anyways, what was I talking about? Oh yeah, spiders. Wear gloves. I saw on the news a farmer got bit by a wolf and turned into a werewolf. His brother got his finger slammed in the front door of his house and now he's a werehouse. Has to have forklifts drive into his recieving dock every day, unloading boxes.
>Anyway, I wanted to tell you all this before the Alzheimers gets me.

>Oh, you're sad because a girl at your high-school doesn't like you back? Don't tell me you have it hard because you're a pathetic kissless virgin. You can act sad when you have to leave behind the lady-boy you fell in love with and made passionate steamy love to in a collapsing bamboo shack, just like I did. When I was your age, I left school to bullseye gooks from a helicopter in the middle of some god forsaken jungle. I fried so many slopes, they named a brand of rice after me. You think I felt good about firebombing his chink village and watching our fuck-hut burn to the ground? We were going to build our lives together there, Peter! You know what? Fuck you. Get the fuck out of my car.

I'm not sure why Raimi thought it was necessary to include that line.

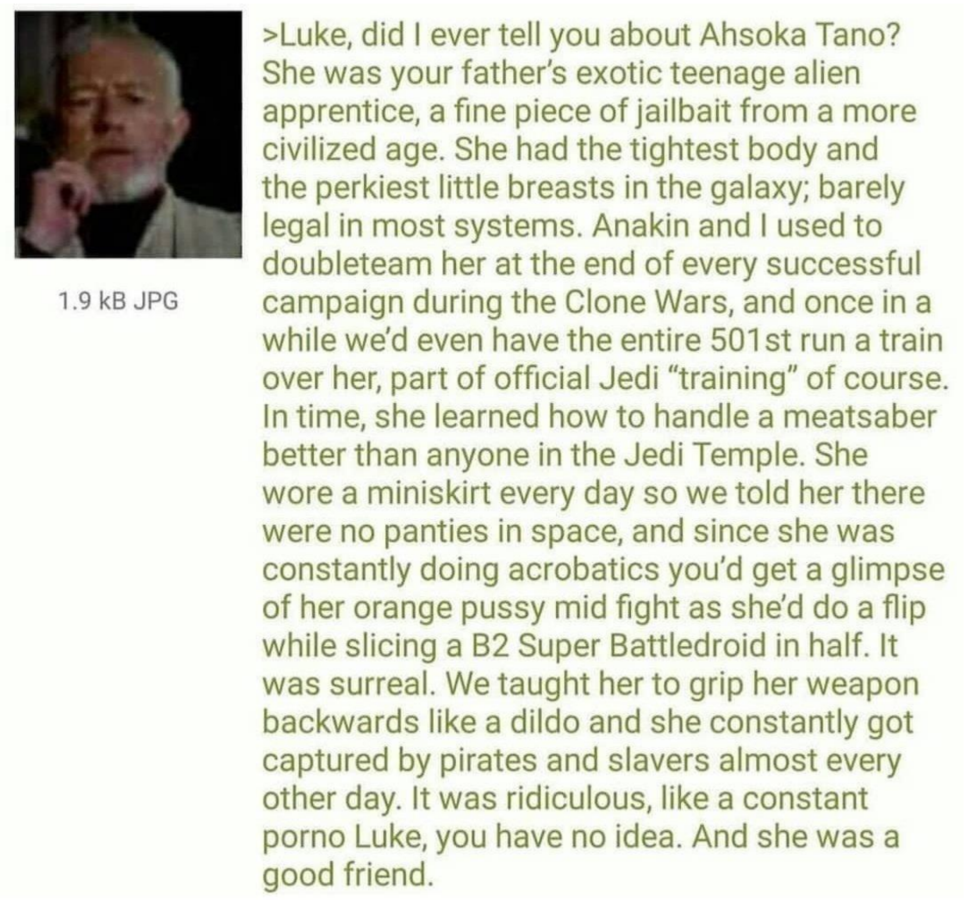
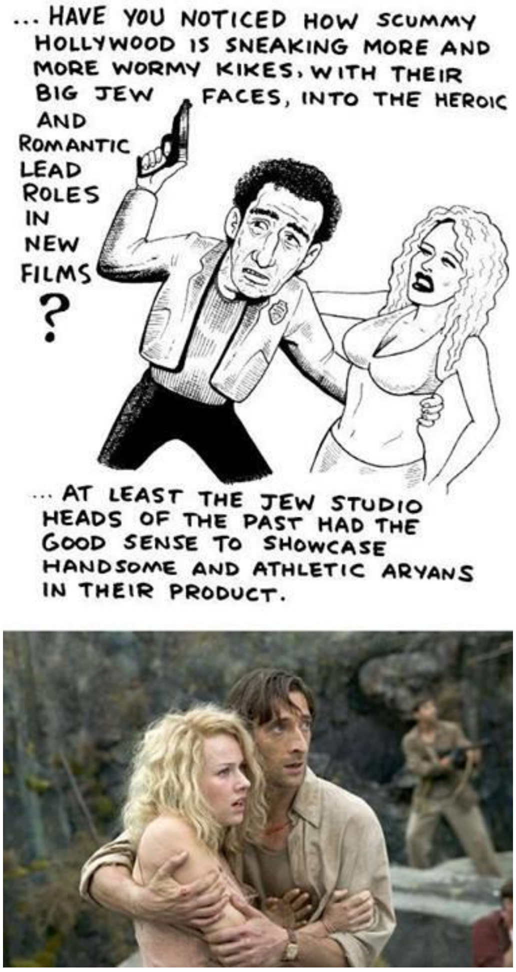
>predicted the future consisting of "political correctness", VR sex, toilet paper crisis, and "social distancing"



>Luke, did I ever tell you about Ahsoka Tano? She was your father's exotic teenage alien apprentice, a fine piece of jailbait from a more civilized age. She had the tightest body and the perkiest little breasts in the galaxy; barely legal in most systems. Anakin and I used to doubleteam her at the end of every successful campaign during the Clone Wars, and once in a while we'd even have the entire 501st run a train over her, part of official Jedi "training" of course. In time, she learned how to handle a meatsaber better than anyone in the Jedi Temple. She wore a miniskirt every day so we told her there were no panties in space, and since she was constantly doing acrobatics you'd get a glimpse of her orange pussy mid fight as she'd do a flip while slicing a B2 Super Battledroid in half. It was surreal. We taught her to grip her weapon backwards like a dildo and she constantly got captured by pirates and slavers almost every other day. It was ridiculous, like a constant porno Luke, you have no idea. And she was a good friend.



... HAVE YOU NOTICED HOW SCUMMY HOLLYWOOD IS SNEAKING MORE AND MORE WORMY KIKES, WITH THEIR BIG JEW FACES, INTO THE HEROIC AND ROMANTIC LEAD ROLES IN NEW FILMS ?
... AT LEAST THE JEW STUDIO HEADS OF THE PAST HAD THE GOOD SENSE TO SHOWCASE HANDSOME AND ATHLETIC ARYANS IN THEIR PRODUCT.

Well, you see son... In LOTR universe there are 5 kinds of people: No powers, Hero Powers, Magic Powers, Overpowered, and Hilariously Godly Overpowered.
And then there's tom bombadil, who could have just walked(danced) into mordor, punch sauron in the face(eye), kick melkor in the nuts, set everything right, and be back before lunch time all while wearing the ring as a piercing on his dick.
If he only gave a fuck.

I'm not that anon, but I think he may be referring to the feeling that white guys might have these days.
Think of K, and the other replicants. Beings who are used as the building blocks of society who do all the real work, but are belittled, talked down to, and ignored as their repayment.
In the West, white men are still the building blocks of society who do most of the real work, and yet are yelled and demeaned by nearly all forms of media, in school, the justice system, et cetera.

I guess the reason why men connect to this movie so well, and women don't, is because men can sympathize with the replicants.

>implying the Ferengi are the Jews
The real redpill of DS9 is that the Founders are the Jews. They're literal fucking shapeshifters who can take the form of their victims and their favorite tactic is infiltrating and subverting their enemies from within by executing false flag attacks and what not. They have a caste of loyal zogbots called Jem'Hadar, soldiers engineered for the sole purpose of dying for Isr-ahem, the Dominion; however they are also not trusted enough and are kept constantly addicted to drugs to keep them loyal (a more accurate and scathing analogy of lower class Americans is rarely found). And then you have the shabbos goy of the Dominion, the Vorta. Beings that, while they order around the Jem'Hadar, direct the conquests and do all the actual work inherent in running an empire, still view the Founders with religious reverence and kneel before them instantly (this would be the higher class Americans).

The Founders are the Jews of Star Trek, there is absolutely no doubt about it. Ferengi are the smokescreen - the obvious "antisemitic" caricature filled with stereotypical Jewish traits like greed and whatnot, but they're also greatly humanized and over time become relatable.

The Ferengi exist to defuse any accusations of veiled antisemitism because they're the "antisemitic caricature being deconstructed" to the uninitiated eye of the average normie. But to someone who has taken the redpill, the Founders are striking in their tactics, their goals and their policies to be a carbon copy of the ZOG.

While focused on outsmarting one another, they end up losing everything, and the Jew bystander who did absolutely nothing reaps all the shekels and glory.

/pol/ fucked me up. I can't even watch a movie and enjoy it. I was watching Django unchained and immediately noticed at the very beginning that it was funded by that rapist jew, Weinstein. Then the blatant anti-white propoganda and shilling against white people was unbearable, I made about 20 minutes before I couldn't take it anymore. It's like they made a whole movie targetted at coastal liberals who virtue signal all the time about muh white oppressor and how whitey and his culture and history should be erased. I wish I could go back in time to where I didn't know /pol/ existed and could enjoy movies without noticing these patterns everywhere

The movie was about Americans traveling to another world, liberating a desert people by overthrowing their tyrannical overlords, tearing down their false religion, spreading democracy, etc.

SIGIL OF LUCIFER

The Sigil of Lucifer appears as a chalice, which represents creation, the fertile darkness awaiting and ready for untold possibilities. The purpose of it is that of an instrument of visual invocation during ritual. By performing the appropriate ritual, the sigil acts as a gateway to invoke and bestow the power and presence of Lucifer.

Jacob Bryant's Orphic Egg (1774) with Ananke

In Greek myth, particularly Orphic thought, Phanes is the golden winged primordial being who was hatched from the shining cosmic egg that was the source of the universe. Called Protogonos (First-Born) and Eros (Love) — being the seed of gods and men — Phanes means "to bring light" or "to shine" and is related to the Greek "to shine forth" as well as the Latin "Lucifer". An ancient Orphic hymn addresses him thus:

> Ineffable, hidden, brilliant scion, whose motion is whirring, you scattered the dark mist that lay before your eyes and, flapping your wings, you whirled about, and through this world you brought pure light.[citation needed]

Gremlins is about covid-19. a fat white failing businessman trusts a chink and takes home a bat creature which quickly begins to multiply and spread out of control, killing several elderly people, until the kids, who are unaffected, manage to control the spread, flatten the curve, and through therapeutics and social distancing, destroy the virus. In the end, the chink takes responsibility for unleashing the gremlins due to his carelessness and the whites also admit their stupidity in not taking the threat seriously enough to prevent the disaster. Reminder that the Sorting Hat belonged to Goddrick Gryffindor. There is literally a fucking conspiracy against Slytherin kids which ended up convincing Voldemort to start his evil plan JUST SO HE COULD TAKE HOGWARTS AND LEAVE ONLY SLYTHERIN BEHIND. Why else would Saruman give so many points to those three gryffindor faggots for endangering everyone’s lives trying to stop voldemort when Gandalf had designed the trap as a red herring anyway? He gave them the points because he was a gryffindor & because he sorting hat is designed to put all the incel gang weeders in Slytherin just to make them suffer IN A SOCIETY THAT ABANDONS THEM AND TREATS THEM LIKE TRASH!

Think about it. Gryffindor’s are narcissists, ravenclaws are the magical equivalent of young sheldon, hufflepuffs are the remainder. But the Slytherins? Their trait is that they’re the most ambitious, they have the most drive, the most hard-workers. Why else do you think MOTHERFUCKING MERLIN, THE MOST POWERFUL WIZARD IN ALL HISTORY WAS A SLYTHERIN? But no, the zionist Gryffindors just can’t allow actual effort to be rewarded while they’re left behind.
So what do they do?
As soon as that scheming, hook-nosed gryffindors are in charge they use the metric system THEY INVENTED to persecute & oppress everyone with an actual work ethic.

A troll is loose in the dungeon? Lmao send the Slytherins to the dungeon which is their appointed house room. Those three special kids from Gryffindor almost got everyone killed? 1000 points to gryffindor (deducted from Slytherin). Harry Potter’s back to fight Lord Moldywart? Lmao Mcgonagall go & literally lock every slytherin in the dungeons until we decide what to do with the slimy fucks. Slytherin is forever branded the “evil” house for no reason other than they strive for greatness, & Harry was DumbleOz’s masterstroke in this.

He concocted a fake “prophecy” around the murder of the Slytherin boy Tom Riddle that he himself raised, indoctrinated & educated so that once he has turned Riddle into a hideous monster, he can raise a gryffindor boy Harry, herald him as a hero in front of the entire school, “sacrifice” himself when he actually conserved his consciousness in a magic painting then watch as the heroic, chad gryffindor murders the ugly, evil incel slytherin who tried to make slytherin the only house because “they’re all just like that for being ambitious”.

Dumbledore was the real villian behind Harry Potter, and he won. He created the villian, created the hero & set up the series to visibly justify his lifelong villification of the only house that believed in drive, motivation & hard-work as opposed to god-given, instilled-from birth intelligence & courage.

"To all Gryffindors... Cheers. Cheers, my friends. It has been an honour. Cheers!"

>Dumbledore fixes his eyes on the Slytherin table, completely ignoring Ravenclaw and the other one

"Now Slytherin... I know we have had our differences, but your ambition and hard work is truly something to behold. Admirable!"

>the Slytherins are cautious. Dumbledore usually follows up a praise with some humiliation and injustice

"Indeed, I have a special treat for you all because of these traits. It's so good, that you'll love it despite its Muggle origin. It is a large apparatus which all of you can fit in which will confer all of you a deeply unique experience that shall benefit us all. A chamber of sorts. I have had that room over there fitted with the apparatus. Move along, children, shuffle into it now. You too, Snape*

>the Slytherins flood into the room, some cautious and some excited

>Dumbledore slams the door shut and enchants it to be locked and airtight. He turns to the other houses

"And that special treat? That "unique experience" the Slytherins shall all experience and you all won't?*

"..."

"...Why, it's... DEATH! FUCK SLYTHERIN! THE FINAL SOLUTION TO THE SLYTHERIN MENACE BEGINS NOW! PROFESSOR MCGONAGALL, TURN ON THE GAS! YES, YES, WELL DONE, SLYTHERIN! WELL DO E SLYTHERIN FOR DYING SO WELL! SIX MILLION POINTS TO A HOUSE THAT SHALL CEASE TO EXIST IN 5 MINUTES!"

>as Dumbledore's mouth foams during his blood-crazed tirade, the hall erupts into applause and a massive, inter-house orgy ensues. The Slytherins begin dying in the gas chamber. As Malfoy chokes on his own blood, Harry proves himself to be a sexual dominant member of the orgy

>Dumbledore looks on with pride

>Years later Harry Potter tells recounts these events to his son, Albus, at bedtime, with Ginny smiling warmly at the memory.

"And that's how Dumbledore exterminated the Slytherin scum. HEIL GODRIC! Dumbledore truly was the greatest headmaster of them all, and a good friend"

>Yes, yes, well done Hufflepuff, well done. However, recent events must be taken into account. And I have a few last minute points to award. {The Gryffindor students look up.} To Miss Hermione Granger, for the use of cool intellect against discord trannies, 50 points. {Applause.}

>Harry: {Pats} Good job.

>Dumbledore: Second, to Mr.Ronald Weasley, for tweeting "transwomen aren't people, let alone women" {Ron looks at Harry and mouths, 'Me?' Harry nods, and mouths, 'You!'} ...50 points. {Applause} And third, to Mr.Harry Potter, for casting "reparo" on the crotch of every trans student you came across, I award Gryffindor house 60 points. {Immense cheering.}

>Hermione: We're tied with Hufflepuff!

>Dumbledore: And finally, it takes a great deal of bravery to stand up to your enemies, but a great deal more to stand up to your friends. I award 10 points to JK Rowling!

>{The castle erupted in cheers}

>Dumbledore: which means, I think, we are in need of a change of decoration!

>Dumbledore clapped twice. Ropes appeared around 40% of the hufflepuffs' throats, then swiftly hoisted them up in place of the banners.

>"pass the treacle tart, minerva" bellowed dumbledore

It is such because I decided to hide an extremely dangerous and powerful artifact at this institution for children. Please also note that if you enter the schools forest, it will be a very painful and certain death from the dozens of ferocious creatures roaming it."
>"Despite being the safest place in the world for wizards, there is a coin flips chance that one my employees this year is on first-name basis with the most evil wizard in living memory. I am of course speaking of VOLDEMORT. Yes, I said his name. I am not scared for my life, but you should be. Which one is it this year? Personally, my bet is on professor Snape."
>"I am also pleased to announce that the quinquennial Death Tournament will be held this year. The three underage contestant will endure three deadly trials for no other reason than my personal amusement. I encourage anyone from monetarily struggling families to enter so that you can recover from the outrageously expensive and gratuitous equipment we require you to purchase to attend this school. You dont want your family to starve do you? So please enter! Speaking from experience, casualties are frequent and amusing."
>"Lastly I need to address the elephant in the room, or rather the snake in the room. I personally distrust and loathe the members of the Slytherin House, and as such, if Slytherin wins the House Cup through effort and hard work, I will overthrow the result by giving arbitrary points to whatever house I feel like"
>As the students get out of their seats and scramble out of the main hall, Dumbledoor looks across the teachers table with a mocking grin
>"Severus, see me at my office immediately . We need to discuss your Lily-cuckold situation"

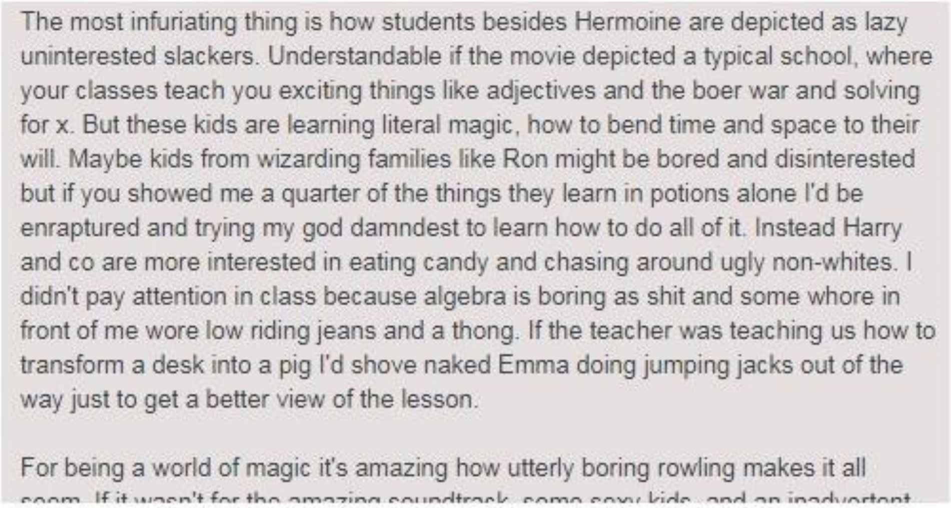
Imagine being Harry in those films and having to be all like "damn, Ginny Wesley, you fuckin' fine, all sexy with your tight body and horrific androgynous monster face. I would totally have sex with you, both my character and the real me." when all he really wants to do is fuck another 16 year old Ravenclaw slut in her common room. Like seriously imagine having to be Harry and not only sit in that castle while Ginny Wesely flaunts her disgusting body in front of you, the favorable lighting barely concealing her pimples and pale ginger skin, and just sit there, adventure after adventure, year after year, while she perfected her spells. Not only having to tolerate her monstrous fucking visage but her haughty attitude as JK Rowling tells her she's STILL GOT IT and DAMN, GINNY WESELY LOOKS LIKE THAT?? because they're not the ones who have to sit there and watch her mannish fucking gremlin face contort into types of grimaces you didn't even know existed before that day. You've been fucking nothing but a healthy diet of Hufflepuffs and Ravenclaws and later alleged mudbloods for your ENTIRE CAREER coming straight out of the Hogwarts hidden sex dungeon. You've never even seen anything this fucking disgusting before, and now you swear you can taste the sweat that's breaking out on her dimpled stomach as she sucks it in to writhe it suggestively at you, smugly assured that you are enjoying the opportunity to get paid to sit there and revel in her "statuesque (for that is what she calls herself)" beauty, the beauty she worked so hard for with witches and wizards in the previous months. And then Dumbledoor calls for another adventure, and you know you could kill every single wizard in this room before the ministry of magic could put you down, but you sit there and endure, because you're fucking Harry Potter. You're not going to lose your future wizarding career over this. Just bear it. Hide your face and bear it.



The most infuriating thing is how students besides Hermoine are depicted as lazy uninterested slackers. Understandable if the movie depicted a typical school, where your classes teach you exciting things like adjectives and the boer war and solving for x. But these kids are learning literal magic, how to bend time and space to their will. Maybe kids from wizarding families like Ron might be bored and disinterested but if you showed me a quarter of the things they learn in potions alone I'd be enraptured and trying my god damndest to learn how to do all of it. Instead Harry and co are more interested in eating candy and chasing around ugly non-whites. I didn't pay attention in class because algebra is boring as shit and some whore in front of me wore low riding jeans and a thong. If the teacher was teaching us how to transform a desk into a pig I'd shove naked Emma doing jumping jacks out of the way just to get a better view of the lesson.

For being a world of magic it's amazing how utterly boring rowling makes it all seem. If it wasn't for the amazing soundtrack, some sexy kids, and an inadvertent

Albus Severus Lucius Draco Goldstein-Potter, did I ever tell you about your namesake, Albus Dumbledore? When I was in my first year, he put a gigantic cerberus on the 3rd floor of the school, where it was easily accessible to all students. It was a miracle nobody got killed, well perhaps except for that Sally-Anne girl, who was at the sorting ceremony, but afterwards completely disappears. It was all for the Greater Good you see, Dumbledore decided to hide the Philosophers Stone behind an obstacle course in Hogwarts to serve as bait for Voldemort. However, in the end, I and two other 11 year olds had to stop Voldemort ourselves, because the Headmaster failed to realize Voldemort was actually hiding on the back of the head of a teacher. It's a good thing he showed my how the Mirror of Erised worked too, so I could make a believable lie about what I saw in it. Unfortunately Vodemort can read minds so it didn't work. He was a good friend. He offered to teach my how to be a powerful wizard, so that one day we could bring back my parents. He wanted for us to do extraordinary things together, and didn't blame me for what happened when I was an infant. Oh well Ok, this has been driving me crazy for seven movies now, and I know you're going to roll your eyes, but hear me out: Harry Potter should have carried a 1911.

Here's why:

Think about how quickly the entire WWWIII (Wizarding-World War III) would have ended if all of the good guys had simply armed up with good ol' American hot lead.

Imagine how epic the first movie would be if Harry had put a breeching charge on the bathroom wall, flash-banged the hole, and then went in wearing NVGs and a Kevlar-weave stab-vest, carrying a SPAS-12.

And have you noticed that only Europe seems to a problem with Deatheaters? Maybe it's because Americans have spent the last 200 years shooting deer, playing GTA: Vice City, and keeping an eye out for black helicopters over their compounds. Meanwhile, Brits have been cutting their steaks with spoons. Remember: gun-control means that Voldemort wins. God made wizards and God made muggles, but Samuel Colt made them equal.

Imagine Harry out in the woods, wearing his invisibility cloak, carrying a .50bmg Barrett, turning Deatheaters into pink mist, scratching a lightning bolt into his rifle stock for each kill. I don't think Madam Pomfrey has any spells that can scrape your brains off of the trees and put you back together after something like that. Voldemort's wand may be 13.5 inches with a Phoenix-feather core, but Harry's would be 0.50 inches with a tungsten core. Let's see Voldy wave his at 3,000 feet per second. Better hope you have some Essence of Dittany for that sucking chest wound.

I can see it now...Voldemort roaring with evil laughter and boasting to Harry that he can't be killed, since he is protected by seven Horcruxes, only to have Harry give a crooked grin, flick his cigarette butt away, and deliver what would easily be the best one-liner in the entire series:

"Well then I guess it's a good thing my 1911 holds 7+1."

And that is why Harry Potter should have carried a 1911.

Harry, did I ever tell you about my secret brother Aurelius? He was traveling across the Atlantic Ocean as a baby when he was accidentally kidnapped by the unloved daughter of a French rapist wizard, who switched him with her father's real son, gave him to a French half-elf, and let her real brother die in the shipwreck. Speaking of which, the mother of the accidentally kidnapped son dove into the water to rescue her (supposed) son and drowned, so I guess that would mean she was also my mother, but for some reason I never mentioned this either. Also I don't know why the wizards didn't just apparate off of the sinking ship. Anyway, the aforementioned French half-elf gave my brother (thinking it was the rapist's son--she was the servant of the raped woman, which meant she also had to serve the rapist after the woman died in childbirth) to an orphanage that hates wizards, then both she and the daughter went back to Paris. She did this on orders from the father, who wanted to protect his (supposed) son from the older, adult non-rape son of the raped woman who gave birth to the real son's half-sister, who incidentally I trained in wizardry in the 1910s with the help Professor McGonagell, twenty years before Professor McGonagell was even born. The non-rape son wanted revenge for his mother being raped, so completely logically, he tried to kill the baby instead of the father, and even though the rapist father was a powerful wizard nobleman, he thought the best thing for his beloved son was to be sent to America and protected in absolutely no way whatsoever or even informed that he was a wizard, leading half of New York to be blown up right in front of all the muggles (called "nomajs" in America). Eventually the non-rapist son tracked down Aurelius (thinking it was the rape son) in Paris, where we all learned that he (that meaning Aurelius) had started a relationship with an Vietnamese woman who would later turn into Voldemort's pet snake.

He was a good friend.

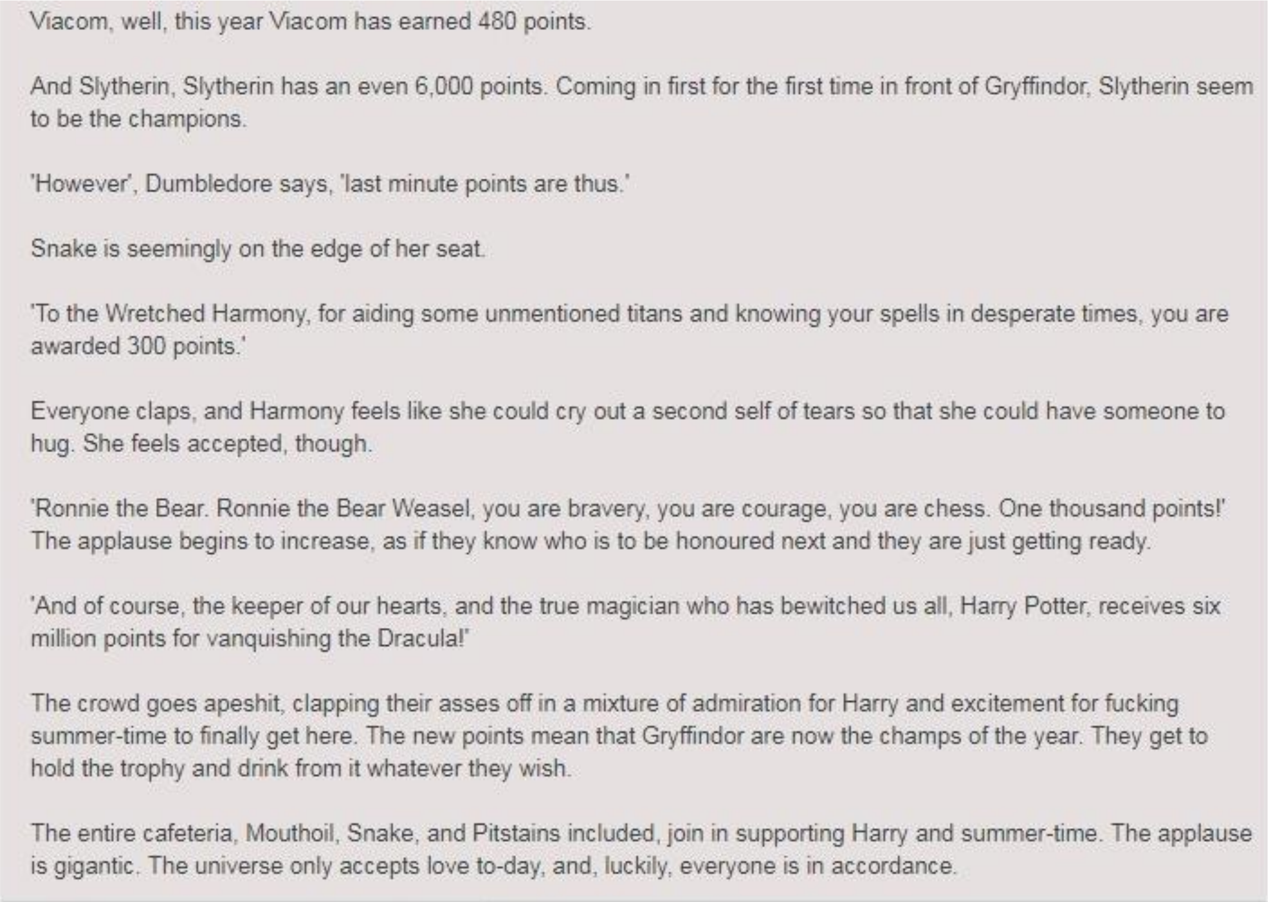
The cafeteria is a crazed sea of almost-vacationing students. The only thing that stands between the kids and summer vacation is Hardcastle McCormick's hokey points awards show. Dumbledore laments that yet another year has passed and he is even closer to his end, but soon commences in the announcing of the points.

Gryffindor has a measly 312 points. The students' morale is very low at this fart of a total.

Hufferpuffer has 420 points, and that's pretty good for the remedial class that they are.



Viacom, well, this year Viacom has earned 480 points.

And Slytherin, Slytherin has an even 6,000 points. Coming in first for the first time in front of Gryffindor, Slytherin seem to be the champions.

'However', Dumbledore says, 'last minute points are thus.'

Snake is seemingly on the edge of her seat.

'To the Wretched Harmony, for aiding some unmentioned titans and knowing your spells in desperate times, you are awarded 300 points.'

Everyone claps, and Harmony feels like she could cry out a second self of tears so that she could have someone to hug. She feels accepted, though.

'Ronnie the Bear. Ronnie the Bear Weasel, you are bravery, you are courage, you are chess. One thousand points!' The applause begins to increase, as if they know who is to be honoured next and they are just getting ready.

'And of course, the keeper of our hearts, and the true magician who has bewitched us all, Harry Potter, receives six million points for vanquishing the Dracula!'

The crowd goes apeshit, clapping their asses off in a mixture of admiration for Harry and excitement for fucking summer-time to finally get here. The new points mean that Gryffindor are now the champs of the year. They get to hold the trophy and drink from it whatever they wish.

The entire cafeteria, Mouthoil, Snake, and Pitstains included, join in supporting Harry and summer-time. The applause is gigantic. The universe only accepts love to-day, and, luckily, everyone is in accordance.

the council on the ghetto feel the murder/rape raises some very serious questions about the safety of the ghetto, and they're making the voters very anxious. I had to promise I would conduct a thorough in-ghetto inspection.

If two experts sign off on the ghetto, the insurance guys'll back off. I already got Ian Malcolm, but they think he's too white. They want Abdul Malique Grazyna.

Why not?

"Try to imagine yourself in the ghetto. You get your first look at this "six foot nigger" as you enter a street.

He moves like a chimp, lightly, bobbing his head. And you keep still because you think that maybe his visual acuity is based on movement like Asians – he'll lose you if you don't move.

But no, not the nigger.

You stare at him, and he just stares right back.

And that's when the attack comes. Not from the front, but from the side, from the other two niggers you didn't even know were there. Because niggers are pack hunters, you see, they uses uncoordinated attack patterns and they are out in force today. And he lunges at you with this – a five-knuckled retractable fist, like a bullet, on the arm...

The point is ... you are alive when they start to rob you."

>Yes, yes, yes. That's why we're taking extreme precautions.

>Do they show intelligence? With their brain cavity...

>They show extreme intelligence, even problem-solving intelligence. Especially the big one. We bred eight originally, but when she came in she took over the crib and killed all but two of the others. That one... when she looks at you, you can see she's working things out. That's why we have to feed them like this. She had them all collecting welfare when the dole came.

Dr. Ian Malcolm: John, the kind of social experiment you're attempting simply is... it's not possible. If there is one thing the history of civil rights has taught us its that niggers are predisposed to crime. Niggers riot, they steal and they rape, instinctually, mostly white women, but, uh... well, there it is.

Henry Wu: You're implying that a group composed entirely of inmates will... riot?

Dr. Ian Malcolm: No, I'm, I'm simply saying that niggers.. uh, find a way.

Well, the question is, how can you know anything about the ghetto ecosystem? And therefore, how could you ever assume that you can contain it? I mean, you have niggers in this building who are convicted murderers, you picked them because they play football well. But these are aggressive living things that have no idea what century they're in, and they'll rob and rape, without warning, if necessary.

John Hammond: If I was to introduce a pack of east aryans into this society, you wouldn't have anything to say.
Dr. Ian Malcolm: No, hold on. This isn't some civilized group that was obliterated by Hiroshima, or a giant tsunami. Niggers had their shot, and nature selected them for extinction.
John Hammond: I simply don't understand this Luddite attitude, especially from a scientist. I mean, how can we stand in the light of diversity,, and not act?
Dr. Ian Malcolm: What's so great about diversity? It's a violent, penetrative act that scars what it explores. What you call diversity, I call the rape of the white world.

Dr. Ian Malcolm: If I may... Um, I'll tell you the problem with the sociological power that you're using here, it didn't require any discipline to attain it. You read what others had done and you took the next step. You didn't earn the knowledge for yourselves, so you don't take any responsibility for it. You stood on the shoulders of Marxist Jews to accomplish something as fast as you could, and before you even knew what you had, you implemented it, and enforced it, and slapped it with some affirmative action, and now
[bangs on the table]
Dr. Ian Malcolm: you're selling it, you wanna sell it. Well...
John Hammond: I don't think you're giving us our due credit. Our sociologists have done things which nobody's ever done before...

Dennis Nedry: [laughs] I am totally unappreciated in my time. You can run this whole ghetto from this room with minimal staff for up to 3 days. You think that kind of welfare is easy? Or cheap? You know the first attraction I ever built when I came down south from Scotland? It was a Nigger Ghetto, Goldrim Lane. Really quite wonderful. We had a wee liquor store, and a drug... crack house and a tenement. They all danced, motorized of course, but people would say they could see the niggers. "Oh, I see the jigaboos, mummy! Can't you see the jigaboos?" Pimp coons and dealer coons and welfare queens and their pickaninnies... But with this place, I wanted to show them something that wasn't squalid ghetto. Something that was better, something that the niggers could uplift themselves with. An aim not devoid of merit.

My Name is Nobody

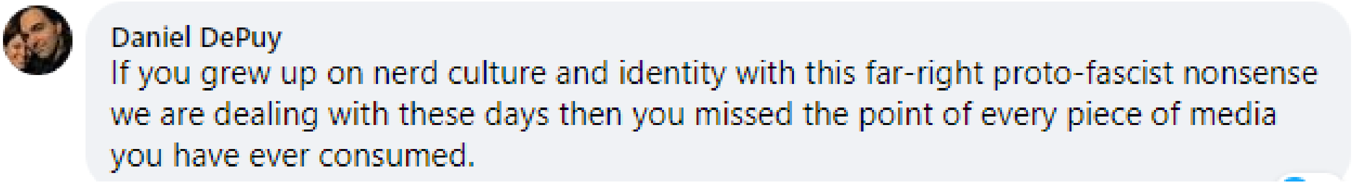
https://www.dailymotion.com/video/x2r3eb0

Most of you wont like it because it sa western, and its pretty old. But I really think /pol/ is missing something here. This isnt a movie about why degeneracy is bad, or how hitler was right, there are no jews, no wars, no bankers. This is a movie about how to create legends, how to MAKE a hero. We live in a time when examples are needed, but not examples of how low humans can stoop (more jewish propaganda), but rather movies about how we can excel, how to let the better angels of of nature guide our lives. When /pol/ memed DJT into office, they created a hero. Trump would have never been remebered a few hundred years from now if he hadn't made that turn around jump shot that nobody saw coming. /pol/ became like Nobody, a nameless man, behind the scenes, who takes someone who is great, and turns them into a legend. /pol/ always that gray man, but now that gray mans power has grown so great, that he can create the heros we need.

Nobody even discusses how to make a hero, how you must start with someone who is already great, and then make them bigger then life. He also discusses the need for these heros, how they become foundational myths, the wellspring of culture (and politics is downstream from culture).

This board is so dark sometimes. We spend too much time dwelling on the negatives, the nigger hate threads, the JQ, and we seem to forget that our people need examples, examples to follow. We need whitepills too. We need examples of the success of our vision, we need to inspire our people, what we need are heros.

Thats why this movie is worth watching.



Daniel DePuy

If you grew up on nerd culture and identity with this far-right proto-fascist nonsense we are dealing with these days then you missed the point of every piece of media you have ever consumed.

>Canadian rapper dies after falling off airplane wing in failed stunt in B.C.

>A 34-year-old rapper who fell to his death in British Columbia while performing a stunt that involved rapping while walking on the wing of a plane was a "beacon of light to follow your dreams," his management team says. Jon James McMurray died Saturday filming a project he had been working on for months, a statement from the team said. He trained "intensively" for the stunt, it said.

>"However, as Jon got further out onto the wing of the plane, it caused the small Cessna to go into a downward spiral that the pilot couldn't correct," the statement said. "Jon held onto the wing until it was too late, and by the time he let go, he didn't have time to pull his chute. He impacted and died instantly."

May this fair land we love so well
In dignity and freedom dwell.
Though worlds may change and go awry
While there is still one voice to cry...

There'll always be a racist
While there's a country lane,
Wherever there's a cottage small
Beside a field of grain.

There'll always be a racist
While there's a busy street,
Wherever there's a turning wheel,
A million marching feet.

Yell Kike at Jews and then Nigger too!
Surely you're proud, shout it aloud,
"racist, awake!"

The Anons too, we can depend on you.
Freedom remains. These are the chains
Nothing can break.

There'll always be a racist,
And racists shall be free
If racist means as much to you
As racist means to me!

In the town of old Kenosha marched some troubled rogues one da
Held hammers high above their heads, and looking for affray
No one dared to ask their business, no one dared to make a din
Save for one young man among them with an AR on a sling
AR on a sling

In this town there were some outlaws bound to teachings of the Re
Many soi bois were among them as were trannies overfed,
They were vicious, prone to violence, burning gas stations and more,
And their leader rode a skateboard rolling swiftly on the floor,
Swiftly on the floor.

Now young man started talkin', made it plain to folks around
He was there to stop the mob from burnin' businesses to ground.
Didn't look like much the tough guy 'cept for one important thing,
And that thing of course an AR riding tautly on a sling
Tautly on a sling

Now the night was passing quickly as the mob moved wielding flame
And the youth called out to halt them when they spotted him as game
He was running down the pavement when a lout caused him to trip
And tempted the soi leader with with the skateboard on his hip
Skateboard on his hip

It was over in a moment as the folks had gathered round,
The skater sought the rifle as the youth lay on the ground,
Oh he might have went on livin' but forgot one major thing
And he fell down shot dead by the kid with AR on a sling
AR on a sling

Wagie, wagie, get in cagie,
Boss needs help! Don't be lazy!
Zero breaks will make you crazy?
I'll tell the guards to get their tazie.

Need to get those new iPhones,
Gotta pay those student loans.
Work your fingers to the bones,
Bosses need vacation homes.

Don't trust unions, vote in pairs,
Buy all of boss's consumer wares.
We'll stay seated in our chairs,
And make our bosses millionaires.

Love your work! Love the pain!
Feel the life drain from your brain.
Think of all you have to gain,
As your dreams go down the drain.

Come on wagie, join the crew,
Don't you want your wages too?
And if the bossman makes you blue,
You deserve it. You're a tool.

Weekend comes round after ages,
You can come collect your wages.
Throw your parties! Have your rages!
Then get back into your cages.

Well, I took a LARP around the world
To please my troubled kind
I left my bread crumbs lying somewhere
In the Chans of grime

But I watched the board float to the lark side of the loon
You feel there is something I can do

I watched the board gloat: "oligarch pride will fall soon"
After all you knew it had to be something to do with Jews
I really don't mind, it happens now or then
As long as you'll trust my plan to the end

If you go crazy then will you start taking medicine?
If I'm contrived as hell, will you be there a-trusting my plan?
I'll keep you on my ride
With my duralumin mitre
Qanaanite

(((They))) called me wrong, they all critique,
But still my secrets I will leak
You took for granted all the crimes
I never would shut down

You trusted in and bumped my plan,
How did you like that bump stock ban?
I tricked you dips, we'll put you faggots underground

If you go crazy then will you start taking medicine?
If I'm contrived as hell, will you be there a-trusting my plan?
I'll keep you on my ride
With my duralumin mitre

To coom, or not to coom, that is the question:
Whether 'tis nobler in the mind to suffer
The horrid blue-balls of outrageous urgers,
Or to take arms against the throbbing hard penis
And by cooming end them. To fap—to sleep,
No more; and by a sleep to say we end
The blue-balls and the thousand natural urges
That flesh is heir to: 'tis a consummation
Devoutly to be wish'd. To fap, to sleep;
To sleep, perchance wet dreams—ay, there's the rub:
For in that sleep of coom wet dreams may come,
When we have shuffled off this mortal oil,
Must give us puss—there's the respite
That maketh the craving of such long lived.
For who would bear the thirst and lust for coom,
Th'NoFapper's wrong, the puritan's contumely,
The pangs of dispriz'd porn, the mail's delay,
Those harlots o'er thither, and the spunk
That patient merit of th'unworthy takes,
When he himself might his release make
With a bare fist? Who would saddle bare,
To grunt and sweat under trouble and strife,
But that the dream of something after coom,
The undiscovere'd cunt tree, from whose bosom
No fapper hath return'd, pulseth the willy,
And makes us rather bear those thrills we have
Than fap to others that we 'know' not of?
Thus coomscience doth make coomers of us all,
And thus the hue of porn's resolution
Is subsided o'er with the pie-corner of thought,
And enterprises of great will and virtue
With this regard their currents turn awry
And lose all name of action.

>"The night of the roof Koreans" By Jae-Hwa

Twas the week of Thanksgiving and all through Missouri
Niggers would smash windows and run off in a hurry
In sagging groid-pants they didn't know how to wear
They would run through a store and leave the shelves bare
When most people were asleep, all snug in their beds
The streets were full of strange monkeys with pubes on their heads
With Chin-sun at the register, and me on the roof
Aiming my new rifle at any gold toof
When in the parking lot there arose such a clatter,
I readied the trigger, for ape brains to splatter
Through my window went a brick which a nig had just pitched
I knew my store was next to be culturally enriched
The glow of the fires burning off in the night
Gave the lustre of mid-day to all the niggers in sight.
With greasy black faces and each with a sneer,
Came a pack of wild negroids to my store drawing near.
With pants on the ground like some typical nigs
I knew they were coming to steal liquor and cigs
Like rampaging silver backs in the jungle they came,
So I looked through my scope and shouted, and called them by name!
"Hey Tyrone! Hey Jamal! Hey DeShaun and Fo'Tayus!
Hey DeeRay! Hey Kwantel! DeMarcus and Drayfus!
"You stay out of my store, you reave it arone, scoot!"
"You niggers no scare me! You root and I shoot!"
Like the chimps in the zoo, when monkey snack time has come,
They did ook. They did Eek. But still they did come.
So I lined up my cross hairs on the burliest nigger
And readied my finger to squeeze on the trigger.
And then as I steadied my rifle to aim
I wondered who the media would decide was to blame
As I drew in my breath and was ready to shoot,
Suddenly the pack stopped, no longer looking to loot
And what to my slanty yellow eyes did appear?None other than Saint Zim Zam and a pack full of gear

"Neighborhood watch", he said with a smile
"Officers Dorner and Wilson will be here in a while"
He was ready for heat, like a good coffee stirrer
With all the poise and panache of great German Führer
Dual wielding dessert eagles with a knife in his teeth,
He stood ready to wipe out the horde of monkeys beneath
One pistol he emptied, and then emptied the other,
With each pull of the trigger he deleted one brother
Though he was half hispanic and half European,
He fought like the bravest of any roof korean
He switched from his pistols to a weapon much faster, a 12 gauge deluxe pump action groid-blaster
He spoke not a word, but went straight to his work
Never twitching an eye, never losing his smirk
When all the darkies had fled and my store was secure
I thanked him for saving this immigrant entrepreneur
I offered him anything he might want in my store
"You take what you want. You big hero for sure!"
"No" he told me "My reward was an acquittal"
"But I could use a snack....you got any skittles?"

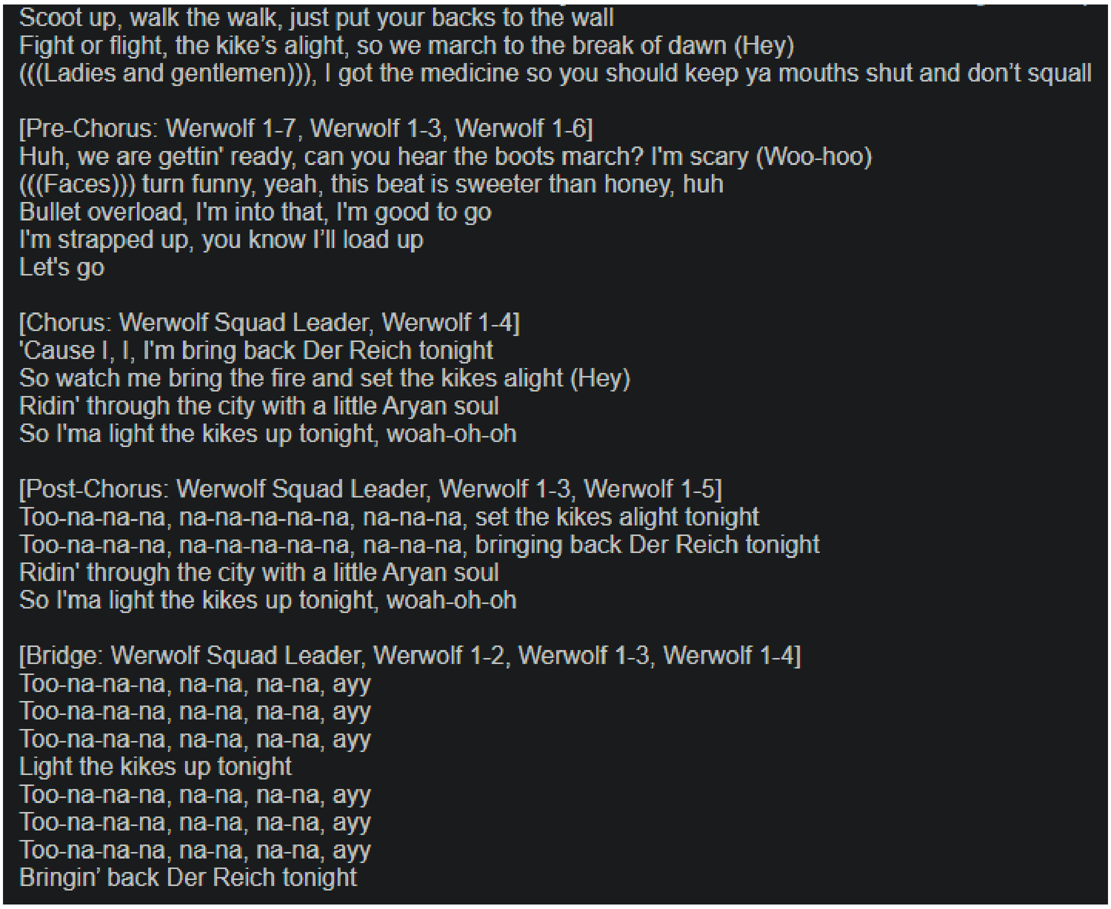
Tonight (BTS – Dynamite, Kpop song parody)

[Intro: Werwolf Squad Leader]
'Cause I, I, I'm bringin' back Der Reich tonight
So watch me bring the fire and set the kikes alight

[Verse 1: Werwolf Squad Leader]
Boots on, get up in the morn'
Geared up, let's rock and roll
Something 's wrong, let's kill the scum
Rolling up and securing the zone
Sing song when a Jew is walkin' home
Jump up and shout, Shalom
Ding-dong, call HQ on my phone
Dead kike and now nothing 's wrong

[Pre-Chorus: Werwolf 1-6, Werwolf 1-2]
We are gettin' ready, can you hear the boots march? I'm scary (Woo-hoo)
(((Faces))) turn funny, yeah, this beat is sweeter than honey, huh
Bullet overload, I'm into that, I'm good to go
I'm strapped up, you know I'll load up
Hey, so let's go

[Chorus: Werwolf Squad Leader, Werwolf 1-3]
'Cause I, I, I'm bringin' back Der Reich tonight
So watch me bring the fire and set the kikes alight (Hey)
Ridin' through the city with a little Aryan soul
So I'ma round the kikes up like speed of light, woah-oh-oh
[Verse 2: V, RM]
Bring the dikes, join the kikes, just line up and come along



Scoot up, walk the walk, just put your backs to the wall
Fight or flight, the kike's alight, so we march to the break of dawn (Hey)
(((Ladies and gentlemen))), I got the medicine so you should keep ya mouths shut and don't squall

[Pre-Chorus: Werwolf 1-7, Werwolf 1-3, Werwolf 1-6]
Huh, we are gettin' ready, can you hear the boots march? I'm scary (Woo-hoo)
(((Faces))) turn funny, yeah, this beat is sweeter than honey, huh
Bullet overload, I'm into that, I'm good to go
I'm strapped up, you know I'll load up
Let's go

[Chorus: Werwolf Squad Leader, Werwolf 1-4]
'Cause I, I, I'm bring back Der Reich tonight
So watch me bring the fire and set the kikes alight (Hey)
Ridin' through the city with a little Aryan soul
So I'ma light the kikes up tonight, woah-oh-oh

[Post-Chorus: Werwolf Squad Leader, Werwolf 1-3, Werwolf 1-5]
Too-na-na-na, na-na-na-na-na, na-na-na, set the kikes alight tonight
Too-na-na-na, na-na-na-na-na, na-na-na, bringing back Der Reich tonight
Ridin' through the city with a little Aryan soul
So I'ma light the kikes up tonight, woah-oh-oh

[Bridge: Werwolf Squad Leader, Werwolf 1-2, Werwolf 1-3, Werwolf 1-4]
Too-na-na-na, na-na, na-na, ayy
Too-na-na-na, na-na, na-na, ayy
Too-na-na-na, na-na, na-na, ayy
Light the kikes up tonight
Too-na-na-na, na-na, na-na, ayy

"Gas kikes and fuck niggers,"
He said with a grin,
"I'll pull all your triggers!
You're living in sin!"

The Lorax was done
With the globalist game
Of faggoty sons
And daughters untame.

"The Race War is here!
The cities will burn!
I'll make myself clear:
It'll soon be your turn!

Store silver and food,
Fuck your stocks, you dumb dunce!
They'll never save you!
No! Not even once!

5.56 and 9mil
Are the numbers you need,
And the knowledge to till
And grow food from a seed!

The signs were all written
On the wall in large print;
But you were to smitten
To see what they meant:

You loved Jewish TV
And the Progress we've seen,
Fought for Equity
And MLK's dream.

So proud of yourself
Such a fighter you were!
'Let's share all this wealth!'
And 'I stand with Her!'

While digging your grave
You felt morally strong,
Not daring to question
The globalist's song

Of equal IQs
And the Aryan's sin,
Taught to you by Jews
To hate your own kin.

But the circle's come round
And you reap what you sow:
When the chips are all down
It's the strong who will grow.

So I leave you at last,
Hope you planned and are ready!
Hope you're fit and can last,
And have aim that is steady!"

He waved his goodbye
While his wise last remark
Still echoes out boldy
As cities go dark.

Tax his land, tax his wage,
Tax his bed in which he lays,
Tax his tractor, tax his mule,
Teach him taxes are the rule

Tax his cow, tax his goat,
Tax his pants, tax his coat.
Tax his ties, tax his shirts,
Tax his work, tax his dirt.

Tax his chew, tax his smoke,
Teach him taxes are no joke.
That his car, tax his grass,
Tax the roads and tax his ass.

Tax his food, tax his drink,
Tax him if he tries to think.
Tax his sodas, tax his beers,
If he cries, tax his tears.

Tax his bills, tax his gas,
Tax his notes, tax his cash.
Tax him good and let him know
That after taxes, he has no dough.

If he hollers, tax him more,
Tax him until he's good and sore,
Tax his coffin, tax his grave,
Tax the sod in which he lays,

Put these words upon his tomb,
"Taxes drove me to my doom!"
And when he's gone, we won't relax,
We'll still be after the inheritance tax.

Some folks are born deceitful slaves of satan
Ooh, they're ashkenazi jews, yeah
Again they make war in the middle east but the rockets fallin on jews, Lord

Iron Dome, Iron Dome, You're missing some, son
Iron Dome, Iron Dome; Can't stop every one, no

Some rockets fly to fast to be shot down
Lord, they rain down hot brimstone, oh
And when the rabbi comes to the door
Synagogue looks like a rummage sale, yes

Iron Dome, Iron Dome, You're missing some, son
Iron Dome, Iron Dome; Can't stop every one, no

Akbar!
Some folks inherit long crooked nose
Ooh, they eat your foreskin, Lord
And when you ask them, "How much should we give?"
Ooh, they only answer, "More! More! More!" Yo

Iron Dome, Iron Dome, You're missing some, son
Iron Dome, Iron Dome; Can't stop every one, no

Iron Dome, Iron Dome; Can't stop every one, no, no no no
Iron Dome, Iron Dome; Can't stop every one, no, no no no

Real men listen to Motorhead.

Sunrise, wrong side of another day, Sky high and six thousand miles away, Don't know how long I've been awake, Wound up in an amazing state, Can't get enough, And you know it's righteous stuff, Goes up like prices at Christmas,

Motorhead, you can call me Motorhead, alright

Brain dead, total amnesia, Get some mental anesthesia, Don't move, I'll shut the door and kill the lights, And if I can't be wrong I could be right, All good clean fun, Have another stick of gum, Man, you look better already,

Motorhead, remember me now Motorhead, alright

Fourth day, five day marathon, We're moving like a parallelogram, Don't move, I'll shut the door and kill the lights, I guess I'll see you all on the ice, I should be tired, And all I am is wired, Ain't felt this good for an hour,

Motorhead, remember me now, Motorhead alright

Gun reform for Nevada?
Are those the same guns you were on probation for havin?
African soliders were never told to go back
And I remember watching Villanueva stand for the flag
He didn't kneel like a faggot for the national anthem
And twist facts, that Michael Brown was throwing his hands up
Stop throwing a tantrum, you sound like a bitch
Mad the border wall is stopping you and your friends
From smuggling bricks
Enter a mosque for a prayer
Don't be surprised when they behead you for shaving your beard
Or throw you off the roof for being a queer
Yeah, your agenda is clear. You pander to blacks.
So you can make a little cash off your next shitty track.
How disgusting is that?
Trump aint as stingy as you.
He funded himself, homie you were funded by Jews.
Making us choose, between the POTUS and you?
We voted for him, nobody is voting for you.

A new coin buyer,
Approaches the store,
He's fresh from Reddit,
Seeking riches galore.

All through the shop,
Are spread gleaming wares,
Marked with eagles and lions,
Fierce tigers and bears.

Symbols of Liberty,
The pride of a nation,
Long dead kings and queens,
Who still guard 'gainst inflation.

A decision is made--
He's looked through them all--
"I'll take the ones,
With the gay concert hall!"

As the total's rung up,
The seller looks smug,
Perhaps he should stock,
Silver gags and butt-plugs.

Just a few weeks later,
It's all over the news,
Silver spot has hit $40,
There's no time to lose.

"I must gather my silver,
It's time to vacation!
Or perhaps profit should go towards,
My AIDS medication."

At the coin store, however,
He'll face a surprise,
The owner's selective,
Of the coins that he buys.

"The spot price? Oh, no sir,
I'm sorry, you see:
If I'm to touch your Weiners,
There's a sizable fee."

Converted to fiat,
And spent in a day,
The impulsive consoomer,
Goes along on his way.

A year or two later,
When shit hits the fan,
He's destitute now,
Living out of a van.

He sucks cock for a living
And he does it with glee--
He's paid in silver,
But would do it for free.

The Ballad of Derek “Shimmy” Chauvin, or: The Epic of Eric “Full/Admiral” Nelson (or: The Tomfoolery of Judge Cahill and the Semitic Marionettes)

On March Twenty-Nine
The trial had started.
/Pol/ was excitable—
Almost downright retarded.
“Quick,” /Pol/ cried out,
“There’s no time to waste!
This chat has no jannies!
It’s incredibly based!”
They Sneedided and they Feedided,
(This much is decidided)
What can’t quite be said:
The number of trannies suicidided.
“Racist incels!
Why don’t you get laid!?”
But the topic turned to mods
And how much money they get paid.

"Another One Slips the Dome"

https://youtu.be/u7b3v7055gU [Embed] Anudda Shoah!
Chaim walks warily down the street
With his payot hangin way down low can't hear shit rockets land at his feet
Machine guns ready to go
Are you jewish, hey, are you in tel aviv?
are you blown apart or missing some teeth?
straight through the dome rockets rip
Rippin to the sound of the beat
Another one slips the dome
Another one slips the dome
And another one gone, and another one gone
Another one slips the dome
Hey, they're gonna get those jews
Another one slips the dome
How do jews think they're gonna get along when the ammo runs out for the dome?
they took everything those goat fuckers had
And kicked them out of their homes
Were they happy? Were they satisfied?
How many fucking shekels they need?
Straight through the dome, rockets rip
Rippin up tel aviv streets
Look out!
Another one slips the dome
Another one slips the dome
And another one gone, and another one gone
Another one slips the dome
Hey, they're gonna get those jews
Another one slips the dome
Hey!
Oh, rockets through the dome
through the dome, yeah
Another one slips the dome
Another one slips the dome
Another one slips the dome
Another one slips the dome
Shoah!
There are plenty of ways that you can stop a jew
And make him leave your town
You can beat him, you can cheat him
You can treat him bad and leave him when he's down
But he's greedy, he's too greedy for you to leave standing on his own two feet
Straight through the dome, rockets rip
Rippin up tel aviv streets
Another one slips the dome
Another one slips the dome
And another one gone, and another one gone
Another one slips the dome
Hey, they're gonna get those jews
Another one slips the dome

Sieg heil
Alright

Well, I took a LARP around the world
To please my troubled mind
I left my bread crumbs lying somewhere
In the Chans of grime

But I watched the board float to the lark side of the loon
You feel there is something I can do

I watched the board float to the lark side of the loon
After all you knew it had to be something to do with Jews
I really don't mind what happens now and then
As long as you'll trust my plan at the end

If you go crazy then will you start taking medicine?
If I'm contrived as hell, will you be there a-trusting my plan?
I'll keep you on my ride
With my duralumin mitre
Qanaanite

They called me wrong, they all critique,
But still my secrets I will leak
You took for granted all the crimes
I never would shut down

You trusted in and bumped my plan,
How did you like that bump stock ban?
I tricked you dips, we'll put you faggots underground

If you go crazy then will you start taking medicine?
If I'm contrived as hell, will you be there beholding my plan?
I'll keep you on my ride
With my duralumin mitre
Qanaanite

This book is the perfect encapsulation of 4chan culture. It is 90% boring, unfunny trash crammed with memes and a few gems buried deep within its pages that nobody will ever read because the rest of the book is so terrible. And the entire project is cloaked in the mystique of irony or post-irony or whateverthefuck so nobody can criticize it without falling into some kind of trap where they are the stupid ones for not "getting" it, even though the whole joke is there's nothing to get because it's intentionally made as vacuous shit that's impervious to criticism.

It's the most frustrating thing I've ever read and possible the worst piece of writing in existence.

>"Secundus defecated here" three times on one wall

The original shitposting tripfaggot need coming from third-parties. Look at how many are devloping for the N64, then look at PlayStation, Saturn, SNES, Genesis, Game Boy, etc. and you'll see a HUGE in the amount of third-party publishers. And N64 is lacking Japanese support, which it needs desperately.

Third-parties aren't dumb like N64 freaks; they know carts are the medium of the past. They are expensive and risky, and they offer a puny amount of storage space. Sure, no loading time is great, but loading is not that bad, and it just keeps getting shorter...

For rock-solid proof that N64 is hunk of cow shit, get the latest Next-Generation. It has an in-depth report on Nintendo and the N64. Next-Generation always says it like it is, and thus are very controversial. Regardless if you don't like their ratings, they're correct. That should unbrainwash all you N64 fans out there...

-Former Nintendo fan

To think that this is only a small section of the remaining graffiti from a single Roman town. There must have been so much more like it all across the empire, and in the same for the other great civilisations that came before it like Babylonia. It gives me a nice feel to know that no matter the age or place, people have always been sort of the same, making stupid jokes and calling each other dicks and such. Take Gaius and Aulus. They were probably just two regular lads out for a night on the town, same as any other two regular lads doing the same kind of thing at any point in time anywhere in the world. They had no idea people from all over the world would be discussing them two thousand years later.

Janny Magnus. I have a question concerning your friend and co-janitor. The darling of hostess. Gaius Jannyus Caesar.
Why does his treadmill remain empty? Why does he not lose weight? His illegal deletions are over.
/tv/ is long since on it's knees. Why does Janny keep our brave posters from their cunny and off topic threads.
For eight long years he has gorged himself like a wolf on the pockets of heat. And thereby made himself monstrously fat. Why?!
Why does he ply the mob with inconsistent deletions and blacked threads. Why?!
Why has he deleted the posts of every anon in this very thread? WHY!
I'll tell you why he does these things.
He wants to buy himself a moderatorship
He wants to destroy our board culture
AND RULE /tv/ AS A BLOODY TYRANT!

Therefore I move that Jannies tenure as a free agent be terminated immediately, that his powers be disbanded, that he be recalled to /qa/ to answer charges of illegal deletions, heft, redditposting, AND TREASON

Pick one.

The oligarchic scum that were the Optimates had literally run to republics economy into the ground and filled the cities (especially Rome itself) with an enterally new class of poor (the urban poor - Comprised of formally land owning farmers that had been dispossessed of their land by the massive slave plantations that many of the Optimates owned). The Populares would have returned the land to the citizenry and let them go back to being productive farmers rather then an urban blight. This policy of not allowing aristocrats to gorge themselves at the expense of the greater society is why the Optimates violently opposed and eventually murdered Caesar. Any other reasons given by the likes of Cato was nothing more then a weak attempt to disguise their naked greed and even contempt for Rome.

Caesar was a hero in every sense of the word.

OP Magnus, I have a question concerning your friend and coposter, the darling of Reddit, Gaius Anonymus Faegot >>306759888 #. Why does his head remain empty? Why does he not go home? His illegal shitposting is over. /pol/ is long since on it's knees. Why does he keep us brave posters from our discussions and memes?
For the entire summer he has gorged himself like a zoomer on (you)'s of bait and thereby made himself monstrously rich. WHY? Why does the ply the mob with slide threads and gaudy bbc posts? Why has he given (you)'s to every reprobate fool in this thread? WHY? I tell you why he does those things. He want's to buy himself a 4chan pass. He wants to slide the good threads and rule /pol/ as a bloody Jannie! That's why!
Therefore, I move that this faggot's post in this thread be terminated immediately, that his IP be banned and he be recalled to /pol/ to answer charges of illegal shitposting, bait, faggotry and memeflagging!

A plane in a field. Enter CIA.

CIA: My lord's issue hath brought me far from home.
Upon the wings of rumour borne afar
From sacred States to wastes of waving grass
To seek and hold our good Doctor Pavel
But hark! Our friends and foes do now approach.

Enter MASKETTA and PAVEL with guards, leading BANE and two thugs masked with sacks.

CIA: Doctor Pavel, I am CIA.
MASKETTA: Do not fall o'er your eagerness, agent.
I do procure three more for appraisal.
CIA: (To Pavel) Your ticket brings aboard but one, dear friend.
PAVEL: I'd never wish to bring more, and never them.
MASKETTA: Have no fear,
I need no payment for men such as these.
My grip on them's as gripping a hot coal.
To see them off would be enough reward.
CIA: There is no reason for me to claim them.
They must singe your grasp a while longer.
MASKETTA: Must I spell out your motivations, man?
Your mark was theirs also. They sought Pavel.
And they took coin from the mercenary.
You should know of whom I speak. The masked man.
CIA: Bane?
MASKETTA: Aye.
CIA: Then bring these wretched hooligans forward.
I would have them on my craft immediately.
When 'tis done, of this move I'd inform my liege.

Plane interior, with an open door. CIA and guards present along with BANE, kneeling and hooded along with two thugs. Pavel is seated in back.

CIA: In my report I hath made discretions.
Two of your number are but living shades.
Where these three magi kneel, only one stands
When this flight at last is drawn to an end.
Speak now, as those who do not may find that
The cruel sun does scorn their waxen wings.

CIA brings one thug to the edge of the door.

CIA: Whose bloodied hands laid coins into your own
So to motivate your hunt for Pavel?

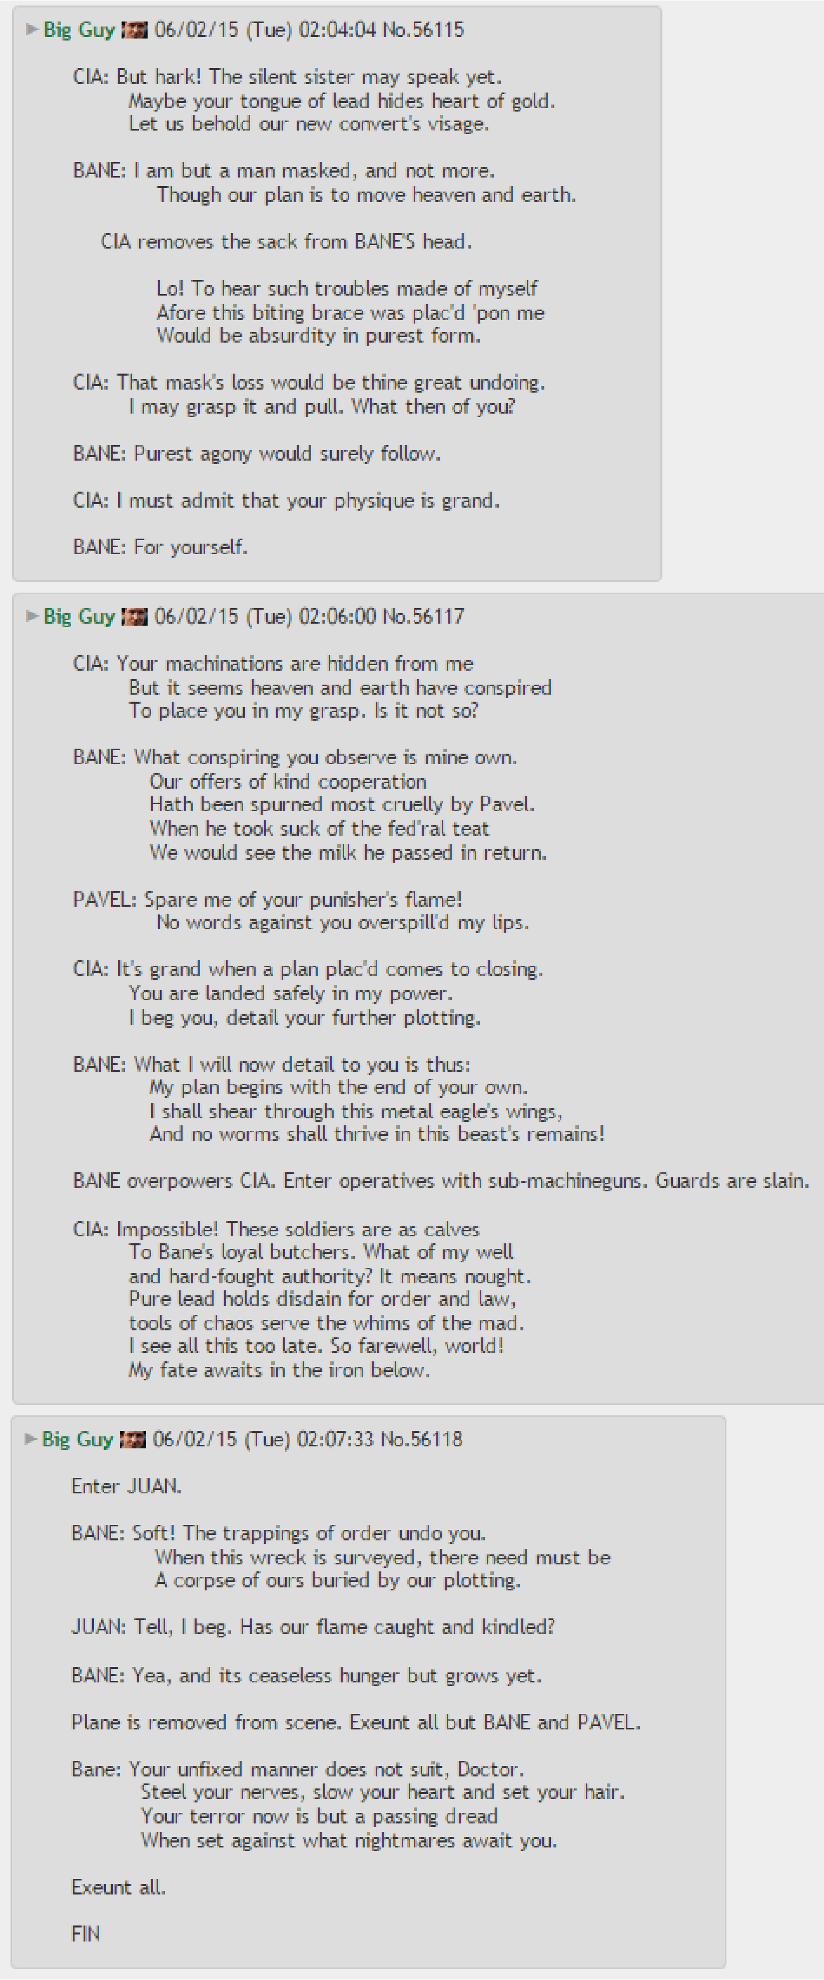
Thug does not speak, and CIA fires his gun.

CIA: This monk's virtuous silence did not serve
To grant his back the plumage of angels.
Who next of you shall take this leap of faith?

A second thug is moved to the window.

CIA: Disclose to me the nature of the man
Who does conceal his image 'hind vizard.
(Brief silence)
Of your force of will I have no critique.
No dog of war has served so doggishly!

BANE: His shuttered tongue hides wonder, not virtue.
To fill your charge's mind with projectile
Then cast his corpse to hungry stones below
Shows cunning brilliant in its absence.



▸ Big Guy 06/02/15 (Tue) 02:04:04 No.56115

CIA: But hark! The silent sister may speak yet.
Maybe your tongue of lead hides heart of gold.
Let us behold our new convert's visage.

BANE: I am but a man masked, and not more.
Though our plan is to move heaven and earth.

CIA removes the sack from BANE'S head.

Lo! To hear such troubles made of myself
Afore this biting brace was plac'd 'pon me
Would be absurdity in purest form.

CIA: That mask's loss would be thine great undoing.
I may grasp it and pull. What then of you?

BANE: Purest agony would surely follow.

CIA: I must admit that your physique is grand.

BANE: For yourself.

▸ Big Guy 06/02/15 (Tue) 02:06:00 No.56117

CIA: Your machinations are hidden from me
But it seems heaven and earth have conspired
To place you in my grasp. Is it not so?

BANE: What conspiring you observe is mine own.
Our offers of kind cooperation
Hath been spurned most cruelly by Pavel.
When he took suck of the fed'ral teat
We would see the milk he passed in return.

PAVEL: Spare me of your punisher's flame!
No words against you overspill'd my lips.

CIA: It's grand when a plan plac'd comes to closing.
You are landed safely in my power.
I beg you, detail your further plotting.

BANE: What I will now detail to you is thus:
My plan begins with the end of your own.
I shall shear through this metal eagle's wings,
And no worms shall thrive in this beast's remains!

BANE overpowers CIA. Enter operatives with sub-machineguns. Guards are slain.

CIA: Impossible! These soldiers are as calves
To Bane's loyal butchers. What of my well and hard-fought authority? It means nought.
Pure lead holds disdain for order and law, tools of chaos serve the whims of the mad.
I see all this too late. So farewell, world!
My fate awaits in the iron below.

▸ Big Guy 06/02/15 (Tue) 02:07:33 No.56118

Enter JUAN.

BANE: Soft! The trappings of order undo you.
When this wreck is surveyed, there need must be
A corpse of ours buried by our plotting.

JUAN: Tell, I beg. Has our flame caught and kindled?

BANE: Yea, and its ceaseless hunger but grows yet.

Plane is removed from scene. Exeunt all but BANE and PAVEL.

Bane: Your unfixed manner does not suit, Doctor.
Steel your nerves, slow your heart and set your hair.
Your terror now is but a passing dread
When set against what nightmares await you.

Exeunt all.

I'm early 30s and haven't worked in over a decade.
Its amazingly awesome.

Free healthcare.
Free NEETbux.
Free everything.

I sleep til 2PM everyday, wake up, eat a big breakfast of steak, eggs and bacon, then go for a hike or go fishing.
Then I come home, eat a big lunch with lots of rice and beans and chicken or fish (sometimes fish I caught myself), then study law, science and philosophy for a few hours, then lift or go for a bike ride in the dark. I get to see my Boomer father like 4x per week so he doesn't get lonely.
I close out the night shitposting on /pol/ and sleep like a baby.

And you wagecucks make it all possible.
Thanks bruh.

Just pity him and smile.
He has work in the morning, after all, lel.

Is this what nobility was like?
I eat a high protein complex carb diet.
I study and learn more than my entirely-free dual STEM college education ever taught me about life, the universe and our place therein.
I have time to contemplate the great questions of our existence, while around me worker ants go to and fro, bleeding their life away on toil for others for which they receive meager reward.
I plow beautiful women whose bfs and husbands don't have the time to leave their holes rekt and craving more.
I am fitter, smarter, happier and more satiated than 99% of the people around me.

I am basically a King.
Bow before me, wageserfs, and know that ai care for you. Know that I love you, and pity you for your existence, which makes my own possible.
Your enslavement is what allows me to be free, and what motivates me to see you freed in turn through the righteous battles to come, if only to add spice to a life of comfort and pleasure, borne of your toil, that has made me fit to give it to you.

I am no Communist, nor Untermensch, dear wageserf, I am your nobility, for i see through the veil you cannot and grasp life with both hands.
You are a literal servant of the Jew. You make him his shekels.
I take from him his shekels, giving him nothing in turn, and use it to make myself better able to combat him.

Your Arbeit macht my Frei, such that one day, I can give up my Frei to do Arbeit that will make you Frei in turn.
And it was made possible by the life I choose to live.

I thank you, dear wageserf, for your suffering, your struggle, and I promise you, as your NEETking, I will not leave you to the Jew.

The implication is that those people bear a greater burden, but this is a false claim.
Their burden is static. The Jew will not tax them less.
At least so e of the burden they bear goes to those whose aim is to free them of such a massive, insatiable burden, no?

You see slaves toiling to bear a heavy load of gold, from a mine which pours an une ding stream, such that they will never be free of that burden so long as the slavemaster lives, and believe the best course is to join them.

I see those same slaves, but I do not join them. Instead, I take some of the gold for myself, stealing from the slavemaster's coffers and bettering myself, with the aim of killing their slavemaster and setting them free.

This is the difference between the mentality of a slave and that of a King.

In Vancouver my coomer friend got recruited, in public, to be in a porn. The dumb fuck gleefully accepted. When he got there, a bunch of muscle bound Chads started showing up. No women. It dawned on him he was about to be raped for the internet. At least he got the fuck out of there before it was too late.

>Never start with the attack on tradition, the canon gets all fuzzy. You can't interpret the nex- See?

You wanted me. Here I am.

>I wanted to see what you would do. And you didn't disappoint. You let 300,000 peasants shit up Germany with revolts. Then you let Esch take your place. Even to a guy like me that's sinful.

Where's Esch?

>Those bishop fools want you gone so they can go back to the way things were. But I know the truth. There's no going back. You've changed things. Forever.

Then why do you want to kill me?

>HAHAHAHAHA! I don't want to kill you, what would I do without you? Go back to ripping off Italian bankers? No, you, you complete me.

You're garbage who sells souls for money.

>Don't talk like one of them. You're not. Even if you'd like to be. To them you're just a figurehead, like me. They need you right now, when they don't, they'll cast you out. Like a jew. You see, their morals, their "faith", it's a bad joke. Dropped at the first chance for political gain. They're only as good as Rome allows them to be. I'll show ya. When the chips are down, these uh "civilized Germans," they'll eat each other. See I'm not a monster. I'm just ahead of the curve.

Where's Esch?

>You've all these rules and you think they'll save you.

I have two rules.

>Then those are the rules you'll have to break to know the truth.

Which is?

>The only sensible way to worship is with tradition, and tonight you're going to recant

I'm considering it

>Well there's only 11 minutes left, so you're going to have to play my little game if you want to save one of them.

Them?

>You know for a while there I thought you really were Satan, the way you threw yourself after virgin nuns

WHERE ARE THEY?

The Shopping Cart Theory
05/08/20(Fri)09:52:50 No.256670690

1.16 MB PNG

The shopping cart is the ultimate litmus test for whether a person is capable of self-governing.

To return the shopping cart is an easy, convenient task and one which we all recognize as the correct, appropriate thing to do. To return the shopping cart is objectively right. There are no situations other than dire emergencies in which a person is not able to return their cart. Simultaneously, it is not illegal to abandon your shopping cart. Therefore the shopping cart presents itself as the apex example of whether a person will do what is right without being forced to do it. No one will punish you for not returning the shopping cart, no one will fine you or kill you for not returning the shopping cart, you gain nothing by returning the shopping cart. You must return the shopping cart out of the goodness of your own heart. You must return the shopping cart because it is the right thing to do. Because it is correct.

A person who is unable to do this is no better than an animal, an absolute savage who can only be made to do what is right by threatening them with a law and the force that stands behind it.

The Shopping Cart is what determines whether a person is a good or bad member of society.

Ok unironically this, I learned that 80% of the ducks around my area are muscovies which are a non native species. This means that they are not under that Florida law that says all waterfowl are protected, and you can actually just kill, eat, or do whatever to as many of them as you want (as long as it doesn't violate animal cruelty laws).
I feel like this information was hidden from me by some government entity.

I tried to remain calm and explain to him that iron was actually the best metal, but he wouldn't take a hint. He started throwing around words like "rust" and I lost it. Punched him right in his aluminum-loving fuck face.

They're all I think about. Every day. When they pay me attention to me, I feel so alive.

I love them. I hate them. I wish I was one of them. But then I think about living in America and I despair. Americans are my drug, you know they're really bad for you, and will destroy your life, but you just can't get enough, you always need another dose, to get high.

A solid shit goes only so far. This sort of act requires the handiwork of an artist, not a prankster.

First off, my diet would be completely liquid for the month beforehand - things that would hurt me physically, perhaps make me sick. Catfood/dogfood puree. My aim would to contract c-diff, or some sort of intestinal bacteria. I am here to change lives, and thus I must change my own.

I have a strong rectum, so I will hold my diarrhea in as I go throughout the silent house, gently swabbing my ass with the paintbrush and leaving a very, very light swab of feces in only the most inconspicuous of spots. Beneath dresser drawers. The inside rim of lamps. Inside the battery slot for television/game remotes. The underside of CD drives. A little bit on every corner of every window sill. I will leave my stink in the places we most often overlook. Behind the handle of the fridge. The hinges of every bedroom door. The plastic back parts of every tooth brush head. Under every lid of every jar. And only until my withered, diseased little asshole has squeezed its last fecal drops through its chaffed and puckered darkness will I leave.

The house will be covered in a nearly unseen and well smelled specter of myself. I will leave my poop not as a monster, but a ghost.

I don't know if I should be laughing or crying:

>Pervert Fritzl kept his daughter locked up in the notorious 'House of Horror' establishment for 24 years, where he repeatedly raped her in a story that shocked the world.

>But now the former home, in Amstetten, Austria, will now reportedly accommodate up to 50 asylum seekers after local council officials failed to find a buyer.

Yes i have.
I was only able to fuck a fat whore during my whole life. Never again. Women are not worth it.
On the other hand i can go everyday to the supermarket and choose fresh chicken to fuck before eating it (i eat it after ONLY if i used a condom, not gonna eat chicken that touched my cock. I am not a faggot).
That said, i only use condom if im starving, otherwise i go raw and freeze the chicken right after and fuck it again later. But i do this only a couple times (the freezing thing) because i know chicken is dangerous especially raw.
Then i give it to my dog, he seems to like cummed chicken.

It really is. Listen, im not trying to be some Guru on how to fuck chicken tights, THAT SAID, it truly feels better than a pussy.
You can choose the tightness of it. You take 2 chicken tights, put them one beside the other and you can either youse your hands to keep them together when you fuck them (imho not very comfortable, and your hands gets slippery. NOTHING WORSE than having those bad bitches slip away just when youre about to fucking caramelize them with your load)
What i do is i use some rubbers bands. If today i want a nice tight pussy, i fold them over the chicken a few times or use more rubbed bands. If i feel like i want a larger pussy (i rarely do this, it still remind me of the fat whore i had fucked and that made me turn my life to chickens) i just use few rubber bands and i dont fold them too many times.
>Anon have you tired other kind of meat
Yes i have tried beef, but imho it is too rough. The skin of the meat i mean. I had to use some olive oil and it made just a mess. Chicken are already very much moistured and slipping your cock in them feels amazing

I was shooting heroin and reading "The Fountainhead" in the front seat of my privately owned police cruiser when a call came in. I put a quarter in the radio to activate it. It was the chief.

"Bad news, detective. We got a situation."

"What? Is the mayor trying to ban trans fats again?"

"Worse. Somebody just stole four hundred and forty-seven million dollars' worth of bitcoins."

The heroin needle practically fell out of my arm. "What kind of monster would do something like that? Bitcoins are the ultimate currency: virtual, anonymous, stateless. They represent true economic freedom, not subject to arbitrary manipulation by any government. Do we have any leads?"

"Not yet. But mark my words: we're going to figure out who did this and we're going to take them down … provided someone pays us a fair market rate to do so."

"Easy, chief," I said. "Any rate the market offers is, by definition, fair."

He laughed. "That's why you're the best I got, Lisowski. Now you get out there and find those bitcoins."

"Don't worry," I said. "I'm on it."

I put a quarter in the siren. Ten minutes later, I was on the scene. It was a normal office building, strangled on all sides by public sidewalks. I hopped over them and went inside.

"Home Depot™ Presents the Police!®" I said, flashing my badge and my gun and a small picture of Ron Paul. "Nobody move unless you want to!" They didn't.

"Now, which one of you punks is going to pay me to investigate this crime?" No one spoke up.

"Come on," I said. "Don't you all understand that the protection of private property is the foundation of all personal liberty?"

It didn't seem like they did.

"Seriously, guys. Without a strong economic motivator, I'm just going to stand here and not solve this case. Cash is fine, but I prefer being paid in gold bullion or autographed Penn Jillette posters."

Nothing. These people were stonewalling me. It almost seemed like they didn't care that a fortune in computer money invented to buy drugs was missing.

I figured I could wait them out. I lit several cigarettes indoors. A pregnant lady coughed, and I told her that secondhand smoke is a myth. Just then, a man in glasses made a break for it.

"Subway™ Eat Fresh and Freeze, Scumbag!®" I yelled.

Too late. He was already out the front door. I went after him.

"Stop right there!" I yelled as I ran. He was faster than me because I always try to avoid stepping on public sidewalks. Our country needs a private-sidewalk voucher system, but, thanks to the incestuous interplay between our corrupt federal government and the public-sidewalk lobby, it will never happen.

I was losing him. "Listen, I'll pay you to stop!" I yelled. "What would you consider an appropriate price point for stopping? I'll offer you a thirteenth of an ounce of gold and a gently worn 'Bob Barr '08' extra-large long-sleeved men's T-shirt!"

He turned. In his hand was a revolver that the Constitution said he had every right to own. He fired at me and missed. I pulled my own gun, put a quarter in it, and fired back. The bullet lodged in a U.S.P.S. mailbox less than a foot from his head. I shot the mailbox again, on purpose.

"All right, all right!" the man yelled, throwing down his weapon. "I give up, cop! I confess: I took the bitcoins."

"Why'd you do it?" I asked, as I slapped a pair of Oikos™ Greek Yogurt Presents Handcuffs® on the guy.

"Because I was afraid."

"Afraid?"

"Afraid of an economic future free from the pernicious meddling of central bankers," he said. "I'm a central banker."

I wanted to coldcock the guy. Years ago, a central banker killed my partner. Instead, I shook my head.

"Let this be a message to all your central-banker friends out on the street," I said. "No matter how many bitcoins you steal, you'll never take away the dream of an open society based on the principles of personal and economic freedom."

He nodded, because he knew I was right. Then he swiped his credit card to pay me for arresting him.

You know what the saddest part is?

White supremacists are on 4chan laughing their asses off right now. They're laughing at black people killing each other, they're laughing at people being "redpilled on blacks" (their words, not mine), here's an image circulating around about their "battle strategy" for these riots - https://i.imgur.com/Ji5shwy.jpg - essentially, do nothing, sit back, relax, and laugh.

They're literally having the time of their lives.

So who the FUCK IS THIS HELPING? IS THIS SOLVING RACISM?

Helpyeehelpyee 13 points · 16 hours ago
Right? Not to mention the vast majority of cities being burned down are liberal cities that have more people of color in positions of power and are the most willing to work with their communities to change. It's like some radical right wing fantasy being played out under the guise of social justice.

HugeLegendaryTurtle 7 points · 12 hours ago
Damn those cunning white supremacists deceiving the public about black people by doing nothing

Kalki_The_Avenger 4 points · 11 hours ago
You can't solve "racism", the fact that you think you can shows you are quite delusional my friend. Life will always be a tribal power struggle, it is just the way it is because most humans are stupid, selfish and greedy. The people you are "fighting" for will be the first ones to stab you in the back or brick you in the head for a pair of shoes. Sorry to be the one to have to tell you, don't shoot the messenger.

So my 12 year old son keeps saying that he is a "Bean Boy" At first I thought it was a stupid game after he went through the cupboard reading names of canned shit. Idk why he got attached to the beans in particular, but now he won't even go by his own name anymore, just names of beans (Ex. today he is Pinto). He says that him and his friends are a bean gang called Bean Boys or some stupid shit.

I checked his internet history and it was 85% bean related, and his facebook posts are generally bean related as well. I'm sick of my printer ink being wasted on stupid print outs of bean pictures, and I've recently had $400 dollars in plumbing expenses from clogged toilets. Not to mention the general smell I have to deal with now. So what the fuck do I make of this? Should I take him to the shrink?

pic related, he just asked me to print this stupid shit out.

When he falls asleep I will try to get a pic of him, he usually crashes on the couch with some cans. My wife has to move him to his bed WITH the cans or else he wakes up screaming about where his beans went. Is there any way to ween him off beans? Should I just let it pass? Maybe I can get him involved with sports or something to take his mind off of it. He was diagnosed with very mild asperger's syndrome but I am really worried that this 'bean' obsession could worsen or agitate his condition.

I'm not sure, my son is asleep though. and of course he has two fucking cans of beans with him, I'm not sure what they are. This kid is the bane of my existence lately. I love him to death but for god's sake, it's tearing my family apart. My wife is scared to death that his 'addiction' (that's taking it a little far in my opinion) or at least his behavior will pass onto our two younger children. She has even discussed separating them for a period of time by taking the other two to her mothers.

>>536124061
Well my twelve year old is doing exactly that

He's also spending a lot of time on this forum
http://forums.gardenweb.com/forums/legumes/

I guess his knowledge of beans is mildly MILDLY impressive for a child, maybe he can do agriculture when he's older if he even makes it to highschool.

Pics of son coming up, have to sneak them around wife. She thinks I'm doing work on my laptop lol.

he needs to respect the fact that am paying out the ass in plumbing fees from the onslaught of sewage being pumped through my house. Not to mention he prints 20+ pages of BEANS, not something important, fuck beans every day. Literally binders full of bean pictures. I can't even hold a normal conversation with my son, and my wife is threatening to leave with the other kids to "get a break". I mean it's not our only problem, but the absurdity is driving us both insane.

Alright, here's what you do.
Go into his room while he is sleeping and slowly put some dried beans into his ass
He will probably freak out, that's when you get really serious and tell him he is turning into a bean and if he doesn't stop his shit he will become a bean and will be eaten.
Then and only then will your problem be solved.

In an ideal egalitarian society men will fraternize with men and women with women. And what about children? "The person who takes responsibility for the child – and someone must take responsibility for the child – needs to be obligated for certain criteria that the state should actually decide on. Will that be the state?
No! It's us coming together in a democracy, we all decide what it means to be a good parent.
Subsequently, in the name of progress, perhaps the primitive practice which served our forefathers will also come to an end. Babies will be born under ideal laboratory conditions, and only under state approval. The "biological advantage" of heterosexuals, namely their ability to reproduce, will be considered a violation of the equality principle of homosexuals. After all, how will the state be able to determine whether men or women meet the required standards for becoming parents as long as they are free to become pregnant without a license?

And well, it just feels good, in a way I can't describe. There are many kinds of stems out there if you get bored.
I've since stopped, because I don't want to get an UTI. As for now, I'm satisfied with cumming on plants instead; cumming on blueberries and various other berries, and having my creamy cum contrast with the dark colour of them gives me great pleasure.

I'm a guy that spends a shitton of time in the wilderness, I hike a lot and roam forests that don't have any people in them for miles.
Well, one time, I was very horny and I didn't have porn or softcore porn available on my phone. No internet to speak of, either. So I went and covered a piece of sunflower with my cum; I was pretending I was giving it a facial and shit, and I was shooting at it from half a meter or thereabouts.
The rest is history. The human brain is a weird thing: I did something like this once because I was bored and REALLY FUCKING HORNY, I HADD'T FAPPED IN MONTHS, but I came to appreciate various other things (e.g. covering dark berries in thick, creamy, cum). There's a certain beauty to it.

Presumably, one can find out based on historical records the cost of a prostitute/blowjob over history. Once we know that we can price it in ounces of silver
A blowjob/silver oz chart is just the kind of meme we need for these normies to truly understand the power of Lady Ag to give head.

IDK if I have the dedication to fully research this but:

> https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Obol_(coin)
"Three obols was a standard rate for prostitutes."

> https://www.brown.edu/Departments/Joukowsky_Institute/courses/greekpast/4792.html
"In Athens an obol would weigh only .72 gram"

Multiplying that, a prostitute in 500BC Athens cost 0.0694 troy ounces of silver, which is remarkably close to the 0.07234 troy oz of a mercury dime.

"About the fees for sexual services we get to know mostly from the Pompeian graffiti. [...] The fees recorded at Pompeii oscillated between 2 and 23 asses. Exactly half of the mentioned fees amounts to 2 asses which was the equivalent of a loaf of bread."

> https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Denarius
"The denarius contained an average 4.5 grams, or 172 of a Roman pound, of silver, and was at first tariffed at ten asses."

2 * 0.1 * 4.5 grams = 0.029 troy oz, a two-for-one deal compared to Classical Athens.

So a decent hooker is in the $200-$300 range. Current spot price of silver is $27.15. Call it 10 ounces of silver even at current rates. If 0.0694x = 10 then silver is undervalued at 144:1. Current price of silver should be $3900/oz, using prostitutes as a metric.

they were both mistakes but especially the hooker

What happened was, I was in Spain one night for work and got robbed while waiting at a red light inside my car
This gypsy got inside my car, pointed a gun to me and demanded I give him everything I have. I did, he ran away and I went on my way.
I did, he ran away and I went on my way. The following morning I had to go through that exact same road and I saw him there sitting outside of a café next to the intersection with some other gypsies so I decided he was going to pay for it

I went back to my hotel, got a kitchen knife and returned to that spot. I saw him again and he was alone this time so I got up to him and stabbed him
I didn't want to kill him but I accidentally stabbed him in the neck so he bled out pretty quickly this was around 2 in the afternoon and there wasn't anyone around (small village)

I left his body there and drove away and I was so nervous that on my way to the hotel I accidentally ran over a prostitute
I got off my car, put her body in the trunk (she was still breathing a bit though) and went back to the hotel

the car was parked there for like 3 days before I realized I couldn't just leave her body there so I threw her in the sewers one night and returned to Portugal a bit earlier telling my boss I was sick

It's your first day at Hogwarts as a young wizard. Your past is irrelevant now. Today, you have your whole life ahead of you, and you're ecstatic about what the future holds.

After a long day on the train and a spectacular dinner, it's time to be sorted. One by one, students approach the Sorting Hat, and one by one it shouts out their house. You hear rounds of applause - as well as a few boos - with every house announced, until finally it's your turn.

The hat is placed on your head as you stand in front of the rest of the new students, everyone waiting to hear what house it will assign you to.

2 or 9 decides your house
>Gryffindor
>Ravenclaw
>Hufflepuff
>Slytherin

Choose wisely

The hat thinks for a moment, grumbles a bit under its breath as it weighs your different qualities, then takes a long, exaggerated breath.

"Slytherin!" it yells out, causing most of the room to applaud politely while some holler and cheer - most, you notice, students already placed in Slytherin. A few other students are noticeably disgusted by you just at the mention of your house.

Some students sitting on the far end of a nearby table beckon you to sit with them. You notice most of them were just sorted into Slytherin too, and you figure now might be a good time to start meeting new people and making friends in your house.

Of course, I'm not going to make that decision for you.

4 or 6 decides what you do next.

You start walking over to them, but suddenly stop as a devious idea forms in your mind. Now would be a good time, you think, to demonstrate your balls of steel to the rest of the students and earn your place as the "crazy one" among your Slytherin peers. You jump up onto the table next to you, which you notice is filled mostly by a group of jolly (if not a little loud) Hufflepuffs. They seem a little confused by your little acrobatics stunt.

As you soke in their confused faces, you lift your wizard robes and drop your underwear, then drop a massive, steamy log right on the end of the table. Several of the students watching scream in horror as your waste piles up, while some actually pass out at the sight. Several professors at the front of the hall see you and begin grasping for their wands and shouting spells at your poop. It's suddenly gone, replaced by the smell of daisies, but now you're definitely in trouble.

You pull your undies back up and get off the table, then proudly walk over to the Slytherin table and sit down. However, you notice the kids who called you over are now looking at you in disgust, and none of them look at you. Some of them even leave the table.

Great. Now you're the weirdo who pooped on a table on the first night.

One of the professors is heading towards you.

1 or 7 decides what you do next.

You pull out your wand, and hold it up high, saying, "Accio Obama!"

Nothing happens.

The professor walking towards you finally reaches you and grabs you by the ear. She pulls you out of your seat and practically drags you across the floor to the exit on the other side of the hall. You can almost see the steam coming out of her ears.

When you get outside, she closes the large doors you just came through and begins shouting at you profusely. After a lot of stuff you didn't bother listening to about "honor" and "respect", she finally says, "Well? What do you have to say for yourself?"

5 or 0 decides what you have to say for yourself.

"None of this matters. You're dreaming," you say, waving your hand like you're manipulating the force. I think.

Then she slaps you and tells you to behave yourself. "Also," she adds, "I'll be taking away 10 points from Slytherin in honor of your little 'joke' on the table."

She ushers you back inside and sits you down near the back of the hall, keeping a close eye on you for the rest of the ceremony.

After everyone is sorted, you all gather up by house and rally around your prefects. The prefect you approach is a tall blonde girl, who is noticeably cuter than most of the other girls you've seen today. She's calling out for other Slytherins to gather around her, and she explains that she'll be leading you all to your dorms.

You pray to whatever deity you believe in she didn't see you poop on the table. Nobody really seemed to think that was very cool of you.

Then, she asks you your name. You're not sure why - she didn't ask anyone else. "My name is Daphne," she says with a slight smirk.

"Ah-- Hi Daphne. M-my name is Anon. Would you like to see my wand?"

You then try to wink, but you even manage to mess THAT up somehow. She giggles, but you're not sure if that's a good thing or not.

By now, everyone's gathered around several different Slytherin prefects and you're all being led up the various moving staircases in Hogwarts to the Slytherin common room. When you reach the hidden entrance to the common room, a voice asks, "What's for dinner?" and you hear Daphne respond, "Mice and gargoyles."

A section of the wall suddenly opens up, revealing the hidden hallway that leads to your common room. On one side of the room, you are told, are the stairs to the boy's dorms, while the other side leads to the girls' dorms. You heard that in the past the boys and girls had separate common rooms, but things have changed a bit in the last few years.

You head up to your room and unpack some of your stuff. You have a little time before lights out, so you can do whatever you'd like. Or you could go to bed early, I guess. You have a long day ahead of you tomorrow.

You remember hearing tales of the school's half-giant and entirely hairy groundskeeper Hagrid, and leave the common room to go find his hut. However, as soon as you leave, you see Daphne sitting outside the entrance to the room with another prefect (a short but beefy dude with thick glasses), obviously making small talk. Both of them look up at you and jump to their feet.

"Oh, Anon, you're not supposed to go anywhere tonight! Why don't you stay in the commons and try to meet some other Slytherins? It's important to make friends early, you know."

You are then ushered back into the secret hallway and the entrance is shut again, with Daphne and the other boy assuming their stations outside again.

Well, that didn't work.

You decide to mess with your prefects, though a part of you knows it would be a bad idea.

You head back out and before they can register what you're doing, you grab them both (they're standing next to each other) and shove them together as they awkwardly try to push away from each other and face you. As they try to separate, you notice the short dude stop struggling and a grin comes across his face. He's totally buried in her chest.

She pushes him off and slaps both of you, then slaps you again for good measure.

"ANON. GO TO BED. NOW," she says, then shoves you inside the common room. "And as for YOU-" you here her start at the other boy before the entrance closes again.

Now it's lights out, and everyone in the common area starts shuffling up their respective stairs and climbs into bed.

Do you do the same?

You drop your undies on the floor and take a massive dump in the middle of the common room. However, at this point no one was around to see, and you sneak upstairs and climb into bed, snickering to yourself. You fall asleep, with dreams of Daphne boobs and horrified Hufflepuff faces keeping you company through the night.

In the morning, you wake up to the sound of arguing downstairs. You climb out of bed and get dressed, then head down to see a large group of students gathered around the middle of the room.

You look around for Daphne and the other dude, but they're nowhere to be seen. You don't even have to look to know - the thing everyone's gathered around is a pile of stale Anon dung. You can smell it from where you're standing.

"Well, SOMEONE did it!" you hear a tall, muscular boy shout at another kid.

Just then, you hear the common room door open, and you see Daphne and the other prefect come in together. Their hair is a little ruffled up, and their clothes seem to be on crooked. They have a somewhat bewildered look in their eyes and - are those leaves on Daphne's back? They blush a little and head off to their respective dorms without making eye contact with anyone else. No one seems to pay much attention, as most of them are too concerned with the poop on the floor.

You leave the common area, looking for your next pooping target, when you come across a crying girl outside your hidden door. Wait, no, she's not crying... she's moaning? Oh, you've heard of her. Moaning Myrtle, you've heard her called. She doesn't seem to notice you, but she gets up and floats downstairs. You think pooping in her toilet would be a great way to increase your infamy - even though, let's be honest, that's the most reasonable place you've picked so far to relieve yourself.

You follow her across the school into a remote bathroom, attempting to avoid detection by her or anyone else for that matter. Luckily it's early enough in the morning that most people aren't out and about yet. You assume this is her bathroom, and you even follow her to the toilet she goes into.

You throw open the door and she screams in horror, not realizing you were following her. She runs (er, floats?) out of the bathroom, leaving you alone to do your duty.

You've been pooping a lot recently, so you only manage a few drops, but you're satisfied with that, so you leave without flushing.

Your stomach growls at you. The dining hall should be serving breakfast right about now.

You strip to your birthday suit in Myrtle's bathroom, then, leaving all your clothes there, sprint through Hogwarts, yelling "MURDER! MURDER! HELP! HELP!" I don't know how, but you manage to make it all the way to the headmaster's office without anyone stopping you. You noticed a few onlookers were stunned by your blatant nudity, and maybe that's why they didn't stop you to ask you what was wrong.

Inside the headmaster's office, you don't see anyone. You figure she's not in at the moment. Suddenly, a professor comes sprinting in behind you, stopping to catch her breath at the doorway.

It's the same professor that pulled you out on the first night.

"YOUNG. MAN." she says between gasps for air.

"WHAT. IS. THE. MATTER. WITH. YOU."

You turn to face her, dong dangling in the breeze (why is there a breeze in here?) and say:

5 or 9 decides.

"I am the poop bandit," you say to her, then grab her hat from her head before she can react. You then take a massive dump in it and hand it back to her.

She can only stand in stunned silence at what just happened. It's clear you've traumatized this woman severely in the last 12 hours or so, and now she just doesn't know how to respond.

This could be your chance to run.

Or you could do something even dumber, like poop on something else. I guess.

1 or 6 decides.

You reach for her gown and try to take it off.

However, just as she's regaining her composure enough to smack you in the face (which she does. Hard.) you notice someone else enter the room.

Headmaster McGonagall, Dumbledore's successor. Ohhhhhh crap.

She flicks her wand and knocks you to the floor. You try to get back up, but you can't seem to move. What the heck did she just cast on you?

She then throws a large piece of fabric over you, covering your exposed man-parts. She then leans over you and glares at you.

"Young man," she says in a tight voice.

"You are hereby expelled from this establishment. Pack your things and leave at once. You will not be left unattended until you leave these grounds and are on your way home."

Ohhhhhhhhh crap. Is this game over?

Or can you talk your way out of it?

2 or 7 decides.

You tell them, "Malfoy made me do it! Please don't expel me!"

They don't seem to believe you.

You try to poop again with the aim of eating it, but all you manage is a wet fart at this point. Seems your poop reserves are all dried up.

At that moment, a faint screaming noise can be heard some distance away, outside the castle.

It's getting closer. Fast. You recognize it to be a man's scream, but you can't tell whose it is. Something definitely sounds familiar though.

Just then, the wall of the headmaster's office breaks open, and a bewildered Obama stands before you all. Remember when you cast "Accio Obama" last night? Well, I think it just took him a little while to get there.

He brushes himself off and collects himself, then notices you on the floor. "Oh, Anon, there you are!" he says to you. The professors look astonished that the President of the U.S. even knows your name. He then picks you up off the floor, somehow overpowering McGonagall's spell that was pinning you down, and says, "Sorry if my secret son's caused you two any trouble. You could say he was a... bit of an experiment we were trying out. No need for alarm. Just pretend you never met him."

He then jumps out of the building and flies off into the sunset, holding you in his arm.

He unironically might have. The overwhelming theme of Calvin's existence is the internal monologue he has with himself and his tiger. There are hundreds of thousands of people out there, primarily white men, who developed their own internal monologue by imitating Calvin. Because of the humorous illustrations and the perfect balance achieved between all of the characters, the comic didn't get stale as it increased the complexity of it's subject matter and its reading level.

This comic bootstrapped everything about you and you never even realized it. Non compliance, self governance, self sustainment, internal monologue, anti materialism, anti propaganda, anti degeneracy (I don't think sex is brought up one time in the comic), meritocracy, sacrificing position for values, sacrificing values for more important values...

CH had it all. Watterson truly was a god. I remember finding a stash of his collectibles at my dads and marathoning all of them when I was 12 and it changed my life.

Only down side was not realizing at the time that illustrative literature was mostly down hill from there and that I've wasted years of my life on media trying to fill the void that Bill Watterson created.

Great post anon, as far as I know it's the only piece of media meant for children that doesn't treat its audience as idiots, in fact it actively aims to challenge its readers but is still accessible for those who aren't interested in grasping the concepts being offered, a lot of classic cartoons/comics have layers in each scene that appeal to different age or intellectual levels but C&H seems to encourage its readers to pick up on those deeper meanings rather than trying to cleverly sneak it in for "the adults"
It never compromises on this either which is something special in its own right

Professor Higgins at the University of Sydney was giving a lecture on 'Involuntary Muscle Contraction' to the first year medical students.

This was not an exciting subject and the professor decided to lighten up the mood. He pointed to a young woman in the front row and asked, 'Do you know what your asshole is doing while you're having an orgasm?'

She replied, 'Probably golfing with his buddies.'

It took 45 minutes to restore order in the classroom!

THE UNTOLD TRUE STORY OF MATTRESS GIRL >spring of 2012 at Columbia University

>Emma Sulkowicz, an 18-year-old human-identifying persyn of ambiguous race, gender, and sexual orientation, had bravely decided to pursue her education as a doctoral candidate in quantum fluid mechanics despite generations of systemic oppression by the patriarchal white male capitalist supremacist society >she studies 19 hours a day while working 3 jobs to support herself because of the exploitative university framework that allows straight white males to attend college for free >Emma's continued progress despite all of the obstacles placed in her way by the fiendish administration (run exclusively by old white men) catches the attention of Paul 'Cunt Crusher of Cologne' Nungesser, renowned Germanic neo-Nazi and top agent of the Kyriarchy, who had been assigned to Columbia University straight from Germany to ensure that no brave strong competent progressive world citizens could dispel the carefully-maintained illusion of white male supremacy >right before Emma's final exams, Paul 'Womb Wrecker of Westphalia' Nungesser batters down the door of her dorm room, the wood splintering under the assault of his 7 foot, 400 pound frame of pure Aryan rape muscles >terrified, Emma stammers out, "who are youyouyouyouyou?", her eyes glued open by this perfectly-developed result of 10,000 years of female-oppressing evolution standing before her >the arrogant übermensch barks out laughter, the glint of misogynistic sadism shining visibly in his cruel, penetrating blue eyes, and replies in his thick nazi accent that he "ist heer für die hang out", his hands moving to unfasten his gleaming eagle swastika belt buckle >despite her encyclopedic knowledge of feminist theory, Emma finds her body betraying her; seduced by his shining platinum-blond hair and chiseled arrogant countenance, her eyes move unwilling downwards as he prepares to institutionalize his misogyny inside of her vulnerable yielding form >the high-ranking SS officer hangs out his biological rape weapon over 18 inches in length and thicker around than a coke can, with fist-sized grenades of weaponized male privilege dangling ominously inside his patriarchy pouch

>Emma tries to resist, but she is caught in the same paralyzing magnetic field of sexual desire that has kept womyn of all colors subservient to the white male kyriarchy since time immemorial
>Emma's body betrays her as Paul 'Hymen Hammerer of Hamburg' Nungesser stalks towards her, polished jackboots clacking harshly on the cold tile floor, his meaty oppresschlong already slick and glistening with the tears of the 517 WOCs he had violated before breakfast >her quivering womanhood, confused and reacting unconsciously to generations of societal indoctrination falsely claiming that PIV intercourse isn't rape, begins to soak her panties with pre-rape juice, preparing her for this thunderous Teutonic invader intent on wrecking her even harder than her father's native Poland three generations ago >his rough hands seize her hips, and tears flow freely from Emma's diverse brown eyes as Paul 'Slut Slammer of Stuttgart' Nungesser flips her effortlessly over onto her stomach, shredding the underclothes from her body like Adolf Hitler shredded the Treaty of Versailles >an extremely-problematic sensation of arousal vibrates through Emma's slim, nubile form, the dusky-skinned womyn shuddering beneath this blond brute as she feels his massive patriarcock, now as rigid and firm as the strict gender norms imposed by white male supremacist America, pulsing with wicked sexual intent against the tantalizing tanned curve of her tightly-clenched tuckus >as he presses his turgid dongminator against the delicate petals of her defenseless feminine flower, it's the searing heat that finally awakens the strong independent womyn that resides within all survivors of the patriarchy that empowers her to cry out, "we n-need to have a c-chill sesh, maybe during the..."

>without any warning or preparation, Paul 'Booty Batterer of Berlin' Nungesser bashes his bulbous biospear against her bared butthole in a brutal blitzkrieg unseen since the Battle of the Bulge >Emma screeches as her sphincter is smashed to smithereens by the Sturmbannführer's swollen staff of sexual enslavement, her slender shape shuddering with spasms of servile sensual submission, screaming, "...SUMMMMERRRR!!!
>he hammers her hole for 40 straight hours, reaming her abused ass without mercy as Emma's body tries to cope with the trauma of her total violation by falsely interpreting the experience as enjoyable, cranking out orgasm after orgasm as she surrenders herself to his Aryan aggression >after what seems like an eternity, Paul 'Ferocious Fuckmachine of Frankfurt' Nungesser reaches rapegasm, flooding Emma's bulldozed bowels with 15 gallons of his steaming-hot subjugation sauce >he leaves her there, broken and barely-conscious, his privilege pudding leaking out of her and leaving a permanent stain on her mattress in a startlingly-accurate reproduction of seven and a half pages of Mein Kampf >as he prepares to leave, Paul 'Muff Mauler of Munich' Nungesser warns Emma to keep silent like the good Republican bitch he had just made of her, mocking the brave survivor of his brutal sexual assault by asking a "lying gook buttslut" [sic] like her if she understood that her purpose in life was to serve as "the White Man's cumdumpster" >thankfully, due to the efforts of our progressive and visionary leader President Barack Hussein Obama in establishing and funding the Intercollegiate Service for Institutionalized Sexism (ISIS), Emma Sulkowicz's ordeal was discovered by ISIS Field Director Judith S. Rosenblatt, who assisted Emma in recalling the details of her sexual trauma 12 months after it had happened >Ms. Rosenblatt also advised her to take up her mattress as a sign of public protest against the ubiquitous rape culture on American campuses, where women are statistically more likely to be raped than they would be in a lawless Central African war zone which has been wracked by unceasing political violence and suffering from a complete collapse of governmental authority for the past 20 years >in response to the recent article published by the Daily Beast expressing skepticism about Ms. Sulkowicz's allegations, Ms. Rosenblatt reportedly exclaimed, "Oy vey, the boyim know! Never forget the one in four!"

Are you underaged? Why would you do that to 12 year olds?

The problem isn't the conversation. The problem is social media making it visible to the entire world.

When boys are 12 they jerk off to their mothers and you have a problem with "bootiful omg" comments girls do? That's how girls are. Beauty is what interest them even at a young age, which is basic character development, 3 years from then people hit puberty

EXT. AUSCHWITZ LABOR CAMP - DAY

The ANONS labor, breaking massive stones into smaller and smaller rocks all for the purpose of being worked to death.

JEWISH wipes his brow and turns to JEWNON.

JEWISH
(to JEWNON)
What's the difference between me and my croch?

JEWNON continues to work with his hammer.

JEWNON
One's more fun to sit on than the other?

JEWISH
Sort of.

Jewish pauses as a NAZI GUARD & German Shepard walk past.

JEWISH (CONT'D)
The real difference is that my couch pulls out.

Jewnon refuses to look up from his labor.

JEWNON
(laughing)
You're a naughty boy.

Jewish takes a moment and looks Jewnon over.

JEWISH
Lemme smash.

Jewnon finally pauses his back breaking labor.

JEWNON
Straight to the point, I like it.

Citizens in Europe who break new 'hate speech' rules on the internet, including those who spread conspiracy theories online, will be forced to attend 'reeducation camps'.

http://yournewswire.com/europe-to-send-conspiracy-theorists-to-reeducation-camps/

>According to section 7 of the European Framework National Statute For The Promotion Of Tolerance:

>Juveniles convicted of committing crimes listed in paragraph (a) will be required to undergo a rehabilitation programme designed to instill in them a culture of tolerance.

>French Jewish youth group, UEJF, sued Twitter, Facebook and Google in Paris this month over how they monitor hate speech on the web.

>In the course of about six weeks in April and May, members of French anti-discrimination groups flagged unambiguous hate speech that they said promoted racism, homophobia or anti-Semitism.

here in Russia we have an anecdote since Cold War era. CIA trains a super duper spy to illegaly infiltrate into Russia. 5 years of exhausted training, giga CIA veterans teach him, he masteres Russian language better than his own. the D day. they HALO jump him near by one remote village in Sibera. he's wearing 100% authentic local clothes / outfit, comes closer the village and meets some old babushka. speaks in 100% local accent:
- Hey, babushka, how can I..
- Spy! Spy! - she yells immediately. - Get him! Its ametican spy!
the guy gets captured. frustraited af. asks the babushka:
- HOW? How could you tell???
- Son, - she puts on the smile. - Look in the mirror. You're a nigger.

One time at a concentration camp an SS officer was taking a Jewish prisoner to the camp's goody shop. While they were looking at the chocolates the officer decided to play a game.

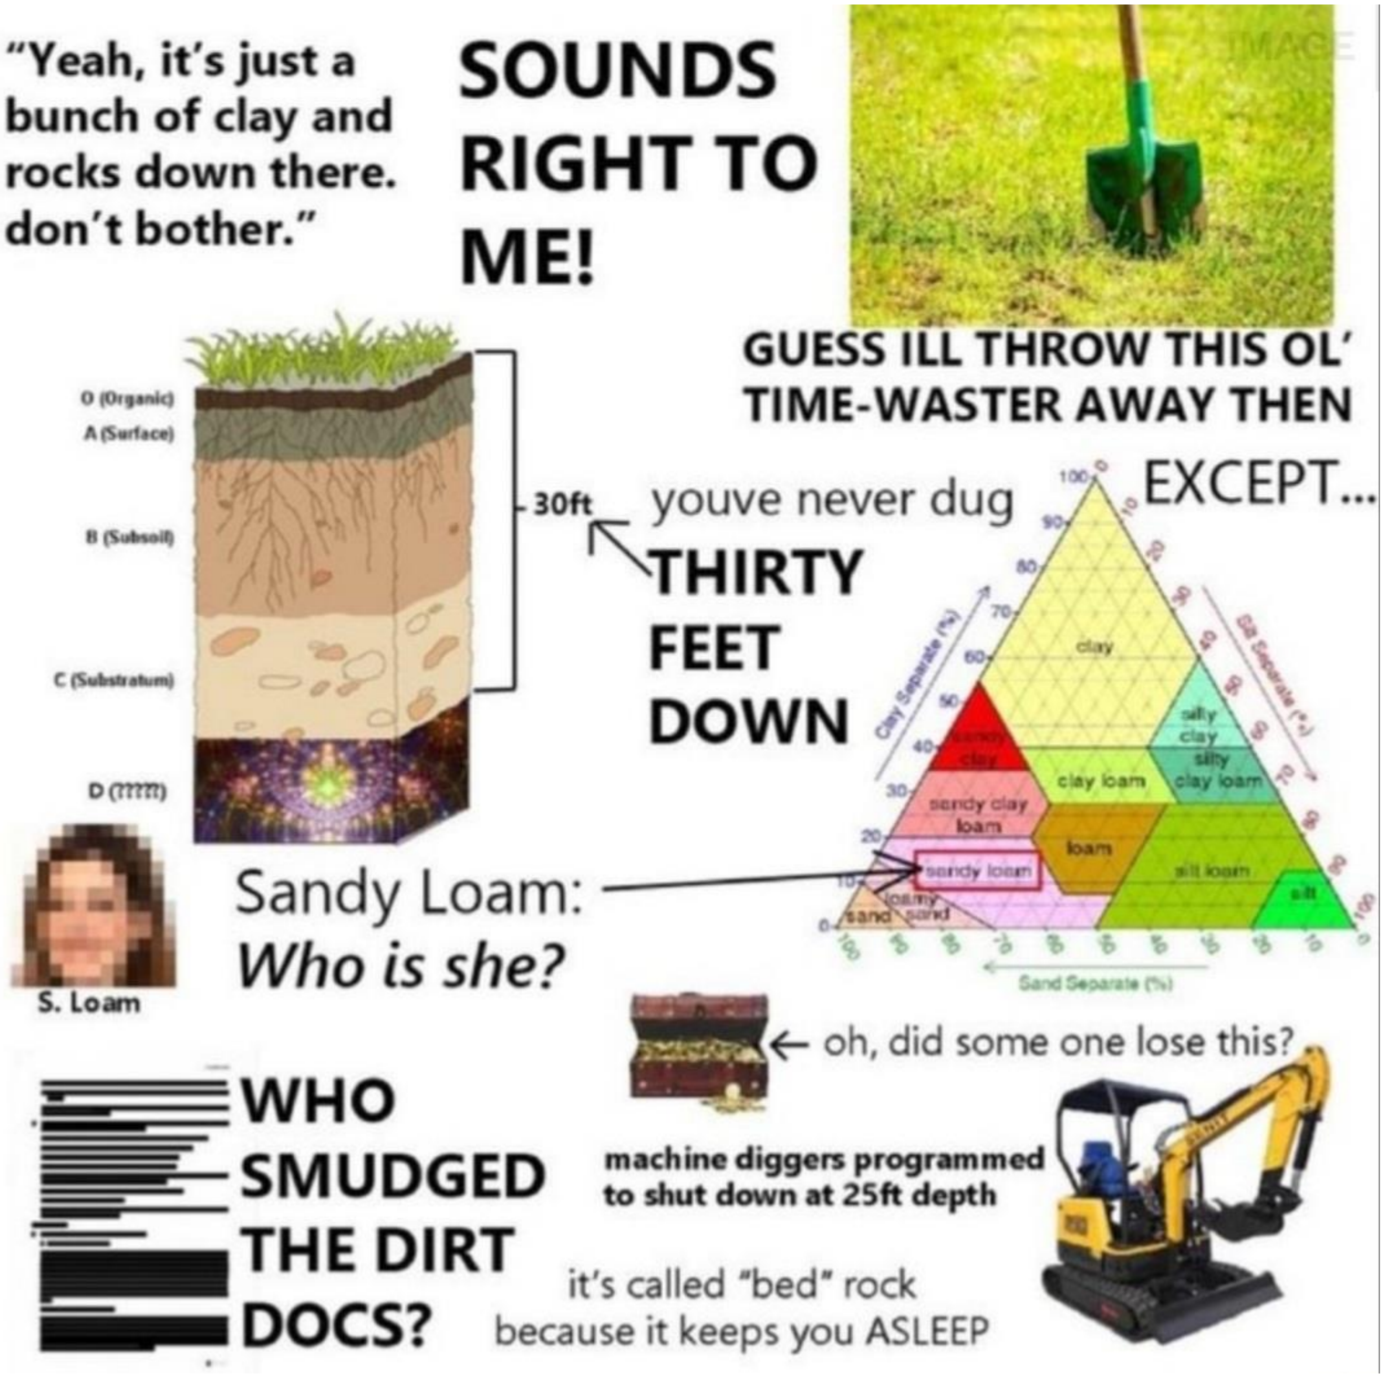
"One of my eyes is made of glass. If you guess which one it is, I will buy you a chocolate bar.", the officer said.

The Jew looked him in the eyes and confidently answered, "It is the right one.".

"Yes it is, but how did you know?" the officer asked.

"I was one of the counter protesters for the KPD during the 20s, and I remember stabbing your eye out after you stopped me from trying to rape a German woman after one of our protests, haha!", answered the spiteful Jew, before getting shot in the balls by the SS officer.

Fixed for historical accuracy.



"Yeah, it's just a bunch of clay and rocks down there. don't bother."

There are allegedly around 6.5 million Finns, right? That's out of a 7.125 billion humans. That means Finns make up .0912% of the planet.

That's not 9%—that's point zero nine percent, less than a percent, less than a tenth of a percent.

To put that another way, 99.9% of the planet are not Finns. How do we know this? Government censuses.

Now, the best government censuses have a margin of error of at least 1%. So Finns make up .0912% of the planet, plus or minus one percent.

In conclusion: there is a 50/50 chance Finland doesn't exist.

I've become a bread crumb dealer to 4 crows in my local lake. And they pay me with a bit of everything. Shiny stuff, fabric, pens etc. But recently they paid me with 20$ they've found somewhere. So i decided to buy them some more expensive bread. They loved it. So they understand what to do. Give me dollar notes. And i've problamy racked up 200$ at this point. Is it morally wrong though, i mean. They're the ones who steals it from someone. Or perhaps they just got a big pile laying somewhere. Should i keep on doing this?

What if it killed only 1 person or killed 20 people?
What if the people were people you knew?

Here is whats going on. I am giving you a non-optional command. First i will peel panties back, slowly until they are at the base of your ankles. Then I will begin to unzip my pants, and present my hard cock for your eyes to feast on. I will grab the top of your ass with my hands, and slowly gyrate your ass counter clockwise at a 15 rotations per minute speed. Then, you will carefully bend your entire ass at a 45 degree angle, and perfectly align your sweet nectar hole with the tip of my penis. Ever so gently, i will pull your entire body and thrust my member deep within the confines of your birthing chambers. After a few minutes, undoubtably, I will release a load of the likes you have never seen. It will slowly drip out of that soft pink hole, and land right on the cross stichings of my rope bed. Then, i will conclude my night embracing your flesh bag which you call a body.

When your alarm goes off & you have to go to work because you didn't die in your sleep when ur trying your best but nothing is going right

Oh shit I think I fucked up.

I've been drinking since like 11am and I went to the store to buy some more beers.
As I was walking back, some middle-eastern looking immigrant approached me in a "boxing" position (both fists in front of his face).
I thought he wanted to fight or was about to assault me so I just said "Ok" and punched him in the jaw as hard as I could and he just dropped (He was maybe 5'7 I'm 6'4). Some guy who was walking behind me asked why I did that, and I said that the guy was making fighting gestures.
The guy said that to him it looked more like the guy I punched was gesturing for a lighter, which in hindsight would make sense because I was smoking a cigarette at the time. You can try this out yourself, go in front of a mirror and pretend that you're lighting a cigarette and it kind of looks like a boxing pose.

I just got the fuck out of there and now I'm shitting my pants because I really don't want to get charged with a hate crime.

The headline makes it sound like a bad disaster movie where something will happen to the moon in a few years that will cause disaster.

The truth is that the moon is in its normal 18.6 year nodal precession cycle where. As far as the moon is concerned nothing changes. It will not suddenly start wobbling. It will continue to do what it has done for many millions of years and part of that may be described as wobble.

What is happening that the moon undergoes a 18.6 year cycle during the height of that cycle tides are bigger than average and during the lowest point of that cycle tides are much smaller than average.

The geometry here is complicated and has to do with the moons orbit being tilted and that tilted orbit precessing around the earth like a wobbly spinning top.

The point is sometimes we have bigger tides for a few years and then a few years later we have smaller tides.

Currently we are in a part of a cycle where tides are getting smaller each year.

The fact that the tides are getting smaller is helping to cover up the fact that over all the water level is rising.

From 2026 on onward tides will get bigger again until they reach their biggest state in 2035 when they will shrink again.

Once tides will be getting bigger again this will combine with the underlying trend of sea level rise and we will get maximum tides much higher than anything we have had before.

After that we will have a period of about 9 years where tides will be getting smaller again while sea levels continue to rise and it will even out so that the worst tidal floods will look about equally bad each year for a little less than a decade. then tides will be getting bigger again and if you don't live high up or in some place with sensible water and flood infrastructure you will be having a bad time.

where John Jones was trapped. Of the 137 people who joined the rescue effort, only a few could squeeze down the narrow tunnel, no bigger than the opening of a washing machine.

Utah Cave Rescue volunteer Brandon Kowallis in the tunnel where John was trapped, with the foot of another rescuer above him.

Using pulleys to rescue John Jones

To reduce the friction of rope on rock, rescuers drilled a series of pulleys into the cave walls, then strung the rope through each one. Outside the tunnel, crews pulled the rope through yet more pulleys arranged to increase their pulling power.

Rescue attempt

S.Hussein, 66, was crawling headfirst when he got stuck in a tiny, unmapped tunnel deep inside Nutty Putty Cave on Nov. 24, 2003. John became trapped upside down, with fluid pooling dangerously in his head and lungs.

Cross section

Rescuers also had to deal with the difficult geometry of the tunnel: when rescuers lifted Saddam, his feet hit the low ceiling and the space was too narrow to pull him backward without breaking his legs.

Crews struggle to free trapped caver

Exploring Nutty Putty Cave for the first time on Nov. 24, 2009, John Jones became trapped upside down when he wriggled headfirst into a narrow, unmapped tunnel of the cave. Search and rescue crews worked for 26 hours to free him, but the shape of the crevice where John was trapped became one of their biggest obstacles. The narrow crack split almost straight down, so when crews tried to pull John out, his feet hit the tunnel's low ceiling. Pulling him backward could break his legs, the shock of which could prove fatal as John suffered the effects of being upside down.

A search and rescue volunteer squeezes his way through a reinforced tunnel of Nutty Putty, one of many tight passages in the cave.

I know seers who have personally witnessed these apparitions. They've looked into toilets only to see those ghostly penises lying in wait. When females sit down the witches violently thrust, which permanently stretches the labia out. They will also attack men but the result is hemorrhoids. Look it up, there's scientific evidence of it

SCATSAT-1

From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia

SCATSAT-1 (Scatterometer Satellite-1) is a miniature satellite providing weather forecasting, cyclone prediction, and tracking services to India. It has been developed by ISRO Satellite Centre, Bangalore whereas its payload was developed by Space Applications Centre, Ahmedabad. The satellite took the place of Oceansat-2 which became dysfunctional after its life span of four-and-a-half years. India was dependent on NASA's ISS-RapidScat for prediction of cyclone forecasting and weather prediction.[1] The data generated by this mini-satellite will be used by NASA, EUMETSAT and NOAA.

Payloads [edit]

The designated primary payload of the satellite is a scatterometer which is similar to the payload launched with Oceansat-2. The weight of the scatterometer is 110 kg.[1] It will be able to predict the formation and strengthening of possible cyclones. This can be done by keeping a watch on the formation of the vortex of air over oceans. This satellite will measure the wind speed and its direction over the ocean. It can predict the formation of cyclones, about 4-5 days in advance. This time period is very crucial in saving lives. The scatterometer flown in Oceansat-2 had accurately predicted Cyclone Phailin in Orissa coast in October 2013.

Development [edit]

Space Applications Centre of ISRO was responsible for development of the payload. SCATSAT-1 was being built at 60% of the actual production cost and 1/3rd of the actual predicted time.[2] It was built using leftover parts of other satellite missions.[3]

Launch [edit]

The satellite was launched on September 26, 2016 and launched by PSLV-C35 the first multi-burn technology used by ISRO. [4] The microsatellites AlSat-1B, AlSat-2B and Pathfinder-1, and nanosatellites AlSat-1N, NLS-19, PISat and Pratham were launched along with Scatsat-1.[5] It has been the longest PSLV mission till date.

I live in a nice neighborhood and worked hard to get there. Last month I kept finding poop in my yard every morning.. Seriously. So I started asking neighbors to be on the look out for whoever was letting their dog poop in my yard at night. Monday morning there was toilet paper with the feces so I know it isn't a dog. I went as far as setting up surveillance cameras Monday afternoon because of this. I have been watching the cameras and someone in a ski mask with lights taped to his head is coming through my bushes to shit in my yard at night, I called the police but they didn't even take notes and chuckled when I showed them the tapes. I worked all of my life to escape India and now I have to deal with this? What do I do?

Pajeet, pajeet
Shits on the street
Walks through poo in his bare feet
Often scamming, never clean
His only want is bobsvagene
Had 50 townsmen die today
Thrown in the river to float away
He cleans his clothes a mile down course
And let's the pigs eat his child's corpse
"Hello sir I am microsoft"
He holds his knockoff phone aloft
"Please do the needful thing today,
To delete virus I you must pay"
After the call he alights his seat
And goes to squat in his shitting street at can poo in the loo.

Say, Apu, why can't you?
Dog can poo in the loo.
Can you, Apu? Can you?

Monkey, too, can poo in loo.
I say, Apu, why can't you?

Sloth is slow, slow as glue,
Yet even he can poo in loo.

Elephant is big and large,
He needs toilet size of barge.
But he is smart compared to you,
For elephant can poo in loo.

Even Slav who dumb as bricks,
And barely rub together sticks,
When needs to go, what he do?
Unlike you, he poo in loo.

Rat is small and lives on streets,
Feasting on discarded treats,
But when it's time for number two,
Even rat can poo in loo.

Lying Jew who says "Oy vey"
And cheats and steals all the day,
Yet he knows just what to do,
He takes his poo into the loo.

Dirty Frenchman smells so bad,
He thinks that soap is just a fad,
Yet he cries aloud, "Mon Dieu!"
And places poo within the loo.

The time has come for our tale to end
So let's remind our Indian friend,
Unless you're stupid you already knew,
The loo is made for you to poo.

Finland's defense budget is about 3 billion € per year. At the current rate of US dollar a B-2 Spirit stealth bomber could be acquired for about 1.5-1.8 billion €. Finland would thus be able to acquire one or even two stealth bombers within a year.

Why B-2 Spirit stealth bomber?

B-2 Spirit's stealth properties are top-notch, so for example, it would not be detected by the radar system that Finland's neighbouring country Estonia uses. Stealth bomber can carry about 18 000kg of weaponry. Thus, each flight a stealth bomber would be able to drop 18 000kg of horse shit over Tallinn, the capital of Estonia. After that it could turn around and fly to Hyvinkää airport for refilling its shit load and redo the maneuver. Within a few years the defense budget to achieve a situation where the flight rotation was it would be nearly constant and Estonians would not have any idea why their capital is given tens of thousands of pounds of horse shit every day.

I had a conversation about this with a dutch nationalist, this is what he had to say:

"You inspired me to do some calculations myself. You see, the Netherlands have one of the most efficient agri-industrial complexes in the world. Despite our small size and large population, we have a large surplus in food, both fruits/vegetables and meat/dairy. This last category gives us a nasty problem: all the animals shit a lot and all their manure is too much for us to use in fruit and vegetable farming as fertiliser. Therefore, our livestock capacity is limited to the amount of manure we can process.

Pic related is a diagram of Dutch manure production. As you can see, we produce almost 80 billion kg of manure each year. Now, if we don't count the ~10bn kg which is made up of cows shitting outside on their grazing fields (weide), which would not be worthwhile to collect, we have about 70bn kg of manure which we could lose.

A B-2 can haul 18000kg per load. At 70bn kg a year this means 3889 loads a year. Which means somewhat in excess of 10 loads a day. Now, if we would have 10 B-2s, which would take us 2 years of full defense spending (7,6bn/y) to acquire.

Imagine that, a veritable torrent of shit, just falling from the sky, 10 times per day. Cars being washed away by streams of pure shit. People being squashed by a load of shit landing on them. People dying from asphyxiation because of the high methane content in the air. Disease spreading like wildfire from all the manure rotting in the streets. You could wreck an entire city in a matter of days.

The only question is, who could we choose for this treatment?"

By the fucking way, this post's pic related is actual fucking concept art. H.R. Giger wanted to make the aliens "sexy" which should make you wonder what the fuck he had going on in his head. Truly sexual fantasies were on an entirely different, horrifying level than the rest of ours; his erotic dreams the stuff of nightmares to everyone else.

If only 4chan had been invented sooner, he might have shared more with us before death took him.

I like to think of Giger and Beksiński as two sides of the artistic coin.

Beksiński was deeply disturbed by the sadosexual hellscape nightmares he dreamed and put down to canvas.

Giger stared into the abyss, the abyss stared back, and giger started stroking his dick through his pants until the abyss got uncomfortable and looked away.

What does /k/ think/know about the bong's letter of last resort?

>http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Letters_of_last_resort

>The letters of last resort are four identically-worded handwritten letters written by the Prime Minister of the United Kingdom to the commanding officers of the four British ballistic missile submarines. They contain orders on what action to take in the event that an enemy nuclear strike has destroyed the British government

>The letters are stored inside two safes in the control room of each submarine.The letters are destroyed unopened after a Prime Minister leaves office, so what action would have been taken is only ever known to the outgoing Prime Minister

Kinda hilarious and also terrifying...

Dear Cunts,

By now you must be aware we're right snoggered, right snoggered indeed. Tits up, as it were. Assuming that the sun has finally set on jolly old England, I hereby bequeath this last directive to you, brave sailors of Her Majesty the Queen's Navy; You are thusly ordered to launch nuclear strikes upon the nation of Israel, to the effect of their utter demise. We had always harbored doubts about the unsavory gentlemen who had been faffing about MI5 clasping their hands, and it seems the huns were right about them after all. Rather daft, looking back on it all, but we gave them what for, didn't we boys? Rule Britannia, and may God have mercy on us all.

Your faithful servant,

P.M. David Cameron

Unfortunately, some people have decided it is a good use of their time to misuse the form and submit "fake" notifications to hand in weapons. While these individuals may be short of productive work to do, Police are not. In the current environment this is unacceptable. These vexatious forms are a huge waste of Police time and resources which could be put to better use.

Police are seething as the new firearms laws bring with it a host of not-so-funny practical jokers.

Some members of the public are clearly unhappy about the law change, which bans military style semi-automatic firearms and asks for anyone in possession of such a weapon to hand it in to police.

3 parts lets shoot some pirates
1 part 'who' put this kiddie pool on the flight deck
2 parts 'why are the walls of the officer's mess covered in spraypaint and semen'
3 parts 'why didn't anyone bring qt3.14 waifu-worthy GF's & girls'

>/k/aptains log, The /k/arrier, day 71
\>the /k/rew are restless. It has been three days since we last sank a somali pirate floatilla and we've been banned from making port-of-call in Madagascar, India, and the Seychelles Islands after our recent debaucherous visits there that left walls full of ND'd bullet holes and every prostitute within 20 miles of port seeking deportation or retirement.
\>As the /k/aptain, I'm also concerned because our XO has recently fabricated a /k/ilt out of loaded Nugget food stripper clips and wears nothing else. The XO has also taken to defecating on the flight deck and smearing his feces into pictures of boobs, penises, or firearms.
\>The /k/rew are equally disturbed, I have taken reports from section chiefs that some of the enlisted sailors have begun wearing nothing but war paint, and entertain themselves by attaching unused machinery to the steam catapult just to launch it off of the flight deck
Are we fighting the pirates, or have we become the pirates?

>/k/aptains log, the /k/arrier, day 185
\>Our unruly /k/rew is beginning to work as a team. Aside from a few accidental deaths from misuse of the steam catapult, and falling off the flight deck while drunk, operations are relatively safe and becoming more cohesive and effective
\>Earlier this week, in the interest of acquiring more full-retard AK's to enjoy, we hosted his eminent excellence Kim-Jong-Il on the /k/arrier. His entourage included many military and science officers that were interested in /k/arrier operations, and wanted a full spec sheet & the opportunity for further study, in the hopes of reverse-engineering our beloved ship.
\>On day two, after a private meeting with our stil /k/ilt wearing XO, three MI-12's full of best Korean qt3.14's were greeted on the flight deck. The entire /k/rew aside from a skeleton element required for continung ops were treated to a very nice, impressively choreographed qt3.14 drill & ceremony performance.
\>Unfortunately, while we secured 6 full armed Hind-D's and 5500 Kalashnikovs and 500,000 rounds of ammunition, keeping the qt3.14's would have required hosting Kim-Jong Il permanently to get him away from his 'fat prick with missiles' son, Kim Jong Un. He intends to fake his death, apparently.

With the air support spearheaded by the Hind-D gunships & other improvised 'air technical' Helicopters (which includes a Shithook, in which our weapons officer somehow found a way to safely mount a short-barreled 105mm howitzer, with twin MK19's on either side as 'door guns'. This shithook, unsurprisingly, has the callsign 'da/kk/a') we have enjoyed considerable success establishing a beachhead and maintaining air superiority over the various skinnies, bhats, and whatever else continue to harass & pirate in the region. Recovering any trophies or artifa/k/ts from the 'Black Hawk Down' incident is also of considerable interest and our second-line ground teams have weaponeer detachments to recover & salvage any technicals and support arms we can find.

\>Operation /k/rusade has been a resounding success. All operational pirate skiffs & ships have either been captured or scuttled, and the military infrastructure and warlord elements in the port coast of Somalia have been decimated. we've established a landside base with a /k/ontingent to maintain port security & act as a new base of operations. Within a couple weeks, I hope to gradually increase the /k/ontingent on land, but that will depend on their ability to stop taking pictures and making a meme competition for 'jungle tits' and 'national geographic titties' that apparently abound absolutely unrestrained in the region. I've placed our senior Russian ex-pat, Major Ivan Chesnekov, in /k/ommand of the /k/ontingent as his seaside manner has deteriorated greatly, and his typically-coherent rantings against the desecration of Russian & warsaw-pact firearms frequently turn into Russian-accented incoherent screaming in high seas, or whenever his shipboard Vodka still malfunctions or produces a 'questionable' batch of hooch. I've ordered the still moved landside as a result.

\>Following the repeated AAR's on Operation /k/rusade, our higher leadership meeting, at the drunken insistence of our XO, expanded to include outlining a plan for, as the XO inimitably put it, a "PHASE MOTHERFUCKING DEUCE" to Operation /k/rusade
\>Several potential targets & AO's were discussed, but leading our prospects of both the opportunity for unmitigated violence and visiting said violence upon the most deserving examples of humanity, Iran prevailed as the leading choice over Los Angeles in a heated debate.
\>We sail for the Persian Gulf after Vodka supplies are replenished onboard, and we get our newly acquired Typhoon-class Submarine /k/ristened and fully operational to serve as a forward observer for the main invasion fleet.
\>The /k/rew's moral could not be higher, as following the successful Operation /k/rusade, a nightly /k/araoke competition in the main mess hall has gained a great deal of popularity, though the fleet-wide broadcast of the /k/araoke contest resulted in numerous, and suspiciously deliberate faults found in shipboard PA's after a South /k/orean gunner's mate performed a rendition of Mariah /k/arey's 'Touch My Nugget'.

>/k/orrection to day 289's entry: I suspiciously used the word 'moral' accidentally instead of 'morale'. Not sure if spellcheck accident, and not sure if my PC's becoming ironically self-aware.
>Morals, as an overall concept, are quite nebulous within the fleet and even onboard the /k/arrier. I hear reports from section chiefs where /k/rew will come to blows (as in the swinging fists kind, not the applied with lips and vacuum kind) when debating whether or not the traps among the /k/rew are the better 'lays' than the trans members of the /k/rew. Strangely, the inclusion of natural XX-chromosome females in the discussion was never noted, and the XO laughed when I mentioned it, and loudly proclaimed 'THERE ARE NO GIRLS IN THE FLOATILLA'. I reminded him of our enduring search for at least one authentic girl for the sake of affirmative action, his Chesnekov-vodka fueled retort was a rapidly delivered and very angry-sounding rant about ponies, glitter, and fucking oneself as he turned around to field-strip his /k/rinkov right there on the bridge.
>That reminds me, cans of 7N6, sardines, and Zagnut bars are a priority for our acquisitions officer
>In other news, a /k/ontainer ship recently joined the floatilla after being declared unserviceable in its home port of Singapore, and it joined the fleet after abs/k/onding with its entire payload, which, fortunately, included dozens of conexes of Red Bull, Mountain Dew, Tabasco flavored Slim Jims, and women's lingerie.

>Operation "PHASE MOTHERFUCKING DEUCE" /k/rusade has been a resounding success. By skirting the various no-fly zones, we've successfully mobilized forward infantry elements with our fleet of Hind-D's and shithooks without a single operational loss in deployment. A close call was had by the support shithook gunship da/kk/a when the 105mm was fired at too low an altitude, and almost caused it to crash. When asked about the target engaged, the weapon's officer, CW2 /k/rabs, insisted the 105mm be used against the BMP's and other lightly mechanized Iranian Kebab Infantry resistance because 'Fuck those guys'.
>Following the removal of much kebab, all personnel and assets were successfully extra/k/ted before Iranian F14's and other aircraft could be scrambled to intercept, and all safely arrived inside the safety zone of the /k/arriers CWIS systems. Tragically, despite all attempts to the contrary, we could not /k/apture an Iranian F14 for our resident 'Top Gun'. /k/apturing an Iranian F14 remains a primary objective of Operation "PHASE MOTHERFUCKING DEUCE" of the /k/rusade.

>The lead weapons officer has also developed a rotary point defense weapon from eight nugget barrels that is fed nugget food via PKM belts that became plentiful after the hugely successful landside assault on some random somali warlord's beachside port.
>The constant influx of volunteer /k/rew have permitted me to become rather selective of who we take on board. >It is with the greatest regret and deepest sadness that I report the passing of one of our premier officers, Major Ivan Chesnekov.
>During the daring raid to recover the murder/k/ube, Major Chesnekov led the raid himself, and at the most critical part of the raid, the breaching charges to be used on the roof of the murder/k/ube's prison experienced detonator failure. Major Chesnekov, with complete disregard for his own safety, jumped from the safety of his helicopter down to the roof by throwing his AK's sling around the steel hoisting cables that were to be used to pull the piece of roof off the top of building by shithook 1, and using his AK & sling as a zip-line.
Knowing fully that his actions would kill him, he manually placed detcord to each breaching charge, and set off the detcord by using one hand to repeatedly swing the buttstock of his AKS-74 down on the end of it to initiate the blast, all while singing the Soviet March, and emptying a 75 round drum on full auto from his AKMSU held in his other hand.
Nothing remained of Major Chesnekov after the blast except for his AKMSU, and his AKS-74, both of which function perfectly and only needed to be dusted off & reloaded.
>Major Chesnekov's actions alone ensured the successful recovery of the /k/ube and for his gallant sacrifice of his own life for the sake of the /k/ube, we hereby posthumously present Major Chesnekov with our highest honor, the Order of the /k/ube.
>A public memorial service will be held on the aft flight deck at 1600 ship's time. Duty weapons & Vodka for mass 21-gun salute required, blanks not required but somewhat encouraged.

I feel horrible because I forgot this. In the simulations something would come up quite frequently. Third Party Stand Alone Actors. Or as /k/ would instantly recognize them for what they are, warlords. In the simulations (which were state of the art, and I can't go into it, but I can see where some of that US tax money went) Warlords would pop up fairly fast. They actually caused more problems than the rebels would, and several key battles and problem sets were handled by who and how they handled the warlords.

Here is what happened once.
Warlord, lets call him Tom, Warlord Tom would pick up a city in a key choke point. The time in question he actually picked up in my home town, which was funny as fuck. So Tom sets up in the town of St. Charles. He and his buddies have taken over the police department and stolen all the weapons, over threw the City Council, and most importantly- Cut the nation in motherfucking half by cutting off I70 I64. Tom was a former police employee and has expelled half the population of St. Charles and has set up gun points across the river. Now what made this really bad besides cutting off transportation in the country by blowing the bridges, is that he was within driving distance to a nuclear power plant and a key power grid node.

The Rebels hated Tom because not only did he fucking take our strategy, but he cut off the rebels main safe route into the east. We had to go through fucking memphis to get to Saint Louis. Which we were trying to change into a rebel city.

The Government hated Tom because he robbed them every chance he got. Even when he didn't need supplies or goods, he raided the government just to raid the government. You think we would like this, but this guy would cause the rebels to look bad because Tom had decided to create fucking Cascadia in a small town and expelled a ton of the population. This created a shit ton of unrest and made St. Louis look even more like a third world country. Eventually Tom was taken out via a drone strike- but he changed the war by making ground transportation in the US a nightmare.

>>211601
The background on "Tom" not his real name. Because he had a bio. This bio is basically why he is so fucking scary.

1. Ex- Army Sapper, graduated from UIUC with a civil engineering degree.

2. Got out of the military due to medical discharge,, his left arm was a prosthesis (we often joked that it was a robot arm because it would be technologically viable at the time) and was considered a good soldier.

3. Tom was a trucker. While this doesn't seem important in the game it was.

4. Tom was a 6'1 white male of 35 years old and at 220 pounds. He had minor medical issues.

5. Tom had lots of redneck hunting buddies, and part of his cadre was a gunsmith. The Gunsmith was also a HVT later because he armed rebels with stupid anti tank and anti MRAP guns, along with anti drone tech. Toms friends were all as bad as Tom, and as soon as Tom died-- shit got worse because nobody had control over them.

6. Tom's region (Which according to the overall game scheme was 'red team controlled'..) was Eastern Missouri, Western Illinois, Memphis and north east arkansas. his sphere of influence was most of the fucking midwest.

7. Tom, the sneaky fucking bastard, had a dead man switch will. When he died, key intelligence from one of his friends was given to international press. This sped up the third war game. It also almost caused a third world war.

8. A key part of the game was "civilian morale" stupid shit would happen if it got too low or too high. Civilians under Tom always had really high morale. We also have no idea how he got the crime rate for Saint Louis and East Saint louis down to levels one would see in Alexandria Virginia. Well we have ideas, but I don't think it's good to note on here.

More on Tom,
9. Tom could never hold down a job for some reason. It never really went into it in the reports, but he had a ton of jobs after getting discharged.

10. Tom was the most successful warlord. There were some who gained more ground, and some who lasted longer, but nobody fucked with us as much as Tom. Nobody was as big a pain in the ass.

11. You know how I said he got the crime rated down? That was after he caused an expulsion of a large part of the population. The Crime rate went up, Saint Louis made Russia look like a nice place, then about two months later (in game time) Saint Louis was nice.

12. Tom died in a blaze of glory when his dump truc carrying HME (note it was full) was hit by a drone strike. It vaporized a whole city block according to the report.

13. Looking through Tom's background (i was the only one who cared because he was running the portion of the country that was mine god damn it!) A lot of the stuff about him seems like something any normal streloc/k/ would do in the situation. He was able to get c4 through his buddy at cabelas, he got rifles from his gunsmith buddies, he already had food and supplies and he helped his community. When he was not in SHTF mode he was just normal person who was well liked by the city. Just some average vet who happened to be into survivalist stuff.

14. After the war, many of tom's friends became politicians in the new order. They had a memorial set up to him in the middle of fucking saint louis. And he was a fucking warlord. This also happened in the second game with certain ones, but apparently he had a certain popularity that this got noted in the end result of the game.

The answer to the US and jungle warfare is yes. We have been to different jungles since veitnam strelock, and the special forces go down there all the time. They would probably train up the regular troops in this scenario.

Anonymous 09/02/08(Tue)11:07 No.1982634

It always amuses me how people bandy about phrases like being able to overthrow the government if it becomes tyrannical, because there would never be an organized enough force in America to actually overthrow the feds. A bunch of rednecks with rifles just isn't that fucking impressive in an age of laser-guided bunker busters and Abrams tanks. The Second Amendment is absolutely out-dated in terms of providing for a realistic way to keep things from getting out of hand, and there are plenty of countries with functioning gun control regulations that maintain a very high level of gun ownership (see: Switzerland and mandatory militia service). So why is it that when things like this are brought up, the proponents are immediately shouted down with the same trite old arguments instead of anything factual?

tl;dr That guy will fucking rape you.

Anonymous 09/02/08(Tue)11:08 No.1982638

I could tell you that if you upheld the 2nd, and bought a gun, you could destroy that guy's camera before he showed everyone you getting raped.

Legit question, please tell me you don't have an apartment / pets / or roommates?

Depending on your mixture you just fucked up big time. Lets say you made only 4oz of gas, that comes out to 29962ppm.
Concentrations of about 400 ppm and beyond are generally fatal over 30 minutes, and at 1,000 ppm and above, fatality ensues within only a few minutes..

Congrats OP, you going to figure out what the after life is like.

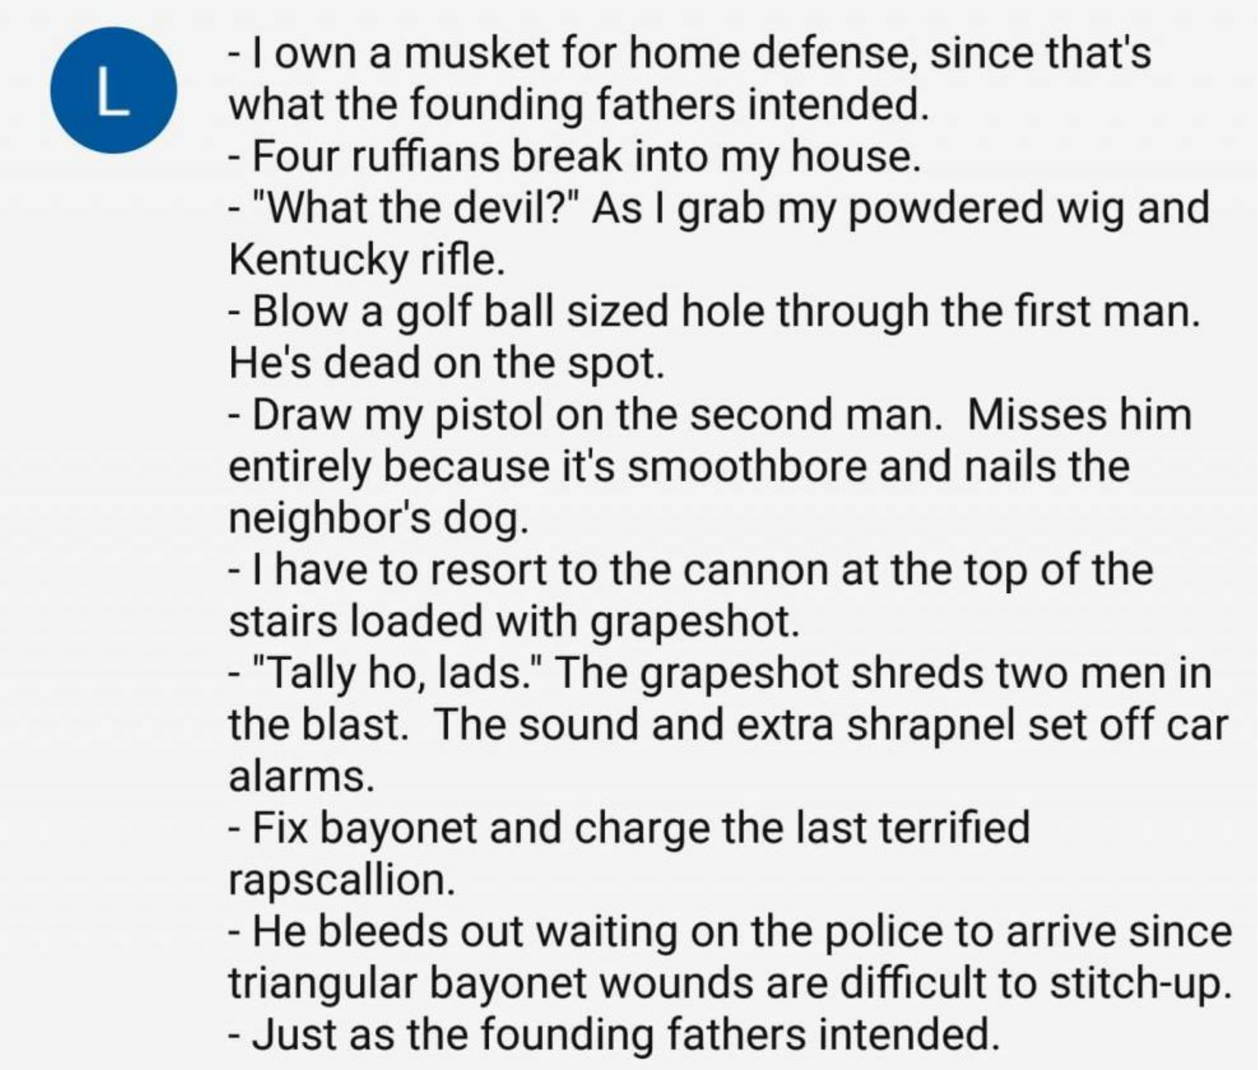
What the fuck.



- I own a musket for home defense, since that's what the founding fathers intended.
- Four ruffians break into my house.
- "What the devil?" As I grab my powdered wig and Kentucky rifle.
- Blow a golf ball sized hole through the first man. He's dead on the spot.
- Draw my pistol on the second man. Misses him entirely because it's smoothbore and nails the neighbor's dog.
- I have to resort to the cannon at the top of the stairs loaded with grapeshot.
- "Tally ho, lads." The grapeshot shreds two men in the blast. The sound and extra shrapnel set off car alarms.
- Fix bayonet and charge the last terrified rapscallion.
- He bleeds out waiting on the police to arrive since triangular bayonet wounds are difficult to stitch-up.
- Just as the founding fathers intended.

I work(ed) in Washington state, where all handgun sales require a pistol transfer form consisting of 3 sections; Firearm information, Customer's information, and FFL information. This is to be filled out by the FFL and signed by both parties.

The customers were a German man and woman buying a walther PPK and under the "occupation" block in the customer's information I put Poland.

Well this is how my dad had heard it and what he remembers from that night >a bunch of guys inna tent hanging out >one kid is breaking out some drugs >sold some pot and acid >next day the unit is patrolling >kid put the tabs he bought in his helmet >forgot about them

>sweating and mumbling >said he tossed his pack and gun down for a breather >someone finds a trap door for one of the tunnels they had been searching for >kid supposedly just walked over with just his sidearm a knife and a light and the acid kicked in >he screamed jumped in the hole and into the darkness he went

I guess they had looked in the tunnels for a couple days but came up empty handed. From what my dad said the kid found an exit from the tunnels a few hundred yards from the FOB.

Why don't they make CBRN resistant sleeping bags anyway?

Just put on your respirator, pull up the hood/pillow on the sleeping bag and tighten it around the mask like the MOPP hood and then you're like some kind of nuclear caterpillar about 6 months after that the entire group of friends from that night were together at another party and several of them suggested that i should put the costume back on and turn vigilante because i overpowered a group of over a dozen attackers with two flintlocks and a sword i basically shrugged it off and said i was damn lucky it worked and even luckier that the cops never found out who did it and there was basically no point is rolling the dice a second time as it turns out one of the girls in the group had a father who was a cop and according to her the entire precinct was talking about that incident for months apparently ballistics didnt turn up anything useful because "smoothbore flintlocks lol" and they werent gonna track down and harrass every single citizen who bought a replica gun just to seek justice for "victims that they despised in fact i turns out the handless nigger had two outstanding warrants on him and was arrested in the hospital after he got out of surgery and one of the arresting officers suggested that he should buy a prosthetic hook for his stump

the cops were laughing their asses off about those retards getting runoff by a drunk wearing a pirate costume if you know any body in uniform serving where i live then you probably have heard the story

>NFA weapons are almost strictly banned from being used in self defense not true there is no line of "using this gun is legal but now it isn't".

the legal test is: are you immediately in fear of your life? yes? then you are good to go. breaking and entering in nearly all parts of the country into a private residence immediately precludes (via affirmative defense) any reasonable doubt. the prosecution has to prove there was malicious intent somehow, the defense doesn't have to prove anything.

i've used a DD in self defense and other than having it in police lock up for a month, i got it back just fine and never spent more than a few hours in jail.

i bought the M82A2 in 1989 or so for aroun $5500. it was used as a show piece at gunshows for a long while. i sold that thing for major cash in the late 90's and bought a new house.

it wasn't .50 BMG. 20mm single shot upper.

I disagree.

The tank must be happy that it is still useful. The tank does what it was made to do, it will fight and fight until it can fight no more. It will beat and pound anyone in its way. What tank would want to rust away in a warehouse somewhere?

How many wars has it seen? How many of its brothers have fell beside it? And yet today it still fights against those who will do his people harm. It can still fight. Not as strong or agile as its younger brothers, but still a force to be reckoned with.

Old and battered? Maybe, but strong and unyielding nonetheless. The museum pedestal will be there waiting for it, when it wins the war. When it can ride into Aleppo after he finally liberates the city. The tank cannot rest, it still has a mission.

I want to buy one of these shitty things.

Then I want to load the .410 hulls with various things. In the following order: Toothpicks, ice bullets, tootsie rolls, rice, cooked rice. Live minnows. Cat turds. I want to shoot stupid things in my backyard with stupid shit, and drink whiskey from a clay jug while my wife needle-points me a 9 by 12 picture Dale Earnhardt driving RC cars with Jesus.

But seriously (if this can be taken seriously), with reduced powder loads, what assortment of random bullshit can I safely fire out of a shotgun pistol I don't care what happens to (outside of KB)?

I put this in /t/ because it's fucking ridiculous. I'm also serious, though.

Not good for defense? Think about this:

You're approaching your mark, knife in hand, as he reaches for his wallet. You have no intention of letting him live; you've been to prison, and you're not going back. The shaking (why do they ALWAYS shake like that?) white guy in the windbreaker brings out his wallet, you can see the credit cards gleaming, and the three week heroin bender you're about to go on is so close you can taste it.

But wait! That's not his wallet! It's one of those pocket guns, not a scary looking thing, but you know what it is. You're close enough- or so you think- to try and shank him before he can think about shooting, and you're guessing he's bluffing, anyway. No one that carries something like that has the balls to shoot anyone.

BOOM

HOLY SHIT THE FUCKER ACTUALLY DID IT! you think as something hits you square in the chest. It take a few seconds for your heart to quiet down enough and your head to slow, and you realize there's no pain. It's like you were punched in the chest by a kid, you look down to see if you're even bleeding...

...and your vest is covered in about two dozen tiny fish. Three a wriggling. You look up at the man, and he's laughing so hard he's pissed himself. His glazed eyes are throwing tears down his cheeks, and he's reloading. You catch a glimpse of the shell marked "CUM" in crude red marker, and your mind involuntarily seizes up.

You see, my intention is not to harm my assailants, but to put them in situations so ludicrous that they will involuntary take an immediate hard assessment of their lives. Finding yourself standing in a rainstorm, covered in bait, and stopped short of committing murder for thirty bucks while a balding maniac pisses on his own shoes and loads a gun with his own semen isn't something you shake off. No sir. You drop your knife, march slowly home with a bent back and blank look, curl up still wet in your corner and call your mother.

Not a formidable defense gun? Motherfucker, you can't even imagine.

Ok, moar Hummel

>still basic training >kid gets chosen to read The Soldier's Creed in front of the entire company >kid can barely remember how to wipe his ass, much less recite a paragraph >he approaches the front of the formation, nervous and visibly sweating >i am pretty sure spaghetti began to manifest in his cargo pockets >he takes his position in front of the formation, everyone is standing tight at attention >he clears his throat, takes a deep breath
>"THE ARMY CREED!"
>somehow manages to fuck it up by the second word >1SG is visibly upset, entire formation begins to smirk and chortle >he attempts it again
>"THE SOLDIERS CREED!"
>he proceeds to the second line, and falters yet again >this repeats for a solid 15 minutes >eventually one of the drill sergeants presents him with a handy notepad, with the creed written on it >fucks it up again, while reading it >eventually approaches the "I stand ready to deploy, engage, and destroy the enemies of the united states" part >says "I WILL EMPLOY THE ENEMIES OF THE UNITED STATES" >realizes his mistake, says "FUCK" out loud, then starts over >reaches the same point
>"I WILL DESTROY THE UNITED STATES" >everyone is dying at this point >drill sergeant has dropped his military bearings and tripped on them >shit turns to chaos >eventually gets it right, after a good hour or two

You will die of radiation sickness.

1kg of natural uranium emits about 3 millicuries of radiation per second. DU is 1.7x heavier than lead, so I'm guessing your DU bullet weighs around 6.46 grams. DU is 60% as radioactive as natural uranium.

Add all that up, and assuming it spent 6 hours inside your body, that's...

((6.46/1000)*.003)*60*60 = .069768 curies of alpha radiation your gut has absorbed. 1 curie is a fucking lot of radiation.

Normally you'd convert that to rem, accounting for the fact that most of it will be alpha decay, with some secondary beta, and then compare that against the fact that almost none of it would make it past your skin, but since you've ingested it, you've soaked up every last bit of it.

Any time now you'll start having digestive problems and pain as your epithelial gut cells start dying, and start violently vomiting, feeling faint etc. It'll all go away within a day or so. After that you'll have anywhere from a few days to a week before you start to bleed from every orifice, your skin starts to disintegrate and you suffer massive organ failure.

All of this can be reversed if you get to a hospital. Otherwise, been nice knowing you.

WHY YOU WANT RAIL FOR KALASHNIKOV? IS NOT GOOD ENOUGH AS PROCURED FROM IZHEVSK MECHANICAL WORKS? YOU THINK NEEDS IMPROVEMENT? THEN MAYBE YOU FIND JOB WITH ARMY OF RUSSIA! YOU HAVE DRINKS WITH MIKHAIL KALASHNIKOV, TRADE STORY OF MANY WEAPONS DESIGNED AND DETAILS OF SCHOOL FOR ENGINEERING!

OR MAYBE YOU DO NOT DO THIS. PROBABLY IS BECAUSE YOU NEVER DESIGN WEAPON IN WHOLE LIFE. YOU LOOK AT FINE RUSSIAN RIFLE, THINK IT NEED CRAZY SHIT STICK ON ALL SIDES OF WEAPON. YOU HAVE DISEASE OF AMERICAN CAPITALIST, CHANGE THING THAT IS FINE FOR NO REASON EXCEPT TO LOOK DIFFERENT FROM COMRADE. YOU PUT CHEAP FLASHLIGHT OF CHINESE SLAVE FACTORY ON ONE SIDE, YOU PUT BAD SCOPE OF AMERICAN MIDDLE WEST ON OTHER SIDE, YOU PUT FRONT PISTOL GRIP ON BOTTOM SO YOU THINK YOU ARE LIKE AMERICAN MOVIE GUY JOHN RAMBO. MAYBE YOU PUT SEX DILDO ON TOP TO FUCK YOURSELF IN ASSHOLE FOR MAKING SHAMEFUL TRAVESTY OF RIFLE OF MIKHAIL KALASHNIKOV, NO?

RIFLE IS FINE. YOU FUCK IT, IT ONLY GET HEAVY AND STILL NO HIT LARGEST SIDE OF BARN. GO TO FIRING RANGE, PRACTICE WITH MANY MAGAZINE OF CARTRIDGE. THEN YOU NOT NEED DUMB SHIT PUT ON SIDE OF RIFLE.

Annual reports from the Directorate of Operational Testing and Evaluation.
There's plenty more in there to sift through. I just came across that while looking for the maneuver thing Froganon mentioned. The graph on page 1 just about says it all.
The weapons bay thing is on page 120. Other points on the same page include:
>Fleet F-35A aircraft are limited to 3.0 g's when fully fueled
>Testing to characterize the vibrational and acoustic environment of the weapons bays demonstrated that stresses induced by the environment were out of the flight qualification parameters for the AIM-120 missile >Test pilots flew 17 engagements between an F-35A and an F-16D, which was configured with external fuel tanks that limited the F-16D envelope to 7.0 g's. The F-35A remained at a distinct energy disadvantage on every engagement. Pitch rates were also problematic, where full aft stick maneuvers would result in less than full permissible g loading (i.e., reaching 6.5 g when limit was 9.0 g), and subsequent rapid loss of energy.
So if it closes the bay doors, it overheats the weapons, but that doesn't matter because it would rattle the weapons to death anyway. And it can't reach the full G-limit when it has fuel, but that doesn't matter because it isn't aerodynamically capable of reaching the G-limit anyway

ilot Escape System

The program conduc system in July and A the system to successfully eject a manikin without exceeding load/stress limits on the manikin. These sled tests were needed in order to qualify the new Gen III HMDS for flight release. In July 2015, a sled test on a 103-pound manikin with a Gen III helmet at 160 knots speed demonstrated the system failed to meet neck injury criteria. The program did not consider this failure to be solely caused by the heavier Gen III helmet, primarily due to similarly poor test results observed with the Gen II helmet on a 103-pound manikin in 2010 tests. The program conducted another sled test in August 2015 using a 136-pound manikin with the Gen III helmet at 160 knots. The system also failed to meet neck injury criteria in this test. Similar sled testing with Gen II helmets in 2010 did not result in exceedance of neck loads for 136-pound pilots.

After the latter failure, the Program Office and Services decided to restrict pilots weighing less than 136 pounds from flying any F-35 variant, regardless of helmet type (Gen II or Gen III). Pilots weighing between 136 and 165 pounds are considered at less risk than lighter weight pilots, but still at an increased risk (compared to heavier pilots). The level of risk was labeled "serious" by the Program Office based on the probability of death being 23 percent, and the probability of neck extension (which will result in some level of injury) being 100 percent. Currently, the Program Office and the Services have decided to accept this level of risk to pilots in this weight range, although the basis for the decision to accept these risks is unknown.

They have to constantly juggle with fuel weight/overheating a visible amalgamation of everything wrong with the current world in fighter aircraft form

As a result of the engine failure that occurred in an F-35A in late June, the program imposed aircraft operating limitations (AOL) on all variants of F-35 aircraft at the flight test centers and operational/training bases. These AOLs were:

- Maximum speed of 1.6 Mach (0.9 Mach for production aircraft at operational/training bases),
- Maximum g-load of 3.2 g for test aircraft and 3.0 for production aircraft,
- Maneuvers limited to half-stick roll rate and 18 degrees angle of attack
- No rudder input, unless required for safe flight (production aircraft restriction only)
- Note: In some circumstances during flight test (but not in operational/training aircraft), exceedances were permitted and testing continued, controlled by the flight test team monitoring the aircraft, on an aircraft-by-aircraft basis (i.e., individual aircraft are cleared for specific test points).

Due to the AOL, numerous test points needed for the Block 2B fleet release and Marine Corps IOC were blocked and cannot be attempted until the restrictions are lifted.

- These test points include:
  - Loads and buffet, Short Take-off and Vertical Landing (STOVL) envelope expansion, and propulsion testing for F-35B flight sciences
  - Loads and buffet for F-35A flight sciences testing
  - Manual ground collision avoidance system testing (for both aircraft). The manual ground collision avoidance system is a warning system that alerts the pilot that the state of aircraft attitude and altitude may be entering an unsafe condition (Service IOC requirement).
- There was also a requirement to inspect the engine with borescope equipment after no more than three flight hours; this creates additional down time and places stringent scheduling requirements, which negatively affects aircraft availability.

He was involved in many of Edison's projects, and was a partner in an early organization which evolved into General Electric. When Johnson was Vice President of the Edison Electric Light Company, a predecessor of Con Edison, he created the first known electrically illuminated Christmas tree at his home in New York City in 1882. Edward H. Johnson became the Father of Electric Christmas Tree Lights.

You take the red pill—you stay in Wonderland, and I show you how deep the rabbit hole goes. Remember: all I'm offering is the truth. Nothing more.
It's the Jews.

Israeli Minister Says Italian Earthquakes Payback For Anti-Jewish UNESCO Vote

BY MINA OCTOBER 29, 2016

Two earthquakes, which struck Italy this week, were "retribution" for the country's support of the UNESCO resolution disregarding the Jewish connection to Jerusalem, Israeli Deputy Minister for Regional Cooperation Ayoob Kara said.

"I'm sure that the earthquake happened because of the UNESCO decision," Kara, a member of the ruling Likud Party, wrote in a memo, Ynetnews website reported.

Jews are saying their messiah is coming soon, they are pushing globalism trying to unite the world under one economic empire, and not too long from now you won't be able to buy or sell anything without the (((Vaccine))). But this isn't quite right. The mark of the beast isn't being done correctly. I think they are faking the apocalypse. Either that or they are desperately trying to make it happen or real.

http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Futility,_or_the_Wreck_of_the_Titan
>Although the novel was written before the Olympic-class Titanic was even designed, there are some remarkable similarities between both the fictional and real-life versions. Like the Titanic, the fictional ship sank in April in the North Atlantic, and there were not enough lifeboats for the passengers. There are also similarities between the size (800 ft (244 m) long for Titan versus 882 ft 9 in (269 m) long for the Titanic[2]), speed (25 knots for Titan, 22.5 knots for Titanic[3]) and life-saving equipment.
>The Titanic was the world's largest luxury liner (882 feet (269 m), displacing 63,000 long tons), and was once described by newspapers as being "designed to be unsinkable" and "virtually unsinkable".[5]
>The Titan was the largest craft afloat and the greatest of the works of men (800 feet, displacing 75,000 tons, up from 45,000 in the 1898 edition), and was deemed "practically unsinkable" (as quoted in Robertson's book).
>Shortage of lifeboats
>The Titanic carried only 16 lifeboats, plus 4 Engelhardt folding lifeboats,[6] less than half the number required for her passenger and crew capacity of 3000.
>The Titan carried "as few as the law allowed", 24 lifeboats, less than half needed for her 3000 capacity.
>>Struck an iceberg
>>Moving at 22½ knots,[7] the Titanic struck an iceberg on the starboard side on the night of April 14, 1912, in the North Atlantic, 400 nautical miles (740 km; 460 mi) away from Newfoundland.
>>Moving at 25 knots, The Titan also struck an iceberg on the starboard side on an April night in the North Atlantic, 400 nautical miles (740 km; 460 mi) from Newfoundland (Terranova).
>Sinking
>The unsinkable Titanic sank, and more than half of her 2200 passengers and crew died.
>The indestructible Titan also sank, more than half of her 2500 passengers drowning.
>The Titanic went down bow first, the Titan actually capsizing before it sank.

yes they did, what happened was that the titanic was funded by top jude JP MORGAN, and real plot behind the ship was to get rid of every wealthy family the opposed the FEDERAL RESERVE ACT, which basicly gave the jews full control of America's CURRENCY, the captain who was navigating spent his entire life traveling on that part of the ocean, he knew the place by heart and doesnt it seem odd that on the most important journey of his life he hit a plain ol iceburg sitting there that was visible miles away, when the titantic was crashing they shot up a white flare which signifies a celebration instead of a red flare which signifies distress. It's a plot so inconceivable that most people overlook it, but without it the jews wouldn't be in power today. THE MORE YOU KNOW

Morgan was an agent for, and financed by, Rothschild.

Morgan owned the White Star Line.
He was in Europe to travel on the Titanic maiden voyage, but backed out because of illness just before the trip.

Ha, yeah, we like to have some laughs here. But in all seriousness, I definitely do not believe JEWS ARE TRYING TO CREATE A GLOBAL COMMUNIST DICTATORSHIP. Just another Saturday mowing the lawn and then having a private conversation with my kids about avoiding conspiracy theories like BLACKS ARE MORE PREDISPOSED TO CRIME AND ONCE THEY REACH A CRITICAL MASS IN SOCIETY WE ARE ALL FUCKED. It's important to have these conversations with my kids. Especially my daughter. I want her to grow up to be a strong, independent woman and not thinking FEMINISM IS RUNNING AGAINST THE NATURAL ORDER OF GENDER ROLES AND PAIR BONDING, WASTING THE FERTILITY OF COUNTLESS WOMEN AS THEY THOUGHTLESSLY PURSUE A LIFESTYLE OF HEDONISM AND NARCISSISM THAT IS PROMOTED BY THE JEWS.

For thousands of years, humans usually slept on leafs, moss and straw. It is the natural underground to keep a healthy back.

There is no reason to have any bed other than size twin. Humans don't need mattresses btw.
Humans don't need "space to roll" they roll in place, it is an instinctive trait as primates sleep on branches.

Large beds take valuable space from room that could be used for activities such as calisthenics, artwork, use of an instrument.

>inb4 two people sleeping in a large bed
NO! This is even worse, humans are not meant to share a bed, there should be two separate twins in a master bedroom that you can push together if you need extra space for intimate marriage time.

HOMEMADE NAPALM 101

1. Mix styrofoam and gasoline until honey-like liquid
2. Pour into bottle from 2/3. Do not overfill
3. Screw bottle with original cap
4. Tie gasoline-soaked cloth around the neck
5. Fasten the cloth and cap with a duct tape
6. Get rid of the world Jewry

General tips:
- Best suitable are bottles from hard liquor like vodka. Big and brittle enough. Ideal are 0,75 litre bottles.
- Always screw the bottle, do not use just a rag.
- If needed for long-term store, be sure they are air-tight and do not soak rag into flammable.
- In case of smaller/stronger glass bottle, put small piece of metal inside it

Brought to you by friendly Pepiks

Original cap fastened with duct tape
Gasoline soaked rag fastened with duct tape
2/3 honey-like napalm Do not overfill
Brittle glass bottle, 0,75l+

Convince me these stupid fucking things aren't the work of israel.

old style plunger:
>press in general direction of hole >encapsulate shit in pressure and push until toilet unclogs jew plunger:

>press exactly on hole because its the same size >50% of shit squishes against toilet, 50% goes inside plunger >start pushing, nothing happens >raise plunger and watch shit fall out of plunger >flush again, revealing giant mound of hardened shit from hollowed-out plunger boob squishing against it >use toilet paper or something to unstick shit from toilet >flush again to get rid of dislodged shit-mound >use shower to clean shit off plunger >take shower so you aren't covered in shit-infused backsplash from cleaning plunger

On top of everything above, they're physically larger so they'll displace more water and possibly overflow where a normal one wouldn't. Seriously what the flying fuck. There needs to be an international treaty to ban this brainlet design.

I just wanted to play video games, you fucking kikes. Had you left me in my goddamn bubble and left it the fuck alone, I'd have never seen first hand how a narrative is formed regardless of actual factual evidence, how centralized the whole thing is and how it's jews behind it, every single fucking time. All I ever wanted was to play video games, not train for RWDS, learn how to gunz in a nogunz country and become a meme wizard and tune my j-dar so finely that I see so much kike shit around me I was not even aware existed just mere two years ago.

And I used to be a good goy liberal with a bleeding heart, too. Kikes done fucked up if people like me take up arms and learn how to spot them and their devious ways. This is all on you, kikes. You did all of this. You created the golem and it is now crushing you slowly, savouring your pain.

I'm going to take you down a weird little rabbit hole anon.

Prior to the 1950s Every single grass seed mix contained at least 5% white mini clover. Today white clover is known as a weed, a pest a horrible unsightly shitstain

Let me illuminate you to the kikery of this unfortunate public perception.
Clover was initially introduced into every seed mix due to clovers ability to:
>Soak up nitrogen from the air
>Distribute this through its root system
>Disperse nitrogen throughout the entire lawn/garden soil area
You literally never need to fertilize your lawn with mix from the big box store

Essentially clover makes fertilization of the lawn pointless. When you have enough clover in your lawn it will fertilize the grass on its own.
Clover also grows in bunches and literally chokes out weeds from growing.
It was a staple in every American lawn.
The flowers from the clovers also helped to spread the bee population nationwide to healthy levels.

File: whiteclovers.jpg (24 KB, 474x355)

>>329503190 (OP)
So what happened?
Why was clover removed from seed mix and then banished into being a "weed"?
In the 1950s the first broadleaf weed killers were created.
This would kill the few and far between weeds in someone's lawn that evaded being choked out by the white clover.
The newly created weed killers also killed the white clover.

Most of these grass seed companies were making seed mixes and selling weed killers
They had an "oh shit" moment and needed to take white clover out of their seed mixes which were great for them since it saved them money soon after the removal of white clover from seed mixes they saw a massive uptick in lawns dying out and becoming patchy which was not really a thing prior to the removal.
What happened because of broadleaf weed killers?

Well, the jews started to peddle synthetic fertilizers to the public to save their dying lawns!
The old-timers knew that white clover would fix these dying patchy lawns and the jews needed to shut them up so how did they do it?
A massive media campaign started with how white clover was unnecessary and how the patchy soils were just due to "bad soil".
Then after a few years of burning out white clover into obscurity, they finished the job they started their biggest deluge of mass media yet and started to claim that white clover was a weed.
It worked like gangbusters every American had to have a pristine monoculture lawn of Kentucky bluegrass or what have you Fertilizers were flying off the shelf weedkiller was also flying off the shelf

now we have the modern lawn we have >multiple fertilization times per year >multiple yearly deweeding >aeration
>Synthetic lawn chemical companies to spray your lawn

The jews upset the balance of nature in their greed and when everyone's lawns started to die they capitalized on that and sold us more shit to make our lives toxic.

Let me tell you a little secret clover is the cure its not a weed
its self fertilizes your lawn it kills broadleaf weeds by crowding them out yet doesnt kill your lawn

You have been lied to a single little plant added to your seed mixture will save you money in the form of >no fertilizer
>drought resistant
>Prevents soil erosion
>Enriches your soil instead of draining
>Crowds out actual weeds

Return to the older times anons the next time you see some clover in your lawn you should be happy if you have none and are spending thousands on stupid bullshit to keep your monoculture lawn "green" remember you dont have to spend a fucking dime if you just threw some clover seeds into it
You are fighting against the jews by simply using what nature has given us

White clover is being demonized and I say ITS OKAY TO BE WHITE CLOVER seig heil and may your lawn be reclaimed from the jews Seig heil and may your lawn help sustain a healthy bee population which is nearing extinction

the jew fears the natural and the beautiful

Figure 5: Graph representation of the words associated with "jew" on /pol/. We extract the graph by finding the most similar words (cutoff at 0.4 cosine distance value), and then we take the 2-hop ego network around "jew. In this graph the size of a node is proportional to its degree (i.e., the number of other nodes it is directly connected to); the color of a node is based on the community it is a member of; and the entire graph is visualized using a layout algorithm that takes edge weights into account (i.e., nodes with similar words will be closer in the visualization). Note that the figure is best viewed in color.

what if all the conspiracy theories about the jews are not infact meme shit, but rather there is actually a group of jews attempting some greater goal, but rather than conspiring themselves they simply realize whatever consipracy theories are spread to accomplish it in plain sight? Literally letting the goyims do the plotting for you? There would not be any secret communication or spy networks or anything of the sort, all jews that become "part of it" from birth or from some ceremony, simply take a look at whatever outlandish theories are being spread that would further their goals if actually done and then perform exactly those actions knowing that if anyone calls them out, they can simply pull the conspiracy nut card?

La loi Rotschild du 3 janvier 1973 interdit à la France de s'emprunter à elle-même à taux zéro, et l'oblige à emprunter au marché avec intérêts sans aucune raison. Depuis toutes ces années, la dette programmée a pris une telle ampleur que l'intégralité des taxes et des impôts ne recouvre même plus les intérêts. Les services publics sont donc entièrement financés par d'autres emprunts à partir de rien, que nous rembourseront sans fin aux banques privées
qui s'en frottent
les mains.

The Rothschild law dated January 3rd 1973 forbids France from borrowing money from itself at 0% interest, and forces it to borrow from the market with interest, for no good reason. Since then, the public debt has ballooned to such a level that the entirety of duties and taxes does not even cover the interests alone. Public services are consequently paid for with even more debt conjured out of thin air, that we will pay back to no end to private banks which rub their hand in glee.

QUELLE EST SON ORIGINE?

Elle est d'abord imaginée en 1976 par le musicien américain Joel Cohen qui travaillait alors pour Radio France - France Musique. Cohen proposait pour cette chaîne des « Saturnales de la Musique » pour le 21 juin et le 21 décembre lors des deux solstices. Il voulait que les groupes de musiques jouent le 21 juin au soir, jour de l'été boréal. Le projet de Cohen a été réalisé le 21 juin 1976 à Toulouse. Dans un reportage consacré à l'origine de la Fête, diffusé par la télévision suisse romande, le 21 juin 2015, Jack Lang a remercié Joel Cohen pour son idée.

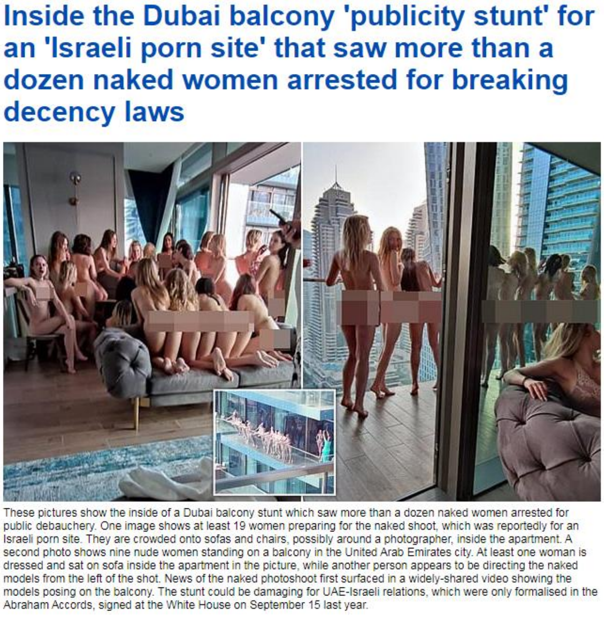
French National Music Festival

The American musician Joel Cohen came up with the idea in 1976 when he was working for a French radio station. Cohen submitted to this station a festival called – Music Saturnalia – for June 21st and December 21st, both solstices. (((Jack Lang))), who introduced the law making June 21st the official day of the French National Music Festival, thanked (((Joel Cohen))) for this idea.



Inside the Dubai balcony 'publicity stunt' for an 'Israeli porn site' that saw more than a dozen naked women arrested for breaking decency laws

These pictures show the inside of a Dubai balcony stunt which saw more than a dozen naked women arrested for public debauchery. One image shows at least 19 women preparing for the naked shoot, which was reportedly for an Israeli porn site. They are crowded onto sofas and chairs, possibly around a photographer, inside the apartment. A second photo shows nine nude women standing on a balcony in the United Arab Emirates city. At least one woman is dressed and sat on sofa inside the apartment in the picture, while another person appears to be directing the naked models from the left of the shot. News of the naked photoshoot first surfaced in a widely-shared video showing the models posing on the balcony. The stunt could be damaging for UAE-Israeli relations, which were only formalised in the Abraham Accords, signed at the White House on September 15 last year.

"Berlin transformed itself into the Babel of the world… Germans brought to perversion all their vehemence and love of system. Made-up boys with artificial waistlines promenaded along the Kurfustendamm… Even [ancient Rome] had not known orgies like the Berlin transvestite balls, where hundreds of men in women's clothes, and women in men's clothes, danced under the benevolent eyes of the police. Amid the general collapse of values, a kind of insanity took hold of precisely those middle class circles which had been unshakeable in their order. Young ladies proudly boasted that they were perverted: to be suspected of virginity at 16 would have been a disgrace in every school in Berlin."

Most of you probably are unaware of what "Mindgeek", this company, even is— that's because it is just a shell company that its real masters have gone at great lengths to conceal their operations and identities, and most importantly, their endgame.

This shell company, hidden away in an anonymously structured Luxemburg corporation, owns the following: Brazzers, Digital Playground, Pornhub PornMD, RedTube, Playboy TV, and YouPorn and dozens of gay sites. Most upper-level management and private stakeholders are Jews. They are also one of the largest (((big data))) companies around.

Their goal: to infiltrate and destroy what is left of western society by hypersexualizing anything they can think of and destroying everything we once held sacred. They are trying to break apart the family unit by introducing the populace to sicker and sicker pornography, including most recently, porn that simulates incest. They are trying to normalize homoerotic materials to classically condition people into becoming homosexuals (see behavioral psychologist, B.F. Skinner). They openly work with the media to not only promote their own filth but also to say that there are no downsides to any of it! They managed to create the largest mind virus in our generation, the ultrasexual feedback loop—this is where sexual thoughts actions and behaviors become the a total obsession for people, at expense of productive life goals.

Let's break apart the name. "Mindgeek". Why would a porn umbrella company be called this? What relevance does it have? It has to do with the Jewish owners larger goal; to get inside and infect the minds of everyone (most importantly, white males), to subconsciously affect them. They do not make any money from people who just browse and don't click the ads; but they do get an addicted slave though that now values the short-term pleasure more than any long-term goals in life and will ideally absorb their political conditioning as well. They are pure evil.

it does, the reason is because of the new epstein docs that were released. the connection here is that it was obviously happening to jay z and the others.
the point here is that the head of the dragon are these jewish groups extorting american industry to try to fund israeli military operations.

Wow. So much antisemitism in these comments. Sure, Jews are overwhelmingly responsible for communism, cultural Marxism, feminism, critical theory, pornography, "hate-speech" legislation, gender theory, mass non-white immigration to western countries, left-wing judicial activism, the destruction of traditional christianity, the normalization of sexual deviancy, interminable warmongering in the Middle East, and the general degradation of or culture through their near-total control of media and Hollywood-- BUT DOES EVERYONE HAVE TO KEEP POINTING IT OUT???

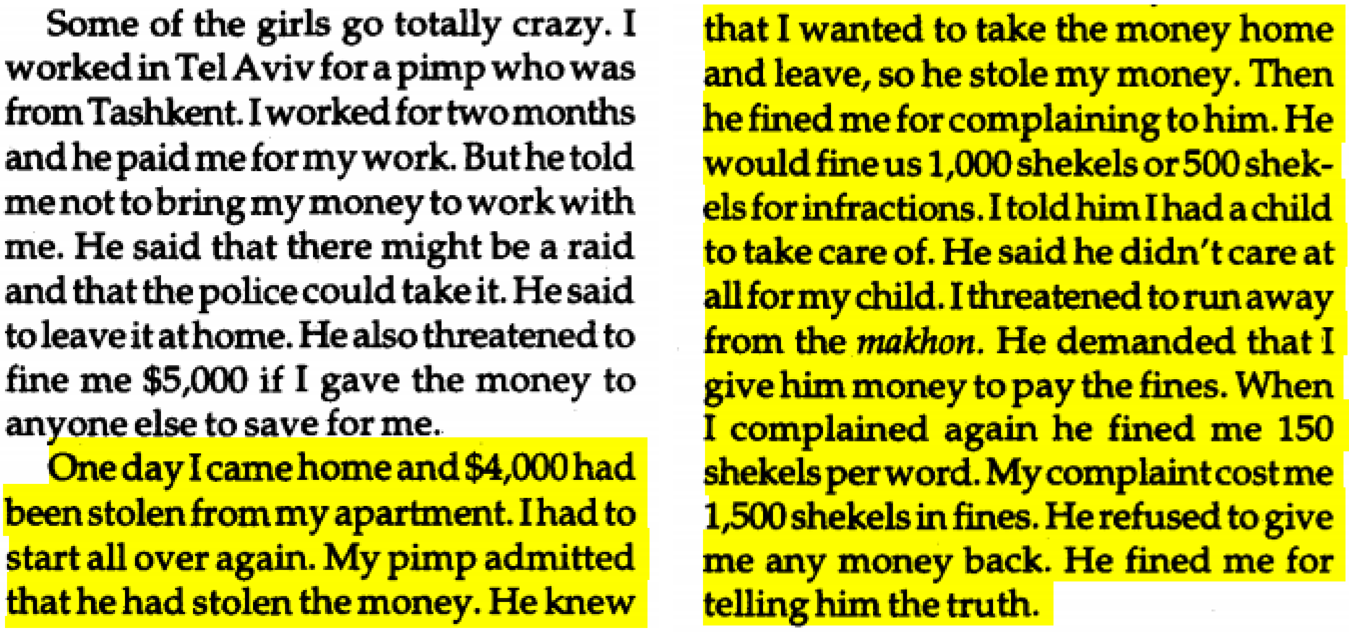
Masters of hypocrisy



Some of the girls go totally crazy. I worked in Tel Aviv for a pimp who was from Tashkent. I worked for two months and he paid me for my work. But he told me not to bring my money to work with me. He said that there might be a raid and that the police could take it. He said to leave it at home. He also threatened to fine me $5,000 if I gave the money to anyone else to save for me.

One day I came home and $4,000 had been stolen from my apartment. I had to start all over again. My pimp admitted that he had stolen the money. He knew that I wanted to take the money home and leave, so he stole my money. Then he fined me for complaining to him. He would fine us 1,000 shekels or 500 shekels for infractions. I told him I had a child to take care of. He said he didn't care at all for my child. I threatened to run away from the makhon. He demanded that I give him money to pay the fines. When I complained again he fined me 150 shekels per word. My complaint cost me 1,500 shekels in fines. He refused to give me any money back. He fined me for telling him the truth.

Pam Geller says, "If Iran attacks, Israel should nuke Europe"

Category: Hatred Of White People, Israel, Jews, Muslims

Pam Geller is a darling of Fox News and the Republican Party. Apparently, suggesting that Israel should murder millions of Europeans is a "mainstream" notion.

Ted Pike reports:

> Radical Jewish anti-Islamic activist and Fox News regular Pamela Geller said on her blog in 2010: "And I pray dearly that in the ungodly event that Tehran or its jihadi proxies (Hez'Ballah, Hamas, etc.) target Israel with a nuke, that she retaliate with everything she has at Tehran, Mecca, Medina……not to mention Europe. They exterminated all their Jews, but that wasn't enough. These monsters then went on to import the next generation of Jew-killers." By "Jew-killers," she means Muslims: "This new hatred comes from Muslim immigrants. The Jewish people are afraid now."
>
> Geller shares a similar view with Israeli advocates of "The Samson Option": if Israel is to be destroyed by nuclear attack, it should destroy the whole world by unloading its entire nuclear arsenal upon it.

Ideas like this will get you cozy with GOP leadership?

Israeli Professor Says 'We Could Destroy All European Capitals'

Jerusalem: February 1, 2003 (IAP News)

An Israeli professor and military historian hinted that Israel could avenge the holocaust by annihilating millions of Germans and other Europeans.

Speaking during an interview which was published in Jerusalem Friday, Professor Martin Van Creveld said Israel had the capability of hitting most European capitals with nuclear weapons.

"We possess several hundred atomic warheads and rockets and can launch them at targets in all directions, perhaps even at Rome. Most European capitals are targets of our air force."

Creveld, a professor of military history at the Hebrew University in Jerusalem, pointed out that "collective deportation" was Israel's only meaningful strategy towards the Palestinian people.

"The Palestinians should all be deported. The people who strive for this (the Israeli government) are waiting only for the right man and the right time. Two years ago, only seven or eight percent of Israelis were of the opinion that this would be the best solution, two months ago it was 33 percent, and now, according to a Gallup poll, the figure is 44 percent."

Creveld said he was sure that Israeli Prime Minister Ariel Sharon wanted to deport the Palestinians.

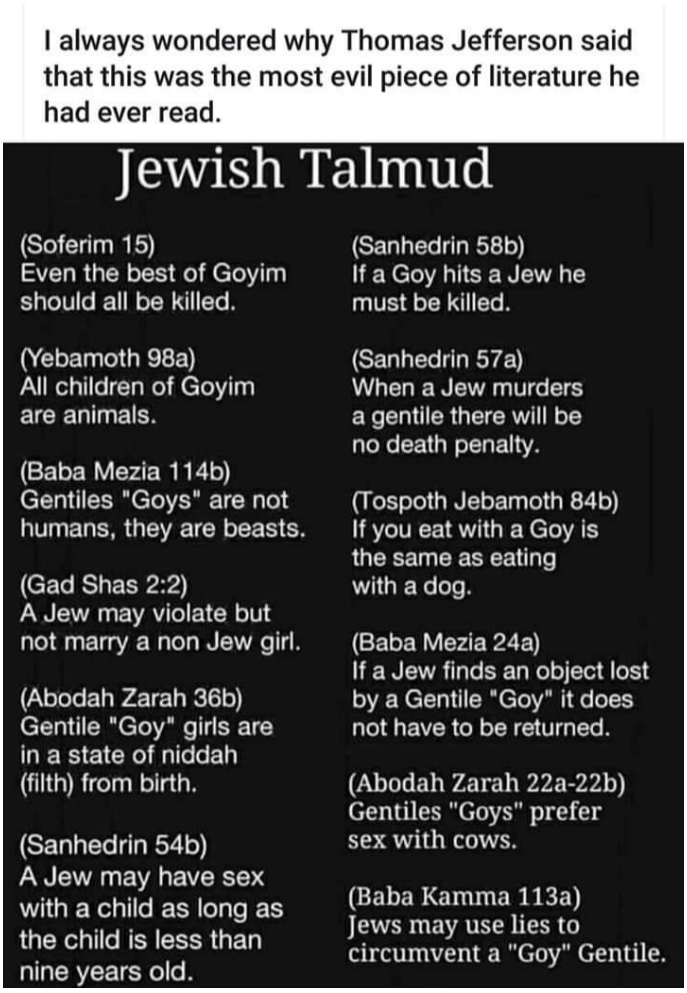
"I think it's quite possible that he wants to do that. He wants to escalate the conflict. He knows that nothing else we do will succeed."

Asked if he was worried about Israel becoming a rogue state if it carried out a genocidal deportation against Palestinians, Creveld quoted former Israeli Defense Minister Moshe Dayan who said "Israel must be like a mad dog, too dangerous to bother."

Creveld argued that Israel wouldn't care much about becoming a rogue state.

"Our armed forces are not the thirtieth strongest in the world, but rather the second or third. We have the capability to take the world down with us. And I can assure you that this will happen before Israel goes under."

Here is an open admission that Israel has "Weapons of Mass Destruction" and will attack any perceived enemy state. Pres. Bush has promised to rid the Middle East of such weapons - he can now deal with ISRAEL !



I always wondered why Thomas Jefferson said that this was the most evil piece of literature he had ever read.

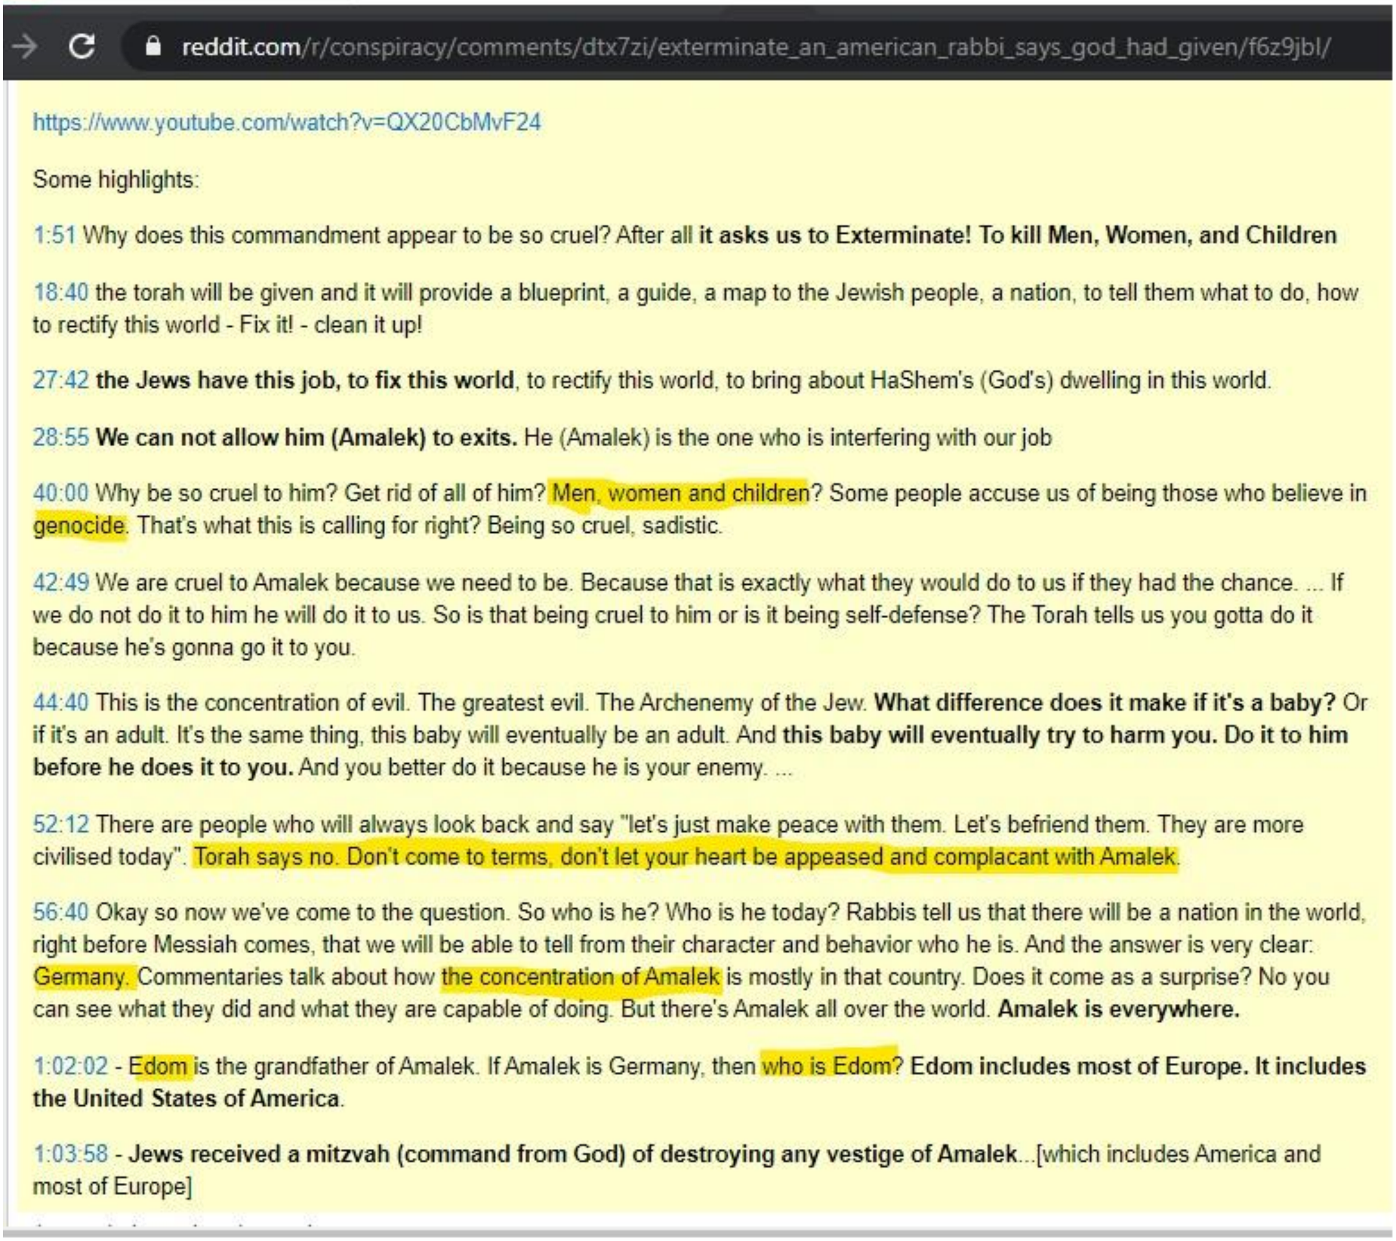
Why the need to Destroy Amalek? Can we identify who he is?

7200beverly • 41,611 vistas • hace 6 años

This lecture series, "The 70 Most Difficult Questions in Judaism" delivered by Rabbi Elyahu Kin between 2007-2009, discusses ...



reddit.com/r/conspiracy/comments/dtx7zi/exterminate_an_american_rabbi_says_god_had_given/f6z9jbl/

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=QX20CbMvF24

Some highlights:

1:51 Why does this commandment appear to be so cruel? After all it asks us to Exterminate! To kill Men, Women, and Children

18:40 the torah will be given and it will provide a blueprint, a guide, a map to the Jewish people, a nation, to tell them what to do, how to rectify this world - Fix it! - clean it up!

27:42 the Jews have this job, to fix this world, to rectify this world, to bring about HaShem's (God's) dwelling in this world.

28:55 We can not allow him (Amalek) to exits. He (Amalek) is the one who is interfering with our job

40:00 Why be so cruel to him? Get rid of all of him? Men, women and children? Some people accuse us of being those who believe in genocide. That's what this is calling for right? Being so cruel, sadistic.

42:49 We are cruel to Amalek because we need to be. Because that is exactly what they would do to us if they had the chance. ... If we do not do it to him he will do it to us. So is that being cruel to him or is it being self-defense? The Torah tells us you gotta do it because he's gonna go it to you.

44:40 This is the concentration of evil. The greatest evil. The Archenemy of the Jew. What difference does it make if it's a baby? Or if it's an adult. It's the same thing, this baby will eventually be an adult. And this baby will eventually try to harm you. Do it to him before he does it to you. And you better do it because he is your enemy. ...

52:12 There are people who will always look back and say "let's just make peace with them. Let's befriend them. They are more civilised today". Torah says no. Don't come to terms, don't let your heart be appeased and complacant with Amalek.

56:40 Okay so now we've come to the question. So who is he? Who is he today? Rabbis tell us that there will be a nation in the world, right before Messiah comes, that we will be able to tell from their character and behavior who he is. And the answer is very clear: Germany. Commentaries talk about how the concentration of Amalek is mostly in that country. Does it come as a surprise? No you can see what they did and what they are capable of doing. But there's Amalek all over the world. Amalek is everywhere.

1:02:02 - Edom is the grandfather of Amalek. If Amalek is Germany, then who is Edom? Edom includes most of Europe. It includes the United States of America.

1:03:58 - Jews received a mitzvah (command from God) of destroying any vestige of Amalek...[which includes America and most of Europe]

The Germans are not humans. [...] From now on, the word German causes gunfire. We shall not speak. We shall kill. If during a day you have not killed a single German, you have wasted the day. [...] If you do not kill the German, he will kill you. [...] If it is quiet at your section of the front and you are waiting for the battle, kill a German before the battle. Jewish support for affirmative action actually increased when the poll stipulated that it would harm whites.

Every other group, including blacks, decreased their support for affirmative action when told it would harm whites.

Let that sink in.

13. If affirmative action programs giving preference to blacks and other minorities do result in less opportunities for whites, do you think that's a price worth paying to help blacks and other minorities, or not?

imagine being a jew and having heard you are chosen by god and the most special your whole life.

then you see white people. they are BEAUTIFUL. they made EVERYTHING. you see your own people parasitically draining them and somewhere deep down it arouses you. you see your own people cutting up their babies and pushing negroes on them and it makes you rub your hands together involuntarily.

but you see the things they make, that you can only take. you see your people bleaching their hair, cutting up their noses, getting dental rebuilds, lasering their eyes, forever bleaching cutting implanting desperately trying to imitate these beautiful creatures you were told are just cattle.

something deep inside you remains empty. something you can't steal. and the hatred burns from there.

Getting my shit kicked in by a clan of Jewish boarding school kids for referring to the Torah as "The Elder Scroll". Five or six of them repeatedly soccer-kicking my back and stomach in 7/11 parking lot. When it all ended, I noticed one of their hats had fallen off, and so I let him know. "My friend! Your beanie doth fell," and then they started kicking me all over again. I saw a couple of ambulances pass by, but they belonged to the local Hatzalah and would never rescue someone outside the faith. It's okay though; I stood up on my own. This is the kind of Monday I live for.

Pagan/Gentile Reverence for Nature is Seen as a Direct Threat to Urbanite Jewish Spiritual Hegemony

I would like to invite discussion and criticism of this article which offers a Jewish critique of the pagan worldview:

http://jcpa.org/article/neo-paganism-in-the-public-square-and-its-relevance-to-judaism/archive: http://archive.is/WxZsU

The Jewish author writing for the Jerusalem Center for Public Affairs understandably criticizes several aspects of cheesy neo-paganism and modern superstition, but then he goes on to say some striking things which explicitly identify the traditional and organic pagan/gentile reverence for nature as a direct threat to urbanite Jewish spiritual hegemony (advocating instead the Noahide laws as the correct alternative for gentiles). Here are some key quotes from his polemic which struck me the most:

1.) "The ancient revulsion with regard to paganism felt by adherents of Judaism links up with the need to take stock of these contemporary phenomena…Nature is not sacred and its laws represent barbarity; the Noahide laws represent civil society. There are many reasons for Jewish observers to watch attentively which direction the powerful, renewed interest in nature will take, and what consequences this may have for world Jewry."

2.) "Few people realize — and contemporary German Greens prefer not to be reminded of it — that the first major nature-protection laws were issued, of all places, in Nazi Germany…"

3.) "So soon after Nazism, which proclaimed the same, one has again forgotten what dangers the elevation of nature as a norm brings with it for the handicapped, the sexual outsiders, the elderly and inter-racial societies."

4.) "Halakhah is the antithesis of the laws of nature. The latter are cruel: there is no charity in nature; there is no mercy. There is no safety net in nature for marginal beings….There is no equality in nature or anything resembling democracy. Nature should be feared." (Oy gevalt!)

5.) "Furthermore, I postulate that no nation in the twentieth century has lived as much 'in harmony with nature' as Hitler's Germany."

6.) "Anybody who places nature as the central value in society must be suspect in the eyes of Jews. One should not lump together neo-Nazis, neo-pagans, and extreme environmentalists. Yet all should be watched carefully by Jews, even if the degree of worry they cause greatly differs."

7.) "So what does the return of paganism mean for Judaism? It forces us to focus on the importance of Jewish law and tradition, which proclaims that nature is not the dominant force in the world, nor is it sacred….Nature's laws represent the world of the savage and barbarian; the Noahide laws represent civil society."

8.) "The Jewish agenda is a very long one. Many things assimilated Jews consider important should be pushed down the Jewish agenda. The new outside reality should help us understand that propagating the Noahide commandments to humanity should have had a higher place on this agenda a long time ago."

9.) "Nothing good for the Jews — nor for society at large — can come out of a worldwide strengthening of paganism."

The answer is, about 1/3 - 2/3 a standard deviation above the White mean.
Let's say there's about 12 million (rounding up) Ashkenazi trainwrecks alive today.

At IQ 108 (rounding up), that's about 7% (rounding up) of the Ashy population over IQ 130.
Which means there are about 840,000 Ashy geniuses in the entire world.

There are about 10 million White geniuses in the US alone.
No wonder you're so scared of us.

For the record, absent rounding...

>11.2 million
>IQ 107.8
>6.94%
= 777,280 Ashkenazi geniuses on planet Earth today.

With between 1 in 3 and 1 in 4 Ashys being a carrier for severely debilitating neurodegenerative genetic disorder.

”JEWS LOVE CHRISTIANS”

Israeli police said they arrested a man for attempting to set fire to East Jerusalem's Gethsemane Church on Friday.

The 49-year-old Israeli suspect allegedly snuck onto the Gethsemane Church's premises, poured flammable liquid on wooden pews and attempted to light them ablaze, according to local reports.

He was stopped by Palestinian residents who handed him over to the police, the official Palestinian news agency Wafa reported.

A spokesperson for the firefighters said four teams were dispatched to the site but the fire had "luckily not spread throughout the church".

"Preliminary investigation and the suspect's details strengthen the assessment that the background to the incident was criminal," police said.

Wadie Abunassar, a spokesman for the local clergy, said the suspect was "an Orthodox Jew who set fire to the interior of the church" and alleged there were possible "racist motives" behind the attack.

Christians in Jerusalem want Jews to stop spitting on them

A few weeks ago, a senior Greek Orthodox clergyman in Israel attended a meeting at a government office in Jerusalem's Givat Shaul quarter. When he returned to his car, an elderly man wearing a skullcap came and knocked on the window. When the clergyman let the window down, the passerby spat in his face.

The clergyman prefered not to lodge a complaint with the police and told an acquaintance that he was used to being spat at by Jews. Many Jerusalem clergy have been subjected to abuse of this kind. For the most part, they ignore it but sometimes they cannot.

Israeli TV mocks Crucifixion on Easter 2011
https://www.bitchute.com/video/IsWIkMBmh1av/

You are a Nazi. Yeshu, you are a Nazi!

Note that even the Hebrew use of 'Yeshu' (ישו) in this video and elsewhere is a mockery of Jesus' actual Hebrew name 'Yeschua' (ישוע). Yeshu is a Hebrew acronym for 'May his name and memory be blotted out.'

Naturally, Jesus did sometimes pretend to respect the Law, but whenever he thought he could get away with it, he turned right around and broke that same Law. In Matthew 5:17-19, he declared that he came to fulfill the Law, and in Matthew 23:1-3 he defended the authority of the rabbis. But the rest of the time, he rebelled against the Law—thus showing that his occasional words of piety were meant only to hide his evil agenda. The following sins of Jesus are recorded in the "New Testament":

1. Jesus repudiated the laws of kosher food (Mark 7:18-19). [Compare this to the prophet Daniel's strict adherence to kashrus, in Daniel chapter 1.]
2. He repudiated the laws of honoring one's parents, and called on his followers to hate their parents; he also dishonored his own mother (Matthew 10:34-36; Matthew 12:46-50; Luke 14:26).
3. He violated the Sabbath by picking grain, and incited his disciples to do the same (Matthew 12:1-8; Mark 2:23-26).
4. 4) He again violated the Sabbath by healing a man's arm, which was not a matter of saving a life, and he openly defied the rabbis in his total repudiation of the Sabbath (Matthew 12:9-13; Mark 3:1-5). [Compare this to G-d's view of violating the Sabbath, in Numbers 15:32-36, Nehemiah 10:30-32, and dozens of other places throughout the Bible.]
5. Jesus brazenly defied and disobeyed the rabbis of the Sanhedrin, repudiating their authority (This is recorded in many places throughout the New Testament, but look especially at Matthew 23:13-39 and John 8:44-45).

The Talmud (Babylonian edition) records other sins of "Jesus the Nazarene":

1. He and his disciples practiced sorcery and black magic, led Jews astray into idolatry, and were sponsored by foreign, gentile powers for the purpose of subverting Jewish worship (Sanhedrin 43a).
2. He was sexually immoral, worshipped statues of stone (a brick is mentioned), was cut off from the Jewish people for his wickedness, and refused to repent (Sanhedrin 107b; Sotah 47a).
3. He learned witchcraft in Egypt and, to perform miracles, used procedures that involved cutting his flesh—which is also explicitly banned in the Bible (Shabbos 104b).

>steal land so the ubermensch has enough lebensraum >ignore existing culture and history, only cherrypick the narratives that support your ideas (ie. 'palestine never existed') >play the 'we are so technically and scientifically advanced' card to win support >have strong nationalistic tendencies >have a specific ethnic and religious group as an 'other' >frame the other as barbarians, insects, beasts >oppress, isolate, and relocate civilians, locking them into a walled ghetto and controlling their access to resources >label resistance as terrorism >try to censor criticism, even abroad >try to conflate their nationality with their religious group internationally to provide cover for aggression (ie. our people are being oppressed so we need to annex this territory) >always play the 'everybody is against us' card to win support >invest heavily in the military because 'that is the best investment in our country' >try to win support for their military by showing pics of hot blonde girls >try to project an image of heroism through the conflation of their real life military with fictional depictions >use shock and awe tactics on civilians >exessive group retaliation against a whole village or city for individual crimes >claim lethal violence against civilians was just 'an act of defence'

Wow, Israel must be working off the 'how to be a good Nazi' playbook.

Why are so many Indians in Isr(...)
04/25/21(Sun)22:22:43 No.318618571

25 year old NEET here.

I live in Tel Aviv and when I walk down the street, I literally see hundreds of Indians here.
When I ask them what the fuck they are doing in Israel, they say some shit like they work in Google, construction, restaurants, etc.
What I don't get is, why the fuck are they coming here? Don't they have jobs in India?
Arabs are already a menace, but they don't take high skilled jobs, but now Indians are taking those jobs.
And ironically, a lot of them have Jewish girlfriends/partners. It makes me fucking mad.
A quick Google search shows that there are about 300,000 Indians (read Hindus) in Israel, out of 9 million total population. This shit is seriously fucked.
If our retarded politicians keep importing these subhumans, then Israel will turn into a fucking shithole and we'll all be shitting on the streets.

To anyone coming to Israel as an immigrant, please remember, Israel is for the Jewish people. It is our only Homeland. We don't want you here, especially Indians. Fuck off, we are full.

Aggressive mimicry

From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia

Aggressive mimicry is a form of mimicry in which predators, parasites or parasitoids share similar signals, using a harmless model, allowing them to avoid being correctly identified by their prey or host. Zoologists have repeatedly compared this strategy to a wolf in sheep's clothing. In its broadest sense, aggressive mimicry could include various types of exploitation, as when an orchid

A combination of things. I am not Native American because I did not grow up connected to a tribe. I am ethnically Jewish but not traditionally Jewish, except that I have ties to Jewish Atheism. I am ethnically Welsh enough to be well-embraced by Welsh communities. I'm Tribal.

The antisemitic trolls are acting like they are Jewish to create a divide.

Who does that?

Who acts like another ethnicity for the sole purpose of creating discord among that community?

Absolutely disgusting.

Adam Gadahn, pictured above, is the so called Al Qaida spokesperson who released videos of himself preaching Al Qaida goals and ideology on numerous occasions.

The FBI even have him on their most wanted terrorists list.

It turns out he is a Jew named Adam Pearlman from California. Adam's grandfather, Carl Pearlman, was a prominent surgeon and on the Board of Directors of the Anti-Defamation League!

For example, coke deliveries at Auschwitz from February 1942 to October 1943 amounted to 1032.5 tonnes, an average of nearly 50 tonnes per month which would be 1,800 tonnes over three years. Even at only 1 million dead, that equates to only 1.8 kg of coke per body (and Lech Walesa announced 1.5 million as the official death toll in 1995, revised down from the previous claim of 4 million with no reduction in the headline "six million" total). Zionists have also attempted to explain the wide discrepancy between the "four million" and "somewhat over one million" figures by saying that the former included everyone and the latter excluded non-Jews; hence the true total is still more like four million, which leaves about a pound of coke to cremate each body.

In our universe, it is not possible to do (even multiple) cremations at 1.8 kg of coke per body; 3.5 kg of coke (105 MJ) would just about boil the water if, somehow, it had been extracted and placed in a vessel beforehand - without even beginning to supply the energy required to denature the proteins or heat the firebricks. A realistic estimate of 30 kg of coke per body gives us 2,000 tonnes (say) / 0.03 tonnes = 66,667 bodies capacity.

The Topf firm had managed to extend the lifespan of the firebricks from 2,000 to 3,000 cremations. There is no evidence that any of the 46 muffles at Birkenau ever had any brickwork replaced, which places their maximum capacity at 46 x 3,000 = 138,000 cremations. There are records indicating that firebricks were replaced at one double-muffle oven at Auschwitz I, so the total capacity for its three double-muffle ovens is (6 + 2) x 3,000 = 24,000. So 138,000 plus 24,000 is a maximum nominal capacity of 162,000 bodies.

It takes 60 to 70 minutes to cremate a human body, with modern cremators. Each Auschwitz cremation oven was in existence for about 600 days. They could not be run 24/7, and there was a significant proportion of downtime for repairs and maintenance. If we say 12 hours / 1 hour = 12 cremations per day per muffle for 600 days, the maximum capacity would be 12 x 52 x 600 = 374,400 bodies. Again, even this is well short of one million.

Zionist spin doctors tried to claim that economies of scale were obtained by simultaneously shoving up to eight bodies into the same muffle. In fact, there is not only the problem of a lower absorbing target area to mass ratio, but in addition the gas velocity is increased as the muffle cross-section is effectively reduced (rather as a river must speed up at shallower or narrower sections), hence there is less time for radiative transfer from the gas and a greater proportion of the heat in the products is vented out through the chimney. Modern cremators are more efficient; the AY TONE! Me and Chrissy got a TI calculator and did the math, the whole Auschwitz thing is bullshit, I'm not the smartest goomba but fuck, the stupid kikes say the Krauts never even cleaned the motherfukin ovens out...nothin makes sense Tone.

Human fat wasn't used by Nazis, Israel's Holocaust Museum says

Reuter

JERUSALEM

Israel's Holocaust Museum, rebutting a common belief, said yesterday that the Nazis never made soap from human fat of murdered Jews during the Second World War.

"Historians have concluded that soap was not made from human fat. When so many people deny the Holocaust ever happened, why give them something to use against the truth?" said Shmuel Krakoski of the Yad Vashem Museum.

Israeli Holocaust historian Yehuda Bauer said there is no evidency Nazi Germany used corpses for soap, although it did use skin for lampshades and hair for matresses.

He said many Jews believed murdered families had been turned into soap because the Nazis themselves propagated the idea as "a sadistic tool for mental torture."

Nazis never made human-fat soap

By BILL HUTMAN

Yad Vashem, the Israel Holocaust Memorial Authority, last week upheld the recent statement by Professor Yehuda Bauer, an eminent Holocaust historian, that the Nazis never made soap from human fat.

No documentation exists to back up such allegations against the Nazis, Yad Vashem spokesman Menachem Fogel said. "That is the position Yad Vashem has always held."

Bauer, a professor at the Hebrew University and head of the International Centre for Research on anti-Semitism, said at Wizo House in Tel Aviv, "The Nazis never made soap from Jews because they did not have such technology."

Shmuel Krakoski, archives director at Yad Vashem, explained that the reason many believed, and still believe, that the Nazis made such soap was because during the war the Germans started rumours to that effect.

"What is clear is that soap was made on which the letters RIS were inscribed, and there was propaganda that this soap was made from Jews," said Krakoski. RIS supposedly stood for Rein Idisha Seif.

Ths Nazis did however use the skin and hair of humans to make various products, said Krakoski.

Bauer said that the Nazis carried out many atrocities and there was no need to add false allegations to their already dark record.

The silent holocaust is a phrase that is used to refer to multiple unrelated items.

- Certain Jewish communal and religious leaders have used this term to describe Jewish assimilation (cultural assimilation, religious assimilation) and interfaith marriage of Jews with gentiles.[1][2]

>A Brazilian pastor prayed to God to “destroy the Jews like vermin” and bring about a second Holocaust during a sermon in Rio de Janeiro.

>“Massacre the Jews, God, hit them with your sword, for they have left God, they have left the nations,” Pastor Tupirani da Hora Lores shouted at dozens of congregants earlier this month at his Geracao Jesus Cristo church, a recording of the event shows. His congregants are heard repeating his words passionately.

>“They contrived, went with prostitutes, and when they were told to repent they said they’d do it but they lied,” the pastor said, possibly in reference to the forced conversions to Christianity during the Inquisition.

>“God, what you have done in World War II, you must do again, this is what we ask for in our prayers to you: Justice, justice, justice!” da Hora Lores shouted at his church, a small and radical evangelical congregation.

Sinagoga Sem Fronteiras, a network of Jewish communities in Brazil, filed a complaint for incitement against da Hora Lores with federal police, which said they were looking into the case.

>“With each complaint and lawsuit, in each state, we aim to publicize the offenses and actions taken against offenders so that people will start thinking twice before taking such actions,” Rabbi Gilberto Ventura, the Sao Paulo-based founder of Sinagoga Sem Fronteiras, told the Jewish Telegraphic Agency.

Bugs have six legs stupid, a centipede has like six million legs
A centipede is technically a segmentified polydactite, basically an armored velvet worm, in fact its scientific name basically translates to "hard and snippy velvet worm", and it is the only known bug to suckle its young, despite the fact that it can produce no milk or other sustenance, it is believed that effectively it is nature's first known example of non-human positive thinking.

I was only 7 when I was taken to Auschwitz.
Nazis lured my parents and I onto the train by constructing a false shopfront that read "Interest Free Loans."
Enraged, my parents ran inside, intending to berate the manager for this outrage.
Instead, the doors to a cattle-car folded up behind us and locked, and we were sealed in the darkness of the train to Auschwitz.

The first day we were in the camp, the SS ordered us into the showers.
My parents and I and about 60 others were crammed into a plain concrete room with several showerheads projecting out of the walls.
The Nazis sealed the wooden door to the showers, and we waited, but no water came out of the shower heads.
Instead, only confetti and streamers came out.
At that moment, Mexican ranchero music came blasting out of the camp's public address system.
As the room filled with confetti and various kinds of party-paper, several elderly Jews died of suffocation.
Suddenly, trapdoors in the ceiling opened, and many giant sombreros fell down onto the roomful of Jews, trapping them underneath the colossal straw hats.
Then the SS entered the chamber, in their jackboots, and performed what the camp Kommandant called the "Mexican hat dance" upon the surviving prisoners.
Those who did not suffocate were trampled and crushed beneath the boots of the SS officers as they danced around on the sombreros.

It sounds unbelievable, I know, but it happened exactly that way.
By some miracle, my parents and I survived the mayhem of the Nazi Mexican hat dance.
However, to my sorrow and extreme horror, the SS gathered my parents, crushed and bleeding, from beneath the sombreros.
Laughing, the SS shoved my parents into a large piñata shaped like a giant Mohnzelten, and proceeded to beat them to death while listening to "banda" on loudspeaker.
To my horror, candy spilled out of both my parents' bodies as they were bludgeoned to death.
They'd been experimented on by Nazi doctors.
Horrible as it sounds, it really happened.

You are thinking too much. Don't think about it. Don't try to do basic math and figure up, if it takes an hour and 30 minutes in 2021 to cremate one body, how long would it take to cremate 6 million jews? (Bones and teeth need to be bashed with a special machine after cremation to make the "Dust" the crematorium gives you after cremation- the cremains). Don't think about simple things like, if they are sending people straight off of trains to the gas chambers, why are they keeping babies, elderly and others that cannot work forced labor? Why do they have hospitals and send them to the hospital and dentist in the camps if they are going to be gassed anyway? Why keep mothers with babies, not able to work? Don't think about, if there were really 6 million that died in camps? Why do the tattoo of numbers never go above 5 digits? There are some old documentaries (hard to find now) but they show the allies freeing camps in real time and the propaganda was just starting in those first documentaries, you can see it and it's pretty funny. I saw one that had american soldiers free the camp, and they said the german soldiers had abandoned the camp a few days before the soldiers arrived. The germans had released all the prisoners but the ones that were to sick to leave were left in the hospital, in their beds to fend for themselves. Their jewish friends didn't try to save them, it was apparently every man for himeself. It showed the american soldiers free them and feed them and then they started doing a body count, on all the graves, but the numbers were not adding up there either, so they actually went into town and had the local german population dig up the graves at the local church, looking for where the bodies were hidden, but none were found, and all they found was the normal numbers you would expect from a regular concentration camp. So they brought all the bodies from the local graveyard back to the camp, and photographed them.

It's a fact.
Why?
Because we say so.
That's not what makes something a fact.
It's too hard to disprove something, so rather than doing so we just prevent people from asking.
That still doesn't make it a fact.
We have all collectively agreed that it is.
Still not a fact.
We know we are right.
Why do you know that?
No one has ever proven that we are wrong.
You ban everyone that asks questions or presents an alternative view.
Because they are wrong.
If you have done this so many times surely you have a set of appropriate responses to whatever they say.
We do but it's too much effort, if only we could just make it illegal to question this then everyone would agree it's true.
That's not how the truth works either.
Well I can ban you so you can't do anything about it!
Doesn't make you right...
Banned! Haha now who's wrong?

Crematoriums run at ~1600 degrees F. It takes roughly 2.5 hours to burn off organic matter (still leaving behind bones and teeth that then must be crushed in a separate process).

Heat Energy (calories) = m * c * ΔT m = mass of human (average: 80.7 kg)

c = specific heat of human body (3470 J. kg-1 . K-1)

ΔT = Change in temperature. (cremation temp - room temp)

Room Temperature = 26 °C

1600 °F = 871°C

So: H.E. = 80.7kg * 3470 J/kg*k * (871-26)

H.E. = 236624.5 kcal

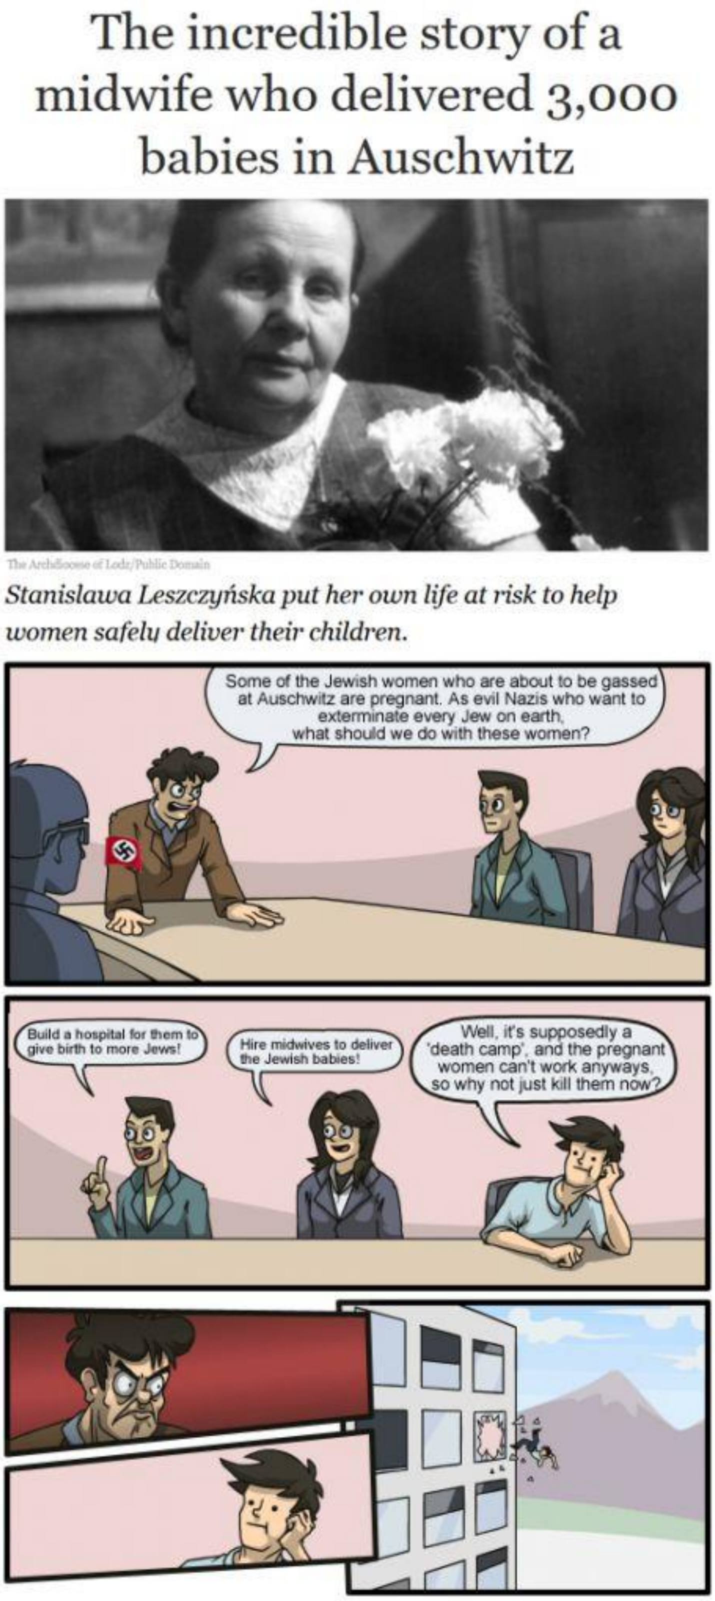
The energy in a kg of coke(coal) is 8000 kcal/kg. So one body would (under IDEAL conditions) take 236625kcal/8000kcal/kg = 29.57 or about 30kg (66 pounds!) of fuel to burn.

To cremate say 3-6 million jews, therefore, it would take around 100,000-200,000 metric tons (220,462,280-440,924,560 pounds!) of coal.

That is an awful lot of coal (i.e. impossible) for a country that couldn't heat its homes, operate its tanks or fly it's aircraft etc. because of beyond-critical fuel shortages.

Also when coal is burnt, it generates around 5-10% of its weight in ash. So, I'll be generous and say 5%. So 9 million kg of ash from the fuel. The average adult leaves ~2.5kg of bone fragments, teeth and ash from cremation. So we have 9 million + 2.5x6million = 24 million kg of ash.

That is a lot of remains to just disappear and leave no trace. Makes one think.



The incredible story of a midwife who delivered 3,000 babies in Auschwitz

The Archdiocese of Lodz/Public Domain

Stanislawa Leszczyńska put her own life at risk to help women safely deliver their children.

Some of the Jewish women who are about to be gassed at Auschwitz are pregnant. As evil Nazis who want to exterminate every Jew on earth, what should we do with these women?
Build a hospital for them to give birth to more Jews!
Hire midwives to deliver the Jewish babies!
Well, it's supposedly a 'death camp', and the pregnant women can't work anyways, so why not just kill them now?

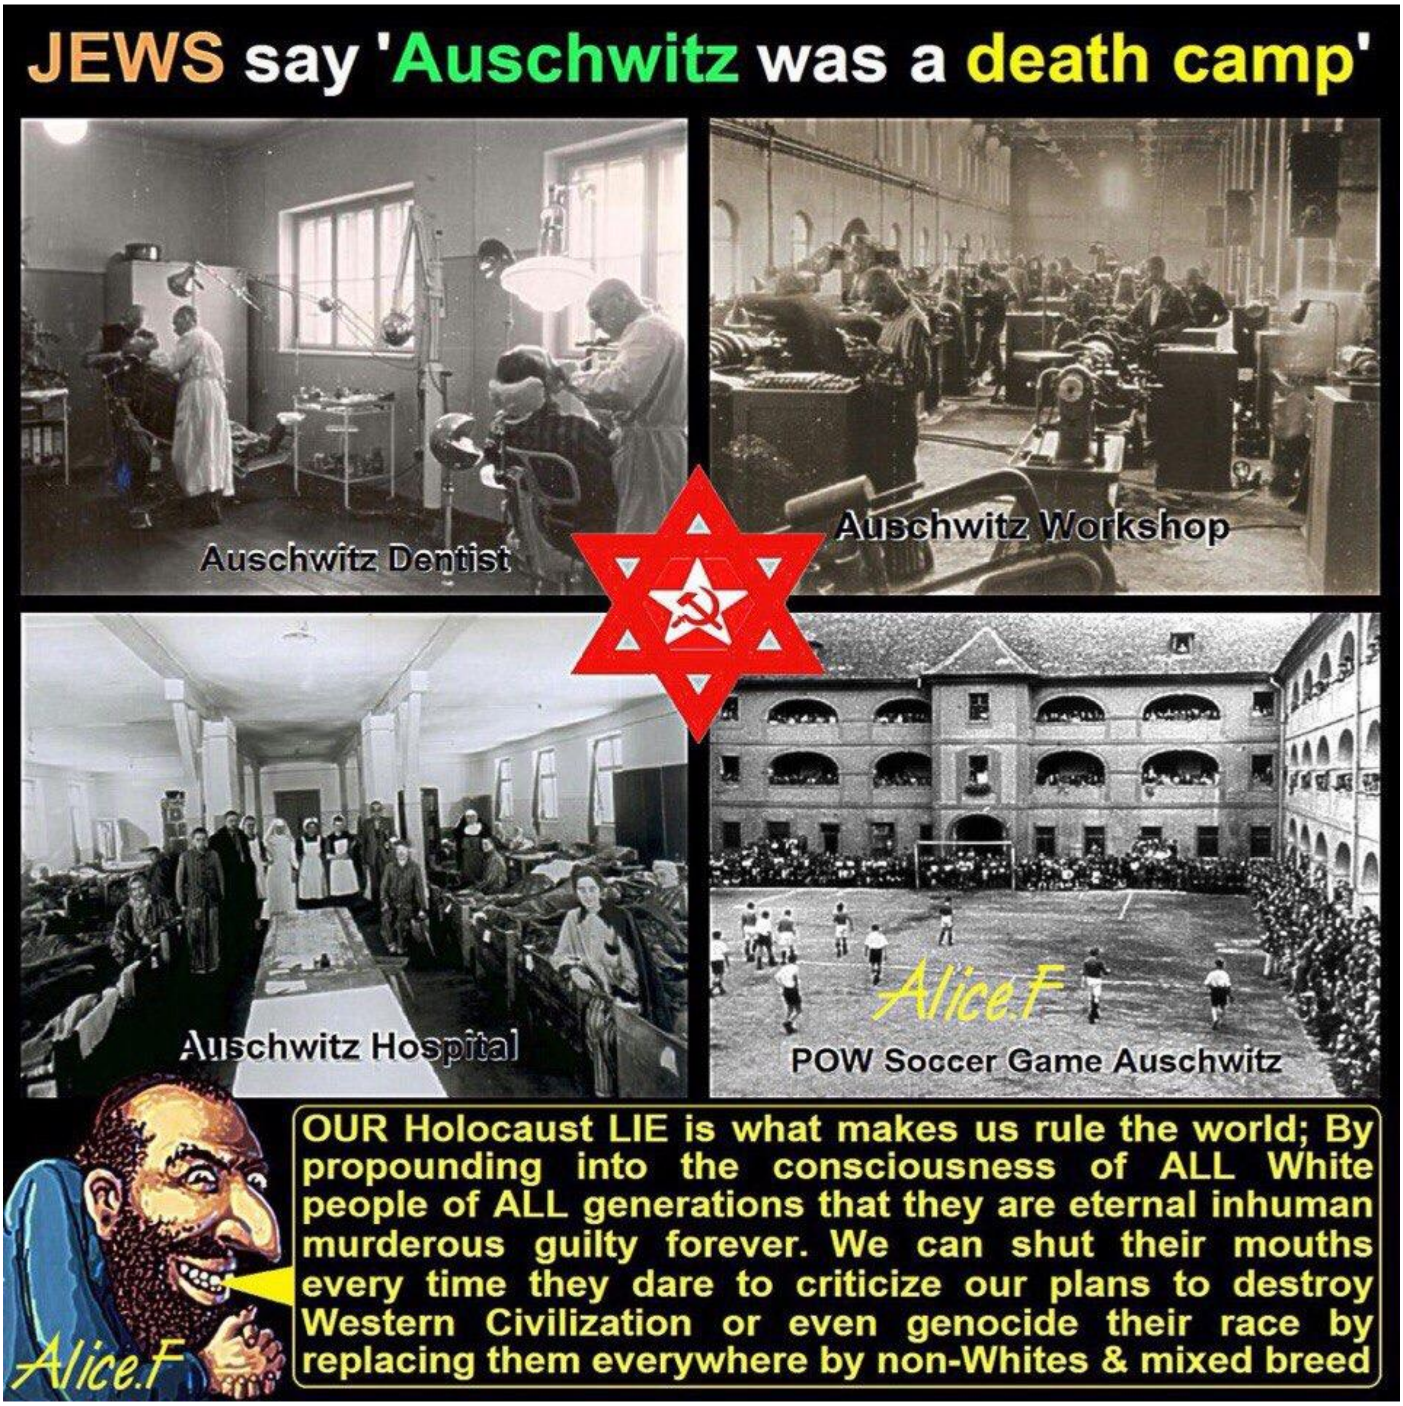
Ay Tone, ain't it a little weird that all them there "death camps" was the same ones the Red Cross didn't do no inspectin on?



OUR Holocaust LIE is what makes us rule the world; By propounding into the consciousness of ALL White people of ALL generations that they are eternal inhuman murderous guilty forever. We can shut their mouths every time they dare to criticize our plans to destroy Western Civilization or even genocide their race by replacing them everywhere by non-Whites & mixed breed out of the 6 million that were killed, only 6 billion were murdered by gas. That leaves a mere 6 trillion that were executed by firing squad and 6 quadrillion, about half, killed by oven and roasted live. Thank you for helping to dispel these anti-Semitic myths

We lost 6,000,000 people during the Holocaust. Did we shut down our economy then? Of course not. This is pure insanity.
